LAND-TAKING IN DORCHESTER.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for a public improvement, consisting of the laying out and construction of Christopher street, Dorchester district, as a highway, from Dorchester avenue to Bispham street, bounded and described as follows: A highway named Christopher street is hereby laid out, from Dorchester avenue to Bispham street, and ordered constructed.

Said highway and the land, exclusive of trees or structures standing upon or affixed thereto, in which an easement for street purposes is hereby taken, is bounded and described as follows:

West by Dorchester avenue, forty and 1-100 feet; north by the northerly line of said Christopher street as hereby laid out, by three measurements, sixty-eight and 44-100 feet, one hundred fourteen and 54-100 feet on a curve of two hundred feet radius and three hundred sixty-three and 48-100 feet; east by Bispham street, forty feet; and south by the southerly line of said Christopher street as hereby laid out, by three measurements, three hundred sixty-three and 54-100 feet, one hundred thirty-seven and 44-100 feet on a curve of two hundred and forty feet radius and sixty-seven and 61-100 feet.

Trees or structures standing upon or affixed to the aforesaid described land shall be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said land for the purpose of constructing said improvement.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the lots of abutting land on both sides of Christopher street, from Dorchester avenue to Bispham street, will receive benefit of advantage other than the general advantage to the community, from the improvement herein ordered, each of the particular lots to the amount respectively set against it herein; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Christopher Street, Dorchester, Assessment Plan, July 11, 1924, William J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department" and on file in the office of said department.

G. A. R. NOT ALLOWED ON "LEVIATHAN."

T. H. Rossbottom, in charge of the United States Shipping Board, telegraphed Mayor Curley on August 11, stating that after consultation with the officials of the Boston Navy Yard they had decided not to permit visitors to go on board the U. S. S. "Leviathan" since it is the intention of the Shipping Board to complete the work of repair within twenty-four hours.

Arrangement, however, have been made with Admiral DeSteigueur of the Boston Navy Yard to permit any and all persons desirous of visiting and inspecting the ships at the Navy Yard the privilege of doing the same.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, August 4, 1924.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at two o'clock p. m., Coun. WATSON presiding, and a quorum present.

Coun. WATSON, in calling to order, said:

The Council will be in order. The acting presiding officer desires to make a statement—that, under the rules of the Council, in the absence of the President, the senior member shall call to order and shall preside until the President arrives. President Donoghue is not here. He is rather late today, and I will preside until President Donoghue arrives. The Council will be in order.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE MAYOR.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 4, 1924.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Subject to confirmation by your honorable body, I appoint the following named persons Weighers of the term ending April 30, 1925: James W. Maher, 35 Hiley street, Jamaica Plain; Joseph N. Morris, 9 Wesley street, South Boston; Nelson B. Coll, 199 Medford street, Charlestown; Wilmot Jones, 41 Temple street, Somerville.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.
Laid over for one week under the law.

VETO—PROBATION OFFICERS, SALARIES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 18, 1924.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I beg to return herewith, without prejudice, but without my approval, the order of the City Council adopted under date of July 14, 1924, providing for increases in salaries of chief probation officer, probation officer and probation officer for wayward and delinquent children in the Charlestown District Court, the report as submitted by the Budget Commissioner being the basis for my action. Upon the compilation of the report of the Budget Commissioner I shall be most pleased to indicate to the City Council his views and my recommendations.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Budget Department, July 15, 1924.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston:

Dear Sir,—In connection with the attached letter of the justice of the Charlestown Court relative to salary increases for probation officers attached to said court I submit the following report.

The Charlestown Municipal Court is one of eight district courts supported by the city. Attached to these courts are twenty-one probation officers, whose salaries are fixed concurrently by the justices of the several courts and the Mayor and City Council acting as County Commissioners. In the past no definite or general policy has been followed in fixing salaries so that today no uniformity exists and salaries in the several courts range from a minimum of $1,500 to a maximum of $2,800.

Since the work of these officers is similar in nature but varying in amount, due to the difference in population and character of the several districts, it would seem desirable that a definite salary schedule covering all courts should be prepared. This schedule, if adopted, would serve as a standard for future increases, and would ensure a reasonable and just treatment of all officers regardless of the court to which attached.

I would therefore suggest that you withhold your approval on the attached recommendation and authorize this office to draw up a salary schedule covering all of the district courts.

Respectfully,
CHARLES J. FOX,
Budget Commissioner.

Placed on file.

APPROPRIATION FOR BANK CASES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 4, 1924.
To the City Council:

Gentlemen,—I beg to present herewith communication received from the Corporation Counsel with reference to national bank tax cases pending in the United States Court and legislation generally affecting taxation on national banks.

The City of Boston has employed at various times during the past two years Hon. John A. Sullivan to represent the city in litigation relative to national bank tax cases and in consequence of his services it has been possible to effect a settlement representing a total saving over the amount originally claimed in excess of $7,000,000.

It is desirable that the services of Hon. John A. Sullivan be engaged at the present time for the further protection of the city's interests and I accordingly recommend the adoption of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That the sum of $5,000 be and the same is hereby appropriated to be expended from Reserve Fund for the appointment of special counsel on all pending matters relative to national bank tax cases. Referred to the Executive Committee.

ABANDONMENT OF SEWER EASEMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 4, 1924.
To the City Council:

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith a communication from Joseph A. Rourke, Commissioner of Public Works, stating that a portion of certain land taken for sewer purposes is no longer required for public purposes, and recommend the passage of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

July 31, 1924
To the Honorable the City Council:

Gentlemen,—The Commissioner of Public Works, having charge of a two (2) foot easement, being the westerly half of the land in that easement in private land off Rockwell street, Dorchester, taken by the Board of Aldermen for sewerage purposes, by a vote dated July 5, 1893, and approved by the Mayor July 6, 1893, respectfully notifies your honorable body that in his opinion said easement is no longer required for public purposes.

Respectfully,
J. A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Whereas, the City of Boston, by order of the Board of Aldermen, passed July 5, 1893, and approved by the Mayor July 6, 1893, took for the purpose of laying a main drain or common sewer, a strip of land on Rockwell street, owned by J. Lowell Parker, four feet wide, and containing approximately five hundred and fifty three square feet; and

Whereas, the Commissioner of Public Works now having charge of said land has notified the City Council that a portion of the same is no longer required for public purposes;

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be and hereby is authorized, in the name and behalf of the city, in accordance with section 15 of chapter 40 of the General Laws, and for a nominal consideration, to execute an instrument abandoning the rights acquired by said taking in the two-foot strip along the westerly side of said parcel, the strip to be abandoned being shown on a plan made by Wm. J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer of the Street Laying-Out Department, dated August 4, 1924.

Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

ICE FOR DRINKING FOUNTAINS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 4, 1924.
To the City Council:

Gentlemen,—I beg to submit herewith order providing an appropriation for furnishing ice for the public drinking fountains throughout the city and respectfully recommend the passage of the same by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be authorized to expend a sum not exceeding $5,500 for the purpose of furnishing ice for the public drinking fountains during the present season, said sum to be charged to the Reserve Fund.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 4, 1924.
To the City Council:

Gentlemen,—I beg to submit herewith at the request of the Commissioner of Public Works order authorizing the expenditure of $153.51 to provide for the payment of an outstanding bill for ice furnished the public drinking fountains last year.

I respectfully recommend the passage of the order by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be authorized to expend an additional sum, not exceeding $153.51, for ice furnished for the public drinking fountains during 1923, said sum to be charged to the Reserve Fund.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

SUPPLEMENTARY COUNTY BUDGET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 4, 1924.
To the City Council:

Gentlemen,—I beg to again submit for action by your honorable body an appropriation order for the County of Suffolk rejected at the last meeting of the City Council.

The statutes require that the City of Boston pay the entire cost of administering the judicial departments of the County of Suffolk. It is most unfair and upon numerous occasions relief has been sought but without avail.

I appreciate and sympathize with the members of the City Council in their hostility to the unfair system which obtains, but until the law is changed there is no other course open for the City of Boston than to provide the money for the conduct of the county departments.

It is necessary that the money be appropriated at this time, otherwise the expenses may be incurred and the cost be borne out of money imperatively required for other municipal purposes.

I accordingly recommend the immediate adoption of the order as here submitted.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

(Accompanying the message was a duplicate of the supplementary county budget, submitted July 28, 1924.)

Referred to the Executive Committee.

McGonagle, late a court officer in the Superior Court, the balance of the salary to which he would have been entitled had he lived and served in said capacity until December 31, 1923; said sum to be charged to the Reserve Fund.
Referred to the Executive Committee.

USE OF SHAWMUT BRANCH.

Coun. GILBODY offered an order—That the Boston Elevated Railway Trustees be requested, through his Honor the Mayor to take the necessary action to carry out the provisions and intent of the legislative act authorizing the electrification of the Shawmut Branch of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad in order to facilitate rapid transit for the Dorchester district at the earliest possible moment.

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. President, I would like to call the Council's attention to the fact that one year and two months have elapsed since any action has been taken on this matter. Our Transit Commission is ready at any time to go forward. Everything is all ready for action, and the citizens of Dorchester, 155,000 of them, are waiting. But the trustees of the Elevated Road, following their usual dilatory tactics, have held the matter up for that length of time, much to the chagrin of the citizens of Dorchester. I know not what sinister reason they may have for holding the thing up, whether it is being used as a weapon to continue themselves in office and to draw salaries at the expense of the citizens, or whether there is some other reason. We simply desire to have a show-down in the matter, and I present this order so that the citizens of Dorchester may obtain some information, may know the reason why there is this delay.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

LIGHTING OF CHELSEA STREET.

Coun. GILBODY offered an order—That his Honor the Mayor be requested to arrange for the installation of a better lighting system on Chelsea street, Charlestown, between City square and Chelsea Bridge.
Passed.

Coun. BRICKLEY—Mr. President, I move a recess.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, I think everybody has a right to take up anything on the calendar without having it carried or defeated by roll call.

President DONOGHUE—The Chair will state that Coun. Healey moved to take the matter from the calendar. The Chair put it to a vote, and it was defeated.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, I now request that No. 8 be taken from the table.

President DONOGHUE—The councilor is out of order, Coun. Brickley having made a previous motion that we now take a recess.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, I don't feel that it takes a vote to take anything from the calendar when we are in session. The calendar is here before us, and I believe it is the right of any member here to ask that No. 8, No. 12, or any designated number be taken from the calendar. It does not require a vote of the Council to decide whether it shall be taken from the calendar. It has already been voted upon once, and is waiting on the calendar for further action, and it is my opinion that it is not necessary to vote to decide whether it be taken from the calendar or not.

President DONOGHUE—The Chair does not so understand it. The Chair understands, a motion to take a matter from the calendar having been made, that if the majority of the Council desire it taken from the calendar they have a right to so vote, or they may vote against it. I have considered it in that light, and I put it to a vote of the Council. If, however, the Council felt that the President was wrong in his ruling, an appeal from the decision of the Chair should have been made at that time.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I think the matter can be simplified if Coun. Brickley will ask unanimous consent to withdraw his motion to take a recess.

Coun. BRICKLEY—Mr. President, I think the question in order is, shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the Council? Such a vote might be taken at this time.

President DONOGHUE—The Chair would state that another motion having intervened since the decision of the Chair, an appeal from the decision of the Chair on that particular matter would at this time be out of order.

Coun. HEALEY—I suppose it would be proper and within parliamentary procedure if after the recess I should call up both Nos. 8 and 9. I don't find that there is any rule of the Council that would prevent that action. So the Council can in that way go on record one way or the other as being in favor of or against 8 or 9.

President DONOGHUE—The Chair would state for the benefit of Coun. Healey, having already ruled that it required a majority vote on a motion to take No. 8 from the calendar, if he should make that motion after the Council reconvenes, having established that precedent, he would, of course, have to continue to rule along that line. If a majority of the members of the Council feel that the President's ruling on the matter is wrong, then they, by majority vote, can so decide. I say that for the benefit of Coun. Healey. I don't want to be put in the position of taking any unfair advantage of any member of the Council. Therefore, for his information, I make that decision now.

Coun. HEALEY—So we President, that statement is satisfactory to me. I believe, of course, that a man must be a majority if his opinion is going to prevail in the body. If there are members who object to Nos. 8 or 9 being taken up, and they have five votes in the Council, there is no use in taking the matter up today. I think that is reasonable, and that the majority should and ought always to rule. I think, however, that Nos. 8 and 9 ought to go through. If there are five votes against them, they are defeated. In order to have Nos. 8 and 9 successfully acted upon, there must be six votes. I accept the statement of the President as being in consonance with the best parliamentary law.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I don't quite agree with the presiding officer. I don't care to appeal from your decision, but I do insist on your reading parliamentary law. If you tell me that it requires a majority of the members to call up a matter on the calendar it is certainly news to me. I believe any single member may call for and have a vote on any matter on the calendar at any time, and I would like to have the presiding officer inform me upon what he bases that decision. If he will show me any parliamentary decision that is in line with his thought, I will be perfectly satisfied; but if he is correct, it means this in substance and in fact, that no matter how meritorious a measure on the calendar may be or how great a need there may be for having it passed, five members of the Council can abrogate the rights of the minority. In other words, if on your calendar there is an appropriation for $1,000,000 and it cannot be taken from the calendar and voted upon except by the rule of the majority—five members, not the six required to pass a loan order,—any five members can at any time delay or hold up an order over the usual time as prescribed by the charter. Now Mr. President, much as I would like to agree with you I cannot permit you or any one alive to take from me my rights. I think you err in this particular matter. If you, after consulting the rules, will find a rule backing up your decision, I will gladly waive my protest. We all err at times. I never knew a man yet who did not make a mistake, and I believe you have made one now in your decision. I think after mature thought you will agree with me. I repeat again that if a loan order comes in for $1,000,000 and has one reading, and then for some reason we do not vote upon it again for a certain length of time, it then becomes a law without our passing it after that certain length of time, under the charter. Now, it takes six votes to pass a loan order here, and if five votes, a majority, can hold that matter here and prevent it being voted on unfavorably, where six votes cannot be obtained, it becomes a law with five votes. I think, Mr. President, you have erred, and I think you are big enough to acknowledge your error after due thought.

President DONOGHUE—The Chair will state that he has allowed a great deal of latitude that probably should not have been allowed in the discussion up to this time, in view of the fact that Coun. Brickley has made a motion that we now take a recess subject to the call of the Chair. The question comes on Coun. Brickley's motion.

The Council voted at 3.10 p. m. to take a recess subject to the call of the Chair, and reassembled and were called to order by President Donoghue at 6.25 p. m.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. PURCELL, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on petition (referred today) for a permit for children to appear at Caledonian Grove—recommending that a permit be granted. Report accepted; permit granted.

2. Report on orders (referred today) for payment to widow of Philip J. McGonagle—that the same ought to pass. Report accepted; orders passed.

3. Report on the message and order (referred today) appropriating $5,000 for National Bank tax cases—that the order ought to pass. Report accepted; order passed, yeas 8, nays 0.

4. Report on the message and order (referred today) appropriating $200 for New England week—that the order ought to pass. Report accepted; order passed, yeas 8, nays 0.

5. Report on the message and order (referred today) appropriating $5,500 for ice for drinking fountains—that the order ought to pass. Report accepted; order passed, yeas 8, nays 0.

6. Report on the message and order (referred today) appropriating $153.51 for ice in 1923—that the order ought to pass. Report accepted; order passed, yeas 8, nays 0.

7. Report on the message and order (referred July 14) for a lease of land on Atlantic avenue—that the order ought to pass. Report accepted; order read once and passed, yeas 8, nays 0.

Assigned for fourteen days for final action.

8. Report on notices (severally referred July 7 and 14) of hearings on gasoline licenses—recommending that the same be placed on file. Accepted.

9. Report on the ordinance (referred July 28) relative to removing park restrictions on land at junction of Beacon street and Commonwealth avenue—that the ordinance ought to pass. Report accepted; ordinance passed, yeas 6, nays 2, Coun. Moriarty and Purcell voting nay.

10. Report on the message and order (referred today) making supplementary appropriations for the County of Suffolk—that the order ought to pass.

The report of the committee was accepted, and the question came on the passage of the order.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I desire to explain my vote briefly on this matter. I agree heartily with the presiding officer regarding protesting the payment of these increases to Suffolk County employees because we have to pay the entire amount of Suffolk County tax. I realize that the jurors must be paid. I think $6 a day is little enough. I realize that there are other matters raised there that call for our action, such as the increased cost of running Deer Island and the jail because of the increased population. As much as I dislike to change my vote, I do not think I could be doing what is right if I did not acknowledge that, under the circumstances, I should change my vote. Therefore, I intend to vote yes, but I wish to raise my protest against the methods of the Legislature in putting the whole tax for Suffolk County on the backs of the taxpayers of Boston.

Coun. WALSH in the chair.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Mr. Chairman, I know that the hour is getting late and that the members of the Council want to get away, and I just want to say briefly, despite what information we have received here today, it is not anything other than what we knew at the last meeting of the Council, when this Council, for the first time in my recollection, stood up for Boston and Boston's citizenship as against the saddling of expenses on to them by Republican legislation. My contentions of course—and there is not any need of my stating my views in regard to this proposition—have been stated fully before on the floor of this Council Chamber. I believe that not one penny should be expended by Boston, or by its executive officers, the City Council or the Mayor, that does not go to a bona fide resident of our city. We have been told that this money must be paid, that the Legislature has said that it must be paid, and that therefore it must be paid. I desire at this time to differ with that opinion. I feel that there is no power on earth that can compel me or any other member of this Council to vote for a proposition which in itself is absolutely unfair, passed by an unfair Republican Legislature on to our Democratic city, saddling unfair and unjust expenses on the backs of Boston's citizenship. We have here, in connection with the increased amounts for jurors and the increased amounts for Suffolk County Jail and Charles Street Jail, other items which increase the salaries of individuals who live in Newton, Malden, Andover, Marblehead, and Brookline. I realize, of course, that it would be folly for us to attempt to strike out any individual amounts in this budget because they would so manipulate it that those whom they cared to favor would receive the increases as against those who are residents of our city. Therefore, I am practical enough to know that we can accomplish nothing by trying to select individuals on this budget to take out of the budget, or this supplementary budget. I also appreciate that those who have addressed us here this afternoon, the Budget Commissioner and the auditor have a right to their slant from a legal viewpoint as to whether or not we must pay this money. They say that, if the money is not appropriated by this Council, it must come from somewhere, and that, if it is not appropriated before the tax rate is declared, it will be paid at the expense of our citizens, the citizens of Boston.

I say that just the opposite is the case, that if we refuse to pay this money, then they are going to be able to provide it only out of funds which are provided now for Suffolk County expenses, and there has never been a time when the present auditor, or the auditors who have preceded him, has ever honored a draft on the reserve fund for Suffolk County expenses. I know that the auditor's opinion on this proposition is similar to mine, and that only by the most direct manner of compulsion will he at any time pay these expenses out of the city moneys. So, therefore, I feel that we should do more than make a mere gesture such as that we made a week ago in holding up this proposition. I believe that we should follow our hand; we should refuse to appropriate one single penny for Suffolk County expenses until such time as the Republican Legislature sees fit to apportion the money fairly upon the town of Winthrop and the cities of Chelsea and Revere. Bills have been introduced by his Honor the Mayor, and by mayors who have preceded him, asking that those expenses be apportioned; but every year it has been the same thing—they have been thrown out of the window by the Republican Legislature, which unjustly discriminates at every opportunity against Boston and its citizenry. I am elected by the votes of Boston and its citizenry, and I consider them first. I stand up here first for Boston; secondly, I then take any other matters into consideration. But there is not a member of this Council that would be elected to office, in my opinion, if the citizenry of our city felt that he would vote any moneys of Boston's taxpayers for Suffolk County expenses; and if that issue were to be raised in any campaign and a man were to stand up and say that he would vote to appropriate Boston's money to be expended for the benefit of the citizens of Chelsea, Revere, Winthrop, Brookline, Andover, Beverly, Newton, or any other section of the state, he would meet a most ignominious defeat. I know and I feel that the sense of the people of our city is that we have been denied the right of home rule long enough. There is not a man or a woman in Boston who lives here, is a bona fide resident here, and, incidentally, I know that our pay roll books are honeycombed with those who reside in every city and town in this Commonwealth. Every one of those jobs belongs to a Boston boy or a Boston girl; every one of those jobs, in my opinion, should first be given in preference to war veterans. We have passed legislation on Beacon Hill giving preference to veterans, but if there is a veteran who lives in Boston that desires a position, how is he going to get it if they are going to appoint someone from Andover? I think that the time is ripe when this Council should take the first step to combat the influence of that Republican Legislature which for years has belittled and discriminated against Boston taxpayers. I stand here, even though I might stand alone, knowing that some day in the not very far distant future Boston is going to have someone that is going to be big enough and have nerve enough to stand up in his shoes and fight for Boston. And until that day arrives, just so long as we supinely bend the knee to the whims of an unfair and unjust Legislature, then so long do we deserve that treatment. But when we stand and fight back, I predict that that Legislature will no longer saddle unfair legislation on to our citizens but will give to us, the capital city of this Commonwealth, that which it gives to every other city and town in the State of Massachusetts, namely, the right to govern itself. Look at the ridiculousness of this proposition. The City of Boston has to go with its hat in its hand every year to ask for a tax limit for the City of Boston, and still they submit a budget here in the nature of a supplementary budget; after having first sent in their original budget, they now send in a supplementary budget for county expenses increasing the amount of their original budget $150,000. What would be the hue and cry if that were to happen in our city? If your mayor were to submit a supplementary budget increasing the salaries of city employees after the original budget had been introduced, when he would go to the Legislature next year asking that a tax limit of sufficient amount to conduct the city's affairs in a decent manner be granted, that would be the first thing they would toss into his teeth. But still they do what they deny us the right to do, and we have much more right to do it than they have. However, I suppose it is votes that count on this proposition and I might talk from now until the end of time and not even influence a vote. I merely want to state my position. I do not care how far they want to go on this proposition, whether it is this or any other proposition; so long as I am a member of this Council, I am going to vote that no moneys be provided for anyone who is not a resident of the City of Boston, and a bona fide resident at that.

The order was passed, yeas 5, nays 3:

Yeas—Coun. Brickley, Gildbody, Healey, Moriarty, Watson—5.

Nays—Coun. Donoghue, Purcell, Walsh—3.

ABANDONMENT OF EASEMENT

Coun. WATSON, for the Committee on Public Lands, submitted a report on the message and order (referred today) abandoning the sewer easement on land on Rockwell street—that the order ought to pass.

Report accepted; order read once and passed, yeas 8, nays 0.

Assigned for fourteen days for final action.

PARKMAN FUND APPROPRIATION.

Coun. GILBODY, for the Committee on Parkman Fund, submitted a report on the message and order (referred July 28) appropriating $69,000 from the income of the Parkman Fund—that the order ought to pass.

Report accepted; order passed, yeas 8, nays 0.

SALARIES OF PROBATION OFFICERS.

Coun. WATSON, for the Committee on County Accounts, submitted a report on the communication from the Justice of the Juvenile Court (referred July 28)—recommending the passage of the following:

Ordered, That the salaries of the probation officers of the Boston Juvenile Court, as determined by the justice of said court, to date from August 1, 1924, be and the same hereby are approved, viz.: May A. Burke, $2,100 per annum; John B. O'Hare, $2,700 per annum; Walter C. Bell, $2,300 per annum; Edward J. O'Mara, $2,300 per annum.

Report accepted; order passed.

REPRINTING OF DOCUMENT.

Coun. WATSON offered an order—That the Superintendent of Printing be authorized to reprint five hundred copies of Document 98, 1922, for public distribution, expense to be charged to appropriation for City Document.

Passed.

JITNEY LICENSES.

Coun. PURCELL, for the Committee on Itinerary Licenses, submitted reports recommending that licenses be granted on petitions, viz.:

Boston Bus Transportation Company, on West Roxbury Parkway.

Boston Bus Transportation Company, on Centre street, from Belgrade avenue to Eliot circle.

Boston Elevated Railway Company, on Eliot, Pond, May and Centre streets.

Boston Elevated Railway Company, change of route from Atlantic avenue to Arch street.

The reports were accepted and the question came on granting the licenses.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I was on the Committee on Itinerary, and I did not know that that committee acted on all those jitney licenses. I will be frank with you, I must have been asleep. I would like to know what they are. I want each one read separately. I made the statement, very plainly, that I did not propose to vote for any more jitney licenses to the Elevated, excepting the one from West Roxbury in to Arlington street, and the change I mentioned today.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, there is no jitney permit being asked from West Roxbury into Arlington street. One has been asked from West Roxbury in to the monument at Centre street, Jamaica Plain. There is opposition to it. The Boston Bus Service Corporation want to put a line in, and the Boston Elevated wants to put a line in.

Coun. WATSON—Put a line where?

Coun. PURCELL—From West Roxbury in to the monument at Jamaica Plain. That is a section of the city which has no service of any kind. In some places you will walk two and a half and three miles to get a car. Faulkner Hospital is in that section, and its management is very anxious to get a jitney line through there.

Coun. WATSON—Where is the permit they asked for?

Coun. PURCELL—That is the one I am talking of.

Coun. WATSON—I thought that came all the way in town?

Coun. PURCELL—They cannot. The Park Department, as you heard said today, is bigger than the City Council and the Mayor of Boston. The Park Department has already thrown out a jitney license from Franklin Park to Park square. The Mayor granted the permit, and signed it, but the Park Department said they could not run.

Coun. WATSON—Well, I want to hear read what is asked for here. I did not know they were passed, or I would have objected to them.

Coun. PURCELL—You say you want competition. Here is the Boston Elevated and this Bus Company competing for a line in this district.

Coun. HEALEY—Mr. President, I understand from the chairman of the Committee on Itinerary that he is giving competition on the West Roxbury line. Are the Elevated and the opposing jitney company seeking a permit on the same streets?

Coun. PURCELL—I believe that is so, Mr. Councilor; but when it goes down to the Mayor's office, the Mayor will decide who is going to run them.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I am not going to give him the chance as far as I am concerned. I would like to have the orders read individually.

The Clerk read the petitions of the Boston Elevated Railway Company and the Boston Bus Transportation Company for permission to operate a bus service in West Roxbury from Belgrade avenue to Centre street, Jamaica Plain.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I do not know who the incorporators are of the Boston Bus Transportation Company, and I would like to know a little more about it. I do not want to delay the members any longer, but it is a pretty important thing. There have been too many of these jitney things going by too quickly.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, I probably can enlighten the gentleman on my left (Coun. Watson). The men that are interested in this Boston Bus line are the men whom the commissioners of the Park Department saw fit to throw down after they had brought over $60,000 to $70,000 worth of buses to this city. Those buses have been hung up in a garage ever since.

Coun. WATSON—Is Mr. Kaplan one of them?

Coun. PURCELL—It is the corporation that had the permit to run into Park square.

Coun. WATSON—Well, Mr. President, in order that I may get full information, I move that they be laid on the table until the next Monday. It is too late now to delay things.

The motion to lay on the table was lost, yeas 3, nays 3.

Yeas—Coun. Donoghue, Healey, Watson—3.

Nays—Coun. Gilbody, Purcell, Walsh—3.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I move reconsideration of the last vote, hoping that the same will prevail. I believe the vote is lost because it is a tie vote. There are eight members present. I presume the other two members have a right to refuse to vote, but I want to say that the time is ripe to compel the Elevated Railroad to reduce rates. Now I do not want to take up your time. If the members will not agree to let this matter lay on the table until next week, I will talk here until 9 o'clock tonight—and I can talk until 9 o'clock if necessary. There is an opportunity, Mr. President. To begin with, I would like to know what the records of the Committee on Itinerary disclose as to who was present and who voted on these different matters. I am a member of the Committee on Itinerary, and I believe the gentleman on my left (Coun. Healey) is. I did not know that these matters were considered by the Committee on Itinerary. Now I think they ought to lay on the table until next week.

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. President, I stood over here and I heard the discussion on them, and the gentleman in his seat over there (Coun. Walsh) heard them also.

Coun. WATSON—I do not doubt but that what the gentleman (Coun. Gilbody) says is true. I did not know that they considered them.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, the gentleman who last spoke (Coun. Watson) was so much interested in Commissioner Shea at the time that he did not hear what was said.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I have the privilege and right to interest myself as I please. I would like to know how many members were present when the matter was voted upon. Perhaps you can tell me.

Coun. PURCELL—The complete membership.

Coun. WALSH—What did they report on?

Who voted in favor?

Coun. PURCELL—I could not tell you that.

Coun. WATSON—Well, now, Mr. President, it does not look good to me at all—this proposition. I trust that the members will not compel me to talk plain English here today. I will say that I object to the passage of this proposition today. I do not know how long they have been before this Council. I would like to ask the Clerk how long these matters were before the Committee on Itinerary.

The Clerk stated that the petition of the Boston Bus Transportation Company was received on the 12th of May, and the petition of the Boston Elevated Railway Company on the 30th of June.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, why all this delay on the part of the Committees on Itinerary? I never knew that the Boston Bus Company asked for this route.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, I do not think it is fair of a man to say that. There has been a public hearing on both of these petitions.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, may I ask when?

Coun. PURCELL—In this chamber here.

President DONOGHUE—The councilors will be in order. Coun. Watson has the floor.

Coun. WATSON—As I remember it, Mr. President, the location applied for before the hearing when I was present was from West Roxbury through the Park system down to Arlington street, and that was a petition by the Boston Elevated Railroad. Were there any others? This new route is new to me. Who made the change?

Coun. PURCELL—The Boston Elevated Railroad.

Coun. WATSON—The Boston Elevated Railroad? They are not running me. Mr. President, I think, as a matter of decency, fair play, and square dealing, this matter should lay on the table for one week and no harm can come from it. What is the matter?

Coun. PURCELL—How about your candidacy?

Coun. WATSON—Never mind about my candidacy. I take care of all my own campaigns, and if I have to lose because I am fighting for a principle, I am willing to lose. I cannot help looking around here. Here is a matter I never heard of until I heard it read here today. The new routes. There is something crooked here—if you want me to use that language. All right, it is a matter of record. I emphasize it—there is something crooked in this proposition, and I ask for time in order to inquire into it. I would like to ask Coun. Healey how he feels in the matter.

Coun. HEALEY—Mr. President, I feel the same way. I understood the new route, of course, was favored by the Hon. Joseph A. Conry. I understand that all right. And the other matter I do not understand that he really was considering that at all. Of course, if it runs along the same route, and if the city has to pay the bills of the Boston Elevated Railway, I believe every nickel taken out of the Elevated Railway means that the citizens of Boston will have to pay the bill if there is a deficit, and that is the reason I am against competition on the route. On the second one, I will not vote in favor of it. I will vote in favor of the petition of the Elevated over the new route arranged by Joseph A. Conry and the Elevated, and I think the Committee on Itinerary.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I am glad that the speaker (Coun. Healey) goes halfway with me. I reiterate—there is something peculiar about this vote, and I do not propose to be placed in the position of being a numbskull at this late day in my life. I have been in city government for eleven years, and I usually know what I am voting on. If I am being "delivered," I propose to protect my reputation. Is that strong enough? If not, I will say more. This proposition does not look good to me. There is a darky in the wood pile. It has waited here since way back in April or so. Why the speed today? I do not propose to delegate to Mayor Curley any of my rights or duties. I appreciate the fact that he is competent to pass upon matters coming to him, but I have just as serious an obligation as he has. I am not sitting here as a dummy. I am not sitting to permit Joseph A. Conry and the Elevated to come to an agreement, unless I know what the agreement is. I do not propose to have orders sneaked through this body unknown to me. Why not let us have a week's delay on this matter? I ask the gentleman on my right (Coun. Purcell), as chairman of that committee, to kindly agree to give me a week to know what I am voting on and whether or not I have been "delivered."

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, would giving the honorable gentleman (Coun. Watson) a week enable him to get the information he wants in that time?

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I will guarantee to vote "yes" or "no" next Monday on this proposition.

The question came on reconsideration of the vote not to lay on the table until the next meeting, and said motion to reconsider was passed.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I move that all jitney applications, excepting that relating to the change of route by the Elevated, be laid on the table until next Monday, excepting, as I said, the proposed change of route on Atlantic avenue.

The motion was carried.

The Council voted to grant the license to the Boston Elevated Railway Company on the petition (referred today) for a change of route from Atlantic avenue to Arch street.

TREMONT STREET WIDENING.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I move reconsideration of all matters passed upon today, hoping that they will not prevail.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, I understood that Coun. Healey was to take up Nos. 8 and 9 from the calendar.

Coun. HEALEY—Oh, yes, Mr. President. The session has been such a lengthy one that I had nearly forgotten the matter. I would like No. 8 called up on the calendar.

(No. 8 is the loan order for the widening of Tremont street.)

President DONOGHUE—Does the councilor (Watson) withdraw his motion?

Coun. WATSON—I withdraw it, Mr. President.

President DONOGHUE—If there is no objection, the motion to reconsider is withdrawn.

Coun. HEALEY—Mr. President, I move that both No. 8 and No. 9 be called from the calendar.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, I move that Nos. 8 and 9 be laid on the table and a public hearing granted. I would like to know who is interested in his project. I think now is the proper time to find out and not come back later on and say that it never came up. I move you, sir, that we have a public hearing in this matter at an early date.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

President DONOGHUE—Is there objection? As there is none, the councilor may make a statement.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, the only way in which I could make a fight on this proposition is by securing unanimous consent to make a statement. I realize that a motion to lay on the table is not debatable; consequently, I have been given permission to make a statement, and I desire to do so. I understand that the Benevolent Order of Elks, Boston Lodge No. 10, desire action today on the question of the widening of Tremont street. They have been handicapped a great deal because of delay. As I understand it, originally they had plans drawn to erect a magnificent building, costing a million and a half or two million dollars, the site which they have purchased, based on the present width of Tremont street, but because of this act of the Legislature for the widening of Tremont street they find it necessary to change their plans to conform to the new width. They are handicapped to a great extent in selling bonds and securing building loans because of their failure to move forward. They desire to break ground immediately. They have had a "drive," and I believe they have raised a large sum of money among the membership of the Elks and their friends. I hold a hundred dollar bond in the building. I understand from the members of the committee—Mr. George Stuart is here, and the Daniel J. Kane, the Exalted Ruler—in order that they may have action one way or the other, they they desire us either to pass the Tremont street widening measure today or defeat it. If necessary, they will go on and build their building according to the plans they now have, which they paid for, to conform to the present width of the street. If they erect their building according to those plans, Tremont street can never be widened at that point without paying at least a million dollars in damages to the Elks. Now it is a pretty serious thing for us to postpone this matter further. I have no interest in the land sharks who hold options on the balance of Tremont street. Unfortunately, this act calls for all or nothing—this million two hundred thousand dollar widening. We cannot divide the question. I know the members here would vote in favor of widening Tremont street at the point where the Elks are going to build if the Elks alone were benefitted; but, after all, that would be rather a selfish interest for us to show, and, to be frank, I lean that way myself. But this question is not whether they shall build there and exempt the rest; it is a question of widening all or nothing. I do not think we ought to delay, but with a public hearing on the question of widening Tremont street. The public are in full information on the matter. Nobody will object to widening Tremont street, in my opinion. I may be wrong. And why prolong the question? You are going to pass it eventually. Public necessity will demand that we pass it. Who is going to stand in the way of progress even though some people improperly secure benefits from the street widening? Supposing some of these highbrow land sharks benefit by the widening, eventually all the people will benefit because that widening is essential and necessary, even though many will benefit who own the land or hold an option on it—many of them, to use the term of the day, who have been unfriendly to me and will continue so. But why go to work and keep out those who are deserving in order to get even with those who are undeserving? I would like to ask for a suspension of this Council hearing for five minutes in order that the Executive Committee might have a hearing and permit Daniel J. Kane, Exalted Ruler of the Elks, and Mr. Stuart of the committee, to explain to us what their wishes are in the matter. If they desire to permit delay, I do not object; if they insist upon action now, I say we ought to have it. Now I am talking longer than I intended to. I probably have imposed upon the Council in taking this length of time; but we have all been taking time today which we ought not to have taken. I am as guilty as anybody. This is an important matter. Intimidation will not pass this measure; cool, collected reasoning will; and I will ask any member of the Council to try to give me a reason, or a sensible reason, or a reasonable reason, why we should not act for or against this measure today. On No. 9 on the calendar perhaps we can wait. That means the erection of only a four million dollar building where they will break ground immediately and put some of the unemployed to work. That does not mean anything, of course. It does not mean a thing to some people. It does to me. If as many people called at your door, fellow members, for employment—skilled mechanics, laborers, bricklayers, tinsmith workers—as call on me, you will know the necessity for providing employment at his crucia time. And why delay these things? I do not know what further to say, Mr. President. You have given me unanimous consent to make a statement, which I appreciate, and I ask that unanimous consent be given to Coun. Purcell in order that he may give a reason which he considers sufficient for further delay on this proposition. I move unanimous consent be given Coun. Purcell.

President DONOGHUE—The question comes on the motion of Coun. Purcell to lay the matter on the table.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President—

President DONOGHUE—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, I do not want the gentleman (Coun. Watson) who spoke ahead of me—

President DONOGHUE—The councilor is out of order unless he receives unanimous consent of the Council to make a statement.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I move that Coun. Purcell be given unanimous consent to make a statement.

President DONOGHUE—The motion is out of order. The question comes on the motion of Coun. Purcell to lay the matter on the table. All in favor will say "aye;" opposed, "no." The ayes have it.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, I doubt the vote.

President DONOGHUE—The vote is doubted, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The Clerk called the roll, with the following result:

Yeas—Coun. Donoghue, Purcell, Walsh—3.

Nays—Coun. Gilbody, Healey, Moriarty, Watson—4.

The motion was lost.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I have no desire to take advantage of conditions. I am interested, particularly and primarily, in permitting the Elks—

President DONOGHUE—There is no motion before the House.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I move that we take No. 8 from the calendar.

President DONOGHUE—Coun. Watson moves to call up No. 8 on the calendar.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I move you, sir, at this time that we give permission to the Exalted Ruler of the Boston Lodge of Elks and the committee an opportunity to state to the Council what their wishes are concerning this proposition.

Coun. BRICKLEY—Mr. President, the committee from the Elks have been here before, and I think the time has arrived now when the question should be put before the body for a vote. I do not see any need of their coming in here again. They have been in here once.

Coun. WATSON—I am perfectly agreeable to that.

Coun. BRICKLEY—I ask that the question be put.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, am I out of order if I have something to say?

President DONOGHUE—You are in order.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, I would like to correct the statement of the gentleman on my left (Coun. Watson) when he suggests that I am voting on this because it is an Elks' proposition, or anything like it.

Coun. WATSON—I do not think you are.

Coun. PURCELL—I ask for a public hearing for one reason. When Tremont street was first suggested to be widened it was to be widened on the other side, which I think is the proper place to widen. It was passed by the Legislature and left to the Street Commissioners. Now, if this is widened on the right-hand side going from here, you are taking so much land away from the Elks; you are cutting out a hotel on which the owner has spent $150,000—you are wiping him out of business; you are taking another hotel this side of the Elks and wiping that out of business; and you are wiping another man out of business who has just built a building on the corner of Stuart and Tremont streets. Why? Because one certain theater in this town put the ropes out and got things working to shift it to the other side. That is why I want a public hearing, Mr. President. Let us have it out and see why. There was only one theater, one place that would be wiped out, and the only thing they would lose is the foyer in behind their entrance. Mr. McDonald, the man who is putting this deal through, tried to give 10 feet gratis to the City of Boston, and because the Wilbur theater people came across, in my estimation, it did not go through. That is the reason why I demand a public hearing.

Coun. WATSON—Come across to me?

Coun. PURCELL—"Come across" is right. I do not say you or anybody else. At the proper time I may say who. That is the reason why I want a public hearing. And, as for the Elks, I am an Elk, and I voted for it at the first reading because I was an Elk, but I reserved the right on the second hearing to vote against it, and I am going to vote against it this time. If you are going to take so much away from the Elks and make a smaller building, I am opposed to it, and any man that is an Elk ought to be opposed to it. Let the Elks build their building there. Let us have the widening on the other side. The Boston Elevated Railway Company has tracks up behind a lot of old houses there which are not in use. The cars coming out of the tunnel go across the street and block traffic in every direction. Why not run them up on their land in the back of those houses from Broadway Extension to Arlington Square; why not let the Elevated run their tracks up in there? Widen Tremont street in the right way and give the people of Boston and give the automobilists a chance to come down Tremont street. You are just making it 100 per cent worse, because if you do that the Elevated will have to put its tracks farther over, and you are putting those cars right across the street. Now you have a chance, and I believe in widening at this time. That is the reason why I am opposed and why I am voting against it.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, of course the gentleman (Coun. Purcell) did not refer to me when he said that he inferred that the people "came across" because he knows that I am immune from that kind of stuff. The gentleman (Coun. Purcell) raised an argument concerning widening on the other side. It will cost something like $600,000 or $700,000 in damages if they widen over across the street at the corner of Hollis and Tremont streets. If they widen on the left-hand side of the street it will take some of the valuable property at the junction of Shawmut avenue and Tremont street. Now I am not going to argue about what might have been, and I am not going to argue from the standpoint of the Elks because they are not entitled to any more than anybody else—they ask for no more. The Elks can stand on their own feet; they do not ask for any favors from anybody. I was here when they gave a magnificent hospital to the Government on Parker Hill. They ask no defence or favors from anybody. It is a business proposition. They are erecting a building there, and they want to know whether or not they can proceed now, or whether they shall be held up longer. And their financial matters are tied up. It is not a question of whether McDonald is to benefit. Of course he is. If it was not McDonald it would be somebody else who would have the benefit. McDonald is not my friend any more than he is yours, but, if he is going to benefit, and others are going to benefit likewise, "the greatest good for the greatest number" is my motto.

I do not want to see this matter defeated today, though I believe the Elks will be satisfied. They want action. I have been told so by Mr. Stuart, one of the committee. They want to know where they are at. Either pass it or defeat it today. And I trust that, in the interest of progress, independent of the fact that some unworthy people will benefit financially, perhaps, and it may be a land scheme, perhaps—they all are; these great improvements do not come from anybody who is disinterested; somebody is interested always right-fully and properly, or wrongfully and improperly; and therefore, without further words, I trust that, today, we will vote favorably on the widening of Tremont street for the public good.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, some three or four weeks ago I voted yes and reserved the right to change my vote when the matter was taken up for second reading. I am going to vote yes today, believing to a great extent, as Coun. Purcell believes, that, in so far as the widening is concerned, they are taking the wrong side of the street. I feel that they should have taken the other side of the street, but I am not a Street Commissioner. The Street Commissioners are going to be responsible if this act goes through and the right side of the street is not widened. I feel that plans are already drawn providing for a taking on the side on which the Elks are to be located. My sympathy runs with the Elks, and this matter has been held up for some time. The Elks are borrowing money for the purpose of building. They have a lot of land. Of course, if that side of the street is not going to be widened, they want to build to the front of the street. In so far as making their building any smaller is concerned by taking 20 feet on their side, it is not going to make their building one bit smaller; but if they now start to build and build with a set-back of 20 feet, surmising that some day the widening project will go through, they are going to be in a very peculiar position; and for that reason I am going to set my judgment one side and, for the purpose of allowing the Boston Lodge of Elks an opportunity to erect their building and go along, I am going to vote yes.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, I do not see how it is a matter of the Boston Lodge of Elks erecting their building or not erecting it. They have plans ready now, so I understand, to erect their building out to the curbstone. Why can't they go along with them? I am absolutely opposed to the widening of Tremont street on the other side, and, as I say, if we have a public hearing it will bring out just who is behind this thing, and when we do it will open the eyes of the citizens of Boston and the newspapers will have something to headline. I am still going to vote against the widening of Tremont street, and I am as good an Elk as any man in the room.

President DONOGHUE—The question comes on the passage of the order. The Chair desires to state his belief that this matter should have a hearing, that there should be a public hearing on it, but that in view of the fact that a majority of the members of the Council want to take a vote on this proposition today, the Chair is going to vote against it. I see no crying need for widening of Tremont street at this particular time without an opportunity being given for any public hearing on the matter. The Clerk will call the roll.

Coun. HEALEY—Mr. President, may I inquire of those who are opposed to this order how much delay they want for this public hearing?

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, I will not put the motion again for a public hearing. It has been decided, and I demand a vote.

Coun. HEALEY—Mr. President, I am going to vote in favor of the proposition. I was always in favor of the proposition on the very general lines that it was a good thing for business; but if the matter is going to be decided simply and solely because a public hearing will not be held, if they agree to have the public hearing next Monday I will vote for it. It will not make any difference in my vote on the proposition. I intend to vote for the proposition on Tremont street and also on Kneeland street, because I think they are for the best interests of the City of Boston. If the opponents of the measure assure us that they will have the public hearing on next Monday, I will vote to go through with the public hearing next Monday.

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. President, I would like to say that I voted primarily, I will admit, for the Boston Lodge of Elks, but I think it requires serious consideration, and I think, now that it is evident that the order will not be passed, that we had better use our better judgment and postpone it for one week or until some day when we can have a public hearing on the matter. I think that we have already discussed this matter at length, and let us use our common sense, study the situation up there, and have a public hearing. I therefore move that we lay it on the table and that a public hearing be held on the proposition.

President DONOGHUE—Coun. Gilbody moves that the matter be laid on the table.

Coun. WATSON—I believe it is not debatable, is it, Mr. President?

President DONOGHUE—No.

Coun. HEALEY—It may be amended, though, Mr. President, with the understanding that a public hearing—

President DONOGHUE—Coun. Watson has the floor. Do you yield to Coun. Healey?

Coun. WATSON—No; if I have the floor I am going to keep it. Mr. President—

President DONOGHUE—Coun. Gilbody moves that the matter lay on the table, and, if that motion prevails, then Coun. Gilbody will move that a public hearing be held. That motion will be debatable.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President—
President DONOGHUE—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I ask the councilor (Gilbody) to withdraw his motion. I desire to make a statement. If the members are interested in liking it, go to it.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President—
President DONOGHUE—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. MORIARTY—I rise to amend the motion.

President DONOGHUE—The motion to lay on the table is not amendable.

Coun. MORIARTY—For time?

President DONOGHUE—No time is specified.

Coun. MORIARTY—Can't I amend it in so far as time is concerned?

President DONOGHUE—No amendment can be made.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President—

President DONOGHUE—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. PURCELL—In opposition to laying this matter on the table.

President DONOGHUE—The question is not debatable.

Coun. BRICKLEY—Mr. President—

President DONOGHUE—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. BRICKLEY—To call up No. 9 on the calendar.

President DONOGHUE—The motion is out of order. The motion has been made to lay No. 8 on the table.

Coun. HEALEY—Mr. President—

President DONOGHUE—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. HEALEY—To seek information from the gentleman who moved the motion, which I suppose is entirely in order.

President DONOGHUE—It is not in order.

Coun. BRICKLEY—Question, Mr. President.

President DONOGHUE—The Chair has stated that the motion of Coun. Gilbody was to lay the matter on the table, then Coun. Gilbody will move to hold a public hearing, which will be debatable.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President—

President DONOGHUE—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. MORIARTY—I have not heard anybody yet say that after the motion was carried he would make any motion.

President DONOGHUE—The Chair desires to say that Coun. Gilbody made two separate motions: To lay the matter on the table and to hold a public hearing. Both motions cannot be put at the same time.

Coun. MORIARTY—So one of them is out of order, and there is only one motion before the Council.

President DONOGHUE—There is only one motion before the Council, and that is the motion which the Chair has stated—to lay the matter on the table. The question comes on laying the matter on the table. All in favor will say "aye"; opposed, "no." It is not a vote.

Coun. BRICKLEY—Mr. President, I doubt the vote.

President DONOGHUE—The Clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called, with the following result:
Yeas—Coun. Brickley, Donoghue, Gilbody, Healey, Walsh—5.

Nays—Coun. Moriarty, Purcell, Watson—3.

The motion to lay on the table was carried.

President DONOGHUE—Coun. Gilbody.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I seek recognition.

President DONOGHUE—The councilor will be in order. The Chair will recognize Coun. Gilbody because of the fact that he introduced the original motion to lay this matter on the table, and also to have a public hearing. Coun. Gilbody.

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. President, I move that we hold a public hearing on the matter one week from today in this chamber at 3 p. m. before the Executive Committee.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I move, as an amendment, that the Executive Committee be instructed to report next Monday on this matter either for or against after the public hearing.

The amendment was accepted.

The question came on the motion of Coun. Gilbody as amended by Coun. Watson, and aid motion as amended was passed.

Coun. HEALEY—Mr. President, I suppose it would be a forlorn hope to call up No. 9 with the expectation of getting a vote on it; so I therefore move that a public hearing be held on No. 9, and that the Executive Committee be instructed to render a report either in favor of or against No. 9. (No. 9 is the loan order for the widening of Kneeland street.)

President DONOGHUE—Coun. Healey moves that No. 9 be laid on the table. Those in favor will say "aye"; opposed, "no." It is a vote. Coun. Healey now moves that a hearing be given on No. 9 on the calendar at the same time and with the same instructions already adopted for No. 8.

The motion was carried.

GENERAL RECONSIDERATION.

Coun. BRICKLEY moved a general reconsideration of all matters voted upon at this meeting, hoping the same would not prevail. Lost.

Adjourned at 7.45 o'clock p. m., on motion of Coun. BRICKLEY, to meet on Monday, August 11, 1924, at two o'clock p. m.

THE CITY DOLLAR SPENT IN YEAR 1923-24.

For Public Schools, 28.66 cents; (2) Public Works, 13.66 cents; (3) Debt Requirements, 11.61; (4) State Tax and Assessments, 11.08; (5) Police Dept., 8.17; (6) Fire Dept., 6.85; (7) General Government, 4.20; (8) Hospitals and Health, 3.91; (9) County Courts, Etc., 3.70; (10) Institutions and Poor Relief, 3.64; (11) Public Recreation, 3.00; (12) Public Library, 1.37; (13) Public Service Enterprises, 0.15 (due to a slight excess of expenditure over revenue); making a total of 100 cents. This excludes all expenditure from loans, etc., but includes special appropriations from tax levy and other general income, used for public improvements.

The revenue of all departments, $7,719,910, amounted to 18.06 per cent of their gross expenditures for maintenance. The revenue of Public Service Enterprises alone (including Water Service, Ferry Service, Printing Plant, Markets, etc.) amounted to $4,538,919 or 5.88 per cent of total department income. The fractions of the dollar above stated represent net expenditure, computed after deducting department revenue.

Revenue from another class of public service enterprise, i. e., Rapid Transit, for rentals of subways and tunnels, $1,655,475 or $15,642 less than the interest and sinking-fund requirements of the Rapid Transit debt in 1923.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

PROPOSALS FOR LAYING AND RELAYING WATER PIPES IN BONAD ROAD, HILLSIDE AVENUE, METROPOLITAN AVENUE, MARION ROAD, PARKTON ROAD, ROBERTS AVENUE AND RUSSETT ROAD, WEST ROXBURY.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, office 508 City Hall Annex, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for laying and relaying about 2,300 feet of 8-inch and 12-inch water pipe in Bonad road, Hillside avenue, Metropolitan avenue, Marion road, Parkton road, Roberts avenue and Russett road, West Roxbury. A bond will be required for doing the work of a surety company approved by the Commissioner in the sum of fifteen hundred (1,500) dollars, to secure the due performance of the contract and the full protection of the city. Plans and proposals may be obtained at Room 508, City Hall Annex. Each proposal should be inclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Laying and Relaying Water Pipes, Bonad Road, etc." and left at Room 508, fifth floor, City Hall Annex, before 12 m. on Monday, August 25, 1924, with a certified check for two hundred (200) dollars, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read. Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the proposals. If the price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, or the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal containing such price. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or to award the contract as he deems best.

JOSEPH A. ROURKE.

Commissioner of Public Works.
Boston, August 14, 1924. (Aug. 16.)

LINCOLN TABLET, CORNER BROMFIELD STREET AND PROVINCE COURT, DEDICATED MONDAY, AUGUST 11, AT 4.45 P. M., WITH ELABORATE AND APPROPRIATE CEREMONY. TABLET TO GOVERNOR ANDREW ALSO DEDICATED BY MAYOR AND G. A. R.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, MAYOR OF BOSTON, DELIVERED STIRRING AND PATRIOTIC ADDRESSES AT BOTH EXERCISES.

SITE OF THE HOME OF JOHN ALBION ANDREW
WAR GOVERNOR OF MASSACHUSETTS
1861 - 1865
BORN IN WINDHAM MAINE 31 MAY 1818
DIED IN BOSTON 30 OCTOBER 1867

PLACED BY THE CITY OF BOSTON 1914

GENERAL VIEW OF CEREMONIES AT DEDICATION OF LINCOLN MEMORIAL TABLET ON BROMFIELD STREET AND REPRODUCTIONS OF BOTH LINCOLN'S TABLET AND THAT TO GOV. JOHN A. ANDREW.

At the Lincoln tablet ceremonies the Mayor spoke as follows:

Mr. Chairman, Commander in Chief, and Members of the Grand Army, Honored Chaplain, Ladies and Gentlemen:

There is no spot in America more rich in institutions inseparably associated with the march of human progress or the ideals of liberty than our own beloved City of Boston. Boston boasts amongst its proudest possessions, Bunker Hill Monument, the North Church, the Old South Church, the scene of the Boston Massacre, Boston Common itself, and innumerable places of historical interest; and now to this memorable list we add one more,—this tablet,—in loving and grateful memory of America's foremost and best-loved citizen of all time,—Abraham Lincoln.

It was Boston's privilege, seventy-six years ago, to entertain this simple American, whose childhood had been marked by poverty and privation, whose boyhood had been handicapped by deprivation and suffering, and whose early manhood was a constant struggle for better conditions. Seventy-six years ago he came to Boston, the birthplace of American liberty, and here he enunciated those principles of Americanism which, through the services and sacrifices of 2,800,000 American patriots and soldiers, have become the creed and doctrine of a free and United America.

We honor ourselves and Boston in dedicating this tablet to the great Emancipator on this happy occasion and under these pleasing auspices. The children of the future passing along this thoroughfare and looking on those rugged features, on that forehead furrowed with the lines of care and sorrow and suffering, and realizing the significance of this tablet may find in it an inspiration to better and nobler service to their country and a higher fidelity to their flag, the best flag in the whole world, the American Flag.

No American ever sacrificed more, or gave greater proof of his love for his fellow man than the great Emancipator. His life, his service, his sacrifice, his suffering, will prove an inspiration as long

'O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.]

MAYOR CURLEY STILL REFUSES TO MAKE CITY PARTY TO HARVARD BRIDGE TROUBLES. CARE, CONTROL AND RESPONSIBILITY NO LONGER CITY'S, HE REASSERTS.

Mayor Curley, on August 11, forwarded the following communication to GEORGE LYMAN ROGERS, Esq., Secretary, of the Metropolitan District Commission:

GEORGE LYMAN ROGERS, Esq., Secretary
Metropolitan District Commission, 1
Ashburton Place, Boston, Mass.

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge your letter of August 8 relative to the repairs, care and control of Harvard Bridge during the period when you are repairing the same under the provisions of the act of the year 1924.

I have been advised by the Law Department of the City of Boston that as your commission has taken over the bridge in order to make the repairs as required by the above mentioned act that the Cambridge and Boston Bridge Commission has no longer any control of the same.

In a former letter you were informed that the preamble to the above quoted act contained a statement that the bridge was in a condition dangerous for use to the public and the act itself in section 1 provides that you shall make all repairs, and section 5 of the act provides that after the repairs are completed the bridge shall be a public highway and shall be assumed by your commission.

Your commission must fully appreciate the history connected with this legislation. The original intention was to construct a new bridge in place of the existing old bridge. After many hearings before the committee the present legislation was eventually passed. While the act speaks of repairs its intent and purpose is reconstruction of the existing bridge, and as this work was placed in your charge the care, control and responsibility is now yours and no longer ours.

Under the provisions of this act you knew it was dangerous to the traveling public to keep any portion of the bridge open without first making the necessary repairs on the same. Conditions have not changed, and the bridge being dangerous for the traveling public and the duty for making repairs under the provisions of the act being delegated to the Metropolitan District Commission, you should at once make such repairs as will sufficiently protect the public.

Very truly yours,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE, 15 Beacon street, for information relative to the operation of the schools of the city.

TO THE SCHOOLHOUSE COMMISSIONERS, Room 1007, City Hall Annex, for information as to the construction and repair of school buildings.

TO THE BOARD OF EXAMINERS, Room 1001, City Hall Annex, for information regarding the licensing of persons having charge or control of the work of construction, alteration, removal or tearing down of buildings.

TO THE WIRE DIVISION OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT, Fire Department Headquarters, 60 Bristol street, for all information relative to the erection of poles, the building of conduits, the installation of all overhead and underground construction and electrical apparatus, as well as for general information relative to the entire division. To Room 906, City Hall Annex, for permits for the installing of wires and electrical apparatus within buildings in the City of Boston, and for the payment of fees incident to the granting of the privileges above named, and which must be paid in advance.

tion was eventually passed. While the act speaks of repairs its intent and purpose is reconstruction of the existing bridge, and as this work was placed in your charge the care, control and responsibility is now yours and no longer ours.

Under the provisions of this act you knew it was dangerous to the traveling public to keep any portion of the bridge open without first making the necessary repairs on the same. Conditions have not changed, and the bridge being dangerous for the traveling public and the duty for making repairs under the provisions of the act being delegated to the Metropolitan District Commission, you should at once make such repairs as will sufficiently protect the public.

Very truly yours,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

MAYOR PRESENTS JOHN I. FITZGERALD WITH PEN WITH WHICH CAMBRIDGE STREET WIDENING BILL WAS SIGNED.

The Mayor sent the following communication Wednesday, August 20:

HON. JOHN I. FITZGERALD, Chairman,
Democratic City Committee, 15 Exchange Street, Boston.

DEAR SENATOR,—It affords me very great pleasure to present you with the pen with which the Cambridge street widening bill was signed.

The completion of this public improvement will be of great value to Boston, opening as it does a great artery connecting the heart of the city with cities and towns to the north.

With every good wish.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

MAYOR CURLEY CALLS ON CITIZENS OF BAY STATE TO HELP HIM CLEAN HOUSE BY ELECTING HIM GOVERNOR.

DELIVERS ADDRESS AT MARSHFIELD FAIR IN WHICH HE CALLS ATTENTION TO INIQUITIES OF MACHINE GOVERNMENT AND ASKS ALL GOOD CITIZENS TO HELP HIM REMEDY CONDITIONS.

Mayor Curley was the guest of the directors of the Marshfield Fair, Thursday, August 21, and delivered the following address:

The state we live in, where our homes and families are, where all we have and hope to have exists, the state we love and honor, whose achievements, principles and traditions we revere, whose good name we guard with jealousy, the safety and honor of that state, Massachusetts, come first in our affection and duty and are above and beyond any sentiment of loyalty to any party.

Because of this sense of patriotic duty, I appeal to every liberal Republican who sets his state above his party to join with me in the work of redeeming the Commonwealth from the rule of a Republican machine that has corrupted, debauched and dishonored this state for years. It is hopeless to expect a change in men, methods and administration as long as the Republican Party continues in power, for the ring and machine that nominates your party candidates is stronger than them and exacts and receives obedience from them when elected.

I am not going to discuss the merit, character, or accomplishment of the two candidates for the Republican nomination for Governor, Messrs. Fuller and Jackson; you have eyes to see and ears to hear; you have read and heard what each is telling of the political fitness and capacity of the other; and unless both are lying and slandering each other, neither of them is fit to be Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

The political and economic condition of this state today after years of Republican administration and manipulation is deplorable, marked by ever-increasing multiplication of expenses, and the increase and expansion of bureaus and commissions, that remove the people from contact with their government and place a seemingly impassable barrier between them and it.

The most important function of state administration is the supervision and regulation of public service corporations chartered to supply heat, light, communication and transportation to the people, their industry, and business. In order that these corporations might earn reasonable profits upon their investment they were made virtual monopolies; that monopoly might not grow into oppression and extortion commissions were appointed to supervise and regulate their service and prices.

As the commissioners were from the beginning selected by the corporations themselves through their lobbies and the Republican machine, and nominated by the Governor at their dictation, the bureaus and commissions have become the counselors and protectors of the monopolies and the people have been flouted and derided by the bureaucrats and plundered by the monopolies. The Republican Party, through its machine, has fostered the system and its iniquities, and protected those who have betrayed their trusts.

The evils and extortions incidental to this system fall heavily on all the citizens of Massachusetts; Republicans and Democrats have suffered equally from the misgovernment and corruption the system breeds; every home and householder in Massachusetts has had to pay the price of excessive dividends on watered stocks, extravagantly paid officials, needless employees, lobbyists, political henchmen and parasites and all the waste and welter of politically protected enterprises, carefully concealed and carried under various ostensibly proper heads.

Appeals for relief have not only failed, but failure was accompanied by contempt; for the worst offender of the lot, the Public Utilities Commission, has invariably added insult to injury. It is time to destroy the system, clean house and redeem Massachusetts from these monopolies and their insolent and incompetent protectors paid by the state.

No one party can do this work; it must be done by all the people, by men and women of all parties, anxious to be relieved from corporate greed and exaction and eager to abolish official maladministration and remove the shame and scandal the Republican ringsters have fastened on the Commonwealth.

I want you to think these things over; I ask you to look into them yourself. I advise you to look into the members of this widespread oligarchy, the machine, that has your party in its clutches and refuses those outside its corrupt circle either explanation or satisfaction. As decent Americans emulous for clean government, economically administered and conducted in the interest of the people, with honesty and publicity, how long do you propose to allow the mere ties of a false party allegiance to stand between you and your duty to the Commonwealth?

I propose when elected to clean house, to rid the state of this well-organized system of misgovernment and corrupt administration; and I ask you to help me. I have never made a political promise I did not keep when humanly possible; and no combination of corrupt interests and faithless public servants can frighten me or deter me from going through with the work. This is a job for all good citizens of all parties, if Massachusetts is to continue to be a state worth living in.

Already the evil harvest of prevailing conditions, due to Republican machine conditions, is seen in the loss of industries, the high price of living as exemplified in rents and foods and clothing, the increase of unemployment, the social restlessness, the growth of lawlessness, due wholly to corruption and extortion, to administrative indifference, inefficiency and incompetence, to constantly swelling taxation and extravagant wasteful expenditures.

Let us forget for the time being in Massachusetts all party lines and unite to end the rule that has produced these evils; let us remember only that we are men and women of the foremost state in the Union, eager to redeem it from shame and humiliation. I do not propose to intrude myself into your opinion and decisions on national affairs; I only ask your help in righting the conditions in your own home, our own Commonwealth, satisfied that if we clean up Massachusetts, the results will be reflected in the affairs of the nation.

So I appeal to you to give these matters consideration and thought; and when you have reached the only conclusion, that inquiry and investigation can bring, to vote for me in the coming election for Governor, and I will inaugurate the long delayed work of cleansing the government of our state and ridding it of its horde of plunderers and parasites. I will begin the good work the day I sit down in the Governor's chair; you can begin the work on election day by voting to place me there.

Drive out the paid parasites congesting the State House and make 1924 the year of salvation for Massachusetts, the beginning of a new era for our beloved Commonwealth and the betterment of every home in the state. I will do my share. Will you do yours? This is an American's job, a freeman's duty.

AUTHORITY TO DO WORK.

The Mayor has granted the request of the Public Works Commissioner for authority to rough grade on Poydras street, Hyde Park, from River street to Poydras street, with division forces, without advertisement, the estimated cost for labor and material being $2,000.

MAYOR SEEKS TRAFFIC ARTERY TO STRANDWAY.

ASKS PLANNING BOARD TO MAKE STUDY WITH VIEW TO WIDENING SUMMER STREET, FROM ARMY BASE, THEREBY CREATING GREAT WAY FROM CAMBRIDGE TO BEACH.

The Mayor addressed the following communication on Wednesday, August 20:

MR. FREDERIC H. FAY, Chairman, City Planning Board, Boston.

DEAR MR. FAY,—The increasing number of visitors at the Strandway, South Boston, due to the major improvements created there by the City of Boston, renders it advisable that a study be made at the earliest possible opportunity, with recommendations by the Planning Board as to ways and means of providing added conveniences for the public, and minimizing the traffic danger that at present obtains.

In this connection it is desirable that the Planning Board make studies as to the advisability of, first, widening Summer street, from the Army Base to the Strandway; second, paving, with smooth surface, Old Colony avenue, from Dorchester avenue to its terminus at Columbia road, and, third, widening Preble street to a width that will make it conform to the present width of Southampton street at this point, thereby providing a great artery for a continuous thoroughfare from Cambridge to the Strandway.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

CALLS ON AMERICA TO RETURN IN REVERENCE TO THE FATHERS OF THE REPUBLIC AGAINST CONSPIRACIES OF KU KLUX KLAN.

MAYOR CURLEY DELIVERS THRILLING, PATRIOTIC ADDRESS AT G. A. R. CEREMONIES IN COMMEMORATING HOME OF CIVIL WAR GOVERNOR, JOHN A. ANDREW, ONE OF HEROIC FIGURES OF WAR.

One of the great outstanding figures of the War of the Rebellion was Governor John A. Andrew of this Commonwealth, who was one of the three great war governors of that stirring age and one whose intense patriotism, vigorous energy, constant activity and unswerving loyalty were important elements in achieving the victorious results of which Appomattox was the final act.

From '61 to '65 he held up the hands of the immortal Lincoln, giving to the Liberator the unquestioning assurance that whatever treason and treachery might weaken and obstruct his tremendous task of saving the Union, he could count on the unswerving loyalty and devotion of Massachusetts to the national cause; and where Andrew and Massachusetts led, New England would follow.

When Lincoln issued his call for troops to protect the national Capitol from the forces of rebellion, Governor Andrew answered at once and sent the old Sixth Massachusetts Regiment to Washington, and it is significant that these soldiers began their work and their march on a day sacred in the patriotic annals of this Commonwealth, April 19.

The presence of these men in that early stage of rebellion in the national Capital gave cause to the leaders of disunion and secession, saved Washington from invasion and gave the president a breathing spell while reinforcements from the North hurried to the front.

Andrew refused to believe that the southern rebellion was to be a flash in the pan, he understood the temper and ambitions of the southern leaders, and he organized Massachusetts for the coming storm.

He placed the manhood and resources of the state back of Abraham Lincoln and the Union; he recruited regiments and established camps to train them; he pledged the credit of the Commonwealth to the service of the country; he roused the courage and heartened the determination of Massachusetts, sternly discouraged pacifism and weakness, throttled treason and treachery, banished the bogus patriotism of know-nothingism, reincarnated the spirit of revolutionary Massachusetts and made the state a citadel of genuine Americanism, and set an example that inspired the whole North with his own indomitable personality and driving energy.

The patriotism of John A. Andrew burned like steady flame day and night; his activity was as practical as it was seemingly inexhaustible; he drove the forces of disloyalty relentlessly; he gave scant grace to the apologists for treason and the temporizers with treason, and all were made to understand that until rebellion was crushed, freedom enthroned and government of the people safe-guarded, the niceties of law would be set aside and every energy be bent to preserve the state and people, the sources of law.

Whilst it is true that victories are won on the battlefield by armies, it is equally true that the courage and industry of the men and women who toil and prepare the sinews of war that make possible the existence and activity of the armies in the field, are equally responsible for the military results. Here in Massachusetts John A. Andrew organized and directed the forces of industry that kept alive the armies that combatted rebellion: but the greatest of the services he gave America was the organization, stimulation and preservation of the spirit of patriotism and loyalty and its practical utilization in the work of saving the Union.

The wisdom and patience, the courage and leadership of the immortal Lincoln would have been of little worth but for the tenacious co-operation and magnificent loyalty of such leaders as John A. Andrew, whose patriotism was invincible and whose determination was hardened by defeat and disaster. The unflinching allegiance, the unwavering optimism of the men like Andrew of Massachusetts, Curtin of Pennsylvania and Morton of Indiana permeated the whole North, strengthened the hands of the Liberator, and saved the Union.

We do well to mark the home where John A. Andrew lived and worked, that every generation may come here to honor, learn something of his work and character and appreciate the service he gave his state and country. His was a real patriotism, a divine flame burning in the heart of truth and the soul of honor. When in these days we are troubled by the wretched creatures of the night who insult the conscience of America by trickling out bigotry, hatred and civil dissension in fantastic garb and calling it patriotism, let us go back in reverence to the Fathers of the Republic, to the Savior of the Union and the Liberator of the Slave, and to that sterling patriot, John A. Andrew, and invoking their names and achievements, bid these grotesque conspirators go back to the darkness from which they sprang.

As long as Massachusetts endures, and her sons and daughters adhere to the principles and emulate the virtues of the men who made this Commonwealth great and glorious, the name of John A. Andrew will be mentioned with reverence and proclaimed with honor, for the memory of the work he did for human freedom, the integrity of the American Union and government of the people will not die.

LOS ANGELES G. A. R. THANKS MAYOR.

Mayor Curley received the following communication from the Grand Army Comrades of Los Angeles, California, Monday, August 18:

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY.

DEAR SIR,—We, as members of Admiral Robley D. Evans Post No 200, Los Angeles, California, send to you and the members of the City of Boston our thanks for spontaneous welcome tendered us during the 1924 Encampment of the G. A. R.

We shall always feel grateful for the many favors granted us, and wish to give thanks to the Elevated Railway for the free transportation and to their employees for the courtesy, and the same to the managers of the many places of amusement who opened their doors to us.

It is with great regret we leave you for we know that it will be our last encampment in Boston.

Very truly yours,

FRANK J. HAZLETON,
Past Commander Post No. 200.
JAMES A. FORD,
Quartermaster.

ECHOES OF G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

Gen. Andrew S. Burt, of Van Wert, Ohio, National Adjutant General of the Grand Army of the Republic, having concluded his term of office, left for home early Friday, August 15. At the South Station he said, just prior to departure: "I have enjoyed the most wonderful week of my lifetime and I leave Boston with only one regret and that is that I cannot return and vote for Mayor Curley for Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts."

Gen. Gaylord M. Saltzgaber, of Van Wert, Ohio, retiring National Commander in Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, accompanied by Standish Wilcox, his civilian aid, motored to the South Station, with Mrs. Saltzgaber and his personal escort, Friday morning, and started for New York City in order that he might arrive at his destination during the daylight hour, by reason of his impaired eyesight.

Arrangements were made whereby General Saltzgaber was met in New York City by Doctor Griffin, famous Brooklyn oculist, and staff, who will use every professional means to restore the sight of the noted military chieftain. General Saltzgaber will reside at a hotel in Brooklyn near Doctor Griffin's office where he can be constantly treated by the professional expert.

Miss Marion G. Heckman, who served as National Secretary in the administrations of both Commanders in Chief Willett, of Iowa, and Saltzgaber, of Ohio, left with her mother for her home in Des Moines, Iowa, Friday, accompanying General Saltzgaber as far as his Brooklyn destination. Miss Heckman proved one of the most popular young women of the National Encampment, looked after the entire detail of the convention program, and closed her service yesterday of two years as National Secretary, with hundreds of assurances from departing veterans of their love and respect for her devoted service for their cause. Miss Heckman has worked two years without vacation or any slightest cessation of work in caring for the enormous daily correspondence of the National Commander of the Grand Army. She easily proved herself one of the most popular young women in the convention.

Col. J. Payson Bradley gave a farewell luncheon in honor of Gen. Gaylord M. Saltzgaber and Mrs. Saltzgaber.

Other guests included Miss Marion G. Heckman, the National Secretary, who is retiring from office, Standish Willcox, civilian aid, Mrs. Heckman, of Des Moines, Iowa, and Miss Flo Palmer of Von Wert, Ohio.

DEDICATION OF TABLETS.

as the American Republic exists, and the memory of his courage, patience and unwavering determination, his simple democracy and straight thinking will always remain to encourage and inspire them who strive and struggle to overcome the handicaps of birth and fortune. Born on the Kentucky prairie, in a rude log cabin, he was born to conditions of privation and hardship such as few individuals in our day and generation are confronted with. He overcame conditions, he labored for a great ideal, he sought to give substance and reality to the theory in the Declaration of Independence that all men have an inalienable right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, without regard to race or creed or condition.

Lincoln never proclaimed the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness as a right to be enjoyed by only one element of the American population and denied to every other element. In the great Civil War, in the midst of battle, he knew—with the conviction that sustained his whole moral fibre—and recognized only the man garbed in the uniform of blue what was the expression of that man's faith in and fidelity to his country and his God.

Lincoln believed that human slavery should end in America, and 2,800,000 Americans in support of that belief answered his call. They sacrificed from 1861 to 1865 and they are still making sacrifices. Today, on this platform, is the Commander in Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, who visited our city four months ago, and in the last four months God has deprived him of the vision that he formerly enjoyed; but he is here today to honor the Emancipator, and to lead the greatest moral patriarchs that the world ever knew, the Grand Army of the Republic.

Those 2,800,000 Americans made possible the preservation of the Union. Who were they? Were they of the 100 per cent so-called "Ku-Kluxers"? No! The "Ku-Kluxer" was not known from '61 to '65, nor was he known during the period of the World War. He is not known in any war; he is the camp follower, the scavenger of the battlefield; and even as human slavery was destroyed, this unwanted, this unnatural, this un-American pest must be destroyed for the good of America!

Lincoln typified Americanism. Lincoln's broad heart knew no enmity for any man because of his race, creed or color. He loved every man. He believed in the Divine Commandment of Almighty God, "Love thy neighbor," and he died in that belief. So we honor his memory, and we accept this tablet as another shrine to which Americans may repair in the hour of doubt and irritation and trouble, to seek strength, to find comfort, to renew their faith and confidence in the name and memory of America's greatest source of inspiration, Abraham Lincoln.

District 15.—Capt. Michael F. Silva, Engine Company 48; Capt. John J. Gavin, Engine Company 19.

These designations will take effect as of February 1, 1924, except in the cases of those captains who were acting district chiefs previous to that date. In such cases the original date of designation will apply.

II. CORRECTION.

The following correction should be made in General Orders No. 33, c. s., section 1, Paragraph III, under heading "New Fire Alarm Boxes:"

Box 2396 should be changed to read: "Assignments will be the same as for Box 2386."

By order of Fire Commissioner Theodore A. Glynn.

JOHN O. TABER,
Chief of Department.

CLAIMS DISAPPROVED.

The Law Department has disapproved thirty-four claims against the city, aggregating $8,240.90, and they are classified as follows:

Against the Health Department, one, amounting to $266; against the Park and Recreation Department, one, amounting to $40, against the Public Works Department, thirty-two, amounting to $7,934.90.

All these claims have been disapproved for the reason that there appeared to be no legal liability on the part of the city.

MASSACHUSETTS CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS.

The Massachusetts Civil Service Commission announce examinations for desirable positions open in the Boston and Metropolitan districts as follows:

DRAUGHTSMAN, SEPTEMBER 2, 1924.

There are two vacancies at a salary of $2,100 a year.

The duties of this position include field investigations and surveys and charting and drafting of material so acquired.

DAIRY INSPECTOR SEPTEMBER 2, 1924.

The entrance salary is $1,400 per year. Applicants must be not less than twenty-five years of age at the time of filing application. A certificate of date of birth must be filed with the application.

It is desirable that applicants should have pursued sufficient study, including didactic, laboratory, and chemical or field instruction in veterinary medicine, animal husbandry, and dairying, to enable them to judge of the physical condition of the cows and to determine whether the sanitary conditions surrounding the production and handling of the milk, including the feeding of cows, are such as to endanger the quality thereof; and further, if any of the conditions are not up to the standard, the inspector should be competent to co-operate with the producer and improve them. He should be familiar with rules, regulations, and statutes applying to milk and dairy production.

The subjects of the examination, with their respective weights, will be as follows: Training and experience 6; report, 2; practical questions, 3; personality and fitness as determined by an oral interview, 4; total, 15.

Applicants are required to obtain a mark of at least 50 per cent in practical questions, and at least 65 per cent in training and experience, in the oral interview, and in general average in order to become eligible.

Successful applicants will be required to file a certificate from a reputable physician as to their physical fitness for the position.

ENGINEER, SEPTEMBER 2, 1924.

The salary is $2,500 per year.

The duties of this position consist of general engineering work in connection with city planning studies. It is desirable that applicants have technical training in city planning work such as afforded by city planning courses in colleges or equivalent practical experience in city planning work. They should be familiar with the growth and development of the city planning movement in this country covering such matters as street planning, zoning, park and boulevard systems, recreational facilities and all other matters which logically pertain to city planning.

The subjects of the examinations with their respective weights will be as follows: Training and experience, 1; practical questions, 1; total, 2.

Applicants are required to obtain a mark of at least 65 per cent in each subject of the examination in order to become eligible.

Successful applicants will be required to file a certificate from a reputable physician as to their physical fitness for the position.

COUNCILOR MORIARTY DECLINES OFFER BY MAYOR OF SUPER-INTENDENT OF PUBLIC BUILD-INGS.

Mayor Curley received the following communication, August 16:

BOSTON, August 16, 1924.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor, City Hall, Boston, Mass.

My dear Mr. Mayor,—I am exceedingly grateful to you for the consideration which you have accorded me in the tender of the position of Superintendent of Public Buildings. I assure you it would be a very great pleasure to accept of the appointment were it not for the obligations involved in the discharge of the duties of the position which I now hold.

My term as Business Agent of the Sheet Metal Workers does not expire until December, 1924, and believing that my obligation to organized labor, with which I have been affiliated and which I have served for so many years, is deserving of prior consideration, I respectfully decline the position which you have tendered.

I beg to assure you that it is with regret that I adopt this course of action but nevertheless I believe it my duty and in doing so beg to assure you that I shall be most pleased at all times to give my whole-hearted support to the success of the splendid administration which you as Mayor are giving all the citizens of Boston.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES T. MORIARTY.

EXTENSION OF CONTRACTS.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The Gamewell Company have been allowed to extend the time of completion of their contract for furnishing and installing equipment in the new fire alarm headquarters for 120 days from the time the building is thoroughly dried out.

This extension of time is necessary owing to the fact that the building is not yet ready for the Gamewell Company to proceed with the work. The Gamewell contract was let sometime before the contract for the building and owing to the delay in starting the building and securing the necessary appropriation it has not been possible for the building to be ready for the Gamewell Company.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

The Cast-Iron Pipe and Foundry Company have been granted an extension of time for completion of the contract for furnishing cast-iron pipe and special castings to the Public Works Department. A communication from Frank P. Rock of the Supply Department was as follows:

BOSTON, August 13, 1924.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,

Mayor of Boston:

DEAR SIR,—Permission is respectfully requested to extend the completion date of the contract for furnishing cast-iron pipe and special castings awarded to the United States Cast-iron Pipe and Foundry Company from July 1 to September
1, 1924.

This request is made because the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad closed traffic during July and the contractor slackened his work accordingly.
The final shipment is now on a barge waiting to be delivered.

Yours respectfully,

FRANK P. ROCK,
Superintendent of Supplies.

MAYOR PRESENTS FLAG AND KEYS OF CITY TO PORTUGUESE AVIATORS.

Mayor Curley gave a luncheon of some thirty people at the Bellevue Hotel at noon, Monday, August 18, to greet the Portuguese fliers. The unexpected arrival of the aviators to this city made it difficult to organize a large formal welcome, but the informality of the lunch added to its enjoyment.

The Mayor made a short address, introducing Major Antonio Brito Paes and Lieut. Manoel Gouveia to those assembled. A rapid review was made of the close relationship of these men with our country through the pioneer discoverer Vasco de Gama, the forerunner of Columbus, who started the movement for early travel on water, and these men who are among the first to further the knowledge of the world airways, which will lead to further progress, the limits of which would be difficult to foretell. He then presented them with an American flag to take home to give to the President of their country in behalf of the City of Boston, in hopes that they would continue in their republican form of government and show themselves as models to the world.

A short address of thanks by Edward Carvalho, the Portuguese Consul to Boston, in his native tongue, thanking the Mayor for the honor granted the aviators, was followed by the Mayor presenting each of the fliers and Joseph Linhares, chairman of the Portugal World Flight Entertainment Committee of Massachusetts, with the key to the City of Boston.

DR. VAN NESS THANKS MAYOR CURLEY FOR AID IN GETTING TO POLAND FOR RELIEF WORK.

Mayor Curley was especially gratified on August 19 to receive a communication from Rev. Thomas Van Ness of 914 Beacon street, the well known local clergyman, who has devoted the present summer to labors in behalf of the residents of the areas stricken during the period of the recent World War.

Mr. Van Ness writes Mayor Curley from Salzburg advising that the credentials given him by the Mayor to the American diplomatic and consular representatives abroad have proved of great service and through the kind intercession of Hon. Leo J. Kenna, Consul General of the United States at Warsaw, all doors have been opened to him.

Doctor Van Ness replies that Poland is recovering very rapidly from the exactions of the World War; that the present harvest is most excellent; that the Polish residents are full of energy and enthusiasm. He regrets to report, however, that the living expenses in Warsaw and in the surrounding country of Poland, because of the taxes made necessary by the cost of the World War, makes living really higher than in Boston at the present time.

CONTRACTS AMENDED.

Joseph Rugo has been allowed to amend his contract for the alteration of West Roxbury Courthouse and Police Station 13, by changing the date of completion as appears on page 41 to read, "October 11, 1924," instead of June 12, 1924.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, August 11, 1924.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at two o'clock p. m. President DONOGHUE in the chair. Absent—Coun. Lane.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE MAYOR.

The Mayor submitted the appointments of John P. Shepard, 12 Belmont street, and Bernard M. Mullen, 279 Princeton street, to be Constables, and Albert J. Dyer, 81 Brooks street, to be a Weigher of Coal.

Laid over for one week, under the law.

TRANSFER FOR HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 11, 1924.
To the City Council:
Gentlemen,—The Community Health Association of Boston, a private organization supported by public contributions, has been interested in the work of district nursing, baby hygiene, mental hygiene, prenatal and preschool work for a period of thirty-eight years.

The Community Health Association of late have been experiencing the same difficulty that has confronted similar organizations in the matter of the raising of funds for the conduct of the particular activities in which they are interested.

The situation has become so acute that they have served notice that they desire the City of Boston to conduct the baby hygiene activities after September 1, 1924, in the following districts: Charlestown, East Boston, North End, South End and West End. The conduct of the baby hygiene activities in these districts will represent an increased expenditure by the Boston Health Department of $25,000 for the remainder of the fiscal year. This work, in my opinion, should be conducted by the City of Boston direct, through its Health Department, and in all probability unless the philanthropic impulse of those who have aided in the past is supplemented by financial aid the City of Boston will be required to conduct similar activities in every section of the city.

Under the circumstances it becomes the duty of the city to provide the necessary money and I accordingly recommend the adoption of the accompanying order, the adoption of which will provide sufficient funds for the conduct of these activities from September 1, 1924, to February 1, 1925.

Respectfully

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor.

City of Boston,

Health Department, August 11, 1924.

Hon. James M. Curley,

Mayor of Boston:

The order was read a second time and again passed, yeas 6, nays 0.

BUILDING OVER EASEMENT.

The Council took up No. 3 on the calendar, unfinished business, viz.:

3. Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be and he hereby is authorized in the name and behalf of the City of Boston, to sell at private sale to Rudolph Dunkel of said Boston for the sum of one hundred (100) dollars the right to erect, construct and maintain a structure or building over a portion of the land taken for sewerage purposes by an instrument of taking recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 2009, page 197, in accordance with a plan approved by the Commissioner of Public Works, dated July 21, 1924, and on file in the office of the Sewer Department of said City of Boston, and to execute and deliver in the name and behalf of the City of Boston a deed of said easement in said premises to said Rudolph Dunkel, satisfactory in form to the Law Department of the City of Boston. The said easement shall be so limited that no building or structure shall be erected or placed upon said premises which shall in any way interfere with the use and maintenance of said sewerage works or be placed or rested upon any part thereof; that no structure or building shall be placed or erected upon the said premises which shall interfere with the right of the City of Boston to enter upon the said premises or any part thereof for the purpose of maintaining, constructing or reconstructing said sewerage works as they are now located or may hereafter be located.

On July 28, 1924, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 8, nays 0.

The order was read a second time and again passed, yeas 6, nays 0.

AREAS ON PROVINCE STREET.

Coun. WATSON offered an order—That his Honor the Mayor be requested to inform the City Council whether or not any of the abutters on Province street are using the area under said street either by right or by encroachment.

Passed.

IMPROVEMENT OF CEDAR SQUARE.

Coun. WATSON offered an order—That the Park and Recreation Board be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to put Cedar square on Cedar street, Roxbury, in proper shape.

Passed.

PARK POLICEMEN.

Coun. WATSON offered an order—That his Honor the Mayor consider the advisability of appointing special uniformed policemen and policewomen to have jurisdiction over the Boston Common, Public Gardens and all public parks and playgrounds, and that the said policemen and policewomen be under the direct control of the Boston Park Commissioners.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I think my order is plain enough without any remarks from me, but perhaps a word or two at this time would do no harm. As is well known by all who know anything whatever about city affairs, for a great many years Boston has been without what might be called "Home Rule" or jurisdiction over its several departments. The Finance Commission is one department over which we have no control, and there are others, and one is particularly the Police Department. I have no criticism to make of the Metropolitan Police Department, so called, under the jurisdiction of the Police Commissioner, appointed by the Governor, and confirmed by the Governor's Council, although we will admit, here and there, that there are those on the force who should not be there. Of course, my sympathies were very strong for the old policemen, but the question of their reemployment by the city is a closed book. There is just one way that Boston can take a firm stand concerning home rule, or one way in particular in which they can take their stand, and that is by Council creating, by ordinance, a park and playground police force under the jurisdiction and control of the Park and Recreation Board. We have not taken that position just yet, as I desired to hear from the Executive of the city concerning what he considered the advisable or the feasible way of doing what I believe should be done, and what I believe my colleagues believe should be done. There is just this way—a good way—of making a direct declaration that Boston, by right, should control the Police Department that the taxpayers' money pays for. We cannot take from the control of the state, now, the entire Boston police force, although I believe we will later do so; but we can appoint, by ordinance—or his Honor the Mayor, may, through the Park and Recreation Board—policemen and policewomen who are responsible to Boston, who will serve the City of Boston and serve the Department of Park and Recreation, and his Honor the Mayor, who will have direct control of the same. It may be said, "Why increase the taxes by appointing more policemen and policewomen, when they are not needed?" They are needed. Only this very day I had called to my attention indirectly, through a clergyman of the Church of the Advent, the High Episcopal Church in the West End, that the Rev. Father Evans, a high churchman of the Church of England, so called, knows of conditions on the Boston Common and the Public Garden that are unfit to publish in the public press, because of the lack of police work on the Boston Common and the Public Garden. I can testify myself, as to conditions similar that exist on every playground within the confines of our city. Without police protection children are treated in a way that is not conducive to good living or good morals. The Boston Police Department, under the control of a commission appointed by the Governor, finds itself inadequate to perform the duties that are necessary on our public playgrounds and breathing spots because of lack of officers necessary to properly control law breakers outside of the confines of the public parks and playgrounds. I will talk but a moment longer, because there are things for this Council to do today that are more important, perhaps, in the mind of some people, than the question I am discussing; but I believe that the morals of the growing boys and girls of Boston should be protected. The boys and girls of from thirteen to seventeen years of age are passing through a period of their lives when their morals must be looked after with mighty quickly, for there are many wolves masquerading in sheep's clothing in Boston who are only too willing to debauch the youth of our community.

We hear of the Superintendent of Police sounding a riot call, bringing the police to Pemberton square, where law-abiding citizens congregate at least occasionally, to demonstrate how quickly they can be used against a riot, or against the Ku Klux, perhaps. We are not going to be bothered by the Ku Kluxers; the people of Boston, generally, regardless of creed, race or nationality, whether alien-born, native-born or aliens, are 90 per cent law-abiding. We know what the Police Department of Boston should be doing, rather than showing off their ability to respond to a riot call that will never come, but which is a good piece of publicity for some manufacturer of Gatling guns, or shot guns, or revolvers, that is all, they should be out protecting the youth of our community, and the grown-ups and the property of the taxpayers.

Boston is inadequately policed, and I will not vote for further appropriations for the Police Department, to increase its personnel and size, until conditions in Boston improve; and they are not going to improve as long as Boston is denied home rule. And when the Mayor of this city, be he Peters, Hibbard, Curley, Fitzgerald or Hart, has control of our Police Department, as we have of our Fire Department, our city will be better administered than it is now.

The Fire Department, under the control and supervision of the Fire Commissioner appointed by the Mayor of Boston, is second to none of its size in the world; and in every community in America and abroad, the Boston Fire Department is and has been held up as an example to all communities as of the highest standing, and as first in the fire-fighting forces of the world, under Mayor Curley, under Mayor Hibbard, under Mayor Hart, under Mayor Fitzgerald, and perhaps under Mayor Moriarty or some other of our candidates for the office, they will conduct the Police Department as they have conducted the Fire Department, by home rule, I forgot to mention the other candidate for Mayor, our presiding officer. Now, Mr. President, I have been serious until my last few remarks, and I am serious in them,—either one of them or both of them may be our Mayor,—you cannot tell; that is the possibility of our American citizens. Therefore, I believe that the time is ripe for Mayor Curley to send to the City Council an ordinance providing for the creation and appointment of a Park and Recreation Police Department under the supervision of the Park and Recreation Board. It can be done, and the Legislature cannot stop us, because they are not in session and they will not stop us next year, because I will be up there in the Senate, and James M. Curley will be governor. So much for that. (Applause.) Thank you for the applause, but wait until we win. Now, Mr. President, I think I have said sufficient that the papers of Boston will give some publicity to our real, genuine, practical method of home rule for Boston, in part. The Boston Post will favor it, the American will favor it, the Globe will favor it, and I believe the Herald will see the light and favor it. The Transcript,—perhaps; and the Christian Science Monitor will be neutral. Therefore, no harm will come. I believe I have started something today, Mr. President. I move the suspension of the rules and the passing of the vote.

The rules were suspended, and the order was passed:

RECESS TAKEN

The Council voted at three o'clock, on motion of Coun. WALSH, to take a recess subject to the call of the President.

The members of the Council reassembled in the chamber and were called to order by the President at 5.45 o'clock p. m.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORT.

Coun. PURCELL, for the Executive Committee, submitted a report on the message of the Mayor and order (referred today) for the transfer of $18,772.59 to the Health Department—that the order ought to pass.

Report accepted; order passed, yeas 6, nays 0.

STATEMENT BY COUN. MORIARTY.

Coun. MORIARTY.—Mr. President, I desire to have a piece here that I cut from the "Library Life" made a part of the record, with some few words that I may add, if I may be allowed, without making a motion.

President DONOGHUE—Coun. Moriarty moves that the clipping submitted by him be made part of the Council record. Coun. Moriarty.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, it has been brought to my notice that an employee of the Boston Public Library, one Mr. Frank H. Chase, reference librarian, has received an increase of $900 per year; and the increase came a short time after the clipping that I have handed to you was published. I was also given notice that, last month, there were given increases, one of 50 cents a week, one of $1 a week, one of $1.50 a week, one of $2 and one of $3, given to employees in the Boston Public Library. I feel that it is about time that all other departments connected with the City of Boston, and those of Suffolk County, submit a budget here, and I feel that it is about time that we look after those that are residents of Boston instead of those that are not residents of Boston. It seems to me that if you are a resident of Boston you get an increase of 50 cents to $3 per week, but if you are a resident outside of Boston you get an increase of $900 to $1,500. Last year, in the same department, I find that they gave an increase of $1,500 to the librarian, another man who did not live in Boston up until a very short while ago; so that I feel that the Mayor should be requested by his Council to now ask the Trustees of the Boston Public Library to file a budget for the year 1925-26, and that it be segregated as all other departments of the city are, where increases are going to be given, that they be apportioned through the Mayor, the Budget Commission and the City Council of the City of Boston.

President DONOGHUE—The question comes on Coun. Moriarty's motion that the clipping be made a part of the record.

The motion was carried.

The clipping is as follows:

"LIBRARY LIFE."

Staff bulletin of the Boston Public Library.

Discrimination.

Whenever there is any increase in library salaries, the first reaction is sure to be, not joy at the relief which has come to a fellow employee, not satisfaction that the salary situation has been improved by the raising of the level at some point where it sagged, but indignation and protest. "Discrimination" is heard at every corner; "I have been discriminated against."

Discrimination means judgment—the power to select between the important and the less important. It is the most valuable quality in an executive, vital to the safety and stability of the institution for which he is responsible.

Whenever the city authorities can be prevailed upon to grant additional funds for the increase of salaries, the trustees and the librarian must decide how to apportion the money so as to do the most good. A general increase—either flat or proportional—to all employees allots to each individual an amount so small as to mean little; it doesn't help much, and is soon forgotten. The method generally followed is to select a group, which, for one reason or another, seems to have a special claim, and to give to that group an increase large enough to be significant.

During the war period, the problem which faced the library was the provision of a living wage for those who must either get it here or seek better-paid employment elsewhere. Two or three increases were given with this end in view; and the lower-salaried employees properly reaped almost all the benefit. Discrimination had shown the Librarian that this was the important thing to do.

In every annual report for the past four years, trustees, librarian, and examining committee have agreed in urging the importance, as the next step, of raising the salaries of heads of departments, first assistants, and branch librarians, to figures more nearly commensurate with salaries paid in other similar lines of work, and with those paid for similar service in other large libraries. It has at last been possible to make a beginning in this direction, and the whole staff should be glad that a large and important block of library salaries has been "moved up." Every move of this sort is ultimately a help to the institution and to all who are connected with it.

We have to take our turns. We shall all, I think, agree in the wisdom of the discrimination which gave the first turn to those whose need was most pressing, and which has now at last given its turn, for the most part, to the responsible group who are in charge of the various departments, and who have been recommended for an increase in four successive annual reports.

We believe in discrimination; and we trust its justice, in the future as in the past.

JITNEY LICENSE.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I am going to move that No. 4 be taken from the table; but before I do that, I ask unanimous consent to make an inquiry of the City Clerk.

I would like to know if he knows whether or not there are to be free transfers given by the Elevated Railroad from the buses to the street cars at Eliot square.

President DONOGHUE—The Clerk is not in a position to answer that question.

Coun. WATSON—Then I would like to ask the chairman of the Jitney Committee.

Coun. PURCELL—I believe transfers are to be given into the monument or into Green street.

Coun. WATSON—For a 10-cent fare?

Coun. PURCELL—Oh, yes.

Coun. WATSON—Then I move that we take No. 4 from the table.

The motion was carried.

No. 4 was as follows:

4. Boston Elevated Railway Company or a license to operate jitneys between Centre and Eliot streets and Centre street and Belgrade avenue, over Eliot, Pond, May, Burroughs and Centre streets.

President DONOGHUE—The question comes on granting a license to the Boston Elevated Company.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. Chairman, at a previous meeting I said I would refuse to vote for any further licenses for the Elevated Railroad, that I intended to vote for competing lines, for competition. But since then I have been informed that the independent line that desires to run over the route prescribed in the jitney application, which is No. 5 and No. 6 in the calendar, would charge a straight 5-cent fare with no transfer privileges.

I do not think that is at all enticing, and consequently I intend to vote today for the Elevated Jitney License which is No. 4 on the calendar.

The Council voted to grant the license.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. Chairman, I see a couple of places here vacant—some of the members have gone. I see that the councilor who lives in the West Roxbury district is not here, and I do not know how he would vote if he was here. I was wondering if we were going to meet next Monday, and if so if he should not be given an opportunity to vote. It makes no difference to me.

President DONOGHUE—Coun. Moriarty moves a reconsideration of the vote.

The motion was carried.

President DONOGHUE—Coun. Moriarty moves that the matter lie on the table.

The motion was carried.

TREMONT STREET WIDENING.

President DONOGHUE moved to take from the table No. 7 on the calendar, being the order for a loan of $1,200,000 for Tremont street widening.

President DONOGHUE—The Chair makes this motion at this time because of the fact that, at the last meeting of the Council, various members of the Council insisted that a vote be taken on this matter today. Now, I was prepared to vote on it a week ago, but thought I would like the opportunity of hearing what the people interested in this matter had to say, whether they were in favor of it, or whether they were opposed to it. We have had a public hearing on it, and there has not been one single person who appeared in favor of it. There is not one person who came up here, and without any reservation stated that he was in favor of the widening of Tremont street from the point of Stuart street out to Arlington square. We have had a considerable number of people before this Council, today, or before the Executive Committee, who said they were opposed to it. I want to say that I do not want to be classed as one of those who stand in the way of progress, and I do not feel that anyone can so indict me; but I do want to stand in the position of being one of those who feel that the citizens of our city are entitled to consideration and protection by our votes, as to the spending of their money. If we appropriate $1,200,000 for this widening, eventually the average person, who has to work for a living, is going to bear the burden. Those who own the property along this street, or any other street that has to be widened, eventually shift the amount of money which they are compelled to pay for their proportionate share in connection with betterments, taxes, and so forth, onto the shoulders of those who work by the sweat of their brow; and no matter how much of this money is raised within the tax limit, or how much of it is raised by loan outside of the tax limits, as is authorized in this particular instance by the Legislature, which does not know anything about the conditions in our city—what do men who come from Greenfield and Westfield and other towns in the state know about traffic conditions or know about other conditions in our city? We are the ones who have the final say-so, as to whether this street should be widened at this particular time; and I feel that unless there is a necessity for it, and a public necessity which demands that the street be widened and that $1,200,000 of our citizens' money be expended on this proposition, unless there is some real reason for it existing, I feel that the Council should not appropriate that money. I think there are a great many streets in our city which require widening a great deal more than this street does, and I will just mention one—I will mention Dudley street, from Washington street all the way out to Upham's Corner as, in my opinion, one of the most congested and narrow streets for a main thoroughfare in this entire city; and I would gladly vote, today, to appropriate this money to widen that street. But I do not feel that, with Tremont street as it is today, with Shawmut avenue just newly finished up, that there is any real traffic congestion between the point of Stuart street and Warrenton street; and that is nearly all that can be said by even those that advocate the passage of this legislation from a traffic congestion standpoint; because, once automobiles leave Warrenton street, they can now go either by way of Tremont street or Shawmut avenue, and there is no crying necessity for spending $1,200,000 to widen Tremont street from Stuart street to Warrenton street. Where the street is congested is not going to be touched. Tremont street, in my opinion, is congested from Boylston street to Stuart street, and they tell you that it would require a great deal of money to widen it between Boylston street and Stuart street. Well then, if the problem is to relieve traffic congestion, there is not anyone, in my opinion, that will deny that the greatest congestion is at these points, or between these points; and I would be willing to vote for an appropriation, regardless of how much money it might take, to widen Tremont street, between Boylston street and Stuart street, where I think there is a necessity for such a widening; but to widen Tremont street, from Stuart street out to Warrenton street, and spend $1,200,000, practically, for what little relief there might be for that small section is, in my opinion, out of the question. I think that the property owners are entitled to some consideration. I think that men who have invested their money in property on Tremont street, in the nature of obtaining leases of these properties, are entitled to consideration by this Council, before their entire holdings are wiped out of existence. I feel that the property holders are not the ones who are ultimately going to bear this burden; and I think this Council, today, ought to take a vote upon this matter; because, at the last meeting of the Council, almost every member of it was very exacting that, in order to grant a delay—in order that we might have a public hearing on this proposition—it was only so voted upon the proviso that there would be a vote taken upon this matter today. Therefore it is for that reason that I will move that the matter be taken from the table.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. Chairman, I believe it takes a majority vote to take from the table. Am I correct, Mr. Chairman?

President DONOGHUE—That is correct.

Coun. WATSON—I trust that the Council will not take the matter from the table. Coun. Brickley, who, I am inclined to believe, favors the proposition, and Coun. Lane, who I am very firm in my opinion favors it, are absent; if they were not absent I would not object to taking it from the table. It is a very important proposition, and while I was the one to move, last week, that we have action today, I assumed that on a $1,200,000 proposition, there would be a full attendance of the Council. Coun. Brickley was here, and I believe he has been called away unexpectedly, and Coun. Lane is not here. I trust the matter will not be taken from the table for the reason that I have given, realizing fully that the presiding officer is correct in his statement that we were all desirous of a vote, today; and I think he thought that we would all be here today,—I know that I did, and that we would have a good, clear understanding, and a good, clean, full voting of the full membership; and I think, if he was absent, unavoidably or otherwise, that he would not want a matter of this great importance defeated or acted upon unless he was present, and I certainly would be one to insist upon the matter not being considered in his absence; and I think the Chair—knowing that his idea is positive fairness in all these things—will agree to let the matter lie on the table for another week, under the circumstances; and I therefore trust that it will not be taken from the table.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. Chairman, the councilor just speaking was not interfered with when he took another matter from the table and asked for a vote, and I don't see why he should worry now. He was not worrying then about Councilor Brickley or Councilor Lane.

Coun. WATSON—That was not as important.

Coun. PURCELL—It was just as important as this, because it is giving the people transportation. It was put on the table, because I had the votes to lick it last Monday. Why didn't you vote to leave it on the table, when I asked to leave it on the table?

Coun. WATSON—I will answer that by saying, I don't know why.

Coun. PURCELL—There are a lot of things you don't know why, too.

Coun. WATSON—I know a lot more that I will not tell you about.

Coun. PURCELL—Yes, and a lot that you don't tell. I do not think the councilor is fair in asking that this be laid on the table; I believe that we should have a vote today. I am ready to vote,—I came up here to vote for it. If I thought this was not going to be voted on I would not have come here today.

Coun. WATSON—To vote for it or against it?

Coun. PURCELL—To vote against it.

Coun. WATSON—You said to vote for it.

Coun. PURCELL—I think the gentleman ought to withdraw his motion.

Coun. WATSON—I have made no motion. I am opposing the motion made by the Chair which is that the matter be taken from the table.

President DONOGHUE—The motion is that he matter be taken from the table. All in favor say "Aye," opposed "No." It is a vote.

Coun. WATSON—I doubt the vote.

President DONOGHUE—The vote has been doubted. The clerk will call the roll.

The motion to take from the table was carried: Yeas, Coun. Donoghue, Gilbody, Purcell, Walsh.

Nays, Coun. Healey, Moriarty, Watson—3.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. Chairman, I am obliged to restrain myself,—I do not quite feel as though I can address myself to talk upon this proposition.

I would like to ask for a reconsideration of the last vote, whereby the matter was taken from the table, and I am going to appeal to the fairness of the Council in this matter. I am rather surprised at at least one member of the Council in voting to take this matter from the table. It means the defeat of the order, if we vote on it today; it means that we do not permit two members of this Council to have an opportunity to vote on a proposition that they are entitled to vote on. Ordinary courtesy, independent of any other issue, calls for the postponement of this matter until a full membership of this Council is here. There are enough members of this body to pass this measure,—that is my belief; and by taking this action today a majority of the Council who have voted it from the table are taking advantage, or working a sharp practice, in my opinion. I do not want to,—I will not inform the public, or this Council, what I know concerning this proposition.

Coun. PURCELL—If the gentleman knows anything, now is the time to tell it. I call your bluff, Mr. Watson.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. Chairman, does the gentleman insist upon it?

Coun. PURCELL—All the way,—all the way through; but remember, Mr. Watson, if you say one word that is wrong, I am going to knock you down.

Coun. WATSON. Mr. Chairman, I was brought up a gentleman. I err at times, but no man will knock me down for saying what I believe to be true.

Coun. PURCELL. You have got to say it is the truth.

Coun. WATSON. I will perform my duty here, but I have no desire to wash any dirty linen here.

Coun. PURCELL—I hope you have not. (Coun. Walsh addressed a remark to Coun. Watson.)

Coun. WATSON—No, Councilor Walsh, I will not subsidize for you, or anybody else. Mr. Chairman, I appeal once again to the fairness of the members of this body upon this proposition before us. I ask you, Councilor Walsh, in the interest of fair play and decency, in the interest of your colleagues who are absent and desire to vote on this proposition,—and you, Councilor Gilbody, whose colleague is also absent,—to assist those who favor this proposition in getting a full vote on this matter, and not compelling me to make statements that I know to be true but which I do not want to make in this body. Out of respect to my colleagues I will not today mention what I know; but I will ask if you will postpone this for one week. I promise you, Councilor Purcell, that if you then insist, I will provide you with the opportunity of knocking me down if I do not tell the truth. Therefore Mr. Chairman, I trust that the matter will not be taken from the table.

President DONOGHUE—The Chair will state that the matter has been taken from the table, and the question now comes upon the passage of the order.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, by taking advantage of parliamentary practices, we could defeat the motion of the Chair, if we desired; but this matter is too big a proposition to be carried or defeated by any subterfuge or any turning of sharp corners. This proposition, Mr. President, is either worthy or unworthy. My contention is that the proposition is a worthy one, and that the public will sustain the action of a majority of this Council, who I believe, will vote to pass it if given the opportunity. Therefore, Mr. President, the Chair is in error. The question before the Council is the reconsideration of the matter whereby the matter was taken from the table. I move the reconsideration of the vote that I am talking about.

President DONOGHUE—The Chair will state that, in my opinion, the Chair is not in error, because Council has voted to take this matter from the table. Automatically, the question comes upon the passage of the order. If the gentleman then desires to move a reconsideration, the Chair will accept that motion.

Coun. WATSON—Pardon me, Mr. President; do I understand that, if the matter is defeated, that then I may move a reconsideration of that vote, and have the final vote postponed until the next meeting?

President DONOGHUE—I do not just get that question.

Coun. WATSON—Do I understand if we are defeated on the question of the passage of this order, which has been taken from the table, that I may then move a reconsideration; and if the reconsideration prevails, the vote may then be postponed for one week?

President DONOGHUE—That is true.

Coun. WATSON—All right, Mr. President; then I will follow your suggestion.

President DONOGHUE—The question comes upon the passage of the order. The Clerk will call the roll.

The order failed of passage, six votes being required.

Yeas—Coun. Gilbody, Healey, Moriarty, Watson—4.

Nays—Coun. Donoghue, Purcell, Walsh—3.

Coun. WATSON—I move a reconsideration of the vote, hoping the same will prevail; and if that motion is carried, I will then move that action be postponed until the next meeting.

President DONOGHUE—Coun. Watson moves a reconsideration. The Chair desires to say, in view of what has been said, that those who are opposed to this proposition are not indulging in sharp parliamentary practice, and I think that is true of both sides. That is what we are here for we are here to attend to these matters in a parliamentary manner. No objection has been taken, or has been voiced, as far as I know of, by those who are opposed to this proposition, to allowing those who are in favor of it to make any motion that they desire to make; but I do not believe that those who are in favor of this proposition should cast any insinuations that because of the fact that certain members of the Council are absent, for that reason those who are opposed to the passage of the Tremont street widening are insisting upon a vote on this measure today. Those who are opposed, in my opinion, to the passage of this matter today, are really only following out the wishes of those who are in favor of the proposition; because, one week ago today, it was those who are in favor of this proposition who insisted that the vote be taken on this matter today, and no remarks are justifiable, in my opinion, trying to shift the responsibility of sharp parliamentary practice from those that are in favor of the Tremont street widening onto the shoulders of those who are opposed.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. Chairman, I did not suggest that the opposition had tried any sharp practice. I said I would not take advantage of any sharp practice or subterfuge in not having the matter considered today; that is all I said.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, I want to say that, at the last meeting, I was not insistent. And, in so far as today's meeting is concerned, I made no reference to action today, but I voted against a postponement, and voted against Coun. Gilbody's motion; and therefore as one of those in favor of laying it over today, I was not one of those that was insistent that there be a vote today.

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. President, I would just like to say a word along that line. I made the motion, last week, to lay the matter on the table without any definite time,—to lay it on the table for a public hearing, and it was insisted, then, that the vote be taken today. My motion was amended and consequently I feel, while I have been with the order, as Council knows, that if we are bound by the order of last week, we ought to fulfil our obligation today.

The motion, to reconsider was carried:

Yeas—Coun. Gilbody, Healey, Moriarty, Watson—4.

Nays—Coun. Donoghue, Purcell, Walsh—3.

The order was laid on the table on motion of Coun. WATSON.

Yeas—Coun. Gilbody, Healey, Moriarty, Watson—4.

Nays—Coun. Donoghue, Purcell, Walsh—3.

WILLIAM M. McMORROW,
Collector of Taxes for the City of Boston.

NATIVES AND CITIZENS OF BOSTON AND VICINITY HONORED IN HALL OF FAME.

In the American Hall of Fame, New York City, dedicated in 1901, are inscribed on bronze tablets the names of 56 eminent men and 7 distinguished women deemed worthy of the highest honor on account of their services and attainments. Of the 63 individuals thus selected (up to 1920 inclusive) by an electorate of 100 leading Americans, 27 were natives or for some time citizens of Boston or vicinity. The names of the latter are as follows: Chosen in 1900—John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, William Ellery Channing, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Daniel Webster, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, Horace Mann, Nathaniel Hawthorne, George Peabody, Samuel Finley Breese Morse, Joseph Story, Asa Gray, Gilbert Stuart—total, 13.

Chosen, in 1910—Edgar Allan Poe, Oliver Wendell Holmes, George Bancroft, John Lothrop Motley, Phillips Brooks—total, 5.

Chosen in 1915—Louis Agassiz, Francis Parkman, Rufus Choate, Charlotte Cushman—total, 4.

Chosen in 1920—William Thomas Green Morton, Alice Freeman Palmer. Five additional names every fifth year are to be selected and inscribed until the year 2,000, when the 150 tablets in the colonnade will be complete.

If those who were natives or residents elsewhere in the State are added to the list, the following 7 names increase the total to 34 for Massachusetts or more than half the whole number, viz.: William Cullen Bryant, Jonathan Edwards, Mark Hopkins, Elias Howe, Eli Whitney, Maria Mitchell, Mary Lyon.

If all New England is included, 4 more names will bring up the total to 38 or 60.3 per cent of whole number chosen, viz.: Roger Williams, Henry Ward Beecher, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Emma Willard.

CITY CHARTER CHANGES.

In 1854, 1885 and 1900 important changes in the original City Charter of 1821 were effected for the purpose of improving the methods and efficiency of the City Government. The revision of 1854 (Chap. 448, Stat. 1854) referred to the voters for acceptance, gave the Mayor a qualified veto over the action of the City Council, also the power of removal of appointed officials, besides providing for his election by a plurality instead of a majority vote. The amendments of 1885 (Chap. 266, Stat. 1885) were not submitted to the voters for approval. They transferred all the executive powers to the Mayor, prohibiting the City Council from interference with the executive and administrative business of the City. This was done in order to end the inefficiency resulting from an excessive number of joint committees, a municipal development conforming to the traditions of the outgrown town government.

The amendments of 1909 (Chap. 486, Stat. 1909) cut down the number and powers of the legislative branch of the government to a minimum, the Board of Aldermen (13 members) and the Common Council (75 members) being abolished. For these was substituted a single City Council of nine members to be elected at large for a 3-year term. The Mayor's position was further strengthened by giving him a 4-year term, subject to recall at end of two years, but requiring a majority of the registered voters to make the recall effective. The Mayor's power over appointments was no longer subject to check by aldermen but by a State board, the Civil Service Commission, and City elections were removed from all connection with national and State politics, no primaries nor caucuses being permitted, all candidates for office to be selected by means of nomination papers. The only question in this Act of 1909 which was submitted to the voters was contained in section 35, i. e., whether Plan 1 or Plan 2 should be adopted, the first providing for a term of two years for Mayor and a City Council of 36 members to be chosen in primaries. Plan 2 was adopted by a majority of 3,894. Charter of 1909 amended later as follows: (1) By Chap. 437, Acts of 1910, exempting loans issued for Rapid Transit construction from the prohibition of the establishing of sinking funds, as contained in sec. 26. (2) Chap. 730, Acts of 1914, fixing date of annual municipal election on the sixth Tuesday after the state election instead of in the following January, as in sec. 32; changing the requirement as to signatures on nomination papers to 3,000 for Mayor and 2,000 for City Council and School Committee instead of 5,000 for all, as in sec. 53, also limiting the number of nomination papers issued to 300 for a candidate for Mayor and 200 for other candidates, referring to sec. 54. (3) Chap. 37, Special Acts of 1918, annulling the jurat at end of nomination papers. (4) Chap. 94, Special Acts of 1918, abolishing recall of Mayor, and making him ineligible for re-election, i. e., establishing a single term of four years; but not prohibiting the election of any Mayor for other than consecutive terms. (5) Chap. 288, Acts of 1921, fixing date of the annual municipal election on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in December, also making slight changes as to nominations.

LIQUOR LICENSES AND NATIONAL PROHIBITION.

The national prohibition amendment (i. e., the 18th) to the Constitution, having been ratified by 45 States and becoming effective on January 16, 1920, the legalized trade in intoxicating liquors ceased then. It was supposed to stop about 6 months sooner because of the Federal war regulation providing for prohibition on July 1, 1919, to be effective until the army could be demobilized. But as there was no Massachusetts law forbidding the issuing of licenses after July 1, the Boston Licensing Board issued 702 such for the remainder of the license year with the proviso that the license was no protection against violation of Federal law. After July 1, under Federal law, the only liquor which licensees claimed the right to sell was beer and ale containing not over 2.75 per cent of alcohol. Sales of these lighter beverages continued to October 28, 1919, when Congress enacted a law (Volstead Act) forbidding the sale of any liquor as a beverage containing more than 0.50 per cent alcohol. The validity of this act being widely questioned, the United States Supreme Court upheld it on Jan. 5, 1920, and again on June 7, 1920. The result of this decision was that former applicants for liquor licenses did not apply for them in 1920. The Supreme Court of Mass. later in the year decided that the liquor laws of the State remain in force where not inconsistent with the Volstead Act. The Boston Board therefore issued 146 licenses to druggists and 17 4th-class, permitting sales for non-beverage purposes only. In 1921 there were issued 192 licenses to druggists, 15 4th-class and one 5th-class. On May 17, 1922, Chap. 427, Acts of 1922 (consisting of 27 sections) was approved, providing for the carrying into effect in Mass. of the 18th Federal (i. e., prohibition) amendment. This law is subject to a referendum at State election on November 7, 1922.

By Chapter 392, Acts of 1922, the retailing of non-intoxicating beverages is subjected to license, with fee of not more than one dollar for each year ending April 30.

PUBLIC STREETS IN BOSTON.

Total length of the 2,447 paved (accepted) streets, February 1, 1922, 606.33 miles; total area, 11,459,009 square yards, or 8.47 per cent of the City's total land area. This is exclusive of the private streets (not accepted), numbering about 2,890. 366.10 miles, or 60.38 per cent, are paved with macadam (including 128.03 miles bituminous macadam); 105.66 miles with granite block; 45.50 miles with asphalt; 29.32 miles with gravel; 36.63 miles with asphalt concrete (17.55 m. being bitulithic and 13.71 m. Topeka); 11.69 miles with wood block; 5.42 miles with brick. Old macadam pavement is gradually being replaced with more satisfactory and durable kinds, such as bitulithic, concrete, granite block, etc., $5,138,678 having been expended during the past four years in reconstructing and improving 313 miles of streets and parts of streets. Granolithic sidewalks laid in 1921, 97,049 square yards or about 21 miles, averaging 8 feet wide, 50 per cent of cost assessed on estates benefited.

New highway construction completed in period 1918-1921 includes 13 streets in Boston Proper; 34 in Dorchester; 37 in West Roxbury; 14 in Roxbury; 24 in Brighton; 6 in East Boston; 3 in Hyde Park; 4 in South Boston, and 1 in Charlestown, roadway pavement bitulithic, or asphalt surface on concrete, and bituminous macadam. Gross debt outstanding February 1, 1922, for all street construction, including damages, $22,267,141 or $925,700 more than in 1921, this increase due to new loan for Stuart St. construction.

REAL ESTATE ASSESSMENT PER CAPITA IN CITIES.

According to assessed valuations for 1923, Boston, $1,843.61 (highest); New York, $1,787.57; Pittsburgh, $1,514.19; Buffalo, $1,281.25; Philadelphia, $1,185.29; St. Louis, $1,032.83; Baltimore, $996.75. These figures are approximate as population had to be estimated.

NEW DORCHESTER COURT HOUSE. ANOTHER GRACEFUL STRUCTURE TO CREDIT OF CURLEY ADMINISTRATION.

BIDS SOON TO BE CALLED FOR ERECTION OF BUILDING TO HOUSE COURT OFFICES OF LARGE DISTRICT. TO BE ERECTED AT MELVILLE AVENUE AND WASHINGTON STREET.

NEW COURT HOUSE IN DORCHESTER DISTRICT FOR WHICH BIDS WILL SOON BE ANNOUNCED.

Boston is acquiring another imposing structure such as is making the administration of Mayor Curley the most noted in the history of the city, with the construction about to be started of the Dorchester Courthouse at Melville avenue and Washington street.

The building is to cost approximately $225,000, and is to be built of brick and concrete with limestone trimming. It is to be of first-class construction throughout, with a basement, first and second floors. The frontage on Washington street will be 115 feet and the depth 114 feet. It will set back from Washington street about 45 feet with the present trees and retaining wall kept in place.

PLANNING BOARD ANNOUNCES THAT NEW ZONING LAW DOES NOT MEAN INCREASED INSURANCE BUT IS PROTECTION TO OWNERS.

Home owners will not be forced to pay increased fire insurance rates on their property through the compulsory insertion of a demolition clause in their policies because of Boston's new zoning law, according to the City Planning Board.

On the basement floor of the building will be the detention rooms for men and women, boiler room, van room and storage facilities. The heating apparatus which will be of the oil-burning kind will be on this floor also.

On the first floor will be the Criminal Court, one civil court, offices for the judges, a law library, quarters for the probation officers, clerks and attorneys as well as a storage vault for records. On the second floor will be the police room, juvenile court, consultation room, court offices and rest rooms. Bids for construction will soon be asked. Mulhall & Holmes are the architects.

Claims that one, two and three-family dwellings need a demolition clause are erroneous, they maintain.

Belief that the zoning law requires that when a certain percentage of a dwelling not conforming to the law is destroyed by fire the building must thereafter comply with the zoning regulations, and thus necessitates a demolition clause in fire insurance policies, is not true, the Board declares. No extra premium for the insertion of a demolition clause in case the dwelling is destroyed by fire is needed on a policy, for the zoning law does not interfere with replacement.

The zoning law, the Planning Board holds, does not interfere, according to section 23 of chapter 488 of the Acts of 1923, with "the substantial restoration within 12 months and the continuance of use of a building which has been damaged by fire, explosion, flood, riot, act of public enemy or accident of any kind to such an extent that the estimated cost of such restoration does not exceed three-quarters of the fair value of the building, based on replacement cost immediately prior to such damage."

Where a building does not conform to the zoning requirements, the law provides to the Planning Board that the Building Commissioner may grant a permit for restoration and continuance of use where neither will be detrimental or injurious to the character of the neighborhood. This, they declare, precludes any necessity of alarm over dwellings of any type.

Instead of making the cost of carrying fire insurance on building burdensome, the zoning law will tend to lessen the fire risk, according to the Planning Board. There will be less fire risk under the new zone law by the exclusion of manufacturing and business uses from residential districts, they add, while provisions for more open spaces between buildings by side and rear yards, courts and the limiting of the percentage of a lot that may be occupied by buildings will all aid materially in reducing the spreading of fires and will make fire fighting easier.

MAYOR CURLEY SEEKS TO HAVE SHIPS REPAIRED HERE.

"The vanishing point" will be reached unless the Shipping Board assigns certain ships for repair to the Boston Navy Yard at Charlestown, Mayor Curley told Howard Coonley, president of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, in a letter Wednesday, August 27, wherein he urged that the Mount Vernon, now located at East Boston, be reconditioned at the Boston Yard instead of undergoing private reconditioning at Newport News.

The letter states that the force of workmen has been considerably reduced in consequence of the failure of Congress to adopt the Naval Appropriations Bill and asks Mr. Coonley to designate a committee of the Chamber of Commerce "to intercede with the United States Shipping Board" in order that the Mount Vernon may stay here "where the work can be performed as efficiently and much more economically than elsewhere."

'O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

MUNICIPAL SERVICE.

Complaints, inquiries or suggestions regarding the work of municipal departments should be made in writing to the officials directly in charge. The failure of such officials to make reply within a reasonable length of time should be brought to the attention of the Mayor. Communications should be directed as follows:

TO THE BOARD OF STREET COMMISSIONERS, Room 401, City Hall Annex, for information relative to the laying out, relocation, widening and the discontinuance of highways; the taking of real property for municipal purposes; the assessments of betterments for streets and sewers; the plotting of undeveloped areas for streets and the opening of private ways; the granting of licenses for the storage or sale of merchandise in public streets; the regulation of street traffic; the making of specific repairs in public streets, the naming of public streets, the planting and removal of trees in public ways, the issuing of licenses for the storage of gasoline, oil and other inflammable substances or explosive compounds, the use of the public ways for any permanent or temporary obstruction or projection in, under or over the same, including the location of conduits, poles and posts for telephone, telegraph, street railway or illuminating purposes, signs, marqueses, bay windows, coal holes and vaults.

TO THE COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WORKS, Room 511, City Hall Annex, for information as to the watering, cleaning, lighting and repairing of streets, the construction and care of sewers and catch-basins, the operation of the ferries, the maintenance of bridges and drawbridges and the removal of ashes and offal.

To Room 604, City Hall Annex, for information relative to the supplying or metering of water and the water charges of the city.

TO THE HEALTH DEPARTMENT, Room 1107, City Hall Annex, for information relative to the inspection of milk, vinegar, meat, fish and vegetables, the issuance of permits for stables, slaughter houses, etc., smoke nuisances, the existence of contagious diseases or public health nuisances.

TO THE BOARD OF PARK COMMISSIONERS, 33 Beacon street, for information as to the care of the Common, Public Garden, Franklin Park, Franklin Field, Commonwealth avenue, Back Bay Fens, Marine Park and the small parks and playgrounds in general throughout the city, and as to the extermination of gypsy moths and the charges made for such service. Application may be made to this department for information regarding the public baths and gymnasiums maintained by the city, and with regard to municipal indoor concerts and band concerts; also information relative to Mt. Hope, Evergreen, Fairview and other public cemeteries owned by the City of Boston.

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE, 15 Beacon street, for information relative to the operation of the schools of the city.

TO THE SCHOOLHOUSE COMMISSIONERS, Room 1007, City Hall Annex, for information as to the construction and repair of school buildings.

TO THE BOARD OF EXAMINERS, Room 1001, City Hall Annex, for information regarding the licensing of persons having charge or control of the work of construction, alteration, removal or tearing down of buildings.

TO THE WIRE DIVISION OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT, Fire Department Headquarters, 60 Bristol street, for all information relative to the erection of poles, the building of conduits, the installation of all overhead and underground construction and electrical apparatus, as well as for general information relative to the entire division. To Room 906, City Hall Annex, for permits for the installing of wires and electrical apparatus within buildings in the City of Boston, and for the payment of fees incident to the granting of the privileges above named, and which must be paid in advance.

MAYOR CURLEY STIRS AMERICAN LEGION TO WILD ENTHUSIASM WITH ADDRESS.

TELLS PITTSFIELD CONVENTION WHAT HIS ADMINISTRATION HAS ACCOMPLISHED BY WAY OF REHABILITATING VETERANS AND DECLARES FOR REAL BONUS AND SAVING WAGE.

Mr. Chairman, Members of the American Legion, Veterans of the World War, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Some bygone wise man has left us the words "The memory of men and the memory of nations is short." The truth of those words have often come to me in the past few years as I have visited the cots where your maimed and broken buddies lay suffering like the heroes that they are. Those words have come to you as you have laid aside your weapons of war and returned to the efforts of peace.

A little more than eight years ago the fate of human liberty hung in the balance. Government for the people, by the people, hung in the balance, swayed by the greatest peril the world has ever known, vicious, irresponsible militarism and uncurbed autocracy. You and your comrades sprang to the aid of liberty and freedom of democracy. The valor of those days when you floundered in the mud of Flanders and Chateau Thierry should never be forgotten. And you do well to assemble each year in convention to remember the past and to rededicate yourselves to the duties of the future, the preservation of democracy and the safety of your land and mine.

As I think of the great decision in which you shared when bleeding democracy emerged triumphant from the smoke of slaughter on the banks of the Marne, when free government won the greatest victory of all time, I cannot but feel that you have not been given all the tribute you deserve; all you were promised as you went bravely into the jaws of death; all that you expected when you returned home.

When you marched to war you were cheered and feted as heroes. During the battles you were followed as heroes by your anxious watchers at home. When you returned you were promised a bonus. The soldiers of every nation fighting in the World War received a cash bonus as soon as or shortly after being mustered out of service and the money was borrowed from America. You have been given a bonus that you can collect only after you are dead. And who needs a bonus then? What you wanted and needed and should have received was a bonus that would aid you in your hour of need.

I am thankful to say that Boston has done all in its power to rehabilitate the returning soldier and to place him upon a self-supporting basis. Since the present administration has come into office, through our effort we have been able to place with the Fire Department 295 veterans; with the Transit Commission, 1,356 veterans; with the Park Department, 1,000 veterans; and with the Public Works Department, 1,277 veterans, with the aid of the Employment Bureau 11,219 veterans, a total of 15,147 returned heroes of the World War.

Through the Soldiers' Relief Department over $2,500,000 have been expended in aiding ex-service men and their dependents, with an average of 1,800 individuals on the rolls per month. By co-operation with the Employment Bureau and the Transit Department the number of beneficiaries of the Soldiers' Relief Department have been reduced from the total of 5,200 at the time I assumed office to the present 1,800, which represents widows and other dependents of ex-service men.

In the matter of civil service appointments every case has been decided in favor of the veteran, as was his due.

The East Boston Tunnel improvement was made with the aid of 1,356 veterans then out of employment and one and one half million dollars were paid to them in wages, thus restoring their self-respect and giving them opportunity to acquire useful training. I will say that in the course of that construction by veteran help the city was enabled to save approximately a million dollars in soldiers' relief funds.

The real saving was in no sense reflected in the book-keeping accounts of the City of Boston; the saving was represented in providing an opportunity for the men who had served in the World War to give the lie to their detractors who loudly complained that the returned soldier was not only not fit to work but would not work.

In March, 1922, the City of Boston paid out in unemployment aid to men who had served in the World War, in army, navy and Marine Corps, $140,000; this ratio if maintained for the entire year would have represented a total of $1,860,000; it would have represented the development of a system that would sap the initiative and destroy the character and energy of the men whose character and courage made possible the winning of the World War. It was important that these men be saved from a condition of which they were in no measure responsible, a condition due to the failure of the Federal Government to make provision for the development of a foreign and domestic policy that would insure prosperity in the nation and provide opportunities which these men sought for a livelihood.

The construction of the East Boston Tunnel extension and the Maverick Station on the day-labor basis was the first major rapid transit construction ever attempted in the history of New England, other than by contract. It can truly be said, to the credit of the men who performed this work, many of whom had never had experience at manual labor or in the handling of apparatus and machinery on underground construction, that they met the condition manfully; they bore the brunt of excessive labor like men who had been accustomed to that character of work during an entire lifetime, and previous to the completion of the work, their skill in the handling of intricate tunnel construction machinery prompted contracting firms from every section of the country to tender proffer of positions at salaries many times greater than were paid by the city.

The present industrial depression in America has resulted in an increasing demand for aid to unemployed veterans. The City of Boston has lived strictly to the letter of the law and in every case has provided veterans of the World War, unable to procure employment, $37.50 per month, on an average, until it was possible to provide for themselves. With a view to meeting every demand, some thirty days ago a meeting was called of department heads of the City of Boston and they were instructed to effect economies which would make available $1,000,000, so that during the present depression no veteran of the World War should be deprived of the financial assistance to which his service entitled him, and none will be deprived.

Out of the World War came what is generally regarded as the saving wage; the saving wage represents the most forward humanitarian step taken in the history of the American Republic; it provides the toiler in America opportunity not only to care for his family in comfort and decency, but permits of their enjoyment of an occasional luxury as well as the necessities, and in addition means better food, more clothing in the home and greater opportunities for education of the children.

With a view to safeguarding the saving wage, as Mayor of Boston, I, this year, made provision in the budget for increase in the salary of ninety-three hundred persons in the employ of the city and it is pleasing to note that of the ninety-three hundred who were increased four thousand were veterans of the World War.

With a due appreciation of the fact, familiar to every member of a patriotic organization, that the burden of providing for their comrade, and the expenses incidental to the maintaining of clubhouses and assembly halls must be borne by the men who served and sacrificed, the City of Boston early made provision for the placing at the disposal of the American Legion Posts, desirable assembly halls and clubhouses throughout the city, without cost to the veterans.

The City of Boston was recently privileged to witness the parade of the Grand Army of the Republic. At the close of the Civil War, when the northern army was assembled in Washington for parade, it required two entire days for the army, marching in close formation on the broadest thoroughfare in America, Pennsylvania avenue, to pass a given point. At the fifty-eighth National Encampment, held in Boston last week, the entire parade lasted less than one hour and the majority of those who participated were required to ride in automobiles.

The history of the Grand Army and its efforts to secure justice merits the profound study of every man interested in this great patriotic organization. It remained for a member of the Grand Army, who had enlisted as a private during the Civil War in 1861, and who emerged at the close of the war in 1865 as a Brigadier-General, Honorable Isaac R. Sherwood, of Ohio, to stand as a candidate for Congress, secure election, and spend two entire years during the sessions of the Sixty-first Congress, to secure enactment of what is now known as the "Sherwood Dollar a Day Pension Act." It seems incredible that a nation rich as the American Republic should wait until forty-seven years after the close of the Civil War to grant a dollar a day pension to the men who had served and sacrificed during that war, but such is the fact.

The recent session of Congress adopted legislation known as the Bursum Bill. The Bursum Bill made provision for increase in compensation to the men of the Northern Army and their dependents to seventy-two dollars a month. It would have meant the difference between extreme privation as against some degree of comfort, and the medical, surgical and hospital needs of the men of the Grand Army of the Republic, and it was vetoed by the President of the United States. The only conclusion that one can draw from the action of the President is that the Grand Army of the Republic has been so decimated in numbers as to no longer be a political consideration.

When you consider that it required fifteen years for the Grand Army of the Republic, which at its maximum represented less than four hundred and fifty thousand men, to become a dominant factor, we realize how necessary it is that all men work together for the personal welfare of each individual member who may at some time be in need and for the general welfare of the entire membership in America.

The service of the Grand Army of the Republic was in no sense represented by the four years of service on the battlefields; their service was freely given in the hour of peace as well as in the hour of strife, preaching and practising at all times a spirit of patriotism, and actuated solely by a desire to develop an American spirit and loyalty which in the hour of trial might encourage men animated by the same high resolve as prompted their service and sacrifice. The passing of the Grand Army, if the World War had not taken place, would have left a great void in the life of America; the opportunity for the American Legion to render the same character of service to the American nation for the perpetuation of this Republic that has been rendered in the past by the Grand Army, is today theirs. This nation should recognize it, and the subdivisions of the nation, the state, the city, the town should appreciate it. Their service and sacrifice entitle them to the thoughtful consideration and to the whole-hearted assistance of every person who believes in and loves the American Republic.

May every success attend your efforts; may your membership grow; and with the passing of years may there be developed in America an appreciation of your service and sacrifice that will cause men in every age and generation to hail you as saviours of liberty, worthy of the greatest title ever conferred on man, American patriots.

AUTHORITY TO DO WORK.

The Mayor has granted the request of the Public Works Department for authority to relay granite block pavement with grout joints, in Dedham street, from Washington street to Rowland street, with division forces, without advertising, the estimated cost for labor and material being $3,000.

MAYOR CURLEY WORKING HARD TO KEEP TAX RATE AT PRESENT FIGURE.

BUSY WITH BOARD OF ASSESSORS THOUGH RESULT OF EFFORTS WILL NOT BE KNOWN FOR NEXT TEN DAYS OR MORE—MAY BE FORCED TO MAKE SLIGHT INCREASE.

Mayor Curley and the Board of Assessors are busy at computation of the new municipal tax rate for the ensuing year but results will not be known for a week or ten days.

It is the hope of the Mayor that the new rate will be held to a figure very near the current $24.70 rate per $1,000 of valuation.

The Mayor is working hard to this end with Chairman Edward T. Kelly, Neal F. Holland and Joseph G. O'Malley, and with City Auditor Rupert S. Carven.

At a time when the rates in surrounding cities and towns show an upward tendency the maintaining of substantially the old rate in Boston is made possible by newly created values in commercial, industrial and domestic buildings since April 1, 1923, and by increases in valuation of long standing buildings, which the assessors think justified by real estate market conditions.

All the assessors' agents in the field have not yet completed their work, but the expectation is that readjustments of assessment figures on downtown retail and wholesale properties will afford the city from $50,000,000 to $60,000,000 in taxable values, which is about the average yearly increase.

Lively trading by operators along inner Boylston street in and about the Park square section, in Newbury street and for the whole swing of Massachusetts avenue from Beacon to Washington street, will in the opinion of the assessors, justify them in generally marking upward the values of the better properties situated in these trade centers.

One disappointment which will likely reflect itself in an increased rate, if such a contingency arises, is the failure of the Boston Elevated to pay any portion of the $1,700,000 it still owes the city on account of the 1919 operating deficit. It has already returned the remainder of the $2,900,000 then levied upon Boston as its share of the deficit burden. Last year $790,000 was returned by the Elevated to the city on this account, and, up to a few months ago, the hope was that at least half that sum could be paid this year.

The state authorities have made known to the assessors the sum the city is to receive this year from the state as its share of income taxes; this figure is about like that of a year ago, and does not promise to relieve the municipal problem much.

Balancing these unfavorable items, however, are the completion of several new building enterprises during the past year, thus making them available for full taxation as of April 1. Among these are the Park Square Building, the new Chamber of Commerce Building, the First National and Atlantic Banks, the Old Colony Trust Annex, the Beacon Trust, Boston Insurance Building, Edison plants at Boylston street and at First and L streets, South Boston, the Boston Elevated power plant in South Boston, the Province Building, the new Schrafft Building, the Harvey Building and those of Decatur & Hopkins, Harris, Forbes & Co. and, partially, the new office-theatre building at Hollis and Tremont streets.

Fully $3,000,000 worth of new dwellings, most of the two and three family types, have been put up in Ward 23 (West Roxbury) in the past year, and the majority of these 500 structures will be subject to full taxation.

A lot of new values have been created, too, in Jamaica Plain dwellings and many of these are of the expensive single-family houses.

The general activity in the building of private and public garages all over the city during the past year has furnished additional taxable values.

The assessors were successful in bringing about 30,000 motor vehicles under municipal taxation a year ago, notwithstanding that many persons try one dodge or another to escape taxation. The prospect this season is that twice as many vehicles will be taxed, or about 60,000. The assessors intend "to go right after the automobilist" this year.

BOSTON'S SCHOOL PROGRAM TO BE LARGELY COMPLETED BY OPENING TIME.

WORK HAS BEEN RUSHED DURING SUMMER SEASON, BY SCHOOLHOUSE COMMISSION, SO RAPIDLY THAT EVERY PUPIL WILL HAVE A SEAT, AS MAYOR CURLEY HAS DESIRED.

When Boston schools open on September 9 for the year the School Department will have completed most of its huge building and repair program. This has extended over the entire vacation period.

All new structures will be completed in every detail and the renovation and repair work in progress throughout the city, will be finished before the opening date. Adherence to the slogan of the Mayor, "Accommodations" for every pupil," has already brought about this year the construction of the following school buildings.

Francis Parkman District, West Roxbury, four-room building on Northbourne road; Hugh O'Brien District, Roxbury, twelve-room building on Dudley street; Thomas Gardner District, Brighton, addition of nine rooms on Athol street; Julia Ward Howe District, Roxbury; Bennett District, Brighton; Theodore Lyman District, East Boston, eight-room building on Gove street.

The new buildings comprise a total of forty-one rooms, which the school authorities believe will very nearly take care of the increase in student population. As this increase each year is a matter which cannot be calculated correctly, the usual moving of the portable schoolhouses to districts where the demand warrants such action, will be made. During the summer twenty-six such houses have been moved at a cost of $26,898 and altogether more than sixty will be put into use in the course of the coming school year.

The demand for more permanent structures continues, however, and there are at present under construction an eight-room building in the Bennet District, Brighton, at Oakland and Faneuil streets; a sixteen-room building in the Roger Wolcott District at Harvard street and Blue Hill avenue; a four-room addition to the George T. Angell School in the Roxbury District; a new Roxbury High School on Townsend street, that will cost $1,500,000; a four-room addition to the Theodore Roosevelt School in Roxbury; and a four-room addition, including kindergarten, for the Tileston District, Walk Hill street, Mattapan.

A contract for a new junior high school in the Mather District, Dorchester, at Charles street, will soon be awarded. This building will cost $487,000. Plans are also under way for the construction of a junior high school in the Samuel Adams District, East Boston, at an approximate cost of $700,000. This school will be located on the Cottage Street Playground.

Since the schools closed the Schoolhouse Department has been engaged in extensive repair work. The 257 different school buildings in the city have all received attention. More than 125 contractors have been engaged in the work and the absence of strikes or other labor troubles has expedited matters.

At the beginning of the year the School Department set aside $1,147,592.89 for repairs and alterations. Of this amount $105,000 was designated for administrative purposes and $250,000 for segregated items.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

The Mayor has approved the following contracts awarded without advertising; requests of heads of departments to do the work with the department forces without advertising; additions to and deductions from contracts.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Upon August 25 the Mayor approved a contract with the Wayne Tank and Pump Company for gasoline equipment for the Public Works Department garage. A communication from Joseph A. Rourke of the Public Works Department, was as follows:

BOSTON, August 19, 1924.

To the Mayor of Boston:

In the contract for the Public Works Department garage there was an item incorporated in the specifications calling for the expenditure of $2,000 for the installation of gasoline equipment, air compressors, etc. There was selected for this work, as the lowest responsible bidder, the Wayne Tank and Pump Company. The equipment was installed in the garage and completed some time ago.

In order to facilitate its completion satisfactorily, it was decided to subtract this item from the main contract and award a separate contract to the Wayne Tank and Pump Company, the total bill being $1,975.

The payment of this sum is being held up by the auditor's office on account of not having your permission to award a contract in excess of $1,000.

It is respectfully requested, therefore, that your Honor approve contract with the Wayne Tank and Pump Company for $1,975, without advertising, for gasoline, oil and air equipment installed in the new Albany street garage.

JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

ADDITIONS TO AND DEDUCTIONS FROM CONTRACTS.

The following additions to and deductions from contracts have been approved.

Prices to be paid the same as those bid for similar work in the contract. Original contract, $129,236; total addition, $7,500; contract as standing, $136,736.

An addition, amounting to $10, on contract with S. J. Tomasello for bitulithic pavement in Grove street, West Roxbury, on account of excavating below subgrade catch-basin and manhole. Original contract, $57,859; total addition, $10; contract as standing, $57,869.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Water Service).

An addition, amounting to $125, on contract with De Cristofara & Brothers Company for laying and relaying water pipes in Cleveland circle, Sutherland road, Commonwealth ave. and Colonial road, Brighton, on account of assisting department masons in building four brick chambers; oiling gates; testing pipe line; and placing concrete piers back of 24-inch bends and caps. Original contract, $16,912.50; total addition, $125; contract as standing, $17,037.50.

An addition, amounting to $400, on contract with C. Russo for laying and relaying water pipes in Bismark, Germania La Grange streets, West Roxbury, Ruskin road, Hyde Park and Wabash street, Dorchester, on account of laying 240 feet of 12-inch pipe. Original contract, $3,220; total addition, $400; contract as standing, $3,620.

LAND-TAKING IN BRIGHTON.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for sewerage works, lands, rights and easements be constructed as follows:

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixes to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston formerly Brighton, bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Bostonia avenue, bounded:

East by the easterly line of said Bostonia avenue, twelve feet; south by another part of said avenue, eight hundred ninety-two and 4-100 feet; west by the same, twelve feet; and north by the same, eight hundred ninety-two and 4-100 feet, containing ten thousand seven hundred and four square feet, more or less.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: Nine hundred linear feet of ten-inch pipe sanitary sewer, in the above-described premises, being part of the private way known as Bostonia avenue.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

This Board determines that no person sustains damages by the taking of the aforesaid easement and construction of said sewerage works and awards no damages therefor.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the lots of abutting land on both sides of Bostonia avenue, including the lots at the corners of Breck avenue, will receive benefit or advantage, beyond the general advantage to the community, from the improvement ordered herein, to the amounts hereinafter respectively set against them; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Plan No. 572, Sewerage Works, Bostonia Avenue, Brighton, July 29, 1924, William J.

Sullivan, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department," and on file in the office of said department.

DRISCOLL NAMED FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

Francis J. Driscoll of 7 Copeland street, Roxbury, business agent of the Boston Plasterers' Union, has agreed to accept the nomination to civil service examination for the post of Superintendent of Public Buildings on the recommendation of the Building Trades Council and the Central Labor Union.

Driscoll is forty years old and was for many years in business with his father before he became agent of the Plasterers' Union. If he is accepted by the Civil Service Commission this will be his first city position. It carries with it a salary of $4,500 a year.

This post has been vacant ever since the death in May of Fred J. Kneeland. The Mayor named P. Harry Jennings, business agent of the Central Labor Union, but he refused the nomination. Michael J. Reidy was the next nominee but he was rejected by the Civil Service Commission. The last nomination was that of city councilor James F. Moriarty, who turned down the appointment.

EXTENSION OF CONTRACTS.

M. DeSisto Company have been granted a further extension of the time of completion of the contract for laying and relaying water pipes in Alhambra road, Granfield avenue, Orange street, Roslindale avenue, Washington street, West Roxbury Parkway and Willow street, West Roxbury; also Lane park, Orchard road and Penniman road, Brighton, from September 1 to October 15, 1924, for the reason that additional work and ledge work has delayed the completion of the contract.

C. Russo has been granted an extension of the time of completion of the contract for building sewerage works in Colorado street, from Currier street about 315 feet northeasterly, Dorchester, dated July 18, 1924, from August 30, 1924, to September 30, 1924 (30 days), on account of the fact that more solid ledge has been encountered than was anticipated.

The Rendle-Stoddard Construction Company have been granted an extension of the time of completion of the contract for repairing ferry piers, dated June 18, 1924, from July 10, 1924, to September 18, 1924.

EXTRA WORK UNDER CONTRACT.

William Barrett & Co. have been directed to perform the following extra work under contract for building sewerage works in Mark street, from Day street, about 203 feet easterly, Roxbury. Items ordered: Build one standard man-hole at station 0+60 on surface drain at agreed upon price of seventy (70) dollars.

LAND TAKING IN WEST ROXBURY.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for a public improvement, consisting of the laying out and construction of Johnswood road, West Roxbury district, as a highway, from Prospect avenue to Prospect avenue, bounded and described as follows:

A highway named Johnswood road is hereby laid out, from Prospect avenue to Prospect avenue, and ordered constructed.

For the making of the aforesaid improvement an easement for street purposes is taken in the following described land exclusive of trees or structures standing upon or affixed thereto:

A part of a parcel of land, now or formerly owned by Mary E. McCullough and Ida M. Hodson, T. T., situated on the easterly side of Johnswood road, about 135 feet south of Prospect avenue, containing three hundred seventy-three square feet, more or less.

The land, owners unknown, running from Prospect avenue to Prospect avenue, now known as Johnswood road.

Trees or structures standing upon or affixed to the aforesaid described land shall be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said land for the purpose of constructing said improvement.

Said highway is bounded and described as follows:

Westerly Arm.—North by Prospect avenue, fifty-nine and 67-100 feet; east by the easterly line of said Johnswood road as hereby laid out, by seven measurements, twelve and 10-100 feet on a curve of ten feet radius, two hundred forty-three and 94-100 feet, sixty-two and 61-100 feet on a curve of one hundred and two feet radius, one hundred and two feet, one hundred five and 91-100 feet on a curve of six hundred ninety-three and 54-100 feet radius, one hundred thirty-seven and 2-100 feet and twelve and 87-100 feet on a curve of ten feet radius; southeast by the southerly arm of said Johnswood road as hereby laid out, fifty-four and 82-100 feet; and west by the westerly line of said Johnswood road as hereby laid out, by six measurements, one hundred seventy-four and 50-100 feet, ninety-nine and 81-100 feet on a curve of six hundred fifty-three and 54-100 feet radius, one hundred and two feet, eighty-seven and 16-100 feet on a curve of one hundred and forty-two feet radius, two hundred twenty-five and 75-100 feet and thirteen and 6-100 feet on a curve of six and 91-100 feet radius.

Southerly Arm.—Northwest by the westerly arm of said Johnswood road as hereby laid out, fifty-four and 82-100 feet; south by the southerly line of said Johnswood road as hereby laid out, two hundred fifty and 3-100 feet; northeast by the easterly arm of said Johnswood road as hereby laid out, seventy-nine and 20-100 feet; and north by the northerly line of said Johnswood road as hereby laid out, one hundred forty-four and 19-100 feet.

Easterly Arm.—Southwest by the southerly arm of said Johnswood road as hereby laid out, seventy-nine and 20-100 feet; westerly line of said Johnswood road as hereby laid out, by three measurements, twenty and 86-100 feet on a curve of eleven and 25-100 feet radius, one hundred seventy-six and 17-100 feet and two hundred thirty-eight and 67-100 feet on a curve of nine hundred twenty-seven and 12-100 feet radius; south by the southerly line of said Johnswood road as hereby laid out, by three measurements, ninety-seven and 56-100 feet on a curve of eighty and 16-100 feet radius, thirty-two and 31-100 feet and forty-three and 79-100 feet on a curve of thirty-six and 31-100 feet radius; west by the westerly arm of said Johnswood road as hereby laid out, one hundred nine and 85-100 feet; north by the northerly line of said Johnswood road as hereby laid out, by three measurements, fifty-six and 2-100 feet on a curve of twenty-eight and 94-100 feet radius, forty-four and 45-100 feet on a curve of one hundred twenty and 16-100 feet radius and one hundred one and 80-100 feet on a curve of one hundred twenty and 16-100 feet radius; and east by the easterly line of said Johnswood road as hereby laid out, by two measurements, two hundred forty-eight and 97-100 feet on a curve of nine hundred sixty-seven and 12-100 feet radius and two hundred forty-four and 52-100 feet.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the abutting lots of land on Johnswood road, will receive benefit or advantage, other than the general advantage to the community, from the improvement herein ordered, each of the particular lots to the amount respectively set against it herein; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Johnswood road, West Roxbury, Assessment Plan, May 31, 1924, William J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer Street Laying Out Department," and on file, in the office of said department.

ACTS OF 1924, CHAPTER 427.

(Motor Vehicle Law, Chapter 90, General Laws, Section 2.)

"Upon the transfer of ownership of any motor vehicle or trailer its registration shall expire, and the person in whose name such motor vehicle or trailer is registered shall forthwith return the certificate of registration to the registrar with a written notice containing the date of the transfer of ownership and the name, place of residence and address of the new owner; provided, that on the death of an owner of a motor vehicle or trailer its registration shall be deemed to continue in force as a valid registration until the end of the year or until the ownership of such motor vehicle or trailer is transferred by the executor or administrator of the estate of such owner whichever occurs first."

In effect August 27, 1924.

ACTS OF 1924, CHAPTER 457.
(Motor Vehicle Law, Chapter 90, General
Laws, Section 31A.) (Entire New Section 31A.)

"The division after a public hearing may make, and may alter, rescind or add to, rules and regulations for the reasonable and proper control and regulation of the transportation by motor vehicle of personal property over the ways of this Commonwealth, except ways under the control of the metropolitan district commission. Said rules and regulations shall cover, among other matters which the division may deem necessary or desirable, the fixing of routes with respect to the physical capacity of such ways to carry traffic; the establishment of the maximum weight of loads per commercial motor vehicle and per inch of tire in contact with the surface of such ways; the maximum dimensions of loads; and the regulation of the rate of speed of such vehicles over such ways. Said rules and regulations and any changes therein shall be subject to approval, and shall take effect, in the manner provided by section six of chapter sixteen. Any person convicted of a violation of any rule or regulation made under this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars, and in case of a second or subsequent offence the registration of the vehicle or vehicles involved shall be suspended for such length of time as the division may determine."

In effect September 2, 1924.

ACTS OF 1924, CHAPTER 498.
(Motor Vehicle Law, Chapter 90, General
Laws, Section 29.) (Entire New Section 29.)

"The registrar shall appoint competent persons to act as investigators and examiners, may remove them for cause, and may determine their compensation and terms of service and define their duties. He may also appoint, for cause, remove and fix the compensation of, a deputy registrar and may delegate to such deputy the performance of any duty imposed upon the registrar by any provision of this chapter. Said inspectors and examiners, with respect to the enforcement of the laws relating to motor vehicles, shall have and exercise throughout the commonwealth all the powers of constables, except the service of civil process, and of police officers, including the power to arrest any person who violates any provision of this chapter, and they may serve all processes lawfully issued by the courts, the division or the registrar. The registrar may investigate the cause of any accident in which any motor vehicle is involved, and for this purpose may send his investigators into other states. The selectmen of any town and the mayor of any city of less than one hundred thousand inhabitants where there is no police commission or police commissioner, and the police commission or police commissioner, when such exist, of any such city, may appoint special constables, who shall serve without cost to such city or town and who shall have all the powers of police officers and constables in relation to the enforcement of all laws and regulations concerning motor vehicles. The chief officer of the police department of every city and town and the chairman of the selectmen of such towns as have no regular police department shall notify the registrar forthwith, upon blanks furnished by him, of the particulars of every accident referred to in section twenty-six which happens within the limits of his city or town in which a motor vehicle is involved, together with such further information relative to such accident as the registrar may require, and shall also, if possible, ascertain the name of the person operating such vehicle and notify the registrar of the same. Every such officer, upon the request of the registrar, shall demand forthwith the license of any operator and the certificate of registration and number plates of any motor vehicle situated within the city or town where such officer resides when said license or certificate has been suspended or revoked by the registrar, and shall forward the same to the registrar. Whenever the death of any person results from any such accident, the registrar shall suspend forthwith the license of the person operating the motor vehicle involved in said accident, and shall order the said license to be delivered to him; and the registrar shall revoke the same unless, upon investigation and after a hearing, he determines that the accident occurred without serious fault upon the part of the operator or chauffeur of such motor vehicle. No operator whose license is revoked under this section shall be licensed again within six months after the date of the suspension, nor thereafter except in the discretion of the registrar." (Emergency law.) In effect June 5, 1924.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, August 18, 1924.

Special meeting of the City Council, held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at two o'clock p. m., President DONOGHUE in the chair. Absent—Coun. Lane.

The Clerk read the call for the meeting, viz.:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, August 15, 1924.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—A number of important building projects, many of which have been under consideration for a considerable period of time, are delayed because of the failure of the City Council to adopt the necessary loan orders to make possible the widening of Tremont and Kneeland streets.

The adoption of these orders is important for the improvement of traffic conditions and the growth of the city, and you are respectfully requested to be present at a special meeting of the City Council to be held on Monday, August 18, 1924, at 2 p. m., for the consideration of the street widening projects and such other business as may come before your honorable body.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

APPOINTMENTS CONFIRMED.

The President called up No. 1 on the calendar, unfinished business, viz.:

1. Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor August 11, 1924, of John P. Shepard and Bernard M. Mullen, to be Constables, and Albert J. Dyer, to be a Weigher of Coal.

The appointments were confirmed, yeas 7, nays 0.

ABANDONMENT OF EASEMENT.

The President called up No. 2 on the calendar, unfinished business, viz.:

2. Whereas, the City of Boston, by order of the Board of Aldermen, passed July 5, 1893, and approved by the Mayor July 6, 1892, took for the purpose of laying a main drain or common sewer, a strip of land on Rockwell street, owned by J. Lowell Parker, four feet wide, and containing approximately five hundred and fifty-three square feet; and

Whereas, the Commissioner of Public Works now having charge of said land has notified the City Council that a portion of the same is no longer required for public purposes,

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be and hereby is authorized, in the name and behalf of the city, in accordance with section 15 of chapter 40 of the General Laws, and for a nominal consideration, to execute an instrument abandoning the rights acquired by said taking in the two-foot strip along the westerly side of said parcel, the strip to be abandoned, being shown on a plan made by William J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer of the Street Laying-Out Department, dated August 4, 1924.

On August 4, 1924, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 8, nays 0.

The order was read a second time and again passed, yeas 7, nays 0.

SOLDIERS' RELIEF.

Coun. GILBODY, for the Committee on Soldiers' Relief, submitted a report recommending the passage of an order for the payment of aid to soldiers and sailors and their families in the City of Boston for the month of August, 1924.

Report accepted; order passed.

ORDINANCE CONCERNING ADVERTISING SIGNS.

Coun. WATSON offered the following:

An Ordinance Relative to Advertising Signs.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

No person, firm, association or corporation shall post, erect, display or maintain on any public way or on private property within public view from any highway, public park or reservation any billboard or other advertising device which advertises or calls attention to any business, article, substance or any other thing, provided, however, that this prohibition shall not apply to signs or other devices erected and maintained in conformity with law, and which advertise or indicate either the person occupying the premises in question or the business transacted thereon, or advertise the property itself or any part thereof as for sale or to let and which contain no other advertising matter.

Referred to the Committee on Ordinances, on motion of Coun. WATSON.

LEASE OF LAND, ATLANTIC AVENUE.

Coun. WATSON called up No. 3 on the calendar, being the order authorizing the lease of a portion of the city's land on Atlantic avenue.

The question came on the passage of the order.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I understand there was to be an agreement left here with the Council, to be made a part of the record, with reference to what the party who desired this legislation would do in the event of its passing, and I would like to ask if that is here. Is that here, Mr. Clerk?

President DONOGHUE—The Chair is in receipt of a communication which the Clerk will read.

Coun. WATSON—I will refrain from arguing the matter, Mr. President, until Mr. Healey comes. I will wait until after recess. I understood that Coun. Healey said that if such an agreement were filed with the order it would be satisfactory to him. Am I correct?

Coun. MORIARTY—I don't know.

Coun. WATSON—Then we will wait until later. Perhaps Coun. Healey will be here.

Coun. MORIARTY—That is the agreement.

Coun. WATSON—A. r. President, I withdraw my motion to take up No. 3.

President DONOGHUE—Coun. Watson asks unanimous consent to withdraw his motion to take No. 3 from the calendar. If there is no objection it is so ordered.

Coun. BRICKLEY—Mr. President.

President DONOGHUE—Councillor Brickley.

Coun. BRICKLEY—I was simply going to talk on that order, Mr. President. The last sentence in the order reads:

"The said lease is to contain such other restrictions and limitations, including a right of passage over and across the said leased premises," etc.

I don't know why that lease cannot come in here before we pass on this order. I think this is the proper place for it. I don't think it is right to let the Law Department fathom out something after we pass this order. I would like to see that agreement come in here before we vote on it.

President DONOGHUE—That will be taken up at the next meeting of the Council.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, I understood that the gentleman who represented that concern said that he would send a letter here, agreeing to certain things. I would like to know if that letter is in, with certain information as to what he will agree to do.

President DONOGHUE—The Clerk will read the communication.

(The Clerk read a communication from Milton C. Burton, as follows:

Milton C. Burton, Real Estate,
141 Milk Street, Boston.

City Clerk, City Hall, Boston.

Dear Sir,—As requested by the City Council in session August 4 instant, I assure them that the Middlesex and Harbor Trusts will decline to accept the lease of the land owned by the City of Boston fronting the receiving station on Atlantic avenue if the Trusts do not erect their proposed thirteen-story warehouse manufacturing building on the adjoining land at 470 Atlantic avenue.

Yours very truly,

MILTON C. BURTON,
Managing Agent.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I realize that not only am I out of order, but those that preceded me are. I don't think that agreement is what we expected. It does not mean anything at all, and I certainly feel that, whatever Coun. Healey wanted on record, that does not cover the ground. I realize that I have been responsible for the delay in the matter. It is unfortunate that I have held the young man up in his opportunity to advance, but if there is going to be any agreement at all filed here, it ought to mean something. I do not think myself the agreement amounts to anything in this particular matter. I think that will come under the lease. When the lease is drawn by the Law Department, we might pass a rider to this order that we favor a distinct understanding that there shall be an item in the lease to cover the things that Coun. Healey had in mind. To be frank with you, I don't know just what it was, but I know he thought it was some protection that was necessary.

Coun. HEALEY—Mr. President, the agreement I asked for was that if they leased the land, an agreement was to be returned to the Council saying they intended to build the building. In other words, that was to be a part of the contract for the leasing of the land, and I do not think that letter specifies that at all.

President DONOGHUE—If there is no objection the order will be allowed to remain on the calendar and possibly before the next meeting the matter can be settled by the Law Department.

JITNEY LICENSES.

On motion of Coun. WATSON the Council voted to take from the table No. 4 on the calendar, viz.:

4. Petition of the Boston Elevated Railway Company for a license to operate jitneys between Centre and Eliot streets and Centre street and Belgrade avenue, over Eliot, Pond, May, Burroughs and Centre streets.

President DONOGHUE—The question is upon granting the license.

Coun. WATSON—I merely want to reiterate what I said at the last meeting, which is contained in the minutes of the Council, concerning this proposition.

Coun. MORIARTY—I am going to vote against No. 4, because I do not think it is going to do any good to the people in the district. I feel that if they will run the buses in town I will vote for it, but for the purpose of running a bus to Centre street, and allowing people to stand out there without any shelter to wait for cars to come in town and out of town, I am not going to vote for the matter under any consideration. When they first petitioned here, their petition was that they would run to Park square. If they will agree to run the bus line to Park square I will vote in favor of it, but for the purpose of running from Belgrade avenue to Centre street, I do not think it is of any use to the greater number of the people of West Roxbury. If, as I say, they want to put back their first route and run up to Park square, I will agree to vote for it, but for the purpose of running it for the distance they want to run, I am going to vote against it.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, I am of the same opinion as the previous speaker. If the members of this body will remember the day of the public hearing here, when I suggested this route in to the monument at Centre street they would not hear of it. They were all residents of Jamaica Plain, and they said they could see no way in which they could get in to Boston that way, and they objected to it, and I am also of the same frame of mind, that I will vote against it unless the buses run in to Park square, or in to the city proper somewhere.

The Council voted to grant the license, yeas 4, nays 3.

Yeas—Coun. Gilbody, Healy, Walsh, Watson—4. Nays—Coun. Donoghue, Moriarty, Purcell—3. On motion of Coun. WATSON the Council voted to take from the table No. 5 on the calendar, viz.:

5. Petition of the Boston Bus Transportation Company, for a license to operate jitneys between junction of Belgrade avenue and Centre street, over Centre street to the monument in Eliot circle.

President DONOGHUE—The question is on granting the license.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, as much as I regret it, I believe I have got to take the position that I believe to be correct. Believing it will be for the greatest good of the greatest number, I shall vote against this bus line, because there is no room for two bus lines on Centre street, and the gentlemen who are asking for this privilege have got about all they can handle between Boston and Providence now. True, they are running without a license, but they are doing that by legal advice, running from the Copley Square Hotel out to the Dedham line, and then on to Providence. As I said, I dislike to vote against it, but I have got to take the stand that I am going to take because I believe it is the proper one.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, I voted no on the other one, and the other one is approximately the same as this. I am going to vote yes on this one, because as long as they are giving the grant to one, I feel that other people have just as much right as the Boston Elevated. The preceding speaker said they were running a line to Providence, and that they had all they can do. The Elevated has got all they can do, and is not taking care of it, but the people who are running the line to Providence are taking care of their work, and I feel that if there is going to be any bus line, that a private individual has got absolutely as much right, if not more right, as the Boston Elevated Railway, to run a route, and I am going to vote yes on this, feeling the same way as I do on the other, that it is not going to satisfy the people, and that when it goes to the Mayor he is not going to sign it. I know he will sign the one favoring the Elevated, and that he won't sign the one favoring any individual concern, using for his argument that the cost will come back on the city if the Elevated does not make sufficient earnings. But I believe that no concern should have a monopoly, and the Boston Elevated Railway has a monopoly in so far as street railway transportation is concerned. I do not think that this Council, and neither do I think that the Mayor, should give the Elevated a monopoly to everything else besides street railway transportation, and I feel that instead of giving the route to the Elevated, if there was going to be any route given, we should have given it to the private concern and kept the Elevated out.

Of course, the concern going to Providence hasn't got a license. It does not need a license. They do not take up passengers except at a given point, and their vehicle is marked "express." It is just the same as every other thing. It is the same as the Police Commissioner is doing, protecting the big fellow and letting the little fellow go unprotected, because there was a taxicab concern in this town that decided to print upon their automobiles that they were the lowest priced concern in the town, and for the protection of the Checker Taxicab Company the Boston Police Commissioner has made the other concern strike that from their taxicabs. And here we have already granted a right to the Boston Elevated for the protection of the Boston Elevated. I believe that if we have got anything to give out, we ought to give it to the private concern, and not to the organization that has had us tied hand and foot for a number of years, and are going to continue to keep us in that position.

They said they will give us a certain time, and by the way, if I am in order, I would like to hear the petition read, and see what time they are going to give, both the Elevated and this other concern, on the running time, if it is in their petition.

President DONOGHUE—There is no running time in the Boston —

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, I rise to a point of order on the last vote we took.

President DONOGHUE—There is no running time in the Boston Bus petition. There is a running time in the Boston Elevated petition. The Clerk will read the schedule.

The Clerk read the schedule showing the running time of the proposed line of the Boston Elevated buses.

Coun. MORIARTY—There is no schedule for the Boston Bus?

President DONOGHUE—No, sir.

Coun. MORIARTY—So it would not be within our power to vote to give such a grant to one until that is filed? The city ordinance requires that at the time of the filing of an application for the license, it shall be accompanied by a schedule. That is a part of the city ordinance.

President DONOGHUE—If we grant them a license, they may file the schedule any time thereafter.

Coun. MORIARTY—It says it shall accompany it, doesn't it?

President DONOGHUE—The Chair has ruled on that point.

Coun. MORIARTY—We had it on the Hyde Park situation, and if I remember, Mr. Lyons of the Law Department ruled that if the schedule did not accompany the petition, that it was not lawful. That was his answer to the Mayor at a meeting we had here.

Coun. WATSON—Great minds differ.

Coun. MORIARTY—Well, if there is a city ordinance on it, I think we are just as much compelled to live up to a city ordinance as we can expect those on the outside to do it; that we make them to control, and if the city ordinance reads that a schedule shall accompany the petition, I believe that we are compelled as well as any other citizen to live up to the city ordinance.

Coun. WATSON—Let us send it to the Law Department.

President DONOGHUE—Does Coun. Moriarty raise the point of order that these petitions are not legally filed?

Coun. MORIARTY—If any petitioner does not comply with the city ordinance.

President DONOGHUE—You raise that point of order?

Coun. MORIARTY—Yes, I raised it on the Elevated, and I am going to be fair enough to say that if it is fair for the Elevated it is fair for everybody else, notwithstanding I am in favor for the other jitney license.

President DONOGHUE—The Chair will rule that, in his opinion, the point of order is not well taken. My reason for making that ruling is that I appreciate the question raised by Coun. Moriarty when he says that the schedule shall accompany the petition, but in my opinion it is a question of when the schedule shall be filed. I will make my ruling on the point that the schedule may be filed after the license is granted, but shall accompany the order, being a part of the order itself—the petition filed, the license granted, and the schedule filed before they are allowed to operate.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. Chairman, I am surprised at the ruling, but I am not going to appeal from the decision of the Chair. An order and a petition are two different things. An order is something after we have taken action on it. A petition is something that is handed in, a prayer for something and I claim that the city ordinance provides that when the prayer asking for something becomes a petition, that a schedule shall accompany it, and, as I say, I raised the same point at the hearing on the buses in Hyde Park and the corporation counsel who was here acting as the corporation counsel, in answer to that, declared that it was technically wrong, if I may use his words, and I asked him what he meant by technically wrong and he said it was wrong, and the hearing adjourned, and you members remember it. It was when they were taking over the railroad in Hyde Park. I am not going to appeal from the decision of the Chair. Nevertheless, I feel that the ruling is wrong. I feel, at least, that both the Clerk and the Chair should have shown me the consideration to have the city ordinance looked up.

Coun. BRICKLEY—Mr. President, a point of information. Do we have to pass on the bond on that?

President DONOGHUE—No.

Coun. BRICKLEY—The bond is submitted to the Council is it not?

President DONOGHUE—Only for record. That is all.

Coun. WATSON—I might have reminded Coun. Moriarty that he that is convinced against his will is of the same opinion still, and I presume he is. But I am not going to agree or disagree with the Chair's ruling, because I always obey the Chair when the Chair is right, and sometimes I have to obey him when he is not right, and votes against me. I want to answer Coun. Moriarty's argument. I admit that much that I say is true. The Elevated is not performing satisfactorily. I admit that. But, as I remember it, this petition came in originally from the West Roxbury Citizens Association for a bus line from Roslindale square or West Roxbury, Belgrade avenue, to Dartmouth and Commonwealth avenue, over a part of this route, and we added the route down as far as Arlington street, and then by some arrangement they were willing to accept that portion that led into the monument at Jamaica Plain Centre and South street, I think. I didn't know the arrangement had been made, but I said that I would vote for it later, provided it was satisfactory. Well, I made up my mind I would vote for it. I admit the Elevated is not performing properly, but there is one advantage in the Elevated's having this permit, and that is that they are going to give free transfers from the bus to the trolley cars, which are to connect at Dudley street, which would give the people a full ride all the way through for one 10 cents. Now, the other bus line, which is asking for a permit, the one we are considering now, runs from Belgrade avenue over practically the same route, to the Soldiers' Monument, for a 5-cent fare, but to continue on to Boston you have got to pay 10 cents more, so, instead of doing something to help the people of West Roxbury, those who want through transfers or through fares or through transportation we are going to make pay 15 cents. Now, I am no more friendly to the Elevated than Coun. Moriarty, but I am going to vote against this because I think the young man who has got this proposition in mind has got all he can handle now, for one thing; secondly, I believe the Elevated can give better service at a lower rate than he can, and therefore, as much as I regret it, I shall vote against it.

President DONOGHUE—The question comes on granting the license.

Coun. MORIARTY—I should like to read section 12 of the city ordinance.

"A schedule of operations filed by the licensee with his application for such license shall provide for the regular operation of the motor vehicles between the termini and over the route designated in the license. The licensee shall regularly operate a motor bus in substantial accordance with this schedule of operations."

I should like to ask the Chair, after that, if he still continues to make his ruling?

President DONOGHUE—The Chair will state that it is just a question of interpretation. I am inclined to make a common sense ruling on the proposition. I may not have the legal ability to rule technically in a legal way concerning it, but I think that I have ruled in a common sense way. If the license is granted and the schedule is filed, necessarily it will accompany that license, and I so interpret this ordinance. The question comes on the passage of the order. All in favor will say "Aye," opposed, "No." The Chair is in doubt. The Clerk will call the roll.

The Council voted to grant the license, yeas 5, nays 2.

Yeas—Coun. Donoghue, Gilbody, Moriarty, Purcell, Walsh—5.

Nays—Coun. Healey, Watson—2.

On motion of Coun. WATSON the Council voted to take from the table No. 6 on the calendar, viz.:

6. Petition of the Boston Bus Transportation Company, for a license to operate jitneys, starting at West Roxbury Parkway on Weld street to Church street.

The Council voted to grant the license, yeas 5, nays 1.

Yeas—Coun. Donoghue, Gilbody, Moriarty, Purcell, Walsh—5.

Nays—Coun. Watson—1.

TREMONT AND KNEELAND STREETS.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, I move that we take Nos. 7 and 8 from the table, and that we vote on each one separately.

President DONOGHUE—The councilman moves that we take No. 7 from the table.

(No. 7 is the loan order for the widening of Tremont street.)

Coun. BRICKLEY—Mr. President, I think that is a matter that the full Council should pass on.

At this time I would like to amend that motion, to lay the matter on the table for another week at least, or until the next meeting of the Council.

President DONOGHUE—The matter is already on the table, and if the gentleman does not desire to have it taken from the table, the proper method to pursue is to vote against taking it from the table. The question comes on taking the matter from the table. All in favor say "Aye"; opposed, "No."

Coun. BRICKLEY—I doubt the vote, Mr. Chairman.

President DONOGHUE—The Clerk will call the roll.

The Council refused to take No. 7 from the table, yeas 4, nays 4:

Yeas—Coun. Donoghue, Purcell, Walsh, Watson—4.

Nays—Coun. Brickley, Gilbody, Healey, Moriarty—4.

President DONOGHUE—It is not a vote. Councilman Purcell moves that we take No. 8 from the table. The question comes on taking the matter from the table.

(No. 8 is the loan order for the widening of Kneeland street.)

Coun. WATSON—Is the question of taking from the table debatable?

President DONOGHUE—The matter is not debatable. The question comes on taking the matter from the table. All in favor say "Aye"; opposed, "No." The Chair is in doubt. The Clerk will call the roll.

The Council refused to take No. 8 from the table, yeas 4, nays 4:

Yeas—Coun. Donoghue, Purcell, Walsh, Watson—4.

Nays—Coun. Brickley, Gilbody, Healey, Moriarty—4.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I move to reconsider the last vote whereby the Council voted, by a vote of 4 to 4, not to take the matter from the table.

President DONOGHUE—The councilman moves the reconsideration of the vote refusing to take No. 8 from the table.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I intended to move the reconsideration of the question of the vote whereby No. 7 was denied the right to be taken from the table, or where we denied the motion of Councilman Purcell to take from the table No. 7 and No. 8, as he said. I would like to serve notice on the Council that the building at the corner of Hollis and Tremont street—I forget the name of the building, but the new building with the foundations in and on which two stories and a half are already erected—Councilman Moriarty tells me that they have suspended the building operations because of the doubt in their minds concerning whether or not they will widen that side rather than the side that we have mentioned in the Street Commissioner's order. Now, that is a very serious question. There are a lot of people loafing in Boston. Am I correct that they have shut down, Councilman Moriarty?

Coun. MORIARTY—Yes.

Coun. WATSON. I think that is true, that they have shut down. I was told that for ten days they had not turned a spade of dirt there, or done any work. I may not be correctly informed. I am not in the building business, but I think I am correct about it. I believe that we are making an error in not taking some action today one way or the other. Again, the Elks are in a quandary. The Elks are perfectly willing to accept a verdict either to widen one side or the other. They do not care. They want action. Their building operations are held in abeyance. I understand they are all ready to complete the placing of their loan, but it seems to me if the Council sees fit to hold to its present position on it, I have no objection. I am performing my duty as I see it, but I do think we ought to act one way or the other on it.

Coun. MORIARTY—I will say that I would have voted to take it from the table if I thought it had a chance of going through. We have laid it over for two past meetings, because we have not had a full membership present. I believe that if we laid it over at the last two meetings because we did not have a full membership, that that is a good reason for laying it over today. From all observations, if the matter was to be voted upon today, the vote would be 5 to 3, and it would be defeated.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, the gentleman is in possession of more information than I am, and I am perfectly willing to let the matter stand as it is. I have no objection.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, I believe this matter should be voted on today. Does the Council realize that if this matter goes over until the 5th of September it becomes a law, whether we vote on it or not, and if that is the game of calling this meeting today, as I understand it—I have not received written notice. I received a notice from the City Clerk, or from Mr. Baldwin, I should say, to appear here today, but I have not received written notice. From what I understand, the Mayor has called this meeting. I believe this should be voted on today. If that is the game, to hold one man back from coming into this meeting so that this thing will be passed and become a law on the 5th of September, now is the time to vote on it. I am here to vote on it.

Coun. BRICKLEY—I move a general reconsideration of all matters pending today.

President DONOGHUE—There is a motion before the Council. Councilman WATSON moves that No. 8—

Coun. BRICKLEY—He withdrew that.

Coun. WATSON—I asked unanimous consent to withdraw it.

President DONOGHUE—The Chair has not put any such motion. Coun. Watson moved a reconsideration of the action taken on No. 8. The Chair understands that is the matter which is now before the Council.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. Chairman, Coun. Watson asked if I would yield, and I yielded, and I understood he asked unanimous consent to withdraw his motion.

Coun. WATSON—That was my intention.

Coun. MORIARTY—I did not take the floor.

President DONOGHUE—The Chair did not understand any such motion, and it did not put any such motion to the Council.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, I want to say that I have been at every meeting regarding the widening of Tremont street and Kneeland street since the matter came in here. I want to say that I am a part of no game. I have continually voted here every time that the matter has come under consideration, and I am prepared to vote now. But it was argued here at both of our previous meetings that on account of absentees at our meetings, the matter should be laid over so that each member would have an opportunity to vote on it. The vote, as it stands today, is 5 to 3, which means that the loan order shall be defeated, and I do not want to see it defeated. As the councilman who had made the motion for reconsideration says, there are a lot of men out of work. Yes, and there are going to be a lot more men out of work, and if we can possibly pass this loan order, it may put a lot of men to work, and it may take a lot of people from the Welfare Committee's list this winter. It is going to be big enough without the members of this Council making it larger, and I feel that the proposition of both Kneeland street and Tremont street should not be defeated, and that is why I voted to lay the matter on the table.

Coun. WATSON—We may have the votes today.

Coun. MORIARTY—I am not taking any chances. I don't think we have. I have been told there were six votes in here going to vote for it, but I do not believe it, and I am not taking any chances, because if it is defeated today the Mayor will have to call another special meeting, and get one reading on it, if he can get six votes, and then it will continue to lay on the table at least fourteen days more before we can give it a second reading, and I am trying to save that fourteen days, figuring that the member that is away—I don't know how he will vote, and he has a right to vote the way he wants to, as every other member in here has, but I feel that at the next meeting he will be present. I thought that he would be present today when I received the notice of the special meeting. But as long as we are not all present, I feel that the matter should be allowed to lay on the table, for the reason that it has been allowed to remain on the table, until the next meeting of this Council.

Coun. BRICKLEY—I move the previous question, unless the councilman withdraws his motion on reconsideration. I would like to have Councilman Watson answer that. He made the motion.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, I want to say that I make no reference to Councilman Moriarty as being in a game to delay this. I am accusing the Mayor of Boston of being in a game to delay this, not Mr. Moriarty.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I don't know just what to do in the matter. I have been told by interested parties, both the Elks and the other people, that they want action one way or the other on this, either favorable or unfavorable, today. I know of a case on Kneeland street where a man has lost tenants to the total of $16,000, because he cannot give them a lease. They have moved out, they have gone elsewhere. He has got four or five large rooms or lofts vacant, and he was up here today to appeal to the Council to do something one way or the other, and I am inclined to agree with Councilman Moriarty. Employment is scarce. He says it is going to be scarcer. I hope not. I hope he is wrong, but I hope he knows what he is talking about. A week's delay will mean the loss of employment to people who need work. I will ask unanimous consent to withdraw my motion to take from the table Nos. 7 and 8.

President DONOGHUE—The motion is on the reconsideration of the vote refusing to take No. 8 from the table.

Coun. WATSON—Then I will withdraw my motion for reconsideration.

President DONOGHUE—Councilman Watson asks unanimous consent to withdraw his motion for reconsideration of No. 8 on the calendar. Is there objection? Hearing none, the Chair will rule that the motion is withdrawn.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, I wonder if Councilman Moriarty or Councilman Watson realizes—

President DONOGHUE—There is no question before the body, Councilman Purcell.

Coun. BRICKLEY—I move a general reconsideration for the day, sir.

Coun. WATSON—That usually comes at the conclusion of the meeting. Why move it now?

President DONOGHUE—Councilman Brickley moves a general reconsideration of all matters acted on today.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. President, I would like to have you take a recess rather than put that motion. It may be there are six votes for these measures today. If there are, let us have it out. Perhaps a little conference will do no harm. I move that we take a recess.

President DONOGHUE—Councilman Brickley moves that all matters acted on today be reconsidered, hoping the same will not prevail.

Coun. BRICKLEY—Mr. Chairman, I move that we adjourn.

President DONOGHUE—The motion before the body has not been acted on. The motion to adjourn is not in order. The question comes on Councilman Brickley's motion.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. Chairman, I think Coun. Brickley misunderstands the purpose for which I asked him to withdraw his motion. I do not want to get into any mix-up here. Lord knows, I am in enough up to date. I would prefer to have some one else do the talking, but Councilman Moriarty says he understood there were six votes for the measure here today. Perhaps there are. Who knows? How does any one here know how the members are going to vote? I asked Councilman Brickley to withdraw his motion in order that we may go into recess for a few moments, and then I am perfectly willing to vote on anything you want.

President DONOGHUE—There is no reason why the motion to take a recess cannot be made after Coun. Brickley's motion has been acted on.

Coun. WATSON—Do I understand, Mr. President, that we then can reconsider matters that we have acted on, if we come back?

President DONOGHUE—Provided we vote in favor of it.

Coun. WATSON—I trust the motion to reconsider will prevail.

President DONOGHUE—The Chair will state that the motion is to reconsider, hoping that the same will not prevail.

Coun. WATSON—I trust it will not prevail.

President DONOGHUE—The Chair will state that if Coun. Brickley's motion to reconsider does not prevail, these matters cannot be acted on today.

Coun. WATSON—That is what I understand.

President DONOGHUE—So that in order to defeat Coun. Brickley's motion, you will have to vote "Yes" instead of "No." The question comes on the reconsideration. All those in favor say "Aye"; those opposed, "No."

Coun. PURCELL—I doubt the vote, Mr. President.

President DONOGHUE—The vote has been doubted. Before the roll is called, the Chair will state that if this motion prevail, it reconsiders the action taken not only on this particular matter, but every matter that has been acted on today. If, on the other hand, Coun. Brickley's motion does not prevail, then action on any matter on this calendar cannot be taken today. The Chair will suggest that the solution of that proposition would be for Coun. Brickley to withdraw his motion to reconsider, provided he feels and the other members of the Council feel that they desire to take a recess, or to transact any further business today.

Coun. BRICKLEY—Do you want it?

Coun. WATSON—Yes, withdraw it.

Coun. BRICKLEY—Mr. President, I withdraw the motion.

President DONOGHUE—Coun. Brickley asks unanimous consent to withdraw his motion.

By unanimous consent, the motion was withdrawn.

RECESS TAKEN.

Coun. WATSON—I move that we now take a recess, Mr. Chairman.

The motion was carried, and at 3.45 p. m. the Council took a recess. The Council reassembled at 4.03 p. m. and were called to order by the President.

Coun. BRICKLEY—Mr. President, I move that we adjourn.

President DONOGHUE—Coun. Brickley moves that we do now adjourn. All in favor say "Aye"; opposed, "No." It is not a vote.

Coun. BRICKLEY—I doubt the vote, Mr. President.

President DONOGHUE—The vote has been doubted. The Clerk will call the roll.

The motion to adjourn was lost, yeas 3, nays 4. Yeas—Coun. Gilbody, Healey—3 Nays—Coun. Donoghue, Purcell, Walsh, Watson—4.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. President, I move reconsideration of the vote on No. 7, hoping the same will prevail. We have been called here today, Mr. President, by the Mayor of Boston.

President DONOGHUE—Councilman Purcell moves the reconsideration of the vote whereby the Council refused to take No. 7 from the table.

Coun. PURCELL—We have been called here today, Mr. President, by the Mayor of Boston to vote on the calendar and clean it up. I think this is the proper time to do it. Last week I laid it on the table on account of two members not being here. One of the two is here. Now, if the other member does not feel it his duty to appear here, I believe that it is his own business, but I am here to vote on Nos. 7 and 8 and I move you here that we reconsider, hoping the same will prevail, and that we vote on it today.

President DONOGHUE—The question comes on the reconsideration, hoping the same will prevail.

Coun. BRICKLEY—Mr. President, I was one of the absent members. I made myself absent because I wanted to be considered as such. I think I am in a majority here, but the majority is not quite large enough to pass this order. But I think the member that is absent will vote in favor of it, and after listening to everybody as to the work that it will give to the people of the city, I think that we should keep it on the calendar without defeating it, until the opportunity is ripe, until the full membership of the Council is here. I do not think that because the minority think they can defeat it, that we should bow to their way of thinking, and I am going to vote against the reconsideration. I think it should lie on the table till Councilman Lane returns.

Coun. GILBODY—I would like to call the attention of the President and the members of the body to the fact that another member of the Council has just stepped out of the room for the moment, and I think that we ought to give him a chance to say a word on this proposition. We have extended courtesy to everybody else, and Councilman Moriarty has just stepped out for half a moment, I understand, and I think we ought to take another recess until he arrives here.

Coun. PURCELL—I have heard a lot here about the work that is going to be given to the workmen. I wonder if the members of this body realize that the order for the widening of Cambridge street was passed a year ago, and I haven't heard anybody in the Council worrying about the work for the workmen on that. That has been left for over a year, and there hasn't been anything done. I think that is a lot of bunk about the workmen getting some work.

President DONOGHUE—Will Councilman Walsh take the chair?

(Coun. WALSH then took the chair.)

President DONOGHUE—Mr. Chairman, I do not intend to get into any controversy over this matter again today. I stated my position rather clearly with reference to both of these matters a week ago, and I was very much surprised when I received a communication calling us together again today, the communication from his Honor the Mayor, saying that because of the new buildings, etc., that would be erected if this proposition were passed by this Council, that he felt that we should have a meeting today and decide upon this proposition one way or the other. I am prepared to vote against it. I stated my reasons for voting against it before, and I might just as well restate them now.

Of course, on every proposition which involves the expenditure of $1,000,000 or $2,000,000 we always hear the bugaboo of no work and hard times being raised by those that are in favor of the proposition. As Councilman Purcell has just stated, a $3,500,000 proposition, the widening of Cambridge street, was passed by the Legislature without the sanction of this Council and without this Council having anything to say about the matter, with the entire proposition lying in the hands of the Street Commission and the office of the Mayor, but not a single stone has been turned in over a year. Now, isn't it fair to assume that if nothing has been done on Cambridge street for over a year, that nothing will be done on Tremont street or Kneeland street for at least a year? So that the bugaboo of no work is just merely to camouflage the proposition and place it in the light that we who are opposed to the expenditure of $1,200,000 on Tremont street and $1,200,000 on Kneeland street are in opposition to the wishes of the people of this city. In my opinion, the great majority of the people of this city are absolutely opposed to the widening of either Kneeland or Tremont street at this particular time. There is no need of it, and the only reason that has been advanced for it, even in connection with the widening of Tremont street, has been that it might to a degree relieve the traffic. There is no traffic congestion between Stuart street and Arlington square. In my opinion, it is plenty wide enough for present needs today, and if it is not, why are the people who are constructing the building at the corner of Hollis and Tremont streets allowed to extend their walk out into the street a yard instead of being obliged to live up to the law just the same as everyone else who builds in this city, and to build a structure over the sidewalk so that people might walk on the sidewalk? They are taking up now over a yard of the street, and if there is such a tremendous traffic congestion, why isn't that taken care of, which would add at least three feet to the present width of Tremont street? That has been allowed to be in existence for over eight months, and in all probability it will be allowed to continue in existence, because those who are interested in this proposition are the powerful interests, the same interests that are interested in all street widening propositions.

I remember when Stuart street was before this Council for our consideration, and they did not have a sufficient number of votes in this Council to pass that measure. The arguments that were advanced then are substantially the same arguments that can be raised now with reference to the widening of either Tremont or Kneeland street.

We were told it was going to open up a great business section of the city, the Park square section, and it would mean a tremendous increase in valuations of real estate, etc., if that street was put through. What has been done? What new building has been erected along Stuart street? Practically none. There has not been, in my opinion, a single building of any size erected from one end of Stuart street to the other. There have been a few little repair jobs done, that is true, but that is all that has been done. There has been no great outstanding building erected in the Park square section which was before this Council over three years ago.

The same thing is going to be true of Chambers street, and the same thing is going to be true of Tremont street and Kneeland street. I think we have got a duty to perform. We owe our allegiance to the citizenry of Boston. Not a single solitary soul appeared in favor of this proposition. We held one impromptu hearing, and we held one public hearing, and not one single soul in this city appeared before this Council and stated without qualification or reservation that they were in favor of the widening of either Kneeland or Tremont street. Then why should we vote for it? There is no one in Boston that I know of,—and we have the public records to substantiate my statement,—not one single soul that is interested or in favor of this proposition.

How many thousands of people are there in Boston, residents and citizens of this city all the years of their lives, that live in congested districts, that live in sections which unquestionably should be improved? Why don't we spend two and a half million dollars for the improvement of those sections of the city? Why don't we widen Dudley street? Why don't we widen Newspaper Row? Why don't we widen some of the North End sections, some of the streets down through the West End, some of the streets through Roxbury, South Boston, or some of the other sections where the people live? If we have got two and a half million dollars to spend, I say we should spend it for the best interests of the people of this city.

Who was the instigator of this proposition? The Planning Board of the City of Boston. And who are they? Are they residents of our city? A great majority of them are not. They go before the Legislature and they put before them this scheme of theirs to widen certain streets, and the only streets that are considered are the streets that are in the control of the so-called interests who have been operating in a real estate way in this city for years. That is true of Stuart street, it is true of Chambers street, it is true of Tremont street and it is true of Kneeland street. And then they try to tell us that we are opposed to the wishes of the common people! We are in favor of the common people, those of us who are opposed to this proposition. It does not mean the turning of a stone for over a year, at the very least. Not one single individual, in my opinion, will get one hour's work on these propositions for at least over one year, and then if they do pass these propositions I will predict now that this work will be let out to contract, and that it will be done by non-citizen labor. No citizen of the City of Boston is going to reap any great benefit from these improvements. So, therefore, when we consider the source of the birth of these propositions, the Planning Board, that Board which has been responsible for passing the so-called Zoning Act, which has deprived the citizens of this city of the right to build garages on their own property, through a strict interpretation of the law—no one who owns a piece of property today can build a garage on his own property unless he owns an acre or so of land. They have been responsible for holding up the erection of over three hundred or four hundred permits to build. No action has been taken for more than a month, until the Mayor made a common-sense ruling on this proposition, which allowed these people to build garages on their own property. But, in my opinion, the strict interpretation of that law would prevent property owners from erecting a garage on their own property. Who are these people who are interested in the welfare of Boston? Why don't we, the city itself, through its administrative head, make some sort of a plan whereby, if we are going to spend two and a half millions of dollars of the people's money, we are going to accomplish the greatest good for the greatest number of people that are residents of the city, and not put through these propositions that are in the interests of certain so-called interests in our city?

I can't see one solitary reason for voting for this proposition, and I believe that we should take action on it. His Honor the Mayor believes that we should take action on it, and only a short while ago it was said that no five votes should be able to either defeat or pass this legislation, and unless action is taken on this proposition before September 5, then it is going to automatically become law, and it is going to become law by the action of five members of the Council continuing to vote to keep this matter on the table. It is not going to receive the required number of votes in order to pass this legislation. So that the charges which have been hurled in this Council against a minority seeking to foist their will or their ways on the action of the majority does not hold. It is a question of not a sufficient number of votes being here, and this matter has been under consideration for over a month, and if any member of the Council is not sufficiently interested in a month to be here and to vote on this proposition one way or the other, then I say that we should no longer delay. I am prepared to vote against this proposition to-day, and every other day, and I feel that the matter should be reconsidered.

Only those who spoke here in favor of not widening the side of the street they were interested in were the ones who even had any semblance of thought that this street should be widened, and they said, "Go ahead and widen it if you want to. So long as you do not affect our interests we are not interested." But they are interested, and every citizen of our city should be more interested than he is in the expenditure of two and a half millions of dollars. They may say that it does not come out of the tax rate, that it is a loan order outside of the debt limit, but in the final analysis it means that the person who carries the load and swing the pick is going to pay this bill, and I am in favor of one who has to work for a living just as much as any member of this Council, and I feel that I am acting for their interests and their interests first when I vote against the expenditure of two and a half millions of dollars for the widening of Kneeland street and the widening to Tremont street, which do not need widening, as against voting for some proposition which would relieve a congested district or a congested area in our city. I will vote for any appropriation which will widen a narrow street in any section of this city, which will widen a street which is not sufficiently wide at the present time, to relieve congestion, but I am not going to be led into voting for a proposition such as this, on either the bugaboo that it is going to increase real estate values or that it is going to provide work, because experience has taught me, in my seven years in this Council, or six years, rather, that that is not so; that all of these arguments are advanced by those who are in favor of these propositions, and that they do not mean anything. We have a living example surrounding us. We have got Stuart street on the one hand, which was going to open up a great big area in the Park square district, and we were going to see such tremendous increases in valuations over night that it would be more than trebled in value inside of a few years, and we haven't a single house erected, or a single building erected, and we haven't seen a single stone turned on Cambridge street. We haven't had anything to do with Cambridge street. It was taken away from the City Council and put into the hands of the Street Commission and his Honor, and not one step has been taken to start work on Cambridge street. Stuart street was also taken away and put into the hands of the Street Commission and the previous mayor, and today we are for the first time acting on a street widening proposition that this Council has some voice in, and I feel that we should vote on the proposition whether we vote for it or whether we vote against it. This talk of delay does not mean anything. If they have got the votes to put it over, let them put it over. If they have not got the votes to put it over, surely they have not enough votes to delay the vote. I hope the matter will be reconsidered, Mr. Chairman.

President DONOGHUE in the chair.

President DONOGHUE—The question is on Councilman Purcell's motion to reconsider the action on No. 7. The clerk will call the roll.

The motion was lost, yeas 3, nays 5:

Yeas—Coun. Donoghue, Purcell, Walsh, 3.

Nays—Coun. Brickley, Gilbody, Healey, Moriarty Watson, 5.

ADJOURNMENT.

Coun. BRICKLEY moved that the Council do now adjourn.

The motion was carried, yeas 5, nays 3.

Yeas—Coun. Brickley, Gilbody, Healey, Moriarty, Watson—5.

Nays—Coun. Donoghue, Purcell, Walsh—3.

The Council stood adjourned at 4.40 p. m. to meet on Monday, September 8, at two o'clock p. m.

NOTE.—At the meeting of the City Council on July 28, 1924, the following communications were received in connection with the order for a loan of $200,000 for sewerage works and the order rescinding the right to borrow $200,000 for highways, and were ordered printed on motion of Coun. HEALEY, viz.:

City of Boston,

City of Boston,
Street Laying-Out Department July 28, 1924.
To the Honorable City Council.
Gentlemen,—In accordance with my agreement at the last Council meeting, I am giving you the required information regarding the progress of work on the list of streets which was furnished to the City Council early this year. Contracts have been awarded for the construction of the following named streets as shown on this list:

	Estimated Cost of Construction.
Ashley street, East Boston.....	$30,000	June 23.
Grove street, West Roxbury.....	105,000	June 23.
Claffin street, South Boston.....	17,500	May 4.

Sterling street, Roxbury.....	5,326	City labor.
Dalkeith street, Dorchester.....	3,500	July 14.
Chauncy street.....	105,000
	$503,926

In the following-named streets the necessary sewer and surface drainage work is being done preparatory to street construction:

Halford road, West Roxbury.
Ethel street, West Roxbury.
Bolster street, Roxbury.
Harrishof street, Roxbury.
Sunset Hill road, West Roxbury.
Mark street, Roxbury.

The following-named streets will be probably done this year, although no contracts for construction or sewerage have been ordered thus far:

Kilmarnock street, Boston.
Public alley No. 544.
Price road, Brighton.
Bradeen street, West Roxbury.
Metropolitan avenue, West Roxbury.
Blackwell street, Dorchester.
Bowman street, Dorchester.
New England avenue, Dorchester.

In all probability the following-named streets will not be constructed this year:

Caledonia avenue, West Roxbury.
Monastery road, Brighton.
Woodbrier road, West Roxbury.
Leston street, Dorchester.
Clementine park, Dorchester.
Wildwood street, Dorchester.
Winton street, West Roxbury.
Somerset street, Boston.

Every street on the lists submitted to you has been accepted and ordered laid out by this department with the exception of Somerset street, which will probably be a part of the Cambridge and Court street development. No work of any nature has been started on any street named on this list by the Commissioner of Public Works so far this year, and all the street laying-out and construction that has been done by the department this year, or is contemplated being done, is included in the list which I sent to you.

Very truly yours,
JOHN H. L. NOYES,
Chairman.

BOSTON'S LIABILITY FOR METROPOLITAN DEBT, 1923.

Boston's liability for this contingent debt of the State (i. e., in the form of annual assessments for sinking-funds and interest) incurred for Metropolitan parks, sewers, water, etc., was $27,106,350 (net) on July 1, 1923, or $1,003,191 less than in 1922. It is divided thus: Water debt, $17,164,364; park debt, $1,172,214; sewer debt, $3,845,376; Charles River Basin debt, $1,924,396. The percentages paid by Boston are 73.0066 on water debt; 57.5862 on most of the park debt; 45.39 on most of the sewer debt, and on Charles River Basin debt the same as on park debt.

Metropolitan assessments paid by Boston in 1923 amounted to $3,573,070, of which 58 per cent was for debt requirements and 42 per cent for maintenance. Water assessment, $1,872,413 (paid from water revenue); park, $1,010,502; sewer, $456,954; Charles River Basin, etc., $233,201.

DELINQUENT TAX SALES.

CITY OF BOSTON.

CITY COLLECTOR'S NOTICE.

The owners and occupants of the following described parcels of real estate situated in the City of Boston, in the County of Suffolk and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and the public, are hereby notified that the taxes and assessments thereon severally assessed for the years hereinafter specified, according to the lists committed by the assessors of taxes of said City to me as collector of taxes for said City, including assessments for the suppression of gypsy and brown-tail moths, remain unpaid, and that the smallest undivided part of said land sufficient to satisfy said taxes and assessments, with interests and all legal costs and charges, or the whole of said land if no person offers to take an undivided part thereof, will be offered for sale by public auction at the City Collector's office, on the second floor of the City Hall Annex on Court street, in said City of Boston, on Wednesday, September 10, 1924, at 9.30 o'clock a. m., for the payment of said taxes and assessments, with interests, costs and charges thereon, unless the same shall be previously discharged.

The sums set against the following descriptions of the several parcels of land show the amounts due thereon respectively for the taxes and assessments for the nonpayment of which each of said parcels of land is to be sold, but do not include the cost and interest thereon and costs and charges incident to this sale.

Collector of Taxes for the City of Boston.

FIRE DEPARTMENT, 1924.

By Feb. 1, 1924, the fire-fighting force had been reorganized as required by the two-platoon system, in effect on said date. This change, with the addition of 177 privates and 33 officers (the latter by promotion), increased the force to 1,427 men, viz.: the Chief, one ass't. chief, 6 deputy chiefs, 30 district chiefs (15 for day and 15 for night service), 74 captains, 107 lieutenants, 57 engineers, 57 assistant engineers and 1,094 privates, divided into 53 engine companies (3 marine), 30 ladder, 1 chemical and 3 water-tower companies, a rescue company and 2 emergency squads, the engine companies generally consisting of 14 or 15 men, including a captain and a lieutenant; other employees, 12 at headquarters, 96 men in repair shop and 44 in fire-alarm branch; fire stations, 62.

Automobile apparatus in service, 34 combination pumpers or gasoline engine and hose-reel, 5 triple combination (inclu. chemical task) also 10 tractor-drawn steamers and one steam-propelled steamer; 39 combination chemical engine and hose cars; 30 ladder-trucks (12 aerial); 3 fireboats; 3 water-towers; 1 rescue auto with pulmotors and 1 auto wrecker. Total apparatus, 127. Officers' cars, 34 and delivery trucks, 11. Leading hose 143,116 feet and suction hose, 2,366 feet; fire alarm boxes, 1,310.

In reserve are 16 engines (10 auto); 7 hose wagons (6 auto); 7 ladder trucks (6 auto); 1 water tower (auto) and 7 officers' cars.

Total alarms in calendar year 1923, 7,241 or 1,107 more than in 1922, of which total 729 were needless and 287 false alarms, besides 154 automatic alarms, false and accidental. Total fires, 6,071 (862 more than in 1922) of which 3,148 were in buildings, 2,872 outside of buildings and 51 out of city limits. In 18 cases the buildings were totally destroyed, in 94 the damage was considerable and in 1,941 the damage was slight; other cases, no damage stated.

The Boston Protective Department (not a City department) reported the total fire losses in 1923 on buildings as $1,932,424 and on contents as $4,353,875, or total of $6,286,299, which is $2,981,703 more than in 1922. Of total loss, the amount not covered by insurance was $344,551.

The B. P. D. also reported that of the 2,320 fires involving losses, 499 were caused by carelessness with matches, 258 by smoking, 152 by electricity, 143 by exposure to fires near by, 140 by overheated or defective stoves, furnaces, etc., 109 by open lights, 86 by sparks from combustion, 79 by sparks on roof, 60 by explosions, 58 by petroleum and its products, 57 by defective flues and chimneys, 50 by spontaneous combustion, 41 by hot ashes, 34 by fireworks, etc.

Cost of maintenance for 1923, $3,669,450 (including Wire Div.) or $331,945 more than in 1922. Value of land and buildings $2,375,500; cost of motor equipment, $1,017,331.

Annual salaries: Commissioner, $7,500; Chief, $5,500; deputy chiefs, $4,000; district chiefs, $3,500; captains, $2,500; lieutenants, $2,300; engineers, $1,900; assistant engineers, $1,800; 1st-year privates, $1,400, with $100 yearly increase until maximum of $1,800 is reached.

The apparatus in service is now entirely motor-driven, the last horse-drawn piece having been replaced Oct. 18, 1923.

The records of the Wire Division show that on Feb. 1, 1924, the underground electric service comprised 3,663,539 feet of conduit, 21,954,630 feet of single duct and 33,232,932 feet of cable of the drawing-in system, also 691,529 feet of 3-wire cable and tube of the solid system. From the business districts, over a street area of 46,415,000 square feet, and from 72 miles of additional streets all poles and overhead wires have been removed.

METROPOLITAN DISTRICT OR "GREATER BOSTON."

Consists in the most inclusive sense of 40 municipalities, including Boston, or 14 cities and 25 towns, all within 15 miles of the State House. The 7 cities in the first zone, i. e., adjacent to Boston, are these, viz., Cambridge, Chelsea, Everett, Newton, Quincy, Revere and Somerville; the 6 cities in the second zone, not adjacent, are Lynn, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Waltham and Woburn. The 6 adjacent towns are Brookline, Dedham, Milton, Needham, Watertown and Winthrop; the 20 other towns are Arlington, Belmont, Braintree, Canton, Cohasset, Dover, Hingham, Hull, Lexington, Nahant, Reading, Saugus, Stoneham, Swampscott, Wakefield, Wellesley, Weston, Westwood, Weymouth and Winchester.

North and northwest of Boston are situated 11 of the cities and 12 of the towns; south and southwest, 2 cities and 14 towns. Area of Northern Division, 150.8 square miles and population in 1920, 699,685, or a density of 4,619 per square mile; Southern Division, 214.8 square miles and 211,191 population, or density of only 983 per square mile; in the whole Metropolitan District, 4,051 per square mile. In percentages Boston shows 10.5 per cent of District's area and 45.09 per cent of population; Northern Division, 36.2 of area and 42.18 of population; Southern Division, 53.3 of area and 12.73 of population. In the period 1915-1920, increase of population 34,798 larger in Northern than in Southern Division.

Total land area of District, 409.5 square miles; population by census of 1920, 1,658,936 or 4.08 per cent increase over that of 1915. Corrected population for 1920 (Boston's total increased by 54,808) 1,713,744. Of the total population of the State "Greater Boston" has 44.48 per cent; of total valuation, 51.11 per cent; of total value of manufactures, 32.53 per cent.

Total valuation of taxable property in District on April 1, 1922, $2,919,179,075, which exceeds the 1921 valuation by $114,300,660, a gain of 4.07 per cent. Of said total 57.47 per cent was in Boston and 42.53 per cent outside.

The four organized Metropolitan Districts existing for the purpose of constructing and maintaining certain extensive systems of public works under State control are as follows: Metropolitan Park District, established by chapter 407, Acts of 1893, including all the cities and towns except Lexington, and managed by a State Board of five commissioners; Metropolitan Water District, established by chapter 488, Acts of 1895, including 10 cities and 9 towns, and covering an area of 175 square miles; Metropolitan Sewerage District, established by chapter 439, Acts of 1889, consisting of the North System and South System, including 17 cities and towns in the former system and 8 in the latter, and covering an area of 225 square miles; the last two districts managed by a single State board of three commissioners; Charles River Basin District, established by chapter 465, Acts of 1903, including all the cities and towns except Cohasset and Lexington, and in charge of the Metropolitan Park Commission. By Chapter 350, General Acts of 1919, the two Metropolitan boards were abolished and a single Metropolitan Commission of five members was established.

Another Metropolitan District, viz., the Fire Prevention District, was organized in 1914 by the enactment of chapter 795. In this district are the 14 cities of "Greater Boston," but only 10 of the towns, to which were added Reading and Rockland, a total of 25 municipalities. The District is in charge of a single commissioner, assisted by a deputy commissioner, both appointed for a term of three years. This office was also abolished by said Chapter 350, the work of same being transferred to Department of Public Safety.

Total gross Metropolitan debt for water, parks, sewers and Charles River Basin improvements on July 1, 1922, $77,599,512; sinking funds, $31,419,635; net debt, $46,179,877 or $1,649,011 less than in 1921. This net debt is divided thus: Water supply, $24,514,519; sewers, $11,265,640; parks, boulevards, etc., $7,318,353; Charles River Basin, $3,081,365.

Of 1922 tax rates, the highest of the cities was Quincy's ($36.20) and the highest among the towns, that of Saugus ($38.00); the lowest among the cities was Boston's ($24.70) and among the towns, that of Weston ($18.90). Mean tax rate of the 13 cities in the District outside of Boston, $32.48 or $1.00 more than in 1921 and $3.38 more than in 1920. Mean tax rate of the 26 towns, $27.72 or $1.16 more than in 1921 and $3.11 more than in 1920.

There were in the District in 1920, 4,471 manufacturing establishments, value of product, $1,421,528,434; capital invested, $846,928,136; value of stock and materials used, $814,021,722; total wages paid $266,902,177; average number of wage earners, 207,066. Rank, 1 to 12 in value of products: (1) Boston, $674,344,180; (2) Cambridge, $156,430,827; (3) Lynn, $143,039,476; (4) Somerville, $81,605,860; (5) Watertown, $56,663,659; (6) Everett, $53,106,185; (7) Quincy, $41,241,061; (8) Chelsea, $36,412,602; (9) Malden, $32,326,117; (10) Waltham, $23,895,120; (11) Weymouth, $21,822,189; (12) Newton, $16,295,778. Boston's total product value was 47.44 per cent of the Metropolitan District's.

PUBLIC RECREATION IN BOSTON.

Number of large parks, 24; separate playgrounds, 44, with total of 324.5 acres, also 13 playgrounds in parks, with area of 155 acres; small parks and squares, 72.8; total area, 2,686.79 acres. Cost of Main Park System, i. e., 1,386 acres (including Common and Public Garden, 72.65 acres) land and construction (since 1877 when begun), $12,204,876; of Marine Park System, i. e., 457.9 acres (since 1883), $4,601,045; of all other parks and public grounds, $2,537,898; of separate playgrounds, $4,458,331. Total cost, $23,802,150, of which $9,789,096 is for land alone.

The leading attraction of the Main Park System is Franklin Park (named for Benjamin Franklin), acquired in 1883-84, and containing 527 acres, about 80 of which are occupied by the Zoological Garden, 15 miles of walks, 8 miles of driveways, etc., the entire cost up to 1921 being $4,496,801. There are also within the City limits 964 acres of Metropolitan parks and parkways under State control, chief of which is Stony Brook Reservation in West Roxbury, containing 464 acres of wild forested hill and dale with many rocky knolls and an extensive view of the Charles River valley and beyond.

Number of public indoor baths open all the year, 14; 9 beach baths and 7 floating baths open during summer; indoor gymnasia, 11; total number of indoor baths taken in year 1921, 1,527,171, of which 74.3 per cent were by men and boys.

Park Department maintenance for 1921-22 (including Cemetery Division), $1,366,048 or $63,260 less than in 1920. Outlay for playground improvements, $72,885; for park improvements, $394,748, of which $254,575 was from Parkman Fund income. Gross debt for parks, public grounds, etc., outstanding February 1, 1922, $9,681,050; for playgrounds, $2,224,300; total, $11,905,350 or $794,250 less than in 1921. By Chap. 13, Ord. 1920, the Cemetery Department was merged with the Park Dept., the latter title being substituted for Park and Recreation Department.

Including the State assessments of $948,310 for Metropolitan parks, boulevards, etc., and $238,073 for Charles River Basin improvements, the total expended for public recreation purposes in 1921 was $2,903,689 or $82,782 more in 1920.

Total valuation of City properties devoted to recreation $69,306,900 (including $55,112,400 for Boston Common and Public Garden), which far exceeds that of any other American city except New York.

AREA OF BOSTON.

Area to ward lines (26 wards), 30,598 acres (i. e., 47.81 square miles), 2,944 acres being filled land, 1,143 acres water area and 1,484 acres flats. Land area only 27,971 acres (i. e., 43.70 square miles). Included in the latter are 154 acres of filled flats added to the land area of South Boston in 1919 and 1920 and 133 acres to that of East Boston. Original Boston contained about 780 acres of land. Of the twelve leading American cities, eight are larger in land area than Boston, viz., Los Angeles (365.7 sq. miles), New York (318), Chicago (199.4), Philadelphia (129), Baltimore (91.9), Detroit (80), Cleveland (56.6) and St. Louis (61.25). The only city in Massachusetts with larger land area is Taunton (50 sq. mi.).

If Boston should expand by annexations as New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and others have expanded, its total area, in case of including the 39 cities and towns within the 15-mile radius, would exceed the largest, viz., Los Angeles, the present land area of "Greater Boston" being 409.5 square miles.

AREA OF UNITED STATES, NEW ENGLAND, ETC.

Total of the 48 states in square miles, 3,026,719; Alaska, 590,884; making grand total of 3,617,603 sq. m. or 42.11 per cent of continent of North America and 6.32 per cent of the earth's land area. The six states of New England 66,424 sq. m., i. e., Maine, 33,040; Vermont, 9,564; N. H., 9,341; Mass. 8,266; Conn., 4,965; R. I., 1,248. Land area of New England, 61,976 sq. m.; of Mass., 8,093 sq. m.

Total area of U. S. (inclu. Alaska) 112,000 sq. miles less than total of Canadian provinces, but total population is over 12 times as many.

MAYOR CURLEY PAYS TRIBUTE TO ORGANIZED WORKERS AT LABOR DAY LUNCHEON.

ENTERTAINS LOCAL LEADERS ALONG WITH SENATOR BURTON K. WHEELER AND MRS. WHEELER AFTER SENATOR HAD ADDRESSED LARGE GATHERING ON BOSTON COMMON. MAKES GIFT TO MRS. WHEELER.

Senator and Mrs. Burton K. Wheeler of Montana were the guests of honor at the annual Labor Day luncheon tendered by Mayor James M. Curley to the local labor leaders at the Copley-Plaza Hotel, Monday afternoon, and Mrs. Wheeler was presented a very valuable Chinese doll "for the children."

In her acceptance of the gift, she said that while she was extremely grateful for the gift, she did not know how she was going to divide it into five parts for the children, but she had hopes that the three boys would waive their rights to a share in it, but this still left a difficult question to settle.

Mayor Curley, who was accompanied by three of his own boys, is an excellent judge of the difficulties of trying to divide an unbreakable object among a number of children, and immediately signaled to one of his secretaries and within a couple of minutes a companion to the first doll was presented to Mrs. Wheeler, as well as a large bunch of long-stemmed American Beauty roses.

Of the most democratic personalities, both the Senator and Mrs. Wheeler endeared themselves to everybody who had the good fortune to be presented to them, and, following the receipt of the dolls, Mrs. Wheeler held the gaze of every person in the room as she played with the dolls.

Seated with Mrs. Wheeler was Mrs. Mary V. Murphy, treasurer of the Boston Central Labor Union, a member of the Boston Musicians' Union and a noted pianist.

The ceremonies at the luncheon were short and Mayor Curley stated that owing to the engagements and pressure of business that Senator Wheeler was forced to attend to no formal speeches would be in order. He introduced Harry C. Graeges, President of the Boston Central Labor Union, who in a brief address explained the good fortune organized labor of Boston has in having a man like James M. Curley as Mayor to assist in keeping peace and harmony in the industrial circles of the city.

Senator Wheeler, when introduced had a heart to heart talk with his audience. He explained how after leaving school at Hudson, the town where he was born, he came to Boston and secured work. He told of the firms that he worked for and how he went to the University of Michigan where he worked his way through school, waiting on table during the college term and selling books outside of this time.

After graduating from college his health was not of the best, he said, and he started for the far West. He landed at Butte, Montana, and stayed there, because his finances would not permit a longer journey. He started to practice law there and his first case was as attorney for the Butte Teamsters' Union, a case which he won and which later proved the stepping stone for his retention as counsel for the American Federation of Labor of that state.

He said that as far as Montana, and for that matter the remainder of the country goes, there is no difference between the Republican and Democratic parties and told of a number of incidents to prove his statement. He said that he is a Jeffersonian Democrat, but not a Wall street Democrat.

He told about a newspaper in one of the cities in Montana which is owned by the copper trust and which in the morning is printed as a Democratic paper and in the evening as a Republican paper. He said that both papers are printed on the same press and the same editorial writer writes the blasting editorials against each party and the situation has often caused him to wonder how the type can function without getting all mixed up.

He told the labor leaders that for the first time in the history of the American Federation of Labor an out and out indorsement of candidates has been made this year, and it is up to organized labor to put its shoulders to the wheel and work, because if LaFollette and Wheeler are allowed to be thrown to the wolves then organized labor goes down with them.

Mayor Curley spoke of the labor situation in Boston and said that for the past year Boston could be called the "Strikeless City." He said that there have been a number of small strikes among the clothing workers and other trades, but no strikes that in any way interfered with the onward progress of the city and its business.

He spoke of the work he did in bringing about a settlement of the grievances of the building trades workers and the awarding of wages that are higher than those paid during the war. He said that this settlement has established the industry on a basis that has resulted in the completion of a building program that cost more than $130,000,000.

MAYOR AND CITIZENS PLACE TABLET IN HONOR OF LAFAYETTE. DEDICATION EXERCISES HELD ON BOSTON COMMON.

Boston's celebration of Lafayette-Marne Day on Saturday had as its outstanding feature the unveiling of a tablet commemorating the Marquis de Lafayette's visit to America in 1824. The tablet was placed on a boulder in Lafayette Mall on Boston Common on the spot where Bostonians gave a reception to the French patriot in recognition of his aid during the Revolution.

The tablet is of bronze and was designed by John Francis Paramino, being one of a group authorized by the municipal commission on marking historical sites.

At the exercises on Saturday there were besides city officials and members of French societies, members of overseas units, who assembled at 2.15 p. m. in front of City Hall, from which they marched to the Common.

Mayor Curley had asked that the national colors be displayed all over the city. The principal address at the dedication was by Prof. Louis J. S. Mercier of Harvard University.

The program was as follows:

Introduction, Chairman WALTER GILMAN PAGE
Invocation, Rev. GEORGE P. O'CONNOR
Band Selection, "America"
Presentation, THOMAS H. DOWD
Unveiling, Mayor PAUL J. FLAMAND
Acceptance, Mayor CURLEY
Address, J. C. JOSEPH FLAMAND, French Consul
Tribute, La Prevoyance. Mlle. EMILIE POULIOT
Selection, "Marseillaise."
Address, Prof. LOUIS J. S. MERCIER
Selection, "Star-Spangled Banner."

MAYOR CURLEY HITS BACK AT REPUBLICANS FOR FAUX PAS.

ISSUES SARCASTIC REPLY TO HORMEL CHARGE OF MEDDLING IN BACON CAMPAIGN.

The Boston newspapers under date of September 4 relate that the Mayor of Boston and Election Commissioner Frank Seiberlich were interfering in the campaign of Gaspar Bacon for the State Senate. I beg to state that I was unaware that Mr. Bacon was a candidate for the office of State Senator, but in view of the interest displayed by the practical gentleman who formerly served as chairman of the Boston Republican State Committee, Mr. Herman Hormel, I am convinced that the candidacy of Mr. Bacon for the State Senate is far more important than is indicated by the minor office to which he now aspires.

It has been the custom of the Republican machine in Massachusetts to select its candidates for the office of Governor with extreme care. Certain qualifications

TO THE WIRE DIVISION OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT, Fire Department Headquarters, 60 Bristol street, for all information relative to the erection of poles, the building of conduits, the installation of all overhead and underground construction and electrical apparatus, as well as for general information relative to the entire division. TO ROOM 906, City Hall Annex, for permits for the installing of wires and electrical apparatus within buildings in the City of Boston, and for the payment of fees incident to the granting of the privileges above named, and which must be paid in advance.

TWO IMPORTANT CITY PROJECTS MOVE NEARER TO SUCCESS.

MAYOR CURLEY APPROVES TAKING OF LAND FOR $1,000,000 HOSPITAL AND COURTHOUSE IN BRIGHTON.

Further steps were taken Tuesday, September 2, toward accomplishment of two important municipal projects when Mayor Curley approved the taking of land and buildings by the Boston Street Commissioners for the establishment of a $1,000,000 hospital for the chronic sick on Parker Hill and of a $225,000 courthouse in Brighton.

The hospital project has been slowly advancing for more than a year. It has been delayed by legal questions relating to the title of the property and faces further delay due to the city's suit against the Robert Brigham Hospital, whose plant the city is desirous of making a unit with the proposed hospital. It will be another year therefore, before the chronic sick can be transferred from Long Island to the mainland.

The land and buildings taken belong to the Protective and Benevolent Order of Elks and constitute the plant maintained by them for the soldiers during and immediately after the war. The price set by the Street Commissioners for the 193,359 feet of land and the buildings is $115,000, about half the assessed valuation. The Elks agreed to sell to the city for just what the property cost them, plus taxes.

The award for the Brighton courthouse site is to the estate of D. M. Cauley in the sum of $28,087.50 for 50,500 feet of land and for the buildings thereon. It is at Chestnut Hill avenue and Academy Hill road. The playground site, which it was originally proposed to transform into a courthouse site, was abandoned after protest by residents of the district.

MAYOR CURLEY ISSUES PROCLAMATION ON RECEPTION TO WORLD FLYERS.

Mayor Curley issued the following proclamation relative to the reception of the returning Globe girdling aviators:

The American aviators who will have brought the "round the world flight" to a triumphant finish on their arrival in the City of Boston during the coming week, have added an epochal event to the history of aviation and given to the world a splendid evidence of American courage, skill, resolution and tenacity. They should be given a public welcome worthy of our city so that the gallant aviators may know that they have earned the admiration and applause and touched the pride and patriotism of their countrymen.

A public reception will be given the heroic aviators at the Parkman Bandstand on Boston Common when the national colors will be presented to them and the Mayor of Boston will make a gift of the key to the city to them at City Hall as symbolic of the esteem and honor they are held in by our people.

I ask that the citizens of Boston fly national flags from their homes and houses; I direct that similar decorations be made on all schools and public buildings; and I trust that our people will assemble in great numbers on Boston Common that these heroic men may learn the place they have made for themselves in American hearts and understand that the citizens of Boston in common with all their countrymen appreciate the toil and suffering they sustained so uncomplainingly that the glory of our flag and the valor of them who serve it might be known all round the earth.

The arrival of the aviators will be duly announced in the public press.

MAYOR CURLEY REITERATES PROTEST AGAINST BOOSTS IN TELEPHONE RATES.

APPROVES OF STERN LETTER OF CORPORATION COUNSEL E. MARK SULLIVAN TO DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC UTILITIES ASKING FOR DATA ON 1923 TOLLS RECEIVED BY COMPANY.

The Mayor addressed the following communication:

HON. E. MARK SULLIVAN, Corporation Counsel, 11 Beacon Street, Boston:

DEAR MR. SULLIVAN,—I have read with care your communication with reference to the increase in telephone rates which it is proposed shall become effective this date, Tuesday, September 2, 1924.

The flagrant action of the Public Utilities Board in my opinion can only be answered by a presentation of the facts to the people through the medium of the press as submitted by you as Corporation Counsel for the City of Boston representing the people of the Commonwealth upon the telephone rate question.

Sincerely yours,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

BOSTON, September 2, 1924.

HON. DAVID A. ELLIS, Commissioner, Department of Public Utilities, State House, Boston:

DEAR SIR,—At the conference which I and my associates had with you on Thursday, August 14, you suggested the possibility of your Board allowing the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company to shorten the initial talking period in fifteen and twenty cent toll calls from five minutes to three minutes. You further suggested that if I desire any additional data or information from the Telephone Company respecting toll call rates, or any other rates now under consideration by your Board, that you would be glad to forward my request to the company.

From my conversation with you I learned that you, at least, look with favor upon the allowance of these increases in toll rates, even though this case is yet unfinished and the evidence submitted by the company respecting toll rates is very meager. You have admitted that you did not know how these increases if allowed would affect the public, nor how much additional revenue they would give to the company.

You concede that the fundamental question in this entire case is whether the Telephone Company actually needs more revenue, and that this question the company has not yet satisfactorily answered. On the other hand you must concede that at this stage of the case the City of Boston in its opposition to the proposed increases has shown that the Telephone Company by practicing certain economies will have revenue adequate for all legitimate and proper purposes. This evidence has not been rebutted, nor any attempt been made to overcome it.

You have said that it would be better for the public, and for the service, if the toll calls were cut down to three minutes because this would result in less busy lines due to long conversations. I have heard of no complaint, nor has your department, on the score of busy toll lines. You cannot argue that these busy lines make less revenue for the company, since whoever talks must pay.

You have said that if you had a "hunch" that the company needs more revenue that you might act on that "hunch" and allow an increase even though the evidence before you is incomplete, and the hearings suspended until September 16. You justify this by saying that if the "hunch" later proves to have been wrong, and it appears that the company did not in fact need the additional revenue, your commission could always rectify the mistake. Is it possible that you and your associates on the Board of Public Utilities are ready to decide important problems that affect the welfare and well being of the people of Massachusetts on "hunches?" If you are to act on a mere "hunch" let it be resolved in favor of the public whom you are supposed to represent.

Once rates are increased the public must pay them. You say if later it is found these increases were unmerited, that the error can be corrected. But when rates are thus lowered the public will then be paying only what the company is entitled to at that time. The commission has no right under the law to establish rates which will be lower than what the company is rightfully entitled to at the time your order is promulgated. Once the public pays an inordinately high rate, revenue thus derived from the company accrues to it and can never be returned to the public.

The law assumes, in fact requires, that your Board shall act not on "hunches," but on reasonable certainties. Whoever seeks to increase a rate or decrease a rate by order or permission of your Board is required to sustain the burden of proof.

The present state of the company's evidence respecting increases in toll rates leaves your Board groping in the dark. The case of the objectors is that the company's service is and has for a long time been inadequate, that its present rates and revenue should be and are just and adequate, and that the company has not satisfactorily established, even approximately, the amount of increased revenue that will be derived from these increases.

We now ask your commission to procure for us from the company the following data: All toll tickets for the months of March, July and November of the year 1923 for the entire territory of the company. From this data the city's engineer will be able to determine the length of conversation by units of one minute each for all toll calls, together with the amount of money received therefor, and to determine what may be expected in the way of additional revenue from increased overtime charges when the five-minute period is reduced to three minutes.

The company has said that if all the increases asked for are granted it expects to increase its annual revenue by $1,100,000 and that it estimated that of this sum $250,000 would be derived from the increases in toll rates brought about by reducing the initial talking period from five to three minutes.

From the best information so far made available to me, now that the company seeks to make this toll increase applicable to the metropolitan district, we believe that the additional revenue from this one source alone will approximate the sum of $650,000 a year. But why should your Board grant any such increase before you know what it will approximate, and before the evidence in the case is completed? This is not the most prudent way for your Board or for this company to deal with the public.

I have tried during the time that has been given to me to meet with facts and figures what little evidence the company has produced, and am ready to proceed with the rest of my case whenever your Board is ready to hear me. If, because of a "hunch" favorable to the company while the hearings in this case are suspended, you grant any increase in toll rates then all the evidence that the Mayor of Boston and other objectors have presented to you will go for naught.

The City of Boston, acting through its Mayor, has spent a great deal of money in an earnest effort to protect itself and the rest of the Commonwealth. You cannot, in fairness to the people of this state during the vacation of your commission, grant any increase in telephone rates. Upon your decision, as you well know, awaits the decisions that will be made by the Public Utilities Commissions in other of the New England states before whom are now pending similar requests for increases in telephone rates.

The company bases its requests upon the plea that it is facing a deficit for the current year which it hopes to overcome by increasing its revenue through increased rates. This increase in its revenue will approximate $1,100,000 annually, it says.

The City of Boston has submitted to your commission evidence still uncontradicted and based upon established figures showing that the Telephone Company can effect economies approximating $3,500,000 a year. The city's exhibit No. 14 shows the company's reserve fund as of December 31, 1923, to be $39,440,729. This sum was equal to 28.14 per cent of the company's average depreciable plant of that date.

The Telephone Company is now making each year contributions to this reserve fund at the rate of 5.047 per cent of its average depreciable plant. This contribution is charged against the company's operating expenses and is paid for by the public. This annual contribution could and should be reduced to the rate of 4.25 per cent. This would make a net reduction in the company's annual operating expenses of $1,200,000, and the balance in the Reserve Fund at the end of this year would still be $42,109,986, or 27.61 per cent of the company's average depreciable plant. This would then be an extremely high figure. This saving would be more than $1,100,000 that the Telephone Company says it needs and expects to derive from the increases in rates it is now asking for. The company's profits are already too large. It should not be allowed to increase them by any sleight of hand method of book-keeping or false juggling of figures. This is the day of decreasing taxes and decreasing costs. Your commission should not, except upon clear and imperative evidence, permit this company to increase its charges against the public.

In 1923 the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company put approximately $6,800,000 into its Reserve Fund to take care of depreciation and replacements of plant. During that year they actually used for this purpose only $3,200,000. This was $3,600,000 more than it actually required. This method of piling up a reserve at the expense of the public is unjust and inequitable. In time, if continued, it will give the company as much money in its reserve as it has invested in its plant. This practice should cease. This is the reason for the company's alleged and seeming deficit, namely, putting too much money aside for a reserve fund, before paying reasonable dividends to stockholders, and charging it up against "operating expenses." It is not a deficit resulting from failure to make reasonable profits.

Before your commission even considers allowing any increases in telephone rates your duty to the public requires you to force the company to attempt the economies which the city has already pointed out to you as being available to them, namely,

- (a.) Reduce the annual payment it is now making to its parent company, the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, to whom it is now paying 4½ per cent of all its gross revenues; this means a tax of $2 per telephone station; reduce this, as has been required by commissions in other states, to $1 per telephone station; making a saving annually of $1,000,000.
- (b.) Reduce the amount annually put into its reserve fund from 5.047 per cent to 4.25 per cent, saving annually $1,200,000.
- (c.) Reduce its present general expenses, particularly its present traffic expenses, to the figure that existed before the last telephone strike, making a saving annually of $1,100,000.
- (d.) Modify the company's supply contract it now has with another subsidiary of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, namely, the Western Electric Company, and lessen the excessive amount of supplies carried in its materials and supplies accounts, making a saving annually of $200,000. Total economies suggested, $3,500,000.

You should say to the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company that no increases in rates can be allowed to it by your commission until these possible economies have been put into effect, and until they have improved the service which is now so unsatisfactory. If by any chance your Board shall allow, either during the postponement of the hearings in this case or at its close, any further increases in telephone rates, the company failing by adequate evidence to overcome the testimony of the city respecting the above possible economies, I fear it will be futile for any one to hope to assist your commission further, for it would seem that evidence, however material and positive, would fall on deaf ears.

I hope and sincerely trust that your commission will not allow these rates to become effective, at least, not until you have heard our entire case which will be resumed, according to your order, on September 16, and that you will give serious consideration to the city's proposal that the company be made to effect these very necessary and possible economies; increases otherwise granted will arouse the indignation of a justly incensed and outraged public.

Respectfully submitted,

E. MARK SULLIVAN,
Corporation Counsel.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 597.

A trial board consisting of Captains Hickey, McConnell and Smith, having heard by reference a complaint against Patrolman Joseph Sullivan of Division 20, charging him with neglect of duty and conduct unbecoming an officer, reported to the commissioner a finding of guilty. In accordance with which, the said Patrolman Joseph Sullivan was, on August 14, 1924, dismissed from the Police Department.

Due written notice of such dismissal with the reasons therefor was duly and specifically given in hand on August 14, 1924, to the said Joseph Sullivan.

On the eighteenth day of August, 1924, the said Joseph Sullivan requested in writing a public hearing as provided by law, and the Police Commissioner set down Wednesday, August 27, 1924, at eleven o'clock a. m., at the office of the Police Commissioner, as the time and place for said hearing and duly notified the said Joseph Sullivan.

The said Joseph Sullivan was present at said time and place with counsel and was heard with his witnesses. Whereupon, after hearing the case, the Police Commissioner finds the said Joseph Sullivan guilty as charged and further finds that the said Joseph Sullivan shall stand dismissed from the Police Department.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 598.

It is my sad duty to announce to the department the death of Capt. Charles T. Reardon, which occurred at his late home, 22 Trull street, Dorchester, on Sunday, August 31.

He has been a member of the Police Department since April 20, 1891, when he was appointed a reserve officer and assigned to Division 4. He was appointed a patrolman on May 13, 1892, and later promoted to the successive grades of sergeant and lieutenant. On March 16, 1915, he was promoted to the grade of captain and assigned to Division 11, where he served until March 4, 1921, at which time he was transferred to the superintendent's office.

As a police officer, he filled all grades with ability and fidelity, and the untiring energy displayed by him in the performance of police work, together with his well-known integrity and honesty, may well constitute an example for us all.

His death is a distinct loss to this city, especially to its Police Department, and our sympathy is extended to his family and friends.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

PUBLIC WILL NOT EASILY FORGET THE MORAL TURPITUDE OF REPUBLICAN PARTY.

MAYOR CURLEY DELIVERS ABLE ADDRESS, DISCUSSING POLITICAL CONDITIONS BEFORE RESIDENTS OF DISTRICTS IN MASHPEE VICINITY.

Mayor Curley delivered the following address at Mashpee on Saturday, August 30:

In considering the national election it is becoming increasingly apparent each day that the loss sustained by the Republican Party in the death of United States Senator LaBaron B. Colt, of Rhode Island, may prove a most important factor in the determination of a choice by the American electorate.

The state of Rhode Island will unquestionably return a Democratic United States senator to fill the position formerly held by Judge Colt. In that event a coalition of Democrats and such Republicans as Shipsted and Magnus Johnson will be in a position to determine who shall fill the position of president in the event of the failure of the candidate of either party to receive a majority of the votes of the Electoral College.

The sole asset of the Republican Party in the present election is the character of its candidate for the office of president. Apparently it is the purpose of the Republican leaders to ignore and fail to defend a record of waste, corruption and criminality, unequalled in any four-year term in the history of our government.

The public, however, in each state where an election has been held, have considered the laches of the Republican Party and have answered by electing Democrats; and in all probability a similar course will be pursued in the coming election. The remembrance of corruption in Teapot Dome; the vicious disclosures of the graft in the Veterans' Bureau; the collusion between cabinet officers and bootleggers, in the sale of whiskey permits; the brutal treatment of the veterans of the Grand Army and their dependents, in the veto of the Bursum Bill; the callous disregard for the welfare of postal employees and their families, in the matter of wage increases, accounts in no small measure for the abandonment of the Republican Party by the Republican senator, LaFollette, and his associates.

In view of the political change which has resulted in states which gave a Republican majority in 1920 it is interesting to learn the probable attitude of the business men of America in the coming election.

Oklahoma in 1922 elected a Democratic governor; Montana in the same year elected a Democratic senator; Wyoming elected a Democratic governor in 1922, in addition to electing Senator Kendrick, who defeated Frank Mondell, chairman of the Republican committee on notification of President Coolidge that he had been nominated for the office of President of the United States. In Utah a Democratic senator was elected in 1922; in Colorado a Democratic governor was elected in 1922; while Washington, Oregon and Arizona were all carried by the Democrats in 1922. Rhode Island elected a Democratic governor, so did New Hampshire; and it is reasonably certain that both of these states can be safely counted as Democratic in the coming national election. Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota and Arizona may be reasonably conceded to Senator LaFollette. The improbability of electing Calvin Coolidge must of necessity be apparent to every student of current American politics. The eleven southern and two border states, which it is generally considered will be carried by Davis, represent 147 votes, the 8 votes of Maryland making 155. Conditions in Indiana make reasonably certain Democratic success there; and these 15 votes with Nebraska's 8, and Missouri's 18, make the count 196. New Hampshire and Rhode Island 9 votes, Nevada 3, Oklahoma 10, Arizona 3, New Mexico 3, Wyoming 3, Delaware 3, with New York and New Jersey 59, make a total of 289. Allowing the votes of Minnesota, North and South Dakota and Montana to LaFollette, it gives him a total of 39 votes; with President Coolidge receiving 203 votes.

The danger to the industrial stability of America that might result through the throwing of the election into the United States Senate and the possible selection by that body of Charles W. Bryan will unquestionably be an important factor in the political decision of the business interests of America. The period of uncertainty and depression which has resulted in part time employment for millions of workers in America in manufacturing lines, and which apparently is now gradually changing, must not be permitted to return. It is for the American people to determine whether their fealty to a party tag is of greater moment than their interest in the welfare of the American government and the American people.

From the standpoint of personal honesty John W. Davis is unquestionably the equal of President Coolidge; from the standpoint of ability as an attorney, the judgment of the former Republican President William Howard Taft that in his opinion John W. Davis is the ablest lawyer in America today, is sufficient. From the standpoint of experience in legislation and the ability to discharge the duties of a most exacting and responsible position John W. Davis has measured up in an exceptional manner, and brings an assurance of that greatest of business assets—national confidence.

Fortunately, there is ample time between now and the fifth day of November for the citizenship of America to investigate, to weigh the facts and determine a course of action. While it is true that Senator LaFollette does not possess the commanding leadership and magnetism of Theodore Roosevelt, it is nevertheless equally true that the present political upheaval is only within the ranks of the Republican Party; and the Democracy of the nation, presenting a united front and a candidate whom the honest business interests of America can support without fear of reprisals, and the workers of America can vote for with a conviction that they will receive justice, makes reasonably certain the election of John W. Davis as President of the United States.

MAYOR CURLEY HITS BACK.

are always considered as prime essentials. First, a sturdy bank account; second, an ancestry that traces to the establishment of Massachusetts Bay Colony; third, a social status that would permit of entree at Bar Harbor, Newport and Monte Carlo.

So far as I am able to ascertain, Mr. Bacon has the requisite qualifications, and as heir-apparent at some future date to the throne of Governorship on Peacock Hill, it is but natural that the thrifty, practical politician of the Herman Hornblum variety should exercise judicious care that not even a pebble be placed in the pathway of a possible future Governor of this Commonwealth.

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

Upon August 29 the Mayor approved a contract with Joseph A. Singarella for furnishing to the Public Works Department, Water Service, 750 concrete meter boxes. A communication from Frank P. Rock of the Supply Department was as follows:

"Permission is respectfully requested to award this contract to the third bidder, Joseph A. Singarella, at a price of $10.73 per box. This recommendation is made after consulting with the officials of the Public Works Department regarding the fitness of the Boston Construction Company and Thomas Mulcare, the first and second bidders, to carry on this contract, and I have been informed by the Public Works Department that neither concern has had any experience in doing this work, nor are they properly equipped to fulfill this contract.

In the past considerable difficulty and delay has been experienced by awarding this contract to the lowest bidder, and I feel that the best interests of the city will be served by approving the recommendation that is made."

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

The Mayor has approved the following contracts awarded without advertising; requests of heads of departments to do the work with the department forces without advertising; additions to and deductions from contracts.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Artificial Stone Sidewalks).

Upon August 30 the Mayor approved a contract with Nathan Fritz for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks. A communication from Joseph A. Rourke of the Public Works Department was as follows:

BOSTON, August 19, 1924.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission to award a contract for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks in the public streets, without advertising, to Nathan Fritz, 62 Maywood street, Roxbury, is hereby requested on the ground that this contractor is not selected by the city in the first instance but by the abutters; secondly, the expense of construction is divided by the city and abutters; also because such contracts vary greatly in amounts and seldom involve one thousand (1,000) dollars.

Respectfully yours,

JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Upon September 3 the Mayor approved a contract with the Turner Construction Company for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks. A communication from Joseph A. Rourke of the Public Works Department was as follows:

BOSTON, September 2, 1924.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission to award a contract for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks in the public streets, without advertising, to the Turner Construction Company, 178 Tremont street, Boston, is hereby requested on the ground that this contractor is not selected by the city in the first instance but by the abutters; second, the expense of construction is divided by the city and abutters; also because such contracts vary greatly in amounts and seldom involve one thousand (1,000) dollars.

Respectfully yours,

EDWARD F. MURPHY,
Acting Commissioner of Public Works.

SCHOOLHOUSE DEPARTMENT.

Upon September 3 the Mayor approved a contract with the J. J. Hurley Company for repairs to the heating system of the Sarah J. Baker School. A communication from Thomas P. Glynn of the Schoolhouse Department was as follows:

BOSTON, August 28, 1924.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—The Board of Schoolhouse Commissioners respectfully requests the approval of your Honor, under the provisions of chapter 486, section 30, of the Acts of 1909, to awarding a contract, without advertising, to J. J. Hurley & Co., 102 Broadway, for repairs to heating system in the Sarah J. Baker School, Roxbury, the cost of said work to exceed the sum of one thousand (1,000) dollars.

The reason for making this request is as follows: We sent the above named firm to this school to repair leaks in the present primary radiators, to take said radiators apart, renipple them and put them in first-class condition. The radiators, being of the old type, were found to be cracked in many places, and could not be taken apart without damaging them in such a manner that they could not be put back in place. The only alternative, therefore, is to remove these radiators from the fan chamber and install in their place radiators of a more modern type. The Board therefore requests the approval of your Honor to the awarding of contract as stated.

Respectfully yours,

THOMAS P. GLYNN,
Chairman.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

Upon August 25 the Mayor approved a contract with the Linscott Motor Company for furnishing one Reo speed wagon. A communication from Frank P. Rock of the Supply Department was as follows:

BOSTON, August 23, 1924.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without advertising, to the Linscott Motor Company for furnishing one Reo speed wagon chassis at a price of $1,295, less allowance for old Dodge chassis now in use, $200, making the net amount of the contract $1,095, for the Medical Examiner of County of Suffolk.

I feel that this type of machine will best meet the requirements of the Medical Examiner's department, and as the Linscott Motor Company are the direct factory representatives, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for same.

Trusting that the permission will be granted, I remain,

Yours very truly,

FRANK P. ROCK,
Superintendent of Supplies.

Upon August 30 the Mayor approved a contract with the Linscott Motor Company for one Reo truck. A communication from Frank P. Rock of the Supply Department was as follows:

BOSTON, August 29, 1924.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Permission is respectfully requested to enter into a contract, without advertising, with the Linscott Motor Company for furnishing to the Public Works Department, Highway Division, one Reo truck equipped with special dump body, wood hydraulic hoist with sideboards, painted and lettered to our specifications at a price of $2,250.

This department has standardized on this make of truck, and as the Linscott Motor Company is the direct factory agent for the manufacturers no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for same.

Trusting that the permission requested will be granted, I am,

Very truly yours,

FRANK P. ROCK,
Superintendent of Supplies.

ADDITIONS TO AND DEDUCTIONS FROM CONTRACTS.

The following additions to and deductions from contracts have been approved.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 36.

I. AID TO DEPUTY CHIEF.

Franklin B. Sanborn, Ladder Company 13, has been designated as an aid to Deputy Chief, to take effect as of February 1, 1924.

II. BOSTON FIREMEN'S RELIEF FUND.
(Election of members of the corporation.)

The annual election of the Boston Firemen's Relief Fund will be held in accordance with Sections 3 and 4 of Article 5 of the By-Laws on Monday, September 8, 1924.

The attention of the officers and members of the department is called to the provisions of Article 5 of the By-Laws of the corporation.

III. ACTING DISTRICT CHIEF.

Capt. Thomas F. Roach of Engine Company 50 is hereby designated Acting District Chief of District 2 to take effect at 8 a. m., September 5, 1924.

IV. ANNUAL DRILL AND INSPECTION.

The annual drill and inspection of the various companies of the department will commence on Monday, September 8, at Headquarters yard, Bristol street.

All officers and members will participate with their various companies, with the exception of members on vacation. The time lost by members on account of the drill will be made up to them when company strength will permit.

The drills will start with the Third Division and continue with the First and Second Divisions.

There will be two drills daily, namely, at 10.30 a. m. and at 3 p. m.

Deputy chiefs will attend the drills of the companies of their respective divisions, and will respond to fires from the Headquarters yard.

The evolutions will be similar to those of last year. The company commander will give the commands for each evolution.

Deputy chiefs will designate the companies to report at Headquarters yard, without apparatus, and will arrange to cover absent companies by details from their respective divisions.

A department automobile will be provided to convey members to and from Headquarters yard.

V. CONTRIBUTION TO BOSTON FIREMEN'S RELIEF FUND.

The Fire Commissioner has received from Louis Wolf & Co., three hundred (300) dollars in appreciation of the services rendered by members of the Boston Fire Department and Boston Protective Department at a fire on their premises 104-106 Pearl street, on July 31, 1924. One hundred and fifty dollars was sent to the Fire Commissioner, and one hundred and fifty dollars to the Superintendent of the Boston Protective Department. Both checks have been turned over to the treasurer of the Boston Firemen's Relief Fund.

By order of Fire Commissioner Theodore A. Glynn.

JOHN O. TABER,
Chief of Department.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 599.

The Department of Civil Service and Registration will hold a competitive examination for promotion to the grade of lieutenant in the Boston Police Department, according to the following notice this day received:

This examination will be held on Monday, September 29, 1924.

1. This examination is to be open to the sergeants in the Boston Police Department who have served as such, in accordance with civil service rules, at least three years immediately preceding the date of examination.

2. The subjects of examination with their respective weights will be as follows: Training and experience, 9; report, 3; practical questions on police law, practice and procedure, 8; total, 20.

3. Application blanks may be secured from the Department of Civil Service and Registration, Division of Civil Service, rooms 148-152 State House, Boston. The vouchers on this blank need not be filled out. When completed applications should be returned to the Civil Service office to be placed on file not later than September 22.

4. Experience sheets will be mailed to applicants about a week in advance of the examination and they will then be notified of the precise time and place of examination.

Commanding officers will promulgate this order, not only by reading it at roll call, but by posting a copy thereof in a conspicuous and accessible place in each station house; and it shall remain posted until after the date of the examination.

Commanding officers will secure a fresh copy from the superintendent, if the posted copy becomes mutilated or destroyed.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 600.

The Superintendent of Police is hereby directed to make the following details for duty at the State Primary in this city on Tuesday, September 9, 1924.

1. Three patrolmen for duty in the office of the Board of Election Commissioners, City Hall Annex, on arrival of ballots for State Primary at about 12 o'clock noon, Monday, September 8, 1924, such detail to continue until all ballots cast at the Primary have been returned.

2. An officer of rank above that of sergeant for duty at the City Hall Annex, to supervise the police detail for motor trucks, from 3.30 o'clock, a. m. Tuesday, 9th inst., until relieved, and a patrolman, from 8 o'clock, p. m., on the same date, until relieved, for duty at the same place, to keep clear the approaches to the office of the Board of Election Commissioners for motor vehicles returning from the polling places with ballot boxes, etc.

3. The necessary number of patrolmen from the several police divisions to attend the several polling places in this city on State Primary Day, to preserve order and protect voters in the full exercise of their rights.

4. Two patrolmen from Division 18 to report at office of Board of Election Commissioners at 3 o'clock a. m., Tuesday 9th inst., and there to receive ballot boxes, ballots and other paraphernalia required for the Primary in Ward 24, and deliver same on motor vehicle, furnished by the Election Commissioners, to the station house of Division 18.

5. Twenty-five sergeants, one to a motor vehicle, to report at office of the election Commissioners, City Hall Annex, Court square, at 4 o'clock, a. m. (excepting the sergeants for Wards 21 and 23, who will report at 3.30 o'clock a. m.) Tuesday, September 9, 1924; thence to proceed in such vehicle with ballot boxes, ballots, etc., to the several precincts in their respective wards (Ward 24, excepted), and deliver same to the police officer detailed in each precinct.

6. Nine patrolmen from Division 18, one patrolman from Division 19 and one patrolman from Division 17, to report at the station house of Division 18, at 4.30 o'clock a. m., Tuesday, September 9, thence to proceed in a motor vehicle to be provided for the purpose with the ballot boxes and other paraphernalia and distribute the same in the various precincts of Ward 24.

7. One patrolman to report at each of the two hundred and seventy-four precincts at 5 o'clock a. m., Tuesday, September 9, except the patrolman in Ward 1, Precincts 6 to 9 (both inclusive), to report at 4.30 a. m.; Ward 20, Precincts 1, 2 and 10, to report at 4.45 a. m.; Ward 21, Precincts 1 to 5 (both inclusive), to report at 4.30 a. m.; Ward 23, Precincts 1 to 6 (both inclusive), to report at 4.30 a. m.; Ward 25, Precinct 2, to report at 4.45 a. m.; Ward 26, Precincts 1 to 3 (both inclusive), to report at 4.30 a. m.; to receive ballot boxes, etc., from sergeants detailed on motor trucks, in such cases provided; such detail to continue until the ballots are counted and the result declared. They are then to bring the ballots and returns to the Election Commissioners' office.

8. Cards with the ward and precinct number and location of voting booth printed thereon have been forwarded to the several police divisions, on which the division commander will write the name, the division number, and the number of the officer detailed at 5 o'clock a. m., September 9, at the voting booth of each respective precinct on his division. This card, to be given to the officer so detailed at the voting booth, will be retained in his possession until delivered by him to an employee of the Board of Election Commissioners, who will arrive accompanying a sergeant on motor vehicle from the Election Commissioners' office on the morning of September 9, with ballot boxes, ballots, etc., as hereinbefore stated. This card, when returned by such employee to the office of the Election Commissioners will be its receipt that the ballot boxes, ballots, etc., have arrived at their proper destination.

9. In the case of Ward 24, such cards, after having been properly filled out by the division commander, will be given to the two patrolmen who are to report at the office of the Election Commissioners at 3 o'clock a. m., Tuesday, September 9, as herein stated, and are to be delivered by them to the Election Commissioners on receipt of the ballot boxes, ballots, etc.

10. On receipt by the patrolman from the sergeant, detailed on motor vehicle, as herein provided, of registering ballot box, voting lists and such other documents as may have been received from the Election Commissioners, the patrolman detailed at polling place will deliver same to the warden or clerk of the precinct, allowing no person to take or handle them before such delivery, and hand the key of the registering ballot box to the warden. On delivery of ballots to the warden, the patrolman will take from him a receipt for the ballots, which receipt will be returned to the Election Commissioners.

11. After the warden has opened the box and allowed the election officers and the public to see that it is empty, the box is to be again locked and the key given to the patrolman who is to retain it until after the polls have closed, except that, at the request of the warden, the patrolman may allow him to open the box for the purpose of pressing down the ballots, in order to make room for more ballots, after which the patrolman will see that the box is again locked, and the key returned to the police officer.

12. The patrolman will obtain from the warden copies of poster, which will be sent to the latter, in relation to smoking and the use of liquor in polling places, and post same in conspicuous places where they may be easily read. Tacks will be sent for the purpose.

13. The warden will deliver to the patrolman detailed at the polling place for his use at that place a copy of the descriptive voting list, which must be returned to the warden at the close of the polls.

14. When the polls are opened, the patrolman will mark in the place indicated on the tag attached to the key the figures which the register shows before any ballots are cast.

15. At 8 p. m., Tuesday, September 9, when the polls close, one sergeant will report in each of the 25 wards (Ward 24 is excepted), to meet motor vehicle at last point of morning distribution; thence to proceed to each of the several precincts in his respective ward, and receive registering ballot box (which must be locked) and key thereof, voting lists envelope, signed by the warden and other election officers, receipts for ballots, unused ballot envelope (containing unused and spoiled ballots), stamps for marking spoiled ballots, and receipts for ballots, carry them to the Election Commissioners' office and deliver same to some member of the Board of Election Commissioners.

16. When the polls are closed, the patrolman will mark on the same tag the figures which the register shows after all ballots have been cast. He will then hand the key to the warden, who will open the box and take out all the ballots to be sorted and counted. The warden will then cause the voting lists, including the list used by the police officer, to be sealed up in an envelope and the envelope certified by the signatures of himself and the other election officers, and the same returned to the Election Commissioners, as described in section 15 of this order. The patrolman will not allow this envelope to be put into the ballot box. The sergeant who will report on motor vehicle, will keep it about his person until delivery at the office of the Election Commissioners. The unused and spoiled ballots are then to be put in the envelope for unused ballots, and the envelope sealed and certified.

17. When returning from polls all motor vehicles must drive to the easterly side of City Hall Annex, Court square, where ballot boxes will be conveyed by chute to the basement.

18. It is important that the patrolman sees that the voting lists envelope is signed by the warden, clerk and all the inspectors. The patrolman will also see that the special book for signatures of voters is returned in the registering ballot box.

19. In case a patrolman is detailed to relieve another after the close of the polls, the commanding officer will see that he is instructed as to the duty of bringing the official returns, the box of ballots cast, and the press return to the Election Commissioners' office as soon as they are delivered to him by the election officers.

20. When the ballots have all been counted, the ballots thus counted, tally sheets and nothing else (the ballots to be in their separate party envelopes) shall be placed by the warden in the leatheroid box for that purpose, which must be sealed up and signed by all the election officers. The patrolman will particularly see that this box is properly sealed up and that all the election officers have signed their names to the certificate on the box. The patrolman will then bring the box, official return, press return and stamps for marking defective ballots to the City Hall Annex, Court square, and deliver same to the Election Commissioners. The patrolman is directed not to allow the official return or record book to be placed in the leatheroid box.

21. After the close of the polls—a vehicle, to be provided for the purpose will be sent to the various precincts in Ward 24, to bring police officers with regular ballot boxes, unused ballots, etc., to the station house of Division 18, from which place only two police officers need accompany the motor vehicle with the regular ballot boxes, unused ballots, etc., to the office of the Election Commissioners.

22. While the polls remain open an officer of rank will visit the polling places in each division at stated intervals, to be designated by the captain, and in case of any disturbance will report the fact to the commanding officer of the station house without delay. If additional men are needed beyond the number available in that division, the officer in charge will communicate immediately with Headquarters.

23. Attention is called to the fact that the polls at the State Primary on Tuesday, September 9, shall open at six o'clock a. m. and close at eight o'clock p. m.

24. Commanding officers of divisions will see that the officers detailed for duty on State Primary Day are furnished with a copy of the circular issued by the Board of Election Commissioners, entitled: "Instructions to Police Officers on Primary Days."

25. Attention is particularly called to the fact that at the State Primary on September 9 the Board of Election Commissioners has made provision for the appointment of two extra election officers in each precinct to report at 6 o'clock on the evening of the primary. Such extra election officers will assist in the counting of the ballots cast, which will be done at two tables in each precinct this year, instead of at one as heretofore.

NOTE.—Refreshments, consisting of coffee and sandwiches will be provided by the Board of Election Commissioners at its office for the officers detailed to report at that place on the morning of September 9.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 601.

As the time for the fall election approaches, there are certain facts which I desire to call to the attention of the department. As many questions will undoubtedly arise on both primary and election days which will have to be answered by the officers who are assigned to the various precincts, I am setting forth in this General Order a few salient facts with which I trust the department will make itself thoroughly acquainted, in order that there may be no confusion and misunderstandings around the polling places on Primary and Election Days.

A voter, while outside the voting place, may be approached and asked to vote for a particular candidate for office, provided the voter is willing to stop and listen to the person making the request. The police, however, should not allow any one to persist in accosting a voter who apparently does not desire to be so accosted. If the situation should arise that because of the size of the crowd of persons stopping and soliciting votes, the path of voters to the polls is obstructed and blocked, then the police should disperse the crowd and arrest any one who persists thereafter in accosting voters.

Only precinct officers are allowed to speak to voters within the guard rail in the voting place and then only to answer questions that the voters may put to them.

A voter may be accosted and have particular names on a sample ballot, posted on the outside of the guard rail or on the outside of a polling booth, pointed out to him, provided the voter is willing to have the names so pointed out and does not object to the delay occasioned thereby, and provided also that it does not cause the gathering of a crowd which obstructs and blocks the path of the voter to the polls.

No automobiles or other vehicles decorated with banners of a candidate for political office, are allowed within one hundred and fifty feet of a polling place, except that automobiles or other vehicles actively engaged in carrying voters to and from the polling places may draw up to the entrance of the polling places and discharge their passengers. After the passengers have been discharged, the vehicles shall then withdraw to a distance of one hundred and fifty feet where they may wait until called to the entrance of the polling places to take away from the polling places voters who have just finished casting their votes and desire to be taken away from said polling places.

No party worker nor any person actively working for a candidate for political office shall wear a button, badge or card showing the picture and name of a candidate for political office, in the polling place or within one hundred and fifty feet thereof.

It is permissible to distribute and hand out within one hundred and fifty feet of a polling place, pasters or stickers to be used on the official ballot with the name thereon of a candidate who desires to run as an independent candidate, provided that the distribution of these pasters is done in an orderly manner, so as not to block the progress of the voter to the polls, and provided also that the pasters are not forced upon a person contrary to his desire. If a situation arises that because of the number of persons distributing pasters, the path of voters to the polls is blocked or obstructed or impeded, the police shall then regulate the distribution of these pasters in such a manner that while the pasters may be distributed to all voters approaching the polls who desire them, there shall be no obstruction placed in the paths of voters going to the polls.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

LAND-TAKING IN ROXBURY.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for a public improvement, consisting of the laying out and construction of Sonoma street, Roxbury district, as a highway, from Elm Hill avenue to Maple street, bounded and described as follows:

A highway named Sonoma street is hereby laid out, from Elm Hill avenue to Maple street, and ordered constructed.

Said highway and the land, exclusive of trees or structures, standing upon or affixed thereto, in which an easement for street purposes is hereby taken, is bounded and described as follows:

Northwest by Elm Hill avenue, forty and 37-100 feet; northeast by the northeasterly line of said Sonoma street, as hereby laid out, four hundred ninety-one and 38-100 feet; southeast by Maple street, forty and 43-100 feet; and southwest by the southwesterly line of said Sonoma street as hereby laid out, four hundred ninety-one and 83-100 feet.

Trees or structures standing upon or affixed to the aforesaid described land shall be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said land for the purpose of constructing said improvement.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the lots of abutting land on both sides of Sonoma street, from Elm Hill avenue to Maple street, will receive benefit or advantage other than the general advantage to the community from the improvement herein ordered, each of the particular lots to the amount respectively set against it herein; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Sonoma Street, Roxbury, Assessment Plan, May 21, 1924, William J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department," and on file in the office of said department.

Voted, That this Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the making of the public improvement consisting of the laying out and construction of Sonoma street, Roxbury district, as a highway, from Elm Hill avenue to Maple street and awards no damages therefor.

MAYOR CURLEY REFUSES COMMON TO SOCIALISTS FOR CELEBRATION ON "DEFENCE DAY."

Mayor Curley sent the following letter September 4:

MR. ALBERT WEISBORD, Organizer, Socialist Party of Massachusetts, 64 Pemberton Square, Boston, Mass.

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter this day requesting that a permit be issued for a peace demonstration at the Parkman Bandstand, Boston Common, for September 11, at 6 p. m. The application for the use of the Parkman Bandstand for a peace gathering on Defence Day, September 12, was refused for the reasons set forth in my communication to you under date of September 3, as follows:

"I regret to inform you that it will be impossible for me to comply with your request as September 12 has been designated as Defence Day, and as an American Mayor of an American city, interested in America, I am opposed to anything that savors of pacifism propaganda which, in my opinion, unless checked may serve to deprive Americans of their present splendid heritage which was secured through the use of the sword and so long as the governments of the world continue constituted as at present can only be preserved and perpetuated by the sword."

The reasons set forth in that letter, in my opinion, are equally applicable to a permit that might be issued for a meeting to be held prior to September 12, provided the purpose of that meeting was to minimize the Defence Day program, which, to my mind, is of sufficient importance to justify my rejection of the permit. The request for a permit one day earlier is on the very face of it an attempt to secure the same effect as though it were held on September 12 and I cannot approve it.

The designation of September 12 as Defence Day was the work of the President of the United States, Hon. Calvin Coolidge, and while the President of the United States and myself may differ politically, I am in absolute harmony with him upon the question of safeguarding the integrity of the American Republic from possible dangers that may arise. I consider the proclamation of the President of the United States upon the question of Defence Day a message worthy of the serious thought and earnest support of every person who terms himself an American citizen.

Provided a request is received for a meeting subsequent to September 12, I can see no objection to granting the same.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

PROCEEDINGS OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

August 22, 1924.

A special meeting of the School Committee of the City of Boston was held in the Administration Building, 15 Beacon Street, at 5:36 o'clock P. M., the Chairman presiding.

Present: Dr. Bogan, Miss Curtis, Messrs. O'Hare and Sullivan.

DESIGNATION OF ACTING BUSINESS AGENT AND ACTING SECRETARY.

On motion, it was ORDERED, That the following votes which have been passed by the individual signatures of the five members of the School Committee are hereby made a matter of record, and said votes are hereby confirmed:

VOTED: That Alexander M. Sullivan, Assistant Business Agent, be designated as Acting Business Agent, to take effect August 1, 1924, and to continue until such time as the position of Business Agent is filled by action of the School Committee.

VOTED: That Ellen M. Cronin, Assistant Secretary, be designated Acting Secretary of the School Committee, to take effect July 29, 1924, and to continue until such time as the position of Secretary is filled by action of the School Committee.

AMENDMENT AND APPROVAL OF MINUTES

On motion, the minutes of July 14, 1924, were amended on page 154 by inserting at the close of the paragraph which describes the eligibility requirements for the certificate XXVI. Continuation School, the following: "approved by the board of superintendents" so that the paragraph will read as follows:

The requirements for this certificate are: Graduation from a college or from a normal school approved by the board of superintendents, and evidence of two years' successful experience in teaching and governing schools of such grade or grades as the board of superintendents may determine; and successful completion of a course of training in the theory and practice of continuation schools approved by the board of superintendents.

On page 154, strike out lines 57 to 61 inclusive and insert in place thereof the following:

XXVIII. Day Clerical School. In the first and second lines, strike out the words "clerical" so that the paragraph will read as follows:

XXVIII. Day Clerical School. To instructors and assistants in day clerical schools.

On page 156, to provide for the insertion of Roman numeral XXX. at the close of the 7th line so that the paragraph will read as follows:

This certificate (XXXI.-A.) includes certificates designated XI. Special: Foreman—shop work and Certificate XXX.

The reading of the minutes of the last meeting was omitted, the Board approving them as printed, as amended.

MAYORS OF BOSTON.

In its 100 years of existence as a city Boston has had 36 elected Mayors and five ex-officio Acting Mayors. Of the 36 men who have held the office for one year or more, six were elected for other than consecutive terms and 25 were re-elected one or more times. Those born within the present limits of Boston numbered 21; in towns near Boston, 8; in neighboring New England States, 5; in Ireland, 2. The Mayor longest in office was Mayor Lincoln, who served 3 years ending 1860 and then 4 years ending 1866. Next in length of service were the first Mayor Quincy and Mayor Fitzgerald, who served 6 years each. Those who served 4 years were Mayors Prince, O'Brien, Matthews, (third) Quincy, Hart, Curley and Peters. Mayor Collins was in office nearly 4 years, his death occurring 3½ months before his second term expired. Those serving 3 years were Mayors Otis, Eliot, Chapman, (second) Quincy, Bigelow, Shurtleff and Cobb; 2 years, Mayors Wells, Lyman, Brimmer, Seaver, Smith, Rice, Wightman, Gaston, Pierce (22 months) and Hibbard; 1 year, Mayors Phillips, Armstrong, Davis, Norcross, Green, Palmer, Martin and Curtis. The five acting Mayors were Chairmen (Board of Aldermen) Parker, Leavitt, Allen, Cutter and Whelton.

Mayor Otis was Speaker of Massachusetts House of Representatives, President of Senate, United States Representative and United States Senator before becoming Mayor. Mayor Armstrong was Lieutenant-Governor and at times Acting Governor before serving as Mayor. Mayors Rice and Gaston served 3 years and 1 year (respectively) as Governor after their terms as Mayor; Mayors Collins, Curley, Fitzgerald, Peters, Pierce and Rice have represented Boston in the lower house of Congress, Mayor Peters having also served as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

Ex-Mayor Curley was elected for the second time in December, 1921, to serve for term of four years.

Ex-Mayor Curtis was appointed Police Commissioner in 1919 for term of five years, but his service was terminated by his death in 1922. Ex-Mayor Quincy died in 1919, and Ex-Mayor Green in 1918. (See annual City Doc., Boston Municipal Register, for full list of Mayors from 1822 to 1922, with place and date of birth, years of service and date of death.)

TAX LEVY, 1923.

Total $43,500,536, or $38,382,750 on realty, $3,955,626 on personality, and $1,162,160 on male polls ($5.00 poll tax instead of $2.00).

Number of persons assessed on property, 111,641, of which 77,696 were resident individuals and 9,720 non-resident individuals; number of dwelling houses assessed, 76,779; acres of land assessed, 18,598. Number of resident individuals assessed on property 9.22 per cent of all residents. Number assessed for poll tax only, 197,567 or 84.37 per cent of all resident men.

BOSTON'S PUBLIC WELFARE DIVISION BEGINS ACTIVE PLANNING FOR NEW HOME.

BUILDINGS, INCLUDING CHARDON STREET HOME AND HAWKINS STREET STRUCTURE, TO BE RAZED AND BETTER ACCOMMODATIONS PROVIDED.

CHARDON STREET HOME, ONE OF PUBLIC WELFARE DIVISION STRUCTURES SOON TO BE REPLACED. (Photo by Harry Kelly)

By next summer it is hoped that the Public Welfare Division of the City of Boston will be in more elaborate and better equipped quarters for the care of that section of the city's population which comes under its care. Plans are being made for the erection of a commodious structure that will take the place of the Chardon Street Home and the Hawkins street establishment.

COMPASS GIVEN TO BOSTON.

MAJOR H. A. DARGUE PRESENTS ORIGINAL INSTRUMENT FROM THE AIRSHIP BOSTON IN RECOGNITION OF MAYOR'S RECEPTION TO FLYERS.

Officials of the Boston airport, Wednesday, September 10, presented to the city, through Mayor Curley, the compass of the airship "Boston," the original world cruiser by that name which started the globe-encircling flight but was forced to quit by a mishap.

These buildings are to be razed, according to the present plans, and a new structure erected that will take care of the city's increasing business and the housing of all departments under one roof. It has long been found that the present homes of this department were inadequate and Mayor Curley has begun efforts to remedy the conditions.

The presentation was made by Maj. H. A. Dargue, assigned by the air service to temporary command of the airport for the arrival of the world flyers. He thanked the Mayor for the cordial reception given the flyers by the city and people of Boston.

In his presentation of the compass of the "Boston" to the city he said:

"This compass was the original compass on the 'Boston First' which started around the world. It completed the journey almost all the way but finished it up through the kindness of the Navy. This compass is presented to the City of Boston to put among its tokens and in appreciation of the wonderful effort and reception that the city has put forth in connection with the reception of the Round-the-World Flyers. We particularly appreciate all that has been done by the Mayor and Mr. O'Connell to make this thing a success, and the boys themselves, as well as General Patrick, have each spoken of the wonderful reception they received here."

The Mayor has made arrangements to have the compass placed permanently in the Mayor's office, directly over the eagle made from the Washington Elm.

Accompanying him were Lieut. R. J. Brown, permanent commander of the airport; Lieut. Clayton Bissell, who made advance arrangement for the flyers during their circuit of the world, and Porter Adams, chairman of the Mayor's reception committee to the airmen.

Shortly after the air service officials left City Hall, Mayor Curley received a visit from Capt. Felipe Fliess of the Argentine battleship "Rivadavia," which is at the Fore River plant of the Bethlehem Ship Building Company, Ltd., for repairs. Captain Fliess examined the compass with great interest, received a key to the city and inscribed his name on the official guest book. He was accompanied by S. W. Wakeman of the Bethlehem company and his aide, Lieut. Alberto D. Brunat.

ASKS COUNCIL FOR $15,000 TO FIGHT TELEPHONE INCREASES.

On Monday, September 8, the Mayor addressed the following communication to the City Council:

To the City Council.

GENTLEMEN,—The City of Boston, with a view to preventing the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company from charging exorbitant rates for service rendered, filed with the Public Utilities Commission of the Commonwealth notice of intention to contest the rates sought by the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The City Council at a recent meeting appropriated $5,000 for the conduct of an investigation and for the presentation of the case. The Corporation Counsel now finds that it may require at least $15,000 additional to secure the necessary evidence and to properly conduct the case in behalf of the municipality. This is a character of service that no city or town in the Commonwealth would be required to undertake provided the Public Utilities Commission really represented both parties to the controversy, namely, the people of the Commonwealth and the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The decision, however, of the Public Utilities Commission to permit the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company to increase its rate to subscribers while the investigation was

From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.]

MAYOR CURLEY, THROUGH BOARD OF ASSESSORS, SEEKS TRUE VALUATION OF PHONE COMPANY PROPERTY.

BOARD FEELS THAT $9,000,000, AS ASSERTED, IS FAR BELOW TOTAL AMOUNT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY OF COMPANY IN LIMITS OF CITY.

The Board of Assessors of the City of Boston have received the annual notification from the Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation of the Commonwealth, fixing the value of the property of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company, which is subject to local taxation in Boston, at $9,570,639; this figure represents the value of ground wires and conduits wherever located, and poles and open wires located on private property and machinery used in manufacture.

The Board of Assessors, upon receipt of this notification and within the time required by law, filed an appeal to the State Board of Appeal, consisting of State Treasurer Jackson, State Auditor Cook, and Honorable John A. White, a member of the Governor's Council, designated by statute to sit on this Board of Appeal, from the amount above mentioned, certified by the Commissioner of Taxation.

The Board of Assessors have made this appeal, questioning the amount as certified by the Tax Commissioner, because of information received by them during the hearings before the Department of Public Utilities in connection with the pending telephone rate case, wherein it was shown that the company, on sworn return, had $128,000,000 of taxable plant within the Commonwealth. Of this $128,000,000, approximately $50,000,000 consisted of investment in underground conduits and cables, all of which, under the statute, are subject to local taxation in the cities and towns where such conduits and cables are located. While the Board of Assessors have no means of ascertaining just how much of this underground construction is situated within the City of Boston, it feels that by far the major portion is located within the city, the value of which is greatly in excess of the total amount certified to by the Tax Commissioner as representing all the company's taxable property located within the City of Boston. Furthermore, in the total figure for all the company's property in the state as certified to by the Tax Commissioner there is only $16,643 representing machinery. It is inconceivable that where the central office equipment investment, as shown on the sworn return to the Public Utilities Department, amounts to something over $32,000,000, only $106,000 represents machinery which is taxable locally.

The statute has been interpreted as subjecting to local taxation only such portions of the machinery of the Telephone Company as are used in manufacture. The Telephone Company manufactures no tangible commodity, but it does manufacture and sell service to its subscribers, and switch boards and appurtenances thereto are machinery used in the conduct of its business. The statutes have been amended this year so as to include all machinery used in the conduct of a business corporation as subject to local taxation, and it should be further amended so as to include machinery used in the service of a public service corporation.

The sum total of all property subject to local taxation, as certified to the assessors of the various cities and towns throughout the Commonwealth, amounts to approximately $34,000,000, of which $9,000,000 is certified to as the value of the property subject to local taxation in Boston. As by far the major part of the underground conduit and cable investment, amounting to $50,000,000 throughout the Commonwealth, is located within greater Boston, the Board feels that $9,000,000, or only 25 per cent of the total, is far below the amount which truly represents the taxable value of underground conduits and cables alone within the limits of the City of Boston.

This appeal by the Assessors of Boston is not only of great concern to the people of Boston but it is a matter which vitally affects every city and town in the Commonwealth, in that any increase in taxable property shown by this appeal will accrue to the benefit of every city and town throughout the Commonwealth. The city intends to prosecute this appeal at once and secure a decision from the Board of Appeal at the earliest possible moment, as the result of this appeal has an important bearing upon the determination of the year's tax rate of the City of Boston.

CALLS ON AMERICA TO PRESERVE IN GRATEFUL MEMORY NAME OF LAFAYETTE.

MAYOR MAKES NOTABLE ADDRESS BEFORE HUGE CROWD OF CITIZENS AT DEDICATION OF TABLET TO BELOVED FRENCHMAN.

Mayor Curley delivered the following address at the dedication of the Lafayette tablet on Boston Common, Saturday, September 6:

This tablet erected here on the centennial of his last visit to the republic he helped to create, recalls the name and fame of the Marquis of Lafayette, whose service to the American people and the embattled colonies, constitutes one of the brightest and most romantic chapters in the history of our Revolutionary struggles.

Marie Jean Paul Motier, Marquis of Lafayette, a young man of twenty years when he landed here in 1777, inspired by a love of liberty and human good, offered his sword and service to the colonies in arms against a mighty empire.

The sword and service of a romantic Frenchman were not in themselves of great worth to a struggling cause that seemed to have little chance of success at that time; but his coming represented a spirit that was then stirring the world and finding its first heroic expression on this soil, and it carried with it the knowledge of the sympathy and applause of a great nation across the seas that heartened the colonists and strengthened their determination to be free.

Lafayette became a major general in the Continental Army and served the American cause with valor and distinction through all the years of the struggle, and his bravery and ability, together with his personal charm, gave him a high place in the esteem and affection of Washington. He returned to France in 1779 for a year, and to his influence and that of his friends we owe the aid and alliance of France that brought the armies and navies of France to our assistance, turned the scale of battle in our favor and under Providence brought freedom and independence to America.

The memory of Lafayette should ever be kept green by the American people. His valiant and disinterested services in field and council were of enormous value to our cause and were inspired by the highest and noblest motives that can stir the human heart, and as long as the American republic endures and men love freedom and reverence, loftiness of soul, the name of Lafayette will remain an inspiration and a glory in American annals. This tablet which commemorates his last visit to America should be a shrine for all lovers of liberty.

When he returned here in 1824 he was an old man, a sad and disillusioned man. He had carried the seeds of freedom to France and aided in the destruction of the French monarchy. He had seen the liberty he loved degenerate into the bloody and unbridled license of the red terror; he saw the republican swallowed by the Napoleonic empire and the years of war that devastated Europe; and he had witnessed the downfall of Napoleon, the restoration of the Bourbons, the downfall of liberty and the fabric of forty years of battle and bloodshed apparently wasted.

He came here in 1824 to renew his youth, to see the splendid edifice of law and liberty he had helped to build and to warn us to avoid the pitfalls that had ruined European freedom and guard well the heritage of American democracy.

Let us highly resolve to keep ever in grateful memory the name and fame of Lafayette, one of the noblest and bravest figures in the history of America and the annals of human liberty; let us by eternal vigilance guard well the freedom he helped to gain for us and the Republic his sword and service, his valor and wisdom, his sacrifice and sagacity helped to establish.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

The Mayor has approved the following contracts awarded without advertising; requests of heads of departments to do the work with the department forces without advertising; additions to and deductions from contracts.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Upon September 5 the Mayor approved a contract with the Turner Construction Company for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks. A communication from Joseph A. Rourke, of the Public Works Department, was as follows:

Boston, September 5, 1924.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission to award a contract for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks in the public streets, without advertising, to the Turner Construction Company, 178 Tremont street, Boston, is hereby requested on the ground that this contractor is not selected by the city in the first instance but by the abutters; secondly, the expense of construction is divided by the city and abutters; also because such contracts vary greatly in amounts and seldom involve one thousand (1,000) dollars.

Respectfully yours,

E. F. MURPHY,

Acting Commissioner of Public Works.

Upon September 11 the Mayor approved a contract with the John Guarino Company for the laying of water pipes in Cunningham street, between Hartford and Woodcliff streets, Roxbury. A communication from Joseph A. Rourke, of the Public Works Department, was as follows:

Boston, September 10, 1924.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Your approval is respectfully requested to the award of a contract, without advertising, to John Guarino & Co., 5 West Cottage street, Roxbury, for laying water pipes in Cunningham street, between Hartford and Woodcliff streets, Roxbury, at an estimated cost of $900.

This is the only piece of work to be done in this section and it is inadvisable to await the advertising of a contract in which this might be included.

The work to be done under this contract is to be completed on or before November 1, 1924.

Respectfully yours,

J. A. ROURKE.

Commissioner of Public Works.

SCHOOLHOUSE DEPARTMENT.

Upon September 5 the Mayor approved a contract with J. J. Hurley & Co. for repairs to the heating system of the Sarah J. Baker School, Roxbury. A communication from Thomas P. Glynn, of the Schoolhouse Department, was as follows:

Boston, August 28, 1924.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,

Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—The Board of Schoolhouse Commissioners respectfully requests the approval of Your Honor, under the provisions of chapter 486, section 30, of the Acts of 1909, to awarding a contract, without advertising, to J. J. Hurley & Co., 102 Broadway, for repairs to heating system in the Sarah J. Baker School, Roxbury, the cost of said work to exceed the sum of one thousand (1,000) dollars.

The reason for making this request is as follows: We sent the above named firm to this school to repair leaks in the present primary radiators, to take said radiators apart, renipple them and put them in first-class condition. The radiators, being of the old type, were found to be cracked in many places, and could not be taken apart without damaging them in such a manner that they could not be put back in place. The only alternative therefore is to remove these radiators from the fan chamber and install in their place radiators of a more modern type. The Board therefore requests the approval of Your Honor to the awarding of contract as stated.

Respectfully yours,

THOMAS P. GLYNN,
Chairman.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

Upon September 10 the Mayor approved a contract with the Ligerwood Manufacturing Company for furnishing the Public Works Department, Water Service, 150 screw boxes. A communication from Frank P. Rock of the Supply Department was as follows:

BOSTON, September 9, 1924.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without advertising, to the Lidgerwood Manufacturing Company of 96 Liberty street, New York City, for furnishing to the Public Works Department, Water Service, 150 2-part iron screw boxes at a price of 6 cents per pound. These boxes weigh approximately 75,000 pounds, and the total amount of the contract is about $4,500. I am attaching letter from C. J. Carven, Division Engineer of the Water Service, explaining the necessity of this award.

Trusting that the permission will be granted, I am,

Very truly yours,

FRANK P. ROCK,
Superintendent of Supplies.

Upon September 11 the Mayor approved a contract with the Gibby Foundry Company for furnishing frames, covers, etc. A communication from Frank P. Rock of the Supply Department was as follows:

BOSTON, September 10, 1924.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Permission is respectfully requested to extend the completion date of the contract with Gibby Foundry Company for furnishing frames, covers, etc., from September 1, 1924, to February 1, 1925. The fact that the Public Works Department have found that they will need more castings to complete the year's program, and in order that this department can take advantage of the more or less clause in the contract of the Gibby Foundry Company it is necessary for us to extend the completion date of the contract to February 1, 1925.

In view of the above I trust the permission requested will be granted.

Yours respectfully,

FRANK P. ROCK,
Superintendent of Supplies.

ALL NEW ENGLAND WEEK CELEBRATION MOVE STARTED TO PLACE SECTION BACK ON COM- MERCIAL MAP.

MAYOR NAMES CHARLES J. FOX TO REPRESENT CITY IN INDUSTRIAL PROJECT EXPECTED TO MORE CLOSELY CEMENT TIES OF CAPITAL, MANAGEMENT AND LABOR.

Budget Commissioner Charles J. Fox has been chosen by Mayor Curley to represent the City of Boston in the "All New England Week" celebration.

The object of "All New England Week" is to acquaint the public with nature and merit of goods made in New England, and if the interest that they merit and pride in their purchase can be aroused, the result will be that every yard of cloth, pair of shoes or other item of New England-made goods purchased, will not only benefit the public, both buyer and seller, but will require the employment of New England mechanics to replace them.

This means just so much more work for New England employees. It is anticipated that the public comprising all classes directly interested either by investment, management or employment will be affected.

The greatest benefit to be derived from the success of "All New England Week" will accrue to 56½ per cent of the New England public represented by our New England workman.

It is estimated that if New Englanders in all walks of life would give preference to homemade goods, the output of our New England manufacturers would be increased at least one third. This would mean that instead of many of our manufacturing plants being obliged to run on short time, they would be enabled to run full, and our workmen would be steadily employed. This should also call to the mind of the workman that the more fabrication of his product is by no means the only feature of his work in which he is vitally interested, but there are numerous other features in which he should have a deep interest and in which he can in part assist.

First, he should be interested in producing a superior article, for its superiority greatly enhances its sale.

Second, he should be deeply interested in producing the article at as low a manufacturing cost as is commensurate with superior quality, for the price at which it can be disposed of in competition with similar goods largely determines the volume of manufacture and the greater the volume the lower the cost.

This should induce him to appreciate that it is in his interest to do his utmost to give maximum effort for wages paid.

Third, he should be deeply interested in the disposal of the finished product, for, unless sold, there is no necessity for replacement, for which reason, bragging at every opportunity with regard to the quality of the material he makes and efforts to bring them to the favorable consideration of his friends and acquaintances, and himself using them and inducing his family to do the same whenever opportunity offers, is further contributing to his own prosperity.

It is hoped that this "All New England" activity will result in a permanent three-cornered partnership of Capital, Management and Labor, each contributing equally to New England's prosperity, with the women and the balance of the New England public as a valuable auxiliary to this partnership, and if this hope is realized, New England will outstep the world and occupy for all time an impregnable position in the commercial and industrial field.

LAND-TAKING IN DORCHESTER.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land on the southwesterly side of Almont street, Dorchester district, known as "Collins Field," containing approximately 675,688 square feet for playground purposes, including the trees, buildings and other structures standing upon or affixed thereto:

A parcel of land, supposed to belong to Samuel Carr, trustee, bounded:

Northeast by other land supposed to belong to said trustee, and by Almont street, by two measurements, two hundred fifty-eight and 52-100 feet on a curve of four hundred eighty-five and 11-100 feet radius and five hundred nineteen and 40-100 feet; southeast by land supposed to belong to O'Neil, one hundred twenty-seven and 50-100 feet; northeast by the same, and by land supposed to belong to Chadwick, seventy-two and 70-100 feet; southeast by land supposed to belong to Chadwick, to Manzoli, Collins street, to Costello and to Stark heirs, by five measurements, one hundred twenty-seven and 45-100 feet, forty and 9-100 feet, thirty-seven and 63-100 feet, one hundred feet and five hundred three and 21-100 feet; southwest by land supposed to belong to Dewar, to Kelly, Bismark street, to Doran, to Burt, Favre street, and to

MASSACHUSETTS CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS.

The Massachusetts Civil Service Commission announce examinations for desirable positions open in the Boston and Metropolitan districts as follows:

GARAGE SUPERINTENDENT, PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT, SEPTEMBER 25, 1924.

The salary is $2,500 per year. Applicants must be not less than 30 nor more than 55 years of age at the time of filing application.

A certificate of date of birth must be filed with the application.

Applicants should have experience in motor vehicle storage, transportation and repairs, and should be physically capable of working continuously for long periods of time. The superintendent will have charge of the garage which will house, ultimately, 120 touring cars, trucks, street sweepers and flushing trucks for various services of the Public Works Department, and will have a labor force of approximately thirty men. Spare parts for the machines will be kept in a stock room and properly requisitioned and charged to individual cars. Gasoline and oil will be issued in measured quantities and properly recorded against each vehicle. A small repair department will be established within the garage for minor repairs only, in sub-charge of a man skilled in the work and reporting directly to the superintendent. Major repairs will be made by outside concerns, and it will be within the province of the superintendent to decide whether a car should be repaired in the garage or taken outside and to determine the probable cost of the latter repairs.

The subjects of examination with their respective weights will be as follows: Training and experience, 4; practical questions, 3; personality and fitness as determined by an oral interview, 3; total, 10.

Applicants will be required to obtain at least 65 per cent in each subject and in general average in order to become eligible.

Successful applicants will be required to file a certificate from a reputable physician as to their physical fitness for the position.

ELECTRICAL DRAFTSMAN, SCHOOLHOUSE DEPARTMENT, SEPTEMBER 25, 1924.

The salary is $2,080 per year.

Applicants should have a general knowledge of building construction on first, second, and third class buildings, be able to draw and lay out electrical plans and to read building plans, have a working knowledge of electricity, both on low tension (bells, clocks, telephones and fire alarm) and on light and power circuits, a knowledge of the rules governing electrical installations as issued by the Boston Board of Fire Underwriters and the Fire Department, Wire Division, of the City of Boston, and sufficient information, both electrical and educational, to write out specifications for electrical work of various kinds in an intelligent manner.

The subjects of examination with their respective weights will be as follows: Training and experience, 3; practical questions on the duties of the position, 2; total, 5.

Applicants will be required to obtain at least 65 per cent in training and experience and in general average in order to become eligible.

Successful applicants will be required to file a certificate from a reputable physician as to their physical fitness for the position.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR AND BACTERIOLOGIST,

JOHN O. TABER,
Chief of Department.

MAKE READY FOR COLUMBUS DAY CELEBRATION.

The Columbus Day Committee of the Citizens' Public Celebrations Association has started work on preparations for the annual municipal observance of that holiday, which this year falls on Sunday and will therefore be observed on Monday, October 13.

While the final program has not been settled, the plans approved by the Director of Public Celebrations on behalf of the Mayor will include the features on Boston Common that have come to be annual fixtures, including addresses at the Parkman Memorial Bandstand in the afternoon followed by a sunset military ceremony with the lowering of the national flag. A municipal athletic meet will be conducted in the forenoon.

Special interest will be attached to the Columbus Day program on the Common because on this occasion will be the first public use of the new amplifying apparatus whose installation at the bandstand is now in progress. The exercises of the day will be broadcasted to all the assembled audience through the new mechanism, as well as put on the air by radio for the benefit of all who choose to listen in.

There will be the customary international aspect to the holiday according to the plan which has been carried out on successive municipal observances of Columbus Day in Boston the past several years. The director and the committee are engaged in perfecting plans for assembling as many racial groups as possible to participate in the program, thereby indicating the cosmopolitan character both of the holiday and the people of Boston.

These groups will assemble at the Public Library in Copley square and on the steps of that institution will go through a program similar in character to the one that proved interesting and picturesque, on the Common last year. It is the hope of the committee that every race of people now represented by residents of Boston be included in the Columbus Day program. In order that every group may be on an equal footing the committee has specified that no group shall exceed fifteen in number. It is desired that as many as possible of each racial group appear in characteristic or national costume, both men, women and children.

With the conclusion of the Copley square exercises the participants, with a military escort will march to the Common for the ceremonies following there.

The Columbus Day Committee consists of: Joseph A. F. O'Neill, chairman; E. B. Mero, secretary; John B. Archibald, Frank Chouteau Brown, Charles L. Burrill, Charles T. Cahill, William H. Cuddy, Edward L. Curran, Merle R. Griffith, John J. Keenan, Frank Leveroni, James H. Phelan, John J. Sawtelle, John A. Scanga, Henry J. D. Small, and Louis Watson.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 603.

The resignation of Patrolman Leo G. Costello of Division 14 having been presented while charges against him are pending, it is hereby accepted, to take effect Wednesday, September 10, 1924, at 7.45 o'clock a. m., seven days' notice waived.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

CONSTRUCTION WORK.

The Mayor has approved the request of the Public Works Department for the following construction work:

A sanitary sewer of 10-inch earthen pipe in Vermont street, between Mt. Vernon street and a point 175 feet northeasterly in the West Roxbury district, and that he estimates that the cost thereof will be $1,350.

A sanitary sewer of 10-inch earthen pipe in P street between Columbia road and East Sixth street, in the South Boston district, and that he estimates that the cost thereof will be $2,435.

MANY USEFUL SUBJECTS RELATING TO SCHOOL WORK DISCUSSED AT ANNUAL CONVENTION OF PUBLIC SCHOOL BUSINESS OFFICIALS, ACCORDING TO REPORT OF BUSINESS AGENT KEOUGH OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

William T. Keough, former Business Agent, has submitted to the School Committee the following report on his attendance at the Annual Convention of the National Association of Public School Business Officials at Indianapolis, Ind., May 12 to 16, which was presented at its meeting held on Monday, September 8, 1924.

To the School Committee:

In compliance with the provisions of section 3 of chapter 274 of the Acts of 1914, I submit the following report on my attendance at the Annual Convention of the National Association of Public School Business Officials, held at Indianapolis, Ind., May 12-16, 1924.

Representatives from thirty-four states and the District of Columbia were present. Two representatives from Toronto, Canada, also attended.

At the opening session addresses of welcome were made by the Mayor of the city, the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, the President of the Board of Education and the Superintendent of Schools.

At the several sessions of the convention, the following papers were read and discussed:

"The Functions of a Secretary or Business Manager in his Relation to the Superintendent of Schools, the Board of Education and the Community." James F. Dunphy, Secretary, Board of Education, Patterson, N. J.

"Purchasing and Distribution of Supplies and Equipment in Districts of less than Fifty Thousand." H. W. Anderson, Secretary, Board of Education, Kalamazoo, Mich.

"A Co-operative Price and Service Clearing House." H. C. Roberts, Secretary, Board of Education, Sioux City, Iowa.

"Annual Financial Reports." Miss Corinna M. Clark, School Accountant, El Paso, Texas.

"Annual Reports as the State Department Sees Them." Jonas E. Wagner, Assistant Director, Bureau of Administration, Department of Public Instruction, Harrisburg, Pa.

"The Extent to which the Uniform Account Blank has been Adopted Throughout the Country." Dr. Frank M. Phillips, Chief of Division of Statistics, U. S. Department of Education, Washington, D. C.

"Educational Opportunities of the Business Department of the Public Schools." Clyde Blanchard, Secretary and Business Manager, Berkeley, Cal.

"State Uniform System of Public School Accounting." Leonard B. Job, Assistant State Superintendent, Public Instruction, Indianapolis, Indiana.

"Depreciation and Other School Costs." A. Howard Bell, Auditor, Gary, Ind.

"The Principles of Ventilation as Applied to School Buildings by the Unit System." J. M. Robb, Heating Engineer, Peoria, Ill.

"The Proper Method of Figuring Building Costs and Capacities." R. M. Milligan, Commissioner of Buildings, St. Louis, Mo.

"The Appraisal of School Property for Insurance Purposes." Frederick F. Martin, Business Manager, Pasadena, Cal.

"Unit System of School Construction." W. R. McCornack, School Architect, Cleveland, Ohio.

"The Proper Treatment of Schoolroom Walls." A. B. Cousins, School Mechanic, Richmond, Va.

"The Standardization of Schoolroom Equipment." C. M. McKee, Superintendent of Supplies, Pittsburg, Pa.

"The Adaptation of Rooms and Equipment for Industrial Arts in Public Schools." S. A. Challman, State Inspector of Schools, St. Paul, Minn.

"Home Made School Survey." Mark L. Thomsen, Cleveland, Ohio.

"Control of School Finances by City Officials.—Its Advantages and Disadvantages." C. M. Schenck, School Treasurer, Denver, Col.

Two sessions were held on Tuesday, two on Wednesday, one on Thursday and one on Friday. Evening sessions were held on Tuesday and Thursday, while the afternoon of Thursday was spent on an automobile ride about the city and its parks and visiting the schools of the city.

The following reports by committees of the association were presented and accepted:

Committee on Uniform Accounting and Terminology.

Committee on Resolutions.

Committee on Audit.

Committee on Nominations.

The Committee on Uniform Accounting and Terminology, of which your Business Agent is chairman, presented a lengthy report recommending many changes in the form of the standard report, correcting errors therein and amending the instructions for its use.

The paper on "The Functions of a Secretary or Business Manager in his Relations to the Superintendent, the Board of Education and the Community," by Capt. James F. Dunphy, Secretary of the Board of Education of Patterson, N. J., was an interesting discussion on school organization, Captain Dunphy being an emphatic exponent of the dual type of organization, that type in which the superintendent is in responsible charge of all educational matters and the secretary or business agent in responsible charge of all business matters.

This subject has been discussed so many times during the past twelve years by educational associations, survey committees (generally composed wholly of educators) and boards of education, that practically nothing new was developed during the discussion.

It is well known that there has been a general drive by educators throughout the country during the past few years toward the "unit" type of organization, wherein the superintendent is named as the official in charge of the entire system, all other officers and subordinates in the system to be appointed by and subordinate to him and all reports to the board to be made by him.

In the paper read at Atlantic City in May, 1922, your Business Agent pointed out that of the twenty-four cities in the country with a population of over 250,000, there are but five under the unit organization, viz., New York, Rochester, Buffalo, Minneapolis and Detroit, and that the first three are so organized because of the mandate of state law. This leaves but two cities, Minneapolis and Detroit, as the only cities in the entire country with a population of over 250,000 which have voluntarily put into effect the unit type of organization, viz., Minneapolis having adopted the plan in 1914 and Detroit in 1917.

The paper on "Purchasing and Distribution of Supplies and Equipment in Districts of less than Fifty Thousand," by Harley W. Anderson, Secretary, Board of Education, Kalamazoo, Mich., was based upon Mr. Anderson's experience of ten years in the city of Kalamazoo and from information furnished by the supply departments of about twenty cities of from 30,000 to 50,000 population.

Mr. Anderson pointed out the importance of standardization, the necessity for carefully drawn specifications and the inspection and comparison of samples submitted with bids.

From answers received from several cities he found that the majority of them make deliveries every week and some twice a week, and that he has tried the weekly, bi-monthly and monthly plans and has found the delivery every two weeks the most satisfactory and economical.

It would appear that Mr. Anderson's methods are very closely in harmony with those adopted and in practice by the larger cities of the country.

The paper on "A Co-operative Price and Service Clearing House," by H. C. Roberts, Secretary, Board of Education, Sioux City, Iowa, was prompted by a report of the Text-Book Committee in the 1923 meeting at St. Louis, which report disclosed substantial discrepancies in prices paid by different cities for the same text-books, some for reasons apparent and others for which no account could be given.

At that same session the attention of the members was invited to a commercial service offering to school officials a cost exchange through which subscribers are furnished at regular intervals, information relative to prices paid by other cities for various articles of equipment and supplies, together with the quantity purchased and the name of the company from whom purchased.

Mr. Roberts presented for consideration some reasons why the association should furnish this information to its own members, methods by which the service might be economically and readily furnished, and some conclusions as to what might be accomplished in case such a plan was adopted and put into operation. He has reached the conclusion that while a co-operative clearing house on this basis alone readily justifies itself, the information is not as broad and inclusive as it should be and that the price quotation accompanied by the name of the distributor furnishes information on additional sources of supply which would be conducive to more advantageous purchasing.

Mr. Roberts has discovered that the larger cities purchase from very definite specifications, while the smaller from indefinite or no specifications and for the reason that it is not advisable for a city of 50,000 inhabitants to attempt to maintain a working machinery of analyses and testing and experimentation without which a large city could not consider it possible to operate intelligently. He suggested that the scope of the proposed clearing house include the exchange of specifications. He suggested the appointment of a committee to review the plan, pass upon details and present findings at a later meeting of the association.

The paper on "Annual Financial Reports," by Miss Corinna M. Clark, School Accountant, El Paso, Texas, reviewed the history of early school financial reports, the oldest available being that printed in Philadelphia in 1819.

Miss Clark found a wide variation and practice in the different cities in the matter of presenting annual financial reports, three cities where the population is over 175,000 making no annual financial report whatever. She pointed out that with the cost of education jumping by leaps and bounds, school budgets strained to the utmost and taxpayers critical, there seems a greater need than ever for detailed accounting in order to assure the critics that public money is not wasted.

The paper on "Annual Reports as the State Department Sees Them," by Jonas E. Wagner, Assistant Director, Bureau of Administration, Department of Public Instruction, Harrisburg, Pa., set forth the conditions in Pennsylvania and the legal requirements in the matter of making up reports on child accounting, teacher accounting, financial accounting, and miscellaneous accounting. He discussed the preparation and revision of report blanks, plan of collection and the use that is made of them. He is of the belief that these records afford an inestimable reservoir of information for many studies that are always being prosecuted and this is the only available source of original data in such form and account that is obtainable anywhere. He also believes that in the annual reports the state department has its most valuable sources of that first-hand knowledge necessary to administer the schools wisely.

In the paper on "The Extent to Which the Uniform Account Blank has been Adopted Throughout the Country," Dr. Frank M. Philips, Chief of Division of Statistics, United States Department of Education, Washington, D. C., pointed out some of the difficulties experienced by his office in securing prompt and complete returns on the standard forms.

Mr. Clyde Blanchard, Secretary and Business Manager, Berkeley, Cal., in his paper on "Educational Opportunities of the Business Department of the Public Schools," called attention to the desirability of the school business official keeping himself informed upon present day objectives and visiting schools frequently to personally observe varied activities of the pupils. He suggested many opportunities of the business official to assist in the training of pupils for educational efficiency.

Among his interesting suggestions were the following: Using the business office for advanced office training of pupils in the commercial department of the junior and senior high schools, demonstrating in a practical way the routine of typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, duplicating and the duties of purchase order, storeroom and pay roll clerks, dictaphone operators, mimeograph operators and similar office work. Such pupils are paid at the rate of 25 cents per hour when used by the business office outside of school hours.

He suggested that the president of the association invite a public school educator of national standing to address the association on present day problems of public school education, in order that the association may have its vision broadened, its objectives more clearly defined, and its activities more wisely directed.

Mr. Leonard B. Job, Assistant State Superintendent, Public Instruction, Indianapolis, Ind. in his paper, "State Uniform System of Public School Accounting," outlined in much detail a complete system of public school accounting.

The paper "Depreciation and Other School Costs," by Mr. A. Howard Bell, Auditor, Gary, Ind., made an earnest plea for the inclusion of depreciation of school property in the costs of school systems.

There is a wide divergence of opinion on the wisdom of including depreciation in school costs, because of the difficulty heretofore encountered in getting into agreement on the determination of the amount to be allowed for depreciation on the several classes of school property.

The demand for such inclusion appears to be more insistent among the younger school accountants, particularly those who have had little experience in school accounting and who are unfamiliar with the laws in many states where school accounting must harmonize with such laws.

The paper on the "Principles of Ventilation as Applied to School Buildings by the Univent System" by Mr. J. M. Robb, Heating Engineer, Peoria, Ill., presented advantages of ventilating schoolrooms by independent units consisting of a fan, and motor for same, located in the schoolroom and under the control of the school teacher.

Mr. R. M. Milligan, Commissioner of Buildings, St. Louis, Mo., in his paper, "The Proper Method of Figuring Building Costs and Capacities," discussed the necessity for furnishing the educational needs of the building and definite data on the character content, and sizes of the building, character of construction, sanitation, system of heating and ventilation and grade of materials proposed to be employed, and a thorough analysis of such detailed costs before the total estimated cost of the building is established.

He pointed out that this requires close collaboration between the architect, the instruction department, the engineer and the building department. He discussed the "per class room cost," "cost per pupil," "cost per square foot of floor area," "cost per cubic foot."

He believes the latter method more nearly approximates the probable cost of proposed buildings than any of the other methods, but that even in this case it can only be taken as a superficial system of estimating.

He states that boards of education are frequently misled by architects showing a low cost per cubic foot compared to such cost in some other city, whereas in providing the same student accommodations they may have a lot of waste areas with higher story heights or different styles of architecture, and although both buildings may have the same floor plan, one will have substantial additional cubage which tends to lower the cost per cubic foot, but raises the total cost of the building above the one which shows a higher cost per cubic foot.

Mr. Milligan also pointed out the value of accurate records and unit costs of school buildings kept by the Board of Education, and submitted tabulation showing the method of analyzing school building costs.

He suggested the appointment of a committee to work out and report back to the next convention a plan for standardizing methods of computing costs and capacities of school buildings.

In his paper on "The Proper Treatment of Schoolroom Walls," Mr. A. B. Cousins, School Mechanic, Richmond, Va., gave some data on unit costs of treating schoolroom walls showing some remarkable economical results.

The discussion brought out the fact that after proper training of the men, the mechanical system of spreading paint on the walls was far more economical than when the material was applied by hand.

Mr. Mark L. Thomsen, former Chairman of the School Committee of the Board of Education, Cleveland, Ohio, had a most interesting paper on the "Home Made School Survey."

This survey was made by a large committee made up of prominent and disinterested citizens of the city, whose work was divided up into small committees. A large amount of time was devoted to careful investigation into all phases of the work of the schools.

Among other matters considered with great care was the question of unit organization advocated by so many survey committees composed wholly of educators.

In this case the unit system of organization was not recommended or adopted.

The paper on "Control of School Finances by City Officials. Its Advantages and Disadvantages," by C. M. Schenck, School Treasurer, Denver, Col., was largely a collection of data on the existing methods of financing schools, showing the method of control of appropriations in different cities and the measure of such control.

Round table conferences were held on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, the former being devoted to accounting, supplies, text books, etc., and the latter to a conference on buildings, repairs, ventilation, etc.

It is, of course, impossible within the scope of such report to give any adequate idea of even the high spots at a convention where so many subjects are handled at such length.

The papers in full, however, appear in the printed transactions of the association and will be found valuable when any of the subjects referred to are under discussion.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM T. KEOUGH,
Business Agent.

CLAIMS.

Upon recommendation of the Law Department the Mayor has approved the following claims:

Charles J. Lynch, in the sum of $28, as compensation for loss of clothing, at the City Hospital, while employed as a cleaner on March 18, 1924.

Rudolph Santini, in the sum of $22.50, as compensation for loss of clothing destroyed by fumigation at the South Department of the City Hospital on May 2, 1924.

TELEPHONE INCREASES.

pending is ample proof that the Public Utilities Commission is not only friendly disposed to the public service corporation but is absolutely hostile to the interests of the subscribers.

In order that the public may secure some measure of protection I recommend the adoption of the accompanying order providing an additional sum in the amount of $15,000 for the conduct of this case.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, August 25, 1924.

Special meeting of the City Council of the City of Boston, held in the City Council Chamber, City Hall, on Monday, August 25, 1924, at two o'clock p. m.

Present—The President and all the members except Coun. Brickley, Healey and Lane.

The meeting was held pursuant to the following call:

City of Boston,
Office of the City Clerk, August 22, 1924.

A special meeting of the City Council will be held in its chamber, City Hall, on Monday, August 25, 1924, at two o'clock p. m., to take action on loan orders for the widening of Tremont and Kneeland streets.

By order of the President.

JAMES DONOVAN,
City Clerk.

Placed on file.

TREMONT STREET WIDENING.

Coun. WALSH moved to take from the table the order for a loan of $1,200,000 for the widening of Tremont street.

The motion was lost, yeas 3, nays 3:
Yeas—Coun. Donoghue, Purcell, Walsh—3.
Nays—Coun. Gilbody, Moriarty, Watson—3.

MOTION TO ADJOURN.

Coun. MORIARTY moved that the Council do now adjourn.

The motion was lost, yeas 2, nays 4:
Yeas—Coun. Moriarty, Watson—2.
Nays—Coun. Donoghue, Gilbody, Purcell, Walsh—4.

KNEELAND STREET WIDENING.

Coun. WALSH moved to take from the table the order for a loan of $1,200,000 for the widening of Kneeland street.

The motion was carried, yeas 4, nays 2:
Yeas—Coun. Donoghue, Gilbody, Purcell, Walsh—4.

Nays—Coun. Moriarty, Watson—2.

The question came on the passage of the order.

Coun. WATSON—At the last meeting of the Council, Mr. President, several members called upon the other members not to act upon certain measures until there was a full meeting of the Council. I do not know how much merit there was in their request. That is for each individual to determine. I have my opinion, and I will not express it—it is not necessary. But, today, there are three members missing from this meeting. One member (Coun. Lane) undoubtedly did not receive the notice. Another member (Coun. Brickley) was here this morning and was in a pretty tough physical shape and went away. Coun. Walsh saw him, I believe. He was in pain and went to the doctor's, I believe, or home. And the third member (Coun. Healey), I believe, went away, where, I do not know. Therefore, we are in the position today of considering a million two hundred thousand dollar proposition with only two thirds of the total membership of this body present, prepared to vote on this proposition. It goes without saying that if the measure is voted upon today the proposition will be defeated—not by a majority vote of this Council, but by a bare majority of those present and voting—and perhaps not that.

The widening of Tremont street is an important proposition and for the time being it is held in abeyance by the action of the Council today; but the other proposition, the widening of Kneeland street, is far more important than the widening of Tremont street. The City of Boston, through its duly accredited representatives, the Mayor, the Street Commissioners, etc., has laid out what is now called Stuart street, from Huntington avenue to Tremont street. That measure was foisted on the City of Boston without the consent of the legislative branch of this city—the City Council had no voice in the matter. But I will pass over that; there is no need of talking about it. But Kneeland street is as important, in my opinion, as Tremont street. That is my personal opinion. It means a through artery from Tremont street on to the South Station and, if not widened now but widening in years to come, will cost several times what the widening will cost now. But I will not discuss that. I am satisfied that my facts that I submit, or my views, are falling on ears that are closed to the facts as I express them; in other words, the die is cast. It is decided that, today, of the two great improvements, it shall not pass, but through the wisdom of the Council one is held in abeyance for a full vote of the Council at some future date, and the other, because the members have voted to take from the table, is now under consideration. I believe that every man here today who votes on this proposition is voting according to his conscientious dictation. I do not think for a moment but that they are all just as earnest in the proposition as I am; but they are "set," to use the vernacular of the day; they have made up their minds not to pass it but to defeat it. If this great proposition is defeated today, it is a mistake. I sincerely trust that the motion of the member (Coun. Walsh) that the matter be passed upon today will be defeated, and then later, at a future meeting, there may be a very proper consideration of the proposition and let happen to it what may. I trust that the measure will not be acted upon today, at this particular time.

The order failed of passage (six votes in favor being required).

Yeas—Coun. Moriarty, Purcell, Watson—3.

Nays—Coun. Donoghue, Gilbody, Walsh—3.

Adjourned at 3.15 p. m., on motion of Coun. WALSH.

Tuesday, August 26, 1924.

Special meeting of the City Council, held in the City Council Chamber, City Hall, on Tuesday, August 26, 1924, at one o'clock p. m., Coun. WATSON, senior member, presiding, and a quorum present.

Absent—Coun. Brickley, Donoghue and Lane.
The meeting was held pursuant to the following call:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 25, 1924.
To the Members of the City Council.

You are hereby requested to assemble* in the City Council chamber on Tuesday, August 26, 1924, at 1 p. m., for the purpose of taking action on a temporary loan to provide money in anticipation of taxes.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.
Placed on file.

TEMPORARY LOAN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor August 25, 1924.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith a communication received today from the City Treasurer and an order authorizing a temporary loan in anticipation of taxes.

As the present favorable conditions in the money market may not continue and as the order requires two readings fourteen days apart, I respectfully urge that immediate and favorable action be taken on it.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Office of the City Treasurer, August 25, 1924.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Sir,—Being able to borrow money at around 2 per cent per annum. I am asking herewith additional authority to issue and sell temporary notes rather than be obliged to go on the market for a permanent loan at around 4 per cent per annum.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN J. CURLEY,
City Treasurer.

Ordered, That to provide temporarily money to meet the appropriations for the financial year 1924-25, the City Treasurer issue and sell, at such times and in such amounts as he may deem best, notes or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston not exceeding four million dollars in addition to the amount heretofore authorized, in anticipation of the revenue of the current municipal year; that all such notes or certificates of indebtedness be dated the day the money for the same is received, be made payable with the interest thereon within one year of their date from the revenue of the year 1924, and bear interest from their date until the same are made payable at such rate as the City Auditor, the City Treasurer and the Mayor may determine.

The order was read once and passed, yeas 6, nays 0.

Assigned for fourteen days for final action.

Adjourned at 1.45 o'clock p. m.

THE CITY DOLLAR SPENT IN YEAR 1923-24.

For Public Schools, 28.66 cents; (2) Public Works, 13.66 cents; (3) Debt Requirements, 11.61; (4) State Tax and Assessments, 11.08; (5) Police Dept., 8.17; (6) Fire Dept., 6.85; (7) General Government, 4.20; (8) Hospitals and Health, 3.91; (9) County Courts, Etc., 3.70; (10) Institutions and Poor Relief, 3.64; (11) Public Recreation, 3.00; (12) Public Library, 1.37; (13) Public Service Enterprises, 0.15 (due to a slight excess of expenditure over revenue); making a total of 100 cents. This excludes all expenditure from loans, etc., but includes special appropriations from tax levy and other general income, used for public improvements.

The revenue of all departments, $7,719,910, amounted to 18.06 per cent of their gross expenditures for maintenance. The revenue of Public Service Enterprises alone (including Water Service, Ferry Service, Printing Plant, Markets, etc.) amounted to $4,538,919 or 5.88 per cent of total department income. The fractions of the dollar above stated represent net expenditure, computed after deducting department revenue.

Revenue from another class of public service enterprise, i. e., Rapid Transit, for rentals of subways and tunnels, $1,655,475 or $15,642 less than the interest and sinking-fund requirements of the Rapid Transit debt in 1923.

EXPENDITURES, FISCAL YEAR, 1923-24.

Total ordinary and extraordinary, $69,433,002, or $4,593,567 more than in 1922. For maintenance of departments (excluding Water Service and Printing Dept.), $39,244,315 (including $12,421,826 for Schools); for City and County interest, $3,488,857; sinking-fund requirements, $606,133; serial loan payments, $1,979,128 (making all debt requirements, excluding Rapid Transit, $6,074,118), for Water Service, including Metropolitan water assessment, interest on debt, etc., $3,128,463 (covered by water revenue). State tax, $3,302,400 (regular) and $697,296 (civilian war poll tax); Metropolitan and various State assessments, $1,785,745; Printing Department, $380,832 (covered by revenue); special appropriations from tax levy for public improvements, $5,097,379; special appropriations from Parkman Fund income for park improvements, $236,244.

Total ordinary expenditures, $59,946,792, or $4,173,498 more than in 1922. Total expenditures for departments only, $1,654,148 more than in 1922.

Department increases of expenditure in excess of $25,000 over the year 1922 were: Boston Sanatorium, $31,259; Fire Department, $328,170; Health, $46,647; Hospital, $195,614; Library, $35,084; Park, $273,904; Police, $241,807; Public Buildings, $48,048; Public Works, $238,765; School Dept., $343,355; Suffolk County, $153,347.

Regular appropriations unexpended by the departments reached the noteworthy total of $761,664. Decreases of expenditure from 1922 were: City Clerk, $2,800; Election Dept., $56,569; Overseeing of Public Welfare, $35,161; Soldiers' Relief, $712,264.

Extraordinary expenditures for permanent improvements (i. e., loan appropriations, etc., including unused portions from previous year), $7,512,304, of which $1,623,669 was for Rapid Transit construction (mostly E. Boston Tunnel alterations); $1,162,238 for sewer construction; $804,624 for making of highways; $577,496 for Columbus Park, improvements; $379,290 for Police Headquarters; $336,838 for Playground improvements, etc.; $319,512 for Stuart St. construction; $314,518 for Hyde Park St. R'way, purchase of; $289,152, for City Hospital, improvements; $284,665 for Police Station 2, Building; $261,661 for work on various public buildings; $253,467 for Chelsea Bridge South; $170,023 for City Hospital, Thorndike Memorial Building; $157,886 for E. Boston Ferry, improvements; $123,408 for Cambridge St. Bridge; $116,686 for Municipal Garage, Albany St.; $94,864 for Beacon St. Bridge; $91,583 for Public Latin School. For Rapid Transit debt requirements, $1,671,117. Total extraordinary, $9,486,211 or $420,069 more than in 1922.

NATIVES AND CITIZENS OF BOSTON AND VICINITY HONORED IN HALL OF FAME.

In the American Hall of Fame, New York City, dedicated in 1901, are inscribed on bronze tablets the names of 56 eminent men and 7 distinguished women deemed worthy of the highest honor on account of their services and attainments. Of the 63 individuals thus selected (up to 1920 inclusive) by an electorate of 100 leading Americans, 27 were natives or for some time citizens of Boston or vicinity. The names of the latter are as follows: Chosen in 1900—John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, William Ellery Channing, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Daniel Webster, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, Horace Mann, Nathaniel Hawthorne, George Peabody, Samuel Finley Breese Morse, Joseph Story, Asa Gray, Gilbert Stuart—total, 13.

Chosen in 1905—John Quincy Adams, James Russell Lowell, John Greenleaf Whittier—total, 3.

Chosen, in 1910—Edgar Allan Poe, Oliver Wendell Holmes, George Bancroft, John Lothrop Motley, Phillips Brooks—total, 5.

Chosen in 1915—Louis Agassiz, Francis Parkman, Rufus Choate, Charlotte Cushman—total, 4.

Chosen in 1920—William Thomas Green Morton, Alice Freeman Palmer. Five additional names every fifth year are to be selected and inscribed until the year 2,000, when the 150 tablets in the colonnade will be complete.

If those who were natives or residents elsewhere in the State are added to the list, the following 7 names increase the total to 34 for Massachusetts or more than half the whole number, viz.: William Cullen Bryant, Jonathan Edwards, Mark Hopkins, Elias Howe, Eli Whitney, Maria Mitchell, Mary Lyon.

If all New England is included, 4 more names will bring up the total to 38 or 60.3 per cent of whole number chosen, viz.: Roger Williams, Henry Ward Beecher, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Emma Willard.

CITY CHARTER CHANGES.

In 1854, 1885 and 1900 important changes in the original City Charter of 1821 were effected for the purpose of improving the methods and efficiency of the City Government. The revision of 1854 (Chap. 448, Stat. 1854) referred to the voters for acceptance, gave the Mayor a qualified veto over the action of the City Council, also the power of removal of appointed officials, besides providing for his election by a plurality instead of a majority vote. The amendments of 1885 (Chap. 266, Stat. 1885) were not submitted to the voters for approval. They transferred all the executive powers to the Mayor, prohibiting the City Council from interference with the executive and administrative business of the City. This was done in order to end the inefficiency resulting from an excessive number of joint committees, a municipal development conforming to the traditions of the outgrown town government.

The amendments of 1909 (Chap. 486, Stat. 1909) cut down the number and powers of the legislative branch of the government to a minimum, the Board of Aldermen (13 members) and the Common Council (75 members) being abolished. For these was substituted a single City Council of nine members to be elected at large for a 3-year term. The Mayor's position was further strengthened by giving him a 4-year term, subject to recall at end of two years, but requiring a majority of the registered voters to make the recall effective. The Mayor's power over appointments was no longer subject to check by aldermen but by a State board, the Civil Service Commission, and City elections were removed from all connection with national and State politics, no primaries nor caucuses being permitted, all candidates for office to be selected by means of nomination papers. The only question in this Act of 1909 which was submitted to the voters was contained in section 35, i. e., whether Plan 1 or Plan 2 should be adopted, the first providing for a term of two years for Mayor and a City Council of 36 members to be chosen in primaries. Plan 2 was adopted by a majority of 3,894. Charter of 1909 amended later as follows: (1) By Chap. 437, Acts of 1910, exempting loans issued for Rapid Transit construction from the prohibition of the establishing of sinking funds, as contained in sec. 26. (2) Chap. 730, Acts of 1914, fixing date of annual municipal election on the sixth Tuesday after the state election instead of in the following January, as in sec. 32; changing the requirement as to signatures on nomination papers to 3,000 for Mayor and 2,000 for City Council and School Committee instead of 5,000 for all, as in sec. 53, also limiting the number of nomination papers issued to 300 for a candidate for Mayor and 200 for other candidates, referring to sec. 54. (3) Chap. 37, Special Acts of 1918, annulling the jurat at end of nomination papers. (4) Chap. 94, Special Acts of 1918, abolishing recall of Mayor, and making him ineligible for re-election, i. e., establishing a single term of four years, but not prohibiting the election of any Mayor for other than consecutive terms. (5) Chap. 288, Acts of 1921, fixing date of the annual municipal election on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in December, also making slight changes as to nominations.

LIQUOR LICENSES AND NATIONAL PROHIBITION.

The national prohibition amendment (i. e., the 18th) to the Constitution, having been ratified by 45 States and becoming effective on January 16, 1920, the legalized trade in intoxicating liquors ceased then. It was supposed to stop about 6 months sooner because of the Federal war regulation providing for prohibition on July 1, 1919, to be effective until the army could be demobilized. But as there was no Massachusetts law forbidding the issuing of licenses after July 1, the Boston Licensing Board issued 702 such for the remainder of the license year with the proviso that the license was no protection against violation of Federal law. After which licensees claimed the right to sell July 1, under Federal law, the only liquor was beer and ale containing not over 2.75 per cent of alcohol. Sales of these lighter beverages continued to October 28, 1919, when Congress enacted a law (Volstead Act) forbidding the sale of any liquor as a beverage containing more than 0.50 per cent alcohol. The validity of this act being widely questioned, the United States Supreme Court upheld it on Jan. 5, 1920, and again on June 7, 1920. The result of this decision was that former applicants for liquor licenses did not apply for them in 1920. The Supreme Court of Mass. later in the year decided that the liquor laws of the State remain in force where not inconsistent with the Volstead Act. The Boston Board therefore issued 146 licenses to druggists and 17 4th-class, permitting sales for non-beverage purposes only. In 1921 there were issued 192 licenses to druggists, 15 4th-class and one 5th-class. On May 17, 1922, Chap. 427, Acts of 1922 (consisting of 27 sections) was approved, providing for the carrying into effect in Mass. of the 18th Federal (i. e., prohibition) amendment. This law is subject to a referendum at State election on November 7, 1922.

By Chapter 392, Acts of 1922, the retailing of non-intoxicating beverages is subjected to license, with fee of not more than one dollar for each year ending April 30.

PUBLIC STREETS IN BOSTON.

Total length of the 2,447 paved (accepted) streets, February 1, 1922, 606.33 miles; total area, 11,459,009 square yards, or 8.47 per cent of the City's total land area. This is exclusive of the private streets (not accepted), numbering about 2,890. 366.10 miles, or 60.38 per cent, are paved with macadam (including 128.03 miles bituminous macadam); 105.66 miles with granite block; 45.50 miles with asphalt; 29.32 miles with gravel; 36.63 miles with asphalt concrete (17.55 m. being bitulithic and 13.71 m. Topeka); 11.69 miles with wood block; 5.42 miles with brick. Old macadam pavement is gradually being replaced with more satisfactory and durable kinds, such as bitulithic, concrete, granite block, etc., $5,138,678 having been expended during the past four years in reconstructing and improving 313 miles of streets and parts of streets. Granolithic sidewalks laid in 1921, 97,049 square yards or about 21 miles, averaging 8 feet wide, 50 per cent of cost assessed on estates benefited.

New highway construction completed in period 1918-1921 includes 13 streets in Boston Proper; 34 in Dorchester; 37 in West Roxbury; 14 in Roxbury; 24 in Brighton; 6 in East Boston; 3 in Hyde Park; 4 in South Boston, and 1 in Charlestown, roadway pavement bitulithic, or asphalt surface on concrete, and bituminous macadam. Gross debt outstanding February 1, 1922, for all street construction, including damages, $22,267,141 or $925,700 more than in 1921, this increase due to new loan for Stuart St. construction.

SETTLEMENT OF BOSTON.

Boston was settled in the latter part of August, 1630, by Puritan colonists under Governor John Winthrop. The name of the original settlement was changed to Boston from Trimountaine by order of the Court of Assistants on September 7 (O. S.), 1630. This date was moved forward by the New Style calendar in 1752 to Sept. 17, the recognized date of the founding of Boston. The name, Trimountaine, had been given because of the three peaks of the most prominent hill, afterward called Beacon Hill, much higher then than now. By the Indians the place was called Shawmut. The name, Boston, was derived from the English town of Boston in Lincolnshire, the home of some of the leading colonists and promoters of the enterprise.

No. 38

CHARGES FINANCE COMMISSION ATTEMPTS TO MISLEAD PUBLIC BY GROSS MISSTATEMENTS IN ACCUSATION OF WASTE BY CITY ON STRANDWAY PROJECT.

PARK COMMISSION REPORTS TO MAYOR CURLEY THAT CALCULATIONS WERE BASED ON SHIFTING SANDS AND WERE MADE FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES—ATTACKS FIGURES OF BOARD, SHOWING FALSITY OF REASONINGS AND INCONSISTENCIES OF CALCULATIONS.

Both the Mayor and the Board of Park Commissioners have made reply to the charges of the Finance Commission that $294,000 had been squandered in Columbus Park project.

Mayor Curley issued the following statement relative to the report of the Finance Commission on the Columbus Park improvements:

"The report of the chairman of the Park Commission relative to Columbus Park improvements has been received this day. After reading the reports of the Finance Commission and of the Park Commission my first impression is that the Finance Commission bases its conclusions almost entirely upon the opinions of its engineer, Guy C. Emerson, while the Park Commission justifies its position by the records of the department which are made up from day to day as the work progresses by trusted employees and officials of that department. Until such time as I have had opportunity for further study of the two reports and discussed the contents of the same with the entire Park Commission, namely, Charles A. Coolidge, Myron P. Lewis and James B. Shea, I shall feel obliged to adhere to my original opinion, namely, that the issuance of such a sensational report at this time is purely a political move."

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

The report of the Park Commission follows:

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor, Boston, Mass.:

DEAR SIR,—You have referred to the Park Commission for its consideration and for a report the criticisms made by the Finance Commission of the management and supervision of the work performed on the Columbus Park improvement by J. C. Coleman & Sons, contractors. As the Finance Commission's criticisms have been published at great length in this morning's newspapers I think it proper to make to you a report at once in order that the public may not continue to be misled by many of the gross mis-statements which appear in the Finance Commission's report.

Necessarily, the answer to the Finance Commission's report cannot be made immediately in as full detail as would be desirable. The Finance Commission's report covers eleven typewritten pages and the report of its engineer, Guy C. Emerson, which is appended to the commission's report, covers forty-three typewritten pages. If, upon reading the Park Department answer, you believe that a more detailed report from the department is necessary, the Park Commissioners will be glad to furnish you with such further details.

The main criticism of the Finance Commission is that certain materials used in the work, namely, general filling, filling for the roadway, sand and loam, have been allowed by the Park Commissioners and paid for by the city to an amount greatly in excess of the amounts which should have been paid if the measurements of such material had been properly made in the manner provided in the contract. The Finance Commission's estimate of the excess payments is $294,000. The thirteenth estimate allowed by the department for general filling and filling for roadway was 260,000 cubic yards; for loam 91,500 cubic yards; and for sand 45,459 cubic yards. The Finance Commission states that in its opinion, based upon surveys and calculations which it has caused to be made, allowances for general fill and fill for roadway should have been only 130,128 cubic yards; for loam 7,168 cubic yards; and for sand 16,740 cubic yards.

It should be clearly understood that the Finance Commission's figures did not purport to represent the quantities of material actually delivered on the work by the contractor but represented only the Finance Commission's estimate of the amount of such materials, measured in place on the work. The term "measured in place" as used by the Finance Commission means the amount of material estimated to be actually in place between the levels taken before the beginning of the work, namely, May, 1922.

and the levels existing in June of 1924. This mode of measurement makes no allowance whatever for any shrinkage in the quantity of material actually delivered on the work from the contractor's trucks or for any subsidence of such material by settlement through the soft bottom which existed throughout the whole area of the improvement in July of 1922 when the contract was begun.

The Finance Commission claims that there was practically no subsidence of material delivered during the last two years, its claim being based on the assumption that the material which was placed on this area in the years 1916-18 by the New York State Dredging Company and which was excavated from the bottom of the harbor, furnished a hard, substantial foundation for the filling which was delivered by the Coleman Company under the contract of July, 1922. There is abundant evidence, however, that the foundation consisting of the material dredged from the harbor by the New York State Dredging Company was of such a character as to provide a most undesirable foundation for the work under the Coleman contract.

MAYOR SENDS CONDOLENCES TO MRS. LOUIS H. MUDGETT IN HER BEREAVEMENT.

Mayor Curley addressed to Mrs. Mudgett, 78 Gainsboro street, the following letter of sympathy and condolence upon the death of her husband, the noted musical director:

MRS. LOUIS H. MUDGETT, 78 Gainsboro Street, Boston, Mass.

DEAR MRS. MUDGETT,—I mourn with you in the death of your devoted husband and whose passing marks the close of an eventful life of one of the greatest musical directors our country has ever known.

It was my pleasure, as Mayor of Boston, to know Mr. Mudgett intimately and his unselfish character, devotion to every good and righteous cause, and splendid advice and direction, when ways and means were needed to present to the people of Boston national movements for the relief of suffering humanity, will endear him to our citizens for all time.

He restored the world's greatest operas to the City of Boston after a long cessation of time and through his initiative thousands upon thousands of musical patrons have been entertained in a manner unsurpassed in the history of music.

I sincerely trust that Divine Providence may constantly attend you during these sad hours.

Sincerely yours,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

[From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.]

MUNICIPAL SERVICE.

Complaints, inquiries or suggestions regarding the work of municipal departments should be made in writing to the officials directly in charge. The failure of such officials to make reply within a reasonable length of time should be brought to the attention of the Mayor. Communications should be directed as follows:

TO THE BOARD OF STREET COMMISSIONERS, Room 401, City Hall Annex, for information relative to the laying out, relocation, widening and the discontinuance of highways; the taking of real property for municipal purposes; the assessments of betterments for streets and sewers; the plotting of undeveloped areas for streets and the opening of private ways; the granting of licenses for the storage or sale of merchandise in public streets; the regulation of street traffic; the making of specific repairs in public streets, the naming of public streets, the planting and removal of trees in public ways, the issuing of licenses for the storage of gasoline, oil and other inflammable substances or explosive compounds, the use of the public ways for any permanent or temporary obstruction or projection in, under or over the same, including the location of conduits, poles and posts for telephone, telegraph, street railway or illuminating purposes, signs, marqueses, bay windows, coal holes and vaults.

TO THE COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WORKS, Room 511, City Hall Annex, for information as to the watering, cleaning, lighting and repairing of streets, the construction and care of sewers and catch-basins, the operation of the ferries, the maintenance of bridges and drawbridges and the removal of ashes and offal.

TO ROOM 604, City Hall Annex, for information relative to the supplying or metering of water and the water charges of the city.

TO THE HEALTH DEPARTMENT, Room 1107, City Hall Annex, for information relative to the inspection of milk, vinegar, meat, fish and vegetables, the issuance of permits for stables, slaughter houses, etc., smoke nuisances, the existence of contagious diseases of public health nuisances.

TO THE BOARD OF PARK COMMISSIONERS, 33 Beacon street, for information as to the care of the Common, Public Garden, Franklin Park, Franklin Field, Commonwealth avenue, Back Bay Fens, Marine Park and the small parks and playgrounds in general throughout the city, and as to the extermination of gypsy moths and the charges made for such service. Application may be.

MAYOR CURLEY CALLS ON HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS TO AID SOLDIERS' RELIEF DEPARTMENT IN CARING FOR NEEDY BY TRANSFER OF FUNDS.

Mayor Curley sent the following communication to all department heads on September 12:

DEAR SIR,—At a conference held July 18, 1924, the necessity for practicing the most rigid character of economy compatible with the service that should be furnished the public was directed to your attention. The demands of the Soldiers' Relief Department and the department providing aid to the needy have so increased as to justify the belief expressed at the meeting held in July that the approaching winter would severely tax the resources of the municipality because of the increased unemployment.

The Overseers of Public Welfare require at least $200,000 at the present time, and should the industrial stagnation increase during the winter months a far greater sum will be necessary. The unemployment situation has affected in a most serious manner the veterans of the World War. Under a statute adopted May 3, 1919, the city is required to provide aid to unemployed veterans of the World War. The amount necessary for the conduct of the Soldiers' Relief Department during the remainder of the year in addition to the regular appropriation will be in excess of $100,000 and unless there is a general improvement in business conditions it may be many times in excess of this sum.

In view of these conditions which were not anticipated when the budget was compiled in March you are hereby made to this department for information regarding the public baths and gymnasiums maintained by the city, and with regard to municipal indoor concerts and band concerts; also information relative to Mt. Hope, Evergreen, Fairview and other public cemeteries owned by the City of Boston.

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE, 15 Beacon street, for information relative to the operation of the schools of the city.

TO THE SCHOOLHOUSE COMMISSIONERS, Room 1007, City Hall Annex, for information as to the construction and repair of school buildings.

TO THE BOARD OF EXAMINERS, Room 1001, City Hall Annex, for information regarding the licensing of persons having charge or control of the work of construction, alteration, removal or tearing down of buildings.

TO THE WIRE DIVISION OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT, Fire Department Headquarters, 60 Bristol street, for all information relative to the erection of poles, the building of conduits, the installation of all overhead and underground construction and electrical apparatus, as well as for general information relative to the entire division. TO ROOM 906, City Hall Annex, for permits for the installing of wires and electrical apparatus within buildings in the City of Boston, and for the payment of fees incident to the granting of the privileges above named, and which must be paid in advance.

directed to notify the Mayor's office at once as to the amount it will be possible for you to transfer in order that the worthy poor and the veterans of the World War and their dependents may not suffer through failure of the city to adequately provide for their requirements.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor.

THANKS MAYOR CURLEY FOR NEW ENGLAND WEEK CO-OPERATION.

Mayor Curley, on September 17, received the following communication from Chairman John S. Lawrence of All New England Week Committee:

HIS HONOR JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor,
City Hall, Boston, Mass.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR.—I want to thank you for your letter of the 15th and for your co-operation and interest in this important situation. I shall present your letter to the next meeting of the New England Week Committee.

I hope that a permanent organization will come as a result of this movement. It will be impossible to continue it as a volunteer organization. Personally I should like to see the six governors create an economic advisory commission with a reasonable appropriation to study the sound economics of the New England situation, and to give publicity through the press to sound economics which are essential to our prosperity.

Yours very truly,

JOHN S. LAWRENCE,
Chairman.

NEW ENGLAND WILL SOLVE HER PROBLEMS OF THE PRESENT AND FUTURE TO HER GREATER GLORY BY FAITH IN ABILITY AND HER RE-BIRTH BASED ON CO-OPERATION.

MAYOR CURLEY IS PRINCIPAL SPEAKER AT OPENING OF NEW ENGLAND WEEK EXPOSITION, WHERE INDUSTRIAL AND COMMERCIAL BRAINS OF SECTION GATHERED TO START MOVE TO BOOST LOCAL PRODUCTS.

Mayor Curley, speaking at the opening of the New England Week Exposition on the evening of September 15, said in part:

"It is a source of pleasure to express on behalf of the people of Boston my appreciation of the valued services rendered by all of the agencies and individuals responsible for the New England Week Exposition. The success of the movement, the culmination of which was the American Republic, may be traced to the very purpose which New England Week seeks to develop, self-reliance and co-operation.

New England, a pioneer in industrial lines, many, many years ago, passed beyond the position of sole proprietor of manufactured goods in the textile and leather lines. The development of the keenest character of competition has now become a reality and a situation confronts New England which can only be overcome through co-operation and liberal expenditure of money and development of agencies that make for economy and efficiency in production and a freer and better method of output distribution.

It is not within my province to even suggest a course of procedure to the representatives of those agencies that have been so successful in the management and operation of New England industrial establishments; but if I might be permitted to venture a suggestion, the development of a co-operative planning system might be devised whereby changes of such a revolutionary character as have been in evidence in recent years might in some measure be lessened if not entirely prevented.

New England has suffered greatly as a consequence of a change in the character of living upon the part of the American people, resulting from the increased wage which obtained during the war period and which at present happily continues. The changes, by most people termed fads, both in wearing apparel and footwear, might have been prevented through the right character of propaganda.

The removal of the system of differentials in operation during the past twenty years, that have worked such great injury to commercial New England, is a subject deserving of immediate attention. The development of white power as a means of reducing production costs, the adoption of uniform laws throughout the nation relative to the employment of women and minors in industry are matters deserving of the best thought of everyone interested in the future of New England.

I recall a very interesting afternoon spent less than a year ago with the wizard of the General Electric Company, Professor Steinmetz. We discussed the future of New England commercially and industrially. In his opinion New England had little to fear from southern competition because of the inferior character of workmanship which obtained south of the Mason-Dixon line. He expressed the belief that the more highly skilled and efficient type of working men and women would always be found in New England, and assigned as reason for this belief the inherent desire on the part of every individual to secure the best that is possible in education and spiritual growth. It, however, was his opinion that the future of New England was industrial rather than commercial and that the keenness of competition would compel a study and development of white power.

I firmly believe that this development is possible and that with a re-birth of New England faith and co-operation which may have its re-birth in this 'New England Week,' it is possible to face the future with a calmness based on faith in the ability of New England and her people to overcome the problems of the present and those that await in the future."

MAYOR CURLEY PLEADS FOR HOME INDUSTRY'S AID THROUGH NEW ENGLAND WEEK COMMITTEE.

CALLS ATTENTION TO FACT THAT POLICE DEPARTMENT SUPPLIES ARE BOUGHT OUTSIDE STATE, AND OTHER WORK CITIZENS OUGHT TO HAVE IS DONE BY PRISON HELP.

Mayor Curley addressed the following letter to the directors of the New England Week Committee:

JOHN S. LAWRENCE, Chairman, All New England Week Committee, 89 Franklin Street, Boston.

CHARLES B. BURLEIGH, Chairman, Boston City Committee, 84 State Street, Boston, Mass.

Boston, September 15, 1924.

The purpose of "New England Week," as I understand it, is to stimulate New England industry and trade by encouraging New Englanders to use goods produced here and patronize our own producers and workers. This purpose is an admirable one, for much of the industrial unemployment depressing Massachusetts and Boston can be traced to the neglect of our home markets and the consequent migration of manufacturers and their employees to other parts of the country.

While the "New England Week" plan can carry little more than a plea of local pride and protection and a certain moral obligation on the part of one neighbor to help another, in its appeal to private industry and trade, an adhesion to its spirit and purpose is obligatory upon those administrative and governmental bodies which are supposedly the agents and representatives of the people of the state and city.

These bodies derive their income from the public purse; they are spending the money of the taxpayers; and whenever possible, expenditures should be made so as to benefit the taxpayer and return the taxes to the local channels of trade, that our own manufacturers, employers and workers may have some of the burden of taxation lifted from them. Here is where the money is raised to support the Police and Fire Departments of Boston, the Metropolitan Police, the State Constabulary, and the Nautical School, and incidentally provide uniforms for their personnel.

The uniforms of the Boston Fire Department are made in Boston by Boston contractors and paid for by the city. The uniforms of the Boston police are made in Philadelphia by a Philadelphia concern, and the money paid out by the department, drawn exclusively from the city treasury, is spent where it can be of no possible benefit to Boston. The plea of the Police Commissioner that he can get the work done cheaper in Philadelphia is illusory and lacking in loyalty to Boston and consideration for her taxpayers.

There are at least six concerns in Boston able and willing to do it under the healthy and protective provisions of the laws of Massachusetts at fair union rates and free from the sweat-shop, underpaid, labor conditions of Pennsylvania. In many cases after these sweat-shop uniforms arrive here they have to be "bushel" and made over to fit the individuals, and these added costs, together with the wages of a tailor carried permanently on the police pay roll, largely offset the alleged contract cheapness. That the Police Commissioner and his department owe any duty, moral or financial, to Boston does not appear to be understood; the money is spent despite the protests of the City Council and organized labor, and Boston is helpless. To my mind this policy is wholly inexcusable and shows how petty economies of this sort are really petty treasons to the city and its taxpayers.

The expenditures for uniforms under state jurisdiction and the distribution of state moneys to alien contractors and localities is equally unfair to the taxpayers of the state; and, as Boston pays a large percentage of the taxes spent, it can reasonably lead the protest against a policy so wasteful and injurious to the Commonwealth.

The Boston Fire Department spends its uniform money in Boston with entire satisfaction and good results. I would not tolerate for a minute any other course; and until the control of the Boston Police Department is restored to the people who pay the bills and the old Massachusetts principle of home rule is re-established in Boston, and this city placed on a political par with its sister municipalities, it is idle to expect financial efficiency and loyalty to home interests in its administration.

I will thank you to present this matter to the managers of the "New England Week" for their consideration and action, with a view of urging the Legislature to restore the constitutional rights and privileges of Boston. The Police Department expenditure cited above is commercially and industrially injurious to Massachusetts.

We have seen the administration in Washington, on the plea of a spurious economy in the midst of a serious and depressing condition of unemployment, buy the uniform cloth for the United States Marine Corps in England, when American mills in New Hampshire were able and anxious to supply it. We have noted the closing down of Massachusetts shoe factories specializing in shoes for the army, and the industry transferred to the Federal Prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

We have noted the adoption of a law by the Massachusetts Legislature providing that the state printing be taken away from the taxpaying printing employer and given over to the State Prison at Charlestown. Apparently the Republican Party in Washington and Massachusetts is more concerned for the lawless and criminal enemies of society locked up in prisons than it is for the welfare of the free, law-abiding, taxpaying American workers, whose industrial activities insure our progress and prosperity in peace and our protection in war.

If the managers of the "New England Week" can be shown how political meddling has been the cause of much of our industrial depression, if they can be induced to understand that the million citizens of this community are as intelligent, honest, patriotic and loyal as any of the millions outside of Boston, they will begin to realize the great wrong inflicted on this city by a ceaseless propaganda of political prejudice and misrepresentation and work to bring it to an end. Until this anti-American system is ended Massachusetts and Boston must continue to be harassed and handicapped in the industrial and commercial competition of this age.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

RESIDENTS, PROPERTY OWNERS AND ELEVATED OFFICIALS ARGUE ON REMOVAL OF CAMBRIDGE STREET PORTALS.

With the widening of Cambridge street, the extensive West End improvement, the question what to do with Cambridge street portals which constitute the superstructure that gives access to the subway system have been under discussion.

That question was taken up for a hearing by the State Department of Public Utilities and Transit Department of the City of Boston, sitting jointly at the Public Utilities office at the State House. A report to the Legislature on this question is required of the commission, to be filed by December 15.

Among those who spoke concerning the matter were, first, H. Ware Barnum, general counsel, and Edward Dana, general manager of the Boston Elevated Railway; then William C. Codman, Frederick D. Fisk, John I. Fitzgerald, Caroline A. Thorndike, Joseph Rittenberg and Representative James M. Hunnewell.

The Elevated officials said that the portals should be preserved as a temporary expedient, because the company needs them to get surface cars into and out of the subway.

Some of the speakers wanted them removed on the ground that they are a blind structure in the middle of Cambridge street, constituting a real danger, especially to the children in that vicinity. Other speakers wanted all the surface cars taken off Cambridge street and Charles street and off Cambridge Bridge, and service supplied by means of buses, to be owned and operated by the Elevated.

CONSTRUCTION WORK.

The Mayor has approved the request of the Public Works Department for the following construction work:

A sanitary sewer of 10-inch earthen pipe and a surface drain of 10-inch, 15-inch, 18-inch, 20-inch earthen pipe and four catch-basins in Stellman road, between Washington street and a point 810 feet easterly, in the West Roxbury district, estimated cost $11,800.

A sanitary sewer of 10-inch earthen pipe in Newfield street, between Board of Survey street 1706 and Lasell street and in Lasell street, between Newfield and Lagrange streets, in the West Roxbury district, estimated cost $4,460.

A sanitary sewer of 18-inch earthen pipe and a surface drain of 12-inch, 15-inch and 18-inch earthen pipe in Washington street (southeast side), between Archdale road and Bradcen street in the West Roxbury district, estimated cost, $8,100.

A 17-foot by 13-foot 9-inch concrete surface water conduit in Stony brook, section 10A, in private land (Brookstone street), between Toll Gate road and Bradcen street, in the West Roxbury district, estimated cost, $100,000.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 604.

The attention of the department and especially of division commanders is called to the fact that taxicab drivers are not a privileged class exempt from prosecution for violation of the street traffic rules or violation of the laws relating to the operation of motor vehicles.

It has been brought to my attention that some taxicab drivers believe that they are above the law and even after violating the same have gratuitously insulted officers of this department by making statements as to the uselessness and waste of time in prosecuting them because of their influence in stopping such prosecutions.

Division commanders are hereby notified to instruct all the officers attached to their respective divisions to prosecute without fear or favor all taxicab drivers violating the law, as they or their employers possess no more rights than those possessed by other citizens of this city.

This order and Superintendent's order of November 11, 1922, will be read at the several roll calls on September 16 and 17, 1924.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 605.

For the information of the department, the Police Commissioner hereby states that the annual Dress Parade and Review of the Boston Police Regiment will take place on Monday, October 13, 1924.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 606.

A trial board consisting of Captains Walkins, McDevitt and Mason, having heard by reference a complaint against Patrolman Bernard P. Keough, of Division 7, charging him with neglect of duty, reported to the commissioner a finding of guilty. In accordance with which, the said Patrolman Bernard P. Keough was on September 12, 1924, dismissed from the Police Department.

Due written notice of such dismissal with the reasons therefor was duly and specifically given in hand on September 12, 1924, to the said Bernard P. Keough.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

The Mayor has approved the following contracts awarded without advertising; requests of heads of departments to do the work with the department forces without advertising; additions to and deductions from contracts.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

Upon August 16 the Mayor approved a purchase of steel desks and chairs for the Collecting Department. A communication from John H. Mahony, Acting Building Commissioner, was as follows:

Boston, August 12, 1924.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I wish to advise you that there is incorporated in our budget figures for the present year, an item for furnishing steel desks and chairs for the Collection Department, the Budget Commissioner having placed the sum of $2,500, at our disposal, the same to be paid for by the Water Service for the purchase of this material.

These desks and chairs are of steel construction and similar to equipment already in the City Collector's office. Owing to the fact that we would be obliged to purchase them from a certain firm, it would mean much delay and no saving if we were obliged to advertise same.

Therefore, in consideration of these facts, I respectfully request authority to purchase this furniture in a sum exceeding $1,000, but less than $2,000, without the usual form of advertising.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN H. MAHONY,
Acting Superintendent of Public Buildings.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Upon September 15 the Mayor approved a contract with the Edison Electric Illuminating Company for power pumps at Calf Pasture. A communication from Joseph A. Rourke of the Public Works Department was as follows:

Boston, September 13, 1924.

To the Mayor of Boston.

It is intended shortly to provide electrical equipment for the four steam turbine driven low duty pumps at the Calf Pasture pumping station, in connection with which we will require Edison Company service at the plant.

Your approval is respectfully requested to the award of a contract to the Edison Electric Illuminating Company of Boston, without inviting bids therefor by public advertisement, for high tension electric service at the Calf Pasture pumping station, under which the Sewer Service of the Public Works Department obligates itself to utilize at least $25,000 worth of current per year, based on the Edison Company's wholesale power rate for high tension service.

It is necessary that this contract be entered into immediately in order that the Edison Company may build duct lines from Dorchester avenue to the pumping station.

Yours respectfully,

J. A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SCHOOLHOUSE DEPARTMENT.

Upon September 15 the Mayor approved a contract with the Standard Roofing Company for repairs to Wait School.

A communication from Thomas P. Glynn of the Schoolhouse Department was as follows:

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY Mayor,
City Hall, Boston, Mass.

DEAR SIR,—The Board of Schoolhouse Commissioners respectfully requests the approval of your Honor, under the provisions of chapter 486, section 30, of the Acts of 1909, to awarding a contract without advertising to Standard Roofing Company, 56 Roxbury street, for repairs to roof at the Wait School, the cost of said work to exceed the sum of one thousand (1,000) dollars.

The reason for making this request is as follows: We sent the above-named firm to repair roof and they found that the roof had dropped about four inches. In order to do the work properly they would have to put in new timbers and put on a new roof. As this is an emergency job the Board requests the approval of your Honor to the awarding of this contract as stated.

Respectfully yours,

THOMAS P. GLYNN,
Chairman.

ADDITIONS TO AND DEDUCTIONS FROM CONTRACTS.

The following additions to and deductions from contracts have been approved.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Ferry Service).

An addition, amounting to $400 on contract with W. H. Ellis & Son Company for repairing piers at the North Ferry, on account of substituting plates of boat iron with curved surface 1 inch thick at middle, instead of steel plates. Original contract, $17,820; total addition, $400; contract as standing, $18,220.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Paving Service).

An addition, amounting to $170, on contract with M. DeMatteo for sheet asphalt pavement in John Eliot square and Roxbury street, Roxbury; Brookside avenue, West Roxbury; East Cottage and Pleasant streets, Dorchester, on account of removing old tree stump not shown on plan and grading approaches. Original contract, $67,899.75; total addition, $170; contract as standing, $68,069.75.

An addition, amounting to $300, on contract with S. J. Tomasello for laying bitulithic pavement in Grove street, West Roxbury, on account of grading the approaches where directed. Original contract, $57,859; total additions, $310; contract as standing, $58,169.

An addition, amounting to $10,000, on contract with Central Construction Company for laying sheet asphalt pavement in Holton and Perkins streets, on account of regulating and laying sheet asphalt pavement on macadam base in Burroughs street, West Roxbury, from Centre street to Pond street. Prices to be paid the same as those bid for similar work in the contract. Original contract, $17,827.80; total addition, $12,000; contract as standing, $29,827.80.

An addition, amounting to $442.05, on contract with John B. Dolan for erecting and completing garage at yard of the Public Works Department on Albany street, on account of bricking up door opening E with 12-inch wall; storing the door where directed; bricking up door opening J with 12-inch wall. Original contract, $152,490; total additions, $23,222.53; total deductions, $3,250; contract as standing, $172,462.53.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Sewer Service).

An addition, amounting to $300, on contract with V. Barletta for building Dorchester brook sewer, east fork, Dorchester, on account of relaying 200 feet of 6-inch water pipe in separate trench. Original contract, $53,860; total addition, $300; contract as standing, $54,160.

An addition, amounting to $500, on contract with M. F. Gaddis for bitulithic pavement and sewerage works in Shawmut avenue, city proper, on account of building one manhole, remodeling nine catch-basins and setting new frames and gates. Original contract, $205,317.45; total additions, $9,750; contract as standing, $215,067.45.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Water Service).

An addition, amounting to $65, on contract with A. Grande for laying water pipes in Becket, Norwell and Fairview streets, Dorchester, Bayswater street, East Boston, Randolph street, city proper, Bowen street, South Boston, and Leverett street, city proper, on account of cutting in 12 by 10 branch not called for in contract; capping three 4-inch fire pipes; abandoning Deacon meter; relocating four sewer drains; cleaning out gate box, etc. Original contract, $5,531.50; total addition, $65; contract as standing, $5,596.50.

An addition, amounting to $107.50, on contract with M. DeSisto Company for laying and relaying water pipes in Alhambra road, Greenfield avenue, Orange street, Roslindale avenue, Washington street, West Roxbury Parkway and Willow street, West Roxbury; Lane park, Orchard road and Penniman road, Brighton, on account of omitting 330 feet of 12-inch pipe and adding 520 feet of 8-inch pipe. Original contract, $5,555; total additions, $137.50; contract as standing, $5,692.50.

EXTENSION OF CONTRACTS.

W. S. Rendle & Son Company have been granted an extension of the time of completion of the contract for repairing fender piers and building pile supports of Northern avenue draw, from October 7, 1924, to November 23, 1924, on account of more old work being removed from the bridge than contemplated and also on account of delay occasioned by water travel.

King and Kingsley have been granted an extension of the time of completion of the contract for wooden screen on Dorchester brook outlet, from September 6, 1924, to September 20, 1924 (14 days), on account of delay in getting pile driver, and by damage caused by storm of September 10, 1924.

MAYOR CURLEY SENDS CONGRATULATIONS.

Mayor Curley addressed the following telegram Saturday, September 13, to State Adjutant John H. Wallace, Department of Massachusetts, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Atlantic City, N. J.

Delighted to receive your telegram. Have wired my congratulations to Brigadier General Dunn. The splendid victory is mutually the highest character of national tribute to our devoted friend as well as to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the City of Boston.

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

STATEMENT OF MAYOR.

In order to show how mistaken the assumption of the Finance Commission is with respect to the firmness of the area over which the filling was to be placed under the Coleman contract, it will be necessary to go into the history of this improvement to some extent.

For many years prior to 1912 certain land, consisting of the dump and flats, lying within the bend of the Strandway, bordering upon Dorchester bay and South Boston and the Calf Pasture, has been a great nuisance to the people of Dorchester and South Boston. The bay had been used extensively for boating and bathing but had become polluted to such an extent by sewerage that it became necessary for the preservation of public health to remove the causes of the nuisance. The subject was considered by the Legislature of 1912 and chapter 133 of the Resolves of that year provided for an investigation and report on the matter.

The investigation was made under this resolve by the State Board of Health and the Directors of the Port of Boston, acting as a joint board, the late Henry P. Wolcott then being chairman of the State Board of Health, and Hugh Bancroft chairman of the Board of Port Directors, and they reported to the Legislature on January 9, 1913. They recommended as the best practical plan for preventing further nuisance the placing of a fill across the head of the bay in front of the foul deposits to the level of 16 feet above mean low water with material excavated from the bay.

In 1914 the Legislature passed an act (chapter 240) authorizing the City of Boston to undertake the work. The estimate of the cost made by the joint board was $1,250,000 and the area reclaimed was estimated to consist of about 75 acres. The city began to make plans and as a result a contract for the work was let to the New York State Dredging Company on December 7, 1916.

This company employed a hydraulic dredge to suck up the materials from the bottom of the harbor and delivered them by means of pipes onto the area which was to be reclaimed. At the bottom of the harbor which was to be dredged lay the foul deposit referred to in the report of the joint board, consisting to a very large extent of mud and silt mixed with some clay.

A plan prepared by the Public Works Department at the time showed at different points of the bottom of the harbor mud varying in depth from 2 to 15 feet. It was this sort of material which was delivered through pipes onto the area that was reclaimed and this furnished the foundation upon which the materials were to be delivered under the Coleman contract of July, 1922. The New York State Dredging Company could not complete its contract because its dredge was commandeered by the United States Government, and as a result nothing further was done between December of 1918 and July of 1922.

When the work under the Coleman contract was about to begin the surface of the area to be filled was largely covered by mud and water, but after the work was begun it was early discovered that the ground was so soft as to make it clear that the approximate estimates of the quantities of material required under the contract were grossly insufficient. The Park Commissioners have since learned that load after load of material delivered on the work by the Coleman Company one day would practically disappear the next day under the weight of the fill which was deposited.

Workmen were seen to sink up to their knees in the soft material. Horses have gone down in it so deeply that they were rescued only after great difficulty. Mr. Charles C. Coolidge, in testifying before the Finance Commission, stated that he had been out on the work on several occasions and had become mired several times. Mr. John J. Murphy, engineer for the Park Department, testified before the Finance Commission that the conditions existing when the Coleman contract was begun were extraordinary. He said "we ran into a pond"; "the place was wet, very wet"; "all of that dredged material was soft when it dried out and it is nothing but powder"; "I know very well that we have lost a lot of material that has gone out of sight, sunk"; "I have seen load after load dumped in there and after the truck came off I do not believe that the elevation of the ground changed a particle"; "I have gone in up to my knees over there." (Testimony of August 13, 1924, pages 19-21.)

The soft character of the fill has been shown in other ways. In the fill near the place where the old Vale street sewer crosses the roadway the contractor has now dumped fill for the fourth time. On the first dumping at this point the material was brought up to the grade of the sidewalk. After that, settlement of the soil occurred which has necessitated three more fillings on the same area.

Near this same place a catch-basin was placed in the roadway over the Vale street sewer. Afterwards a settlement occurred on each side which left the catch-basin so high that surface water would not flow into it. The Vale street sewer which runs under the road was built on piles and that portion, consequently, could not sink; but the adjacent filling, not being supported by piles, settled down, bringing the surface of the roadway there down with it. This required the taking out of the concrete slabs in the sidewalks over the line of the sewer and the laying of new concrete slabs in order to make the line of the newly laid concrete connect properly with the adjoining concrete slabs. After this settlement took place two more catch-basins had to be installed, one on each side of the catch-basin which had been installed over the Vale street sewer. The new catch-basins have been located at what has become the low point since the settlement took place.

A striking evidence of the soft character of the materials put in by the New York State Dredging Company is found in the situation existing at the bulkhead. This bulkhead was built under the New York State Dredging Company contract and was purposely built very strong so as to prevent any lateral motion of the fill behind it. On the south side the bulkhead consists of vertical spruce planking driven to hard bottom. About nineteen feet north, batter-piles were placed which were secured by tie-rods to the vertical spruce planking. On the northeasterly line of the bulkhead and extending around the outer point to the beginning of the spruce planking a riprap wall was built. Into this wall some 5,200 tons of stone were placed. Notwithstanding the strength of this construction a movement of the soil has taken place which caused the stones to slide down. Evidently this was caused by the compression of the soft material underlying the fill put in at the bulkhead by the New York State Dredging Company.

The condition of this riprap wall at the time it was built and its present condition may be compared by examining the photographs here submitted, which were taken at the time of each of the periods.

In the face of such evidence of the soft character of material I cannot comprehend how the Finance Commission can say that there has been practically no settlement of the land filled under the Coleman contract.

There is no doubt whatever in the minds of the members of the Park Commission that a very great amount of filling put in place under the Coleman contract has gone through the bottom below the levels which existed in 1922 and that the quantities of material received on the grounds from the contractor's vehicles have been properly checked up by the inspectors of the Park Department on the work. These inspectors checked up each load at the time of delivery and made a record of it and these records were presented in the form of daily reports to the engineer of the Park Department. The quantities thus recorded were then checked in the ordinary course by the personal observations of the engineer. Then the departmental estimates of quantities delivered were made up on the basis of such records. Upon these estimates payments were made to the contractor. The estimates upon this work were thirteen in number. They have been filed with the City Auditor as they were made up and have been available during the entire course of the progress of the work to the Finance Commission.

The quantities of material allowed are shown on each estimate and the mode of measuring the materials allowing payments therefor were open to such criticism as the Finance Commission has now made from the time when the first estimate, namely, August 23, 1922, was filed at the auditor's office. The Finance Commission could have learned by visiting the office of the Park Commissioners or even by the use of the telephone exactly the mode of procedure with respect to making up the estimates and the allowances for payment at any time during the last two years, but on its own statements it did not begin to do anything on the matter until June, 1924, and it has filed its report on September 16, 1924, a date so near the date of the impending election as to create a suspicion that the motives of the Finance Commission are not wholly unmingled with political considerations.

The Finance Commission find fault because the contract of July, 1922, was amended on August 8, 1924, so as to change the mode of payment based on "measurement in place" of the filling material and loam to measurement of materials in the contractor's vehicles as determined by the Park Engineer, less a deduction of 10 per cent.

The Finance Commission seems to regard this latter mode of measure as unprecedented; but if they had looked just south of the circle of Columbus Park they would have seen an immense quantity of fill in the roadway being constructed by the Metropolitan District Commission of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, which is to be known as the Old Colony Boulevard and a simple inquiry would have revealed the fact that materials delivered on that roadway were to be allowed and paid for upon the basis of the materials as measured in the contractor's vehicles, with no deduction whatever from such measurements for shrinkage, settlement or any other cause.

J. C. Coleman & Sons have a sub-contract for delivering filling on the Old Colony Boulevard (a state job). He is paid for this fill 50 cents a cubic yard but is not required to spread the filling on the work. He is required to spread the fill on the city job at Columbus Park and receives for the fill and the spreading and rolling of the fill combined seventy cents a cubic yard. These extra operations are covered by the extra price of 20 cents a cubic yard so it is evident that the price which Coleman Company receives under the city contract is a fair one.

The work at Columbus Park had not been long in progress when the engineer of the Park Department discovered the impracticability of taking levels from month to month in order to make estimates of the material in place so as to provide for payment to the contractor.

At the same time he was faced with the necessity of preparing some form of estimate as Article eight of the contract required that estimates be prepared and that the contractor be paid each month. This difficulty was reported by him to the members of the Park Commission and after full discussion of the subject it was decided that the only practical way to proceed was to allow payments on the basis of cart measurements less 10 per cent.

That system was followed throughout. From the observation both of the members of the Park Commission and of the engineer it became apparent that there were too many difficulties in the way of taking levels from month to month as the work progressed. The area to be covered was great, approximately eighty acres, the condition of the soil was soft and mucky, rain water covered considerable of the entire area and for these reasons the facilities of approach to the work by the contractor were exceedingly difficult.

Under the actual conditions existing the contractor could not reasonably be required to begin one kind of work at a specified point in the area and complete it before being allowed to begin another kind of work at any other place. Different kinds of work proceeded at different points over the entire area.

The Park Commission, therefore, felt justified in waiving the strict requirements of the contract and in substituting therefor a reasonable and practicable method. Doubtless these same considerations were taken into account by the Metropolitan District Commission when they adopted a plan of measurement of materials and payment therefor for the Old Colony Boulevard work which was substantially similar to the plan followed in practice by the Park Commissioners of the City of Boston.

When the contractor found that the making of estimates for filling had been suspended, after the estimate of February, 1924, and that temporarily he was not being allowed anything for the filling and loam which he was delivering on the work, he appeared before the Board of Park Commissioners with his counsel and demanded to know what the attitude of the Park Commissioners was to be with respect to payment for the work he was doing.

He stated that he could not continue to do work without receiving payment therefor and made it clear that unless a mode of payment was then and there agreed upon and adopted in a legal manner he would be obliged to discontinue the work and leave the city to its remedy for breach of contract for failure to complete the job.

The Park Commissioners had to make a decision. If they refused the contractor's request that the contract be changed so as to allow for payments of material on the basis of cart measurements determined by our engineer less 10 per cent they would have been obliged to advertise for new bids for the completion of the work and to require either the contractor or the surety company to make good any loss that might result. The Park Commission did not want a lawsuit but wanted to have the work progress. It had no assurance that if new bids were advertised for and an award made the resulting cost might not far exceed the cost incurred under a continuance of the contract with the Coleman Company.

The situation had to be dealt with in a practical way. It was decided by the Park Commission and thereupon voted that the contract should be amended and it was done. The Park Commissioners believe that they were justified under the circumstances. They feel that if the Finance Commission were in charge of this job and had the responsibility for completing it that they would have acted in a similar manner.

The Park Commissioners feel that the report of the Finance Commissioner's engineer, Guy C. Emerson, is very unjust. It is based upon assumptions which the Park Commission believe to be wholly untenable and yet the Finance Commission's report is based practically entirely upon the report of Mr. Emerson. While it is not possible to point out in detail the many errors contained in Mr. Emerson's report, it may suffice to mention some of his errors which illustrate his temperamental defects and his inability to recognize facts where they are in conflict with his prejudices. He has been hostile to this improvement from the beginning.

When the legislative act of 1914 authorizing the work was passed he got the Finance Commission of that day to file a report with the Mayor objecting to the acceptance of the act. When the City Council, notwithstanding this protest, accepted the act and the Public Works Department had drawn up specifications for the work, he got the commission on October 11, 1916, to raise further objections and recommended that the work be delayed until normal conditions in the labor and material market were restored.

During the progress of the work of the New York State Dredging Company he continued to raise objections. He has never been able to reconcile his idea of duty with the public benefits to be derived from the creation of such a work of beauty and utility as will result from the completion of the Columbus Park improvement.

In discussing the quantity of sand furnished he states that approximately 16,740 cubic yards were put in place instead of 45,459 cubic yards allowed by the Park Department. He then states that the sand came from an excavation of a building in the town of Brookline at the corner of Chapel street and Longwood avenue and that the Coleman Company received from this source a total of 21,000 to 23,500 cubic yards. He concludes that the balance of the 45,459 cubic yards was never delivered on the work. This conclusion is due to his ignorance of the fact that the contractor took from a sand bank at Hogg's Bridge a quantity of sand even greater than that which Mr. Emerson estimates was taken from the Brookline location. This shows the absurdity of his calculations as to the over-payment for sand.

He supports his erroneous conclusion by alleged calculations of the amount of sand in place but he could not have made any proper calculations of the sand on the beach with the data available. If he had based his calculations on the levels taken in 1922 he could not have reached satisfactory results because the movement of tides are such as to displace the sand on the beach from time to time. It is common experience that sand present on a given day may entirely disappear later as the result of a great storm. Therefore it seems bad policy to base mathematical calculations on shifting sands.

In discussing the quantity of cinders received by the contractor from the Edison Company Mr. Emerson quotes Mr. Coleman's testimony to the Finance Commission in which he stated his off-hand opinion "that he hauled from the Edison Company about 300 cubic yards a day." Then Mr. Emerson states that the contract with the Edison Company was for six months and that during that time 47,409 cubic yards of cinders were taken or an average per day "including Sundays and holidays" of 85 5/10 cubic yards.

As a matter of fact if the hauling was for a period of six months including Sundays and holidays, say 183 days, the average number of cubic yards hauled would be 259 instead of 85 5/10 as figured by Mr. Emerson and this erroneous calculation made by him and published in his report has a tendency to shake public confidence in the estimate he has given as to the quantity of filling put in under the contract, this opinion being based largely on his mathematical calculations.

At the hearing before the Finance Commission Mr. Emerson insisted that there was no change in the grade of the roadway from that shown on the original contract plan. Since then he has corrected his error and now admits that there was a change but he confines the locus of the raise in grade to the section running from a point about 250 feet easterly of the circle to a point at the southerly end of the bathhouse. In point of fact it was raised in grade to a point northerly of the bathhouse.

It is also interesting to note how Mr. Emerson and the Finance Commission adopted the estimates made by Engineer H. W. Rowley as to the amount of material actually in place between levels taken in 1922 and in 1924. This calculation as to filling is 138,000 cubic yards and this the Finance Commission and Mr. Emerson adopt; but although Mr. Emerson appended to his own report the report of H. W. Rowley he does not adopt, nor does the Finance Commission adopt, Mr. Rowley's estimate of the actual quantities which in his opinion were delivered on the ground. That opinion was that the filling actually delivered there was between 237,000 and 258,000 cubic yards and Mr. Emerson on page 33 of his report, adopts the figure of 130,128 cubic yards. If Mr. Rowley's maximum figure of 258,000 cubic yards of filling is compared with the amount of filling allowed under the Park Department estimates it will be seen that they are not far apart. These official estimates allow 260,000 cubic yards of filling or only 2,000 yards more than the maximum quantity estimated by Engineer Rowley to have been delivered on the work.

As an illustration of the divergent opinions that may be arrived at on a job of this sort by engineers it also should be noted that Mr. Emerson allows for loam only 7,168 cubic yards, while Mr. Rowley's report shows that in his opinion the amount actually delivered may have been 60,000 cubic yards. In view of these differences of opinion the Park Commissioners can hardly be blamed for preferring to adopt the records of its own inspectors as made up from day to day on the basis of measurement of the actual quantities of loam delivered on the work.

Finally, it should be called to your Honor's attention that Mr. Emerson apparently has had fluctuating opinions upon the question of the amount of the settlement in the filling in Columbus Park. Both he and the Finance Commission now declare that practically no settlement has taken place in the years 1922-24; but on page 5 of Mr. Emerson's report he states that the Finance Commission sent a report on November, 1916, to the Mayor in connection with the contract for the New York State Dredging Company, calling attention to the liability of settlement of filling material. This was sent at a time when Mr. Emerson was opposed to the carrying out of the project. He was then fearful that great settlement would take place. He appeared before the Executive Committee of the City Council at about this time in opposition to the project and said that filling of the character put in by the New York State Dredging Company would not furnish a proper foundation for a roadway. He predicted that a great settlement would take place and that it would continue for many years. His prediction has since been verified but he now chooses to take a position directly opposite to that he assumed in 1916.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES B. SHEA,
Chairman, Park Commission.

FINANCE COMMISSION'S REPORT ON COLUMBUS PARK IMPROVEMENT.

The Finance Commission's report of its recent investigation of the contractor's work in improvement of Columbus Park, South Boston, in which it says that its engineer discovered that the city paid $294,000 for materials which cannot be found in place at the park is in part as follows:

"Bids were opened for this park improvement June 14, 1922," say the commissioners, "the lowest bidder being the John McCourt Company, and a higher bidder being J. C. Coleman & Sons Company. The bids were rejected. New bids were then asked for, and this time the Coleman Company was the lowest bidder, its second bid being $138,950 lower than its former bid. The contract was awarded to this company.

"The contract provided that all materials furnished, except sand, should be measured, after being put in place, levelled and rolled. The Park Department had not measured the materials as provided in the contract up to the beginning of the investigation by the Finance Commission. The Finance Commission has had the materials measured as provided in the contract. The report shows that the city has paid for materials which cannot be found in place in the park to the extent of $294,000.

"Subsequent to the beginning of this investigation by the Finance Commission, the Park Department engaged Harry W. Rowley, an independent engineer, to secure the necessary data for computing the amount of material put in the park. On the data obtained by Mr. Rowley, the Finance Commission bases its computation.

"After the investigation by the Finance Commission had begun, the contract between the city and the contractor was amended in an attempt to legalize the overpayments already made to the contractor. This amendment was made after a conference between the Park Commissioners and John A. Sullivan, representing the contractor. The city was not represented by counsel, nor did the Law Department pass upon the amendment. The amended contract was approved by his Honor the Mayor.

"The work under the four items of this contract which are the subject of this report included the building of a road, known as the Beach road, which extends from that part of Columbia road east of the New York, New Haven & Hartford road, about opposite G street; covering the beach to the east of this road with sand; and filling to a certain grade the area to the west of this road with earth, or gravel and loam. The earth or gravel was to be free from organic materials and satisfactory to the engineer. It was estimated that it would take to complete the job 96,000 cubic yards of earth filling, 75,000 cubic yards of loam and 44,000 cubic yards of sand.

"The contract provided that the earth or gravel filling and the loam should be measured after it was put in place, leveled off, and thoroughly compacted by rolling with horse and steam rollers and, in case the material was too dry to be properly rolled, it should be moistened before rolling. Under no terms of the contract that sand furnished was to be measured in the carts or scows when delivered. Monthly payments were to be made to the contractor for the work on estimates made by the engineer of the Park Department. The work was to be completed by July 1, 1923.

"The contractor was to receive 70 cents per cubic yard for earth and gravel filling, $1.50 per cubic yard for sand and $1.90 for loam.

"When the work began the contractor without protest from the Park Department, posted on the premises an invitation to the public to dump refuse material in the park. As a result of this invitation, tin cans, barrels, broken furniture, scrap iron, old automobile tires, old mattresses, bed springs, bed frames and other discarded articles were deposited in the park. All of these items, of course, were contrary to the specifications, but were allowed to remain there by the engineers and inspectors of the Park Department.

"During the first nine months of the contract the city paid the contractor for all the sand estimated in the contract; also for 19,000 cubic yards more than that estimated in the contract for 'filling the roadway' and for 47,000 cubic yards more than that estimated in the contract for earth fillings; yet no steps were taken at that time by the Park Department to measure the amount of materials the contractor had actually put in place in the park, nor had any authority been given to the contractor to exceed his contract in the sum of $46,200. No statement in writing was ever rendered by the contractor to the Park Department of the amount of material he claimed to have put in place. All payments were made on oral claims of the contractor and on data which the Park Department claimed to have made.

"In July, 1923, the contractor claiming to have exceeded his contract by over $125,000, the contract was amended and received the approval of the Mayor, authorizing the contractor to furnish 100,000 cubic yards of additional filling, which was 10,000 cubic yards more than double the original estimate; 30,000 cubic yards of additional filling for the roadway, which was five times the original estimate; and 15,000 additional cubic yards of loam, which was an addition of one-fifth of the original estimate. This added $119,500 to the contract. Nearly one-half of this additional amount had been paid to the contractor without legal authority before the amendment to the contract was made.

"These additions to the contract were made by the Park Department with the approval of the Mayor, although the actual amount of material already furnished had not been measured, as provided in the contract.

"Again, in May, 1924, the contractor claimed to have furnished more material than his contract as amended authorized. The Park Commissioners and the Mayor granted another amendment to the contract, so as to legalize a further payment to the contractor of $59,100, but, no steps were taken even then to measure as provided in the contract the amount of loam or earth filling that the contractor had already furnished.

"When the chairman of the Park Commission approved a payment to the contractor under this last amendment, the Finance Commission requested the Park Department to furnish it with the measurements of materials in place upon which payment to the contractor had been made under the terms of the contract. The Park Department had made no such measurements and had no figures on which to base payments, but proceeded to have such measurements made by Harry W. Rowley, an engineer not connected with any department of the city.

"About two months later, July 29, 1924, these measurements were received by the Finance Commission and computed by its consulting engineer, who found that there were actually in place in Columbus Park 130,128 cubic yards of earth and roadway filling (Items 2 and 3 of the contract), instead of 260,000 cubic yards for which the contractor had already been paid; 16,740 cubic yards of sand, instead of 45,459 cubic yards for which the contractor had been paid, and 7,168 cubic yards of loam, instead of 91,500 cubic yards for which the contractor had been paid.

"In addition to the data furnished by Engineer Rowley, the Finance Commission caused test holes to be dug in the loamed area and the actual depth of the loam determined. The report of Engineer Rowley is in substantial agreement with the conclusions of the consulting engineer of the Finance Commission, as above set out, except as to the volume of the loam. As to Engineer Rowley's estimate of the volume of loam which he found, namely, 34,400 cubic yards, he testified that he did not make any borings to find the depth of the loam. He assumed that the specifications had been complied with. He admitted that he could not tell where the loam stopped and where the filling began, because he had not dug any test holes.

"The contract made between the City of Boston and J. C. Coleman & Sons Company for this work contained a provision that the materials, except sand, should be measured after they had been put in place, leveled and rolled. Similar provisions were contained in contracts made in the past. For example, this method of measuring was used when Marine Park was built, almost adjacent to Columbus Park, and quite as large.

"It was the method used in the shore filling all along South Boston, including that under Columbia road. It was the method used when Columbus Park was filled from low-water flats by the New York State Dredging Company in 1916-18, the first work in the present Columbus Park, then known as the Strandway or shore of old harbor. It is the best method of protecting the interests of the city in work of this kind.

"Under the terms of the amendment to the contract granted by the Park Commissioners and approved by his Honor the Mayor, on August 7, 1924, the filling and loam furnished by the contractor are to be measured by the cart or truck load, instead of being measured in place after being levelled and rolled, as provided in the contract.

"The discrepancy between the amount of material that the contractor and the city inspectors said was placed in the park, and the amount that was found there by actual measurement by an engineer selected by the Park Department, is so gross that every opportunity was given the contractor to explain. Accordingly he was requested to furnish the Finance Commission with the sources from which he received the material that he claimed to have placed in Columbus Park.

"The definite sources of supply disclosed to the commission by the contractor were investigated. In every instance the contractor over-stated the amount substantially, in some instances giving twice the quantity that he had actually received, and in two instances three times the quantity that he had actually received. On the other hand, these sources checked up approximately with the amount that the engineers of the Finance Commission and Engineer Rowley determined by measurements under the provisions of the contract was actually in place in the park.

"As to the explanation given by the contractor why the amount of material that has been paid for by the city cannot be found in the park and concurred in by Commissioners Shea and Lewis of the Park Department, namely, that the ground has settled and cracked and that much of the material was washed away by the rain and disappeared in the cracks, or was used up in the settlement that has taken place in the last two years, it is sufficient answer to say that the levels of the ground taken before the work began two years ago by the engineer of the Park Department, and again last June by an engineer employed by the Park Department, Mr. Rowley, shows practically no settlement, or so little as to be negligible. See, also, Mr. Gow's report, attached hereto.

"Such settlement as there was would not make a difference of 5,000 cubic yards at the most. The contention is absurd upon the face of it. The area upon which filling was actually placed by the contractor measures approximately 422,000 square feet, roughly nine acres. The filling actually put in place on this area, if spread to uniform depth, would raise the area 8 feet and 4 inches. The contractor, however, was paid for enough filling to raise this area 16 feet 8 inches.

"The area on which loam was actually placed is approximately 330,000 square feet, or about seven acres. The loam actually put in place, spread uniformly, would cover this area to a depth of 7 inches. The contractor has been paid for loam enough to cover the same area, if spread uniformly, to a depth of 2 feet 8 inches. To contend seriously that a fill of nine acres would settle 8 feet and 4 inches in two years, or that a fill covered with loam would settle 2 feet and 1 inch in two years is too absurd for consideration."

MAYOR CURLEY PROPOSES RELIEF HOSPITAL FOR HYDE PARK, READVILLE, WEST ROXBURY SECTIONS.

Mayor Curley sent the following communication September 15:

MR. JOSEPH P. MANNING, President,
Board of Trustees, Boston City Hospital, Boston, Mass.

DEAR FRIEND,—In connection with the City Hospital future development program, I beg to suggest the advisability of an emergency hospital in the vicinity of Forest Hills that would meet the requirements of the Readville, Hyde Park, Dorchester, West Roxbury, Roslindale and Jamaica Plain sections. If in the opinion of the trustees, after investigation, it is found inadvisable to establish an emergency branch in this section, I trust they will consider locating an ambulance at some convenient point in the vicinity of Forest Hills available for this rapidly growing section of the city.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

MAYOR FELICITATES CAPTAIN DOLLAR.

Mayor Curley addressed the following message of felicitation upon the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Captain Robert Dollar, Dollar Steamship Company, San Francisco, California, and the famous original of the "Cappy Ricks" volumes.

BOSTON, September 11, 1924.

CAPTAIN ROBERT DOLLAR, Dollar Steamship Company, San Francisco, California.

May I assure you the citizens of Boston join with me in hearty congratulations upon the fiftieth anniversary of your marriage. May every happiness this life can offer constantly attend you.

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor of Boston.

CITY OF BOSTON RESTS IN TELEPHONE CASE, CONTENDING THAT COMPANY NEEDS NO RATE INCREASE.

Suddenly and contrary to appearances as the hearing was going on Tuesday, September 16, the City of Boston rested in its protest before the Public Utilities Commission against the proposed increase in rates on private switchboards.

On Thursday morning the telephone company opened its rebuttal.

There was a long hearing before the commission, but it shifted repeatedly from discussion of the proposed general investigation, and demands for vast additional information from the telephone company to a proposition for a general agreement between counsel and resulted in Corporation Counsel Sullivan's announcing that the City of Boston would rest without offering any of the additional evidence for which it has asked.

Briefly the evidence submitted by the city through Samuel Mildram, was that even if it be true that the telephone company needs more revenue to meet heavy expenses, there will be no need of any increase in the private switchboard rate because the toll rate increase already granted will yield so much more than the company itself has estimated that, with economies, it will take care of all the extra expenses.

Giving this in figures, Mr. Mildram stated that where the company had figured that the extra yield from the new toll rates would amount to $265,852 the estimate made by the City of Boston show an extra yield of $649,347. He based this in part upon the assumption that the normal business of the company will grow in 1924 at about as good a rate as it has in the past few years, so that the total number of toll messages for the year will be at least 70,000,000 instead of the 60,000,000 estimated by the company.

If these figures are right, and the city defends them as being based upon the statistics produced by the company itself, then, the city contends, the company will have enough money together with possible economies in operation to meet the deficit it had expected.

As a further issue Mr. Sullivan maintained that all through the hearing the telephone company has refused to submit proof that it really needs any more money, and the burden of proof rests upon the company.

Chairman Attwill of the Commission also took the view that the company should now offer some proof that it needs more money than existing rates will yield.

PREDICTS BOSTON AS ONE OF FUTURE AIRPORT CENTERS OF WORLD IN MESSAGE TO MAYOR CURLEY.

Mayor Curley has received high praise from army and aviation officials for the splendid reception tendered the "Round-the-World" flyers on Saturday, September 6. The following are some of the messages:

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor of Boston, City Hall, Boston, Mass.

DEAR MAYOR CURLEY,—Although I have already tried to tell you in person how splendidly Boston welcomed the World Flight and how deeply grateful everyone connected therewith is to you and to the city, this appreciation is so great that I want to write and try once more to express my own gratitude to you as well as that of the World Flight and the Air Service.

From General Patrick down, every man connected with the flight was overwhelmed with the reception they received at Boston, and the pilots themselves choked up when they tried to express their pleasure and appreciation to me on the morning that they left. Regardless of where else they go, or how royally they are received, Boston was the first, and Boston will always be first in their hearts. I am proud to have been permitted to take part in the program Boston provided and I appreciate your confidence and kindness more than I can tell you.

I cannot think of the celebration without thinking immediately of Mr. O'Connell, and all that he did. Coming directly after the G. A. R. and Elk Conventions he was overburdened with work, but he personally took hold and did more than any single person to make this the most memorable occasion since our boys returned from France. To know him has been an honor, and to work with him a great pleasure.

With renewed assurances of appreciation and regard, I am,

Sincerely yours,

PORTER ADAMS.

Mayor Curley September 15 received the following communication from Major General A. W. Brewster, U. S. A., Commanding the First Corps Area, Army Base, Boston:

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor of the City of Boston, City Hall, Boston, Mass.

MY DEAR MR. CURLEY,—Permit me to extend my hearty thanks for the assistance rendered by yourself and by the City of Boston at the reception of the "Around-the-World" fliers of the U. S. Army Air Service. We of the army feel greatly indebted to the City of Boston for its splendid co-operation on this occasion. Especially do I request that you extend to the members of the police and fire departments of the city my thanks for their co-operation in the protection of the airport during the period of preparation for the arrival of the fliers and during the time they were there.

I am, with great respect,

Yours sincerely,

A. W. BREWSTER,
Major General, U. S. Army.

Mayor Curley received the following communication from Major H. A. Dargue of the Air Service:

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor of City of Boston, Boston, Mass.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—While the arrival of the World Flight is still fresh in our minds, may I be permitted to express my appreciation and thanks for your personal work in connection with this celebration and for the excellent co-operation shown by all departments of the city.

Your interest in the airport is indicative of the fact that in the not far distant future Boston will be one of the aviation centers of the world.

I hope that the harmonious relations established between the commanding officer of the airport and your office during this recent celebration may continue and that you will be able to take a personal interest in the development of the Boston airport in the future as you have done heretofore.

Very sincerely yours,

H. A. DARGUE,
Major, Air Service.

LAND-TAKING IN DORCHESTER.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for sewerage works to be constructed as follows:

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston formerly Dorchester, and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Hallowell street, bounded:

Southwest by taking made by the City of Boston for sewerage purposes in Hallowell street, March 25, 1924, eight feet; northwest by another part of Hallowell street, eighty feet; northeast by the same, eighty feet; and southeast by the same, eighty feet; containing six hundred and forty square feet, more or less.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: 80 linear feet of 10-inch pipe sanitary sewer, in the above described premises, being part of the private way known as Hallowell street for a distance of about eighty feet northeasterly from easement taken for sewerage purposes in said street March 25, 1924.

This Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the taking of the aforesaid easement and construction of said sewerage works and awards no damages therefor.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the lots of abutting land on both sides of Hallowell street for a distance of about one hundred and twenty feet southwesterly from Newcastle street, will receive benefit or advantage, beyond the general advantage to the community, from the improvement ordered herein, to the amounts hereinafter respectively set against them; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Plan No. 574, Sewerage Works, Hallowell street, Dorchester, August 7, 1924, William J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department," and on file in the office of said department.

LAND-TAKING IN DORCHESTER.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for sewerage works to be constructed as follows:

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston formerly Dorchester and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Myrtlebank avenue, bounded:

South by Milton street, ten and 40-100 feet; west by another part of Myrtlebank avenue, three and 7-100 feet; again west by the same, one hundred thirty-six and 14-100 feet; north by the same, eight feet; and east by the same, one hundred thirty eight and 8-100 feet; containing eleven hundred and seven square feet, more or less.

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Milton street, bounded:

North by Myrtlebank avenue, ten and 40-100 feet; east by another part of Milton street, one and 92-100 feet; again east by the same, twenty-four and 13-100 feet; south by easement taken for sewerage purposes by the City of Boston in Milton street July 10, 1907, twelve and 80-100 feet; and west by another part of Milton street, twenty-seven and 20-100 feet; containing two hundred and fifteen square feet, more or less.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: 150 linear feet of 10-inch pipe sanitary sewer, in the above described premises, being part of the private way known as Myrtlebank avenue for a distance of about one hundred and forty feet northerly from Milton street and part of the private way known as Milton street, adjoining Myrtlebank avenue.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

This Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the taking of the aforesaid easement and construction of said sewerage works and awards no damages therefor.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the lot of abutting land on the easterly

LAND-TAKING IN DORCHESTER.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for sewerage works to be constructed as follows:

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following-described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston formerly Dorchester, and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Lenoxdale avenue, bounded:

North by easement taken by the City of Boston for sewerage purposes December 2, 1915, and by another part of Lenoxdale avenue, eight feet; east by another part of Lenoxdale avenue, one hundred and fifty feet; south by the same, eight feet; and west by the same, one hundred and fifty feet, containing twelve hundred square feet, more or less.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: 145 linear feet of 12-inch pipe sanitary sewer, in the above-described premises, being part of the private way known as Lenoxdale avenue, between Milton street and Marsh street.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

This Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the taking of the aforesaid easement and construction of said sewerage works and awards no damages therefor.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the lots of abutting land on both sides of Lenoxdale avenue, beginning at a point about three hundred feet south of Marsh street, and thence running southerly for a distance of about one hundred and sixty-five feet, will receive benefit or advantage, beyond the general advantage to the community from the improvement ordered herein, to the amounts hereinafter respectively set against them; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Plan No. 576, Sewerage Works, Lenoxdale Avenue, Dorchester, August 13, 1924, William J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department," and on file in the office of said department.

MAYOR CURLEY SENDS CONDOLENCES TO WIDOW OF FORMER GOVERNOR DOUGLAS.

Mayor Curley addressed a letter of sympathy to Mrs. Douglas, widow of Hon. William L. Douglas, former Governor of Massachusetts, 63 Hillside road, Brookline:

MRS. WILLIAM L. DOUGLAS, 63 Hillside Road, Brookline, Mass.

DEAR MRS. DOUGLAS,—The passing of your beloved husband marks the close of the life of one of Massachusetts' first citizens and who gave to our state, as well as to the community in which he resided, a life of devoted and inspiring service, ever marked by the highest honor, character and integrity.

In adherence to the finest principles, singular devotion, untiring industry and wonderful personal attributes, he rose from the most humble surroundings to be Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

I can but feel, in this sad hour, that no life has closed in New England during the present generation that will stand as a greater incentive to those of the same humble position which he formerly occupied, in the securing of life's best estate. I shall ever remember Governor Douglas as a gentleman of delightful presence, sincere in his devotion to his friends, untiring in the providing of quiet, unostentatious charity which relieved the burden of hundreds of persons resting within the shadow of adversity, and whose good and timely advice has splendidly served a multitude of those embraced within the bounds of his friendship.

The State of Massachusetts is indeed poorer by his loss.

May the infinite mercy of Divine Providence attend you at this time.

Sincerely,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

MAYOR REJOICES AT GENERAL DUNN'S ELECTION.

Mayor Curley addressed the following telegram Saturday, September 13, to Brigadier General John H. Dunn, National Commander-in-Chief, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Atlantic City, N. J.

Kindly accept my hearty congratulation on your splendid triumph. Your election as National Commander-in-Chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars is both a splendid and deserving tribute in honor of your long and distinguished military service and from as fine a body of soldiers as the world has known.

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

CLAIMS.

The Mayor, upon recommendation of the Corporation Counsel, has approved the following claims:

James J. Crowley, 397 Ashmont street, Dorchester, in the sum of $300, as compensation for damage to property at 397 Ashmont street, caused by sewer overflow, July 16, 1921.

Mrs. Margaret Thornton, 660 Saratoga street, East Boston, in the sum of $200, as compensation for personal injuries caused by slipping on oil on crosswalk at Curtis and Saratoga streets, June 10, 1924.

MASSACHUSETTS CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS.

The Massachusetts Civil Service Commission announce examinations for desirable positions open in the Boston and Metropolitan districts as follows:

GARAGE SUPERINTENDENT, PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT, SEPTEMBER 25, 1924.

The salary is $2,500 per year. Applicants must be not less than 30 nor more than 55 years of age at the time of filing application.

A certificate of date of birth must be filed with the application.

Applicants should have experience in motor vehicle storage, transportation and repairs, and should be physically capable of working continuously for long periods of time. The superintendent will have charge of the garage which will house, ultimately, 120 touring cars, trucks, street sweepers and flushing trucks for various services of the Public Works Department, and will have a labor force of approximately thirty men. Spare parts for the machines will be kept in a stock room and properly requisitioned and charged to individual cars. Gasoline and oil will be issued in measured quantities and properly recorded against each vehicle. A small repair department will be established within the garage for minor repairs only, in subcharge of a man skilled in the work and reporting directly to the superintendent. Major repairs will be made by outside concerns, and it will be within the province of the superintendent to decide whether a car should be repaired in the garage or taken outside and to determine the probable cost of the latter repairs.

The subjects of examination with their respective weights will be as follows: Training and experience, 4; practical questions, 3; personality and fitness as determined by an oral interview, 3; total, 10.

Applicants will be required to obtain at least 65 per cent in each subject and in general average in order to become eligible.

Successful applicants will be required to file a certificate from a reputable physician as to their physical fitness for the position.

BOSTON AS A TOWN.

From its foundation until 1755, or a period of 125 years, Boston was not only the most outstanding but the most populous town in the American colonies. In 1760, Philadelphia's population was ahead, viz., 18,756, Boston's then being 15,631 and New York's about 14,000. In the last year of town government, viz., 1821, Boston's population was about 45,000 and its public debt $100,000, all incurred for new county buildings.

CITY OF BOSTON.

STREET LAYING-OUT DEPARTMENT.

IN BOARD OF STREET COMMISSIONERS OF THE CITY OF BOSTON, September 11, 1924.

Ordered, That due notice be given that this Board is of the opinion that, in said city, public improvements should be made consisting of the laying out and construction of an extension of Locust street, Dorchester district, as a highway from Buttonwood street to the location of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad.

The laying out and construction of an extension of Hazleton street, Dorchester district, as a highway, from northwest of Fottler road for a distance of approximately six hundred feet northwesterly.

The laying out and construction of Chelmsford street, Dorchester district, as a highway, from Adams street to Charlemont street.

The laying out and construction of Alabama street, Dorchester district, as a highway, from Oakland street to Almont street.

The laying out and construction of Waldorf street, Dorchester district, as a highway, from Ashmont street to Mellen street.

The laying out and construction of Lorna road, Dorchester district, as a highway, from Morton street to Tiverton road.

All substantially as shown on plans in the office of this Board, that it intends to pass orders for making said improvements, and that it appoints eleven o'clock a. m., of September 24, 1924, and the office of this Board as the time and place for public hearings in the matters.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

PROPOSALS FOR SEWERAGE WORKS IN WILMINGTON AVENUE, FROM CAPEN STREET ABOUT 230 FEET EASTERLY, AND OUTLET IN CAPEN STREET FROM FAIRMOUNT STREET TO WILMINGTON AVENUE, DORCHESTER.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, office 508 City Hall Annex, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for sewerage works in Wilmington avenue from Capen street about 230 feet easterly, and outlet in Capen street from Fairmount street to Wilmington avenue, Dorchester. A bond will be required for doing the work of a surety company approved by the Commissioner in the sum of fifteen hundred ($1,500) dollars, to secure the due performance of the contract and the full protection of the city. Plans and proposals may be obtained at Room 508, City Hall Annex. Each proposal should be inclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Sewerage Works in Wilmington Avenue," and left at Room 508, fifth floor, City Hall Annex, before 12 m. on Tuesday, September 30, 1924, with a certified check for two hundred (200) dollars, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read. Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the proposals. If the price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, or the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item it may lead to the rejection of the proposal containing such price. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or to award the contract as he deems best.

JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Each proposal should be inclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Sewerage Works in Maynard Street," and left at Room 508, fifth floor, City Hall Annex, before 12 m. on Thursday, October 2, 1924, with a certified check for one hundred (100) dollars, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read. Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the proposals. If the price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, or the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item it may lead to the rejection of the proposal containing such price. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or to award the contract as he deems best.

JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

CITY OF BOSTON.

STREET LAYING-OUT DEPARTMENT.

IN BOARD OF STREET COMMISSIONERS OF THE CITY OF BOSTON, September 11, 1924.

Ordered, That due notice be given that this Board is of the opinion that public necessity requires the taking of land and buildings bounded by property of the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Boston, known as the St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church, and D. West Third and Bolton streets, South Boston district, for playground purposes, substantially as shown on a plan on file in the office of this Board, that it intends to pass an order to make said taking, and that it appoints twelve o'clock m., of September 30, 1924, and the office of this Board as the time and place for a public hearing in the matter.

A true copy of an order passed by said Board on said day.

Attest:
JOSEPH F. SULLIVAN,
Secretary.
(Sept. 20.)

BOSTON CITY RECORD

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 16.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1924.

No. 39

BOSTON'S NEW CHARITY BUILDING TO BE FACT WITHIN YEAR AND WILL COST $350,000.

OLD CHARDON STREET HOME SITE TO HAVE MUNICIPAL STRUCTURE MORE THAN EQUAL TO NEEDS AND WILL ALSO HOUSE PRIVATE CHARITIES' ADMINISTRATION WORK.

NEW BOSTON BUILDINGS FOR OVERSEERS OF PUBLIC WELFARE AND TEMPORARY HOME FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

Within a year Boston will be able to boast of a new "Chardon Street Home," the finest charity building in the state. The old home, which has sheltered temporarily thousands of friendless women or children in the past fifty-five years, is being razed. With it the administration building of the Boston Overseers of Public Welfare, at the corner of Chardon and Hawkins streets where headquarters of private charities also were located, is being torn down.

Modern structures, a Charity Building and a new improved Temporary Home for Women and Children will rise in their place.

The overseers have been moved across to 30 Hawkins street in the old Mayhew School, now the Wayfarers' Lodge. A place has been made for the private charities in the former Baldwin School, at Chardon court, and the Chardon Street Home is for the time being at 1 and 2 Plymouth street, Roxbury.

The history of the familiar structures which have been standing so long on their corners at Chardon street shows the original building was finished in 1869, twelve years after a memorial was presented by the Boston Provident Association to the Boston City Council, petitioning that the city erect some sort of building to house the various charitable organizations under one roof.

The City Council in January, 1859, decided that $30,000 having been contributed by individuals, the city would assume the remaining expense and erect such a building. The Temporary Home for Women and Children was built facing Chardon street. The administration building faced Hawkins street and was occupied by the city organization, then called the Overseers of the Poor, the Provident Association, the Associated Charities, the Industrial Aid Society, the Boston Dispensary and the State Aid Department. Once the Federated Jewish Charities were housed there.

Among the societies which will have space in the Charity Building are the Family Welfare Society, the Boston Provident Association, the St. Vincent de Paul Society, the German Aid Society, the Industrial Aid Society and the Confidential Exchange, which keeps an index of names of families who are helped by charity in any part of the city or state and is the exchange appealed to by every charity in an effort to learn what assistance, if any assistance, certain families have had in times past. The Co-operative Workroom will be, as usual, under the common roof. This organization provides sewing for disabled women.

For several years the Overseers of Public Welfare have been petitioning various administrations for a new building. Mayor Curley, after investigating, decided that a new structure was necessary, and $350,000 has been appropriated for that purpose.

The overseers will have the entire first floor and will have board rooms on the second floor.

Instead of having to walk miles every morning to get even breakfast, the assistants in the Chardon Street Home will be working with a model kitchen with every convenience. A feature of the new temporary home will be a roof playground for the children.

BOSTON'S TAX RATE NOT EXPECTED TO BE RAISED.

ASSESSORS HAVE GOOD NEWS FOR CITIZENS, TO BE ANNOUNCED SOON BY MAYOR CURLEY.

Upon Mayor Curley's return from campaigning up state the tax rate for the current year will be announced. No change is expected from the present rate of $24.70, though there have been rumors that the new rate might be ten cents lower or higher.

The assessors have had the usual difficulty in finding sufficient new valuation, with heavy losses in personal value, to justify a stand-pat attitude. The loss of their cases against the adjudged valuation of the Telephone Company's property in Boston was a severe disappointment.

It was no particular secret that the Boston assessors and the Law Department expected the State Board of Tax Appeal to grant the city at least $5,000,000 of additional telephone valuation over the figures of Tax Commissioner Long. Such an increase would have meant at least 50 cents in the tax rate.

The city contended that the valuation of the company's property should be $20,000,000, instead of $10,000,000, but the board, comprising State Treasurer James Jackson, State Auditor Alonzo Cook and Councilor John A. White, refused a revision of Mr. Long's figures. Corporation Counsel E. Mark Sullivan is undecided whether he will appeal the case.

Boston has had a tax rate of $24.70 for the last three years, and in order to keep the figure from soaring, it has been necessary continually to increase the burden of real estate.

Last year, while the assessors found $52,312,700 in new real estate values, the total findings dropped to $36,390,294, owing to the slump in personal property. There has been a similar result this year, though the amount of new construction, which will figure in the assessors' totals is much greater than in the last few years. Ward 5, the business district, will, as usual, show the greatest increase in values. Last year the increase in that ward alone was $18,127,200.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

[From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.]

LAND-TAKING IN DORCHESTER.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for sewerage works to be constructed as follows:

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston, formerly Dorchester, and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Fairview street, bounded:

East by another part of Fairview street and by easement taken by the City of Boston for sewerage purposes in Fairview street May 19, 1915, eight feet; south by another part of Fairview street, one hundred feet; west by the same, eight feet; and north by the same, one hundred feet; containing eight hundred square feet more or less.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: 100 linear feet of 10-inch pipe sanitary sewer, in the above described premises, being part of the private way known as Fairview street for a distance of about 100 feet westerly from easement taken May 19, 1915, for sewerage purposes in said street.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

This Board determines that no person

made to this department for information regarding the public baths and gymnasiums maintained by the city, and with regard to municipal indoor concerts and band concerts; also information relative to Mt. Hope, Evergreen, Fairview and other public cemeteries owned by the City of Boston.

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE, 15 Beacon street, for information relative to the operation of the schools of the city.

TO THE SCHOOLHOUSE COMMISSIONERS, Room 1007, City Hall Annex, for information as to the construction and repair of school buildings.

TO THE BOARD OF EXAMINERS, Room 1001, City Hall Annex, for information regarding the licensing of persons having charge or control of the work of construction, alteration, removal or tearing down of buildings.

TO THE WIRE DIVISION OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT, Fire Department Headquarters, 60 Bristol street, for all information relative to the erection of poles, the building of conduits, the installation of all overhead and underground construction and electrical apparatus, as well as for general information relative to the entire division. TO ROOM 906, City Hall Annex, for permits for the installing of wires and electrical apparatus within buildings in the City of Boston, and for the payment of fees incident to the granting of the privileges above named, and which must be paid in advance.

sustains damages in his estate by the taking of the aforesaid easement and construction of said sewerage works and awards no damages therefor.

Ordered: That this Board estimates that the lots of abutting land on both sides of Fairview street for a distance of about seventy feet westerly from Ainsley street, will receive benefit or advantage, beyond the general advantage to the community, from the improvement ordered herein, to the amounts hereinafter respectively set against them; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Plan No. 575, Sewerage Works, Fairview Street, Dorchester, August 13, 1924, Wm. J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department" and on file in the office of said department.

EXTENSION OF CONTRACT.

V. Barlatta has been granted an extension of the time of completion of the contract for the building of sewerage works in Weld street, between Board of Survey street 1779 and Parkvale road, West Roxbury, from September 6, 1924, to September 20, 1924, 14 days.

W. H. Ellis and Son Company have been granted an extension of the time of completion of the contract for repairing piers and fender guards of Summer Street Bridge, over reserved channel, South Boston, from September 10, 1924, to October 30, 1924, on account of not getting a low run of tides so as to drive the low water girders, also on account of work in locating the Edison Electric Company's cables so as to drive the piles.

CALLS UPON MASSACHUSETTS TO RETURN TO CONTROL OF GOVERNMENT MEN OF DEMOCRATIC PARTY WHO WILL REVIVE INDUSTRY, RESTORE COMMERCE AND PROVIDE NATIONAL SECURITY AND PROGRESS.

MAYOR CURLEY DELIVERS NOTABLY ABLE ADDRESS AT PARTY CONVENTION ASSEMBLED IN WORCESTER, SEPTEMBER 20, PILLORYING PRESENT ADMINISTRATION FOR FAILURE TO WORK IN INTEREST OF PEOPLE OF COUNTRY.

Mayor James M. Curley, of Boston, Democratic candidate for Governor, delivered the following address at the State Convention in Worcester on September 20.

The revolt of free men throughout the nation who for a lifetime have been enrolled Republicans is sufficiently general to justify the belief that the Democracy will this year, both in state and nation, be successful. Transforming the party of Abraham Lincoln into the party of Morgan & Co., coupled with a brutal disregard for the nation's defenders, faithful public servants and industrial depression, will unquestionably prompt the American public to disregard party ties and elect as President of the United States Democracy's standard-bearer, the Honorable John W. Davis.

Brilliant as a statesman, able as a diplomat, great as an American, John W. Davis is the embodiment of the commanding virtues that the American people demand in the Chief Executive of this nation. Through his leadership it will be possible to develop both a foreign and domestic policy, through which commerce may be restored, industry revived, and harmonious relations re-established between capital and labor.

It is essential, nay imperative, that Massachusetts furnish her contribution to national security and progress by electing that able and brilliant legislator, the Honorable David I. Walsh. The nation needs him and the disabled veterans, whose interests he safeguarded in every section of America, are praying to the throne on high for his success.

The same brutal disregard for the public weal, responsible for the loss to the Republican Party of the West and the Northwest, has been in evidence in our own Commonwealth. The spectacle of a "New England Week," held for the purpose of promoting the welfare of the New England States, at a time when the party is in control, both in the nation and state, are pursuing a policy destructive in character not only to New England, but to free men throughout the entire country, is indeed tragic.

The establishment by the Republican machine of the plan for the manufacture of shoes for the army and navy by convicts at the Leavenworth Prison is a direct blow at one of the longest established industries in our own Commonwealth. The award of a contract to a firm in Manchester, England, for the manufacture of khaki cloth for uniforms to be worn by United States employees at a time when New England mills were either closed down or working part time, is a further example of the unfriendly attitude of the present administration toward American labor. The action of the Republican machine in Massachusetts in making provision for the establishment of a printing department at the State's Prison and thereby putting convict labor in our Commonwealth in competition with free labor, is a further evidence of hostility.

The long continued failure to develop the commercial resources of the gateway of New England, the port of Boston, is responsible in a larger measure than any other single cause for the necessity for holding a "New England Week." The vital need of Massachusetts today is the adoption of a policy, regardless of cost, through which our commercial facilities may be developed as a necessary adjunct to the promotion of domestic industries.

Massachusetts, long a courageous pioneer in the advocacy of equality of opportunity and liberty, today presents a most disheartening and depressing spectacle,—a State Constabulary, maintained by taxation levied upon all people, Jew and Gentile, Catholic and Protestant, black and white alike, serving in a protective capacity at the nocturnal assemblages of an organization whose triumph would mean an end to equality and the destruction of liberty. Upon the specious plea that there is no law by which these assemblages can be suppressed, meetings are not only permitted, but protection by the state provided.

It is not the absence of law that prevents the assemblage of these scoundrels, rather it is fear of political consequences. As a candidate for Governor, I invite the opposition of every member of this cowardly organization, and now serve notice that in assuming the office of Governor in January the State Constabulary will cease providing protection to the Ku Klux Klan. The Ku Klux Klan have never held meetings in Boston and they will not be permitted to hold a meeting in the Commonwealth during my term as Governor.

During the past three years I have found it necessary to appear from time to time before committees of the Legislature in behalf not only of Boston, but of all cities and towns in the Commonwealth, with a view to securing that measure of justice to which every taxpayer is entitled. Under the present Republican administration of the state, the rights of the citizenship have been disregarded and consideration given only to the representatives of capital. I propose, as Democratic candidate for Governor, to submit the facts to the people of this Commonwealth, confident in the belief that an alert and enlightened electorate, such as obtain in Massachusetts, will vote to end the destructive policy in operation during recent years.

The arrogance and insolence of state commissions when the ordinary citizen is presenting a case is in striking contrast with the lick-spittle servility when the masters of the Republican Party in the Commonwealth appear—the lobbyists. The shifting of the burden of taxation from the privileged class to the property owner must be speedily corrected if we are to avoid a system of taxation so prohibitive as to render the cost of housing beyond the earning capacity of the individual and the ownership of real property a burden difficult to bear. The adoption of the state income tax law in 1916 provided an avenue speedily thronged by lobbyists' and lawyers, representing the national banks and seeking an opportunity to evade their just portion of the cost of government.

Upon assuming the office of Mayor in 1922, I was informed by the Corporation Counsel that the national banks were seeking a refund from the Commonwealth, and the cities and towns where national banks were located, of the huge sum of twelve millions of dollars. This raid, if unchecked, would have represented an outlay by the City of Boston alone of about six millions of dollars and would have meant bankruptcy to many towns of the Commonwealth.

I refused to approve a settlement of the cases then pending to which the City of Boston was a party. The action thus taken prevented a settlement by the agents on Beacon Hill, who were already reckoning not only their capital return, but their interest, running into the huge sum of $12,000,000. Legislation was sought to relieve the cities and towns from a refund of any portion of this money, introduced by the City of Boston, with the result that a settlement was finally effected, under which no portion of the cost should be borne by the Commonwealth.

As a result of the action taken by the municipality of Boston an agreement was reached by the Legislature whereby the bill for $12,000,000 was reduced to $3,000,000. The bill as finally adopted by the Legislature, with a view to extracting the Republican machine from the financial cavity into which it had been deposited, while relieving the cities and towns of any portion of the burden, made provision for the raising of the money necessary to cover the cost of refund from an income tax. This settlement as finally determined upon was in no sense a just settlement so far as the cities and towns and the Commonwealth itself were concerned, but it was the only character of settlement that could be secured through a Legislature hopelessly enmeshed with money influence.

An honest government on Beacon Hill would have prevented this raid on the people by the passage of an adequate act as proposed by the City of Boston, because this act as proposed by the City of Boston would have brought the national bank tax law of Massachusetts into perfect conformity with the Federal law governing national banks and the tax which under the Federal law states may impose on local banks.

To the partnership between the Republican machine on Beacon Hill and the national bank officials may be traced in part the absorption of trust companies taken over solely for the purpose

This was later followed, as shown by the tax return of 1923, by the absorption of earnings through the writing off of further evasion of equitable taxation. securities, which either were valueless or had depreciated in value and were carried as assets. In one specific instance a national bank, paying a tax to the municipality of $460,000 in 1922, paid in 1923 but $68, and this year will not pay anything.

This condition is so general throughout the Commonwealth as to make imperatively necessary an immediate divorce of the financial interest and the party in control of the activities of the Commonwealth.

The same complete surrender to corporate greed evidenced in the national bank tax cases has obtained among the membership of the Department of Public Utilities. Railroad commutation fares were increased despite the united opposition of every agency interested in the public welfare and this notwithstanding the fact that the average railroad fare increase in the preceding five years was in excess of 20 per cent for this class of service.

The City of Boston has been obliged to appropriate the sum of $160,000 for the conduct of an investigation of lighting charges levied by the Edison Electric Illuminating Company on the public of Boston. As a result of this expenditure by the city, it has been possible to secure five reductions in rate since the close of the World War, representing a total saving to the people in excess of two and a half million dollars, and in no single instance was a reduction ordered by the Public Utilities Commission.

What has been true of electric light cost is equally true in the case of the Boston Consolidated Gas Company, which has been forced by the municipality to make four reductions in the price of gas, representing a total savings to the people of two millions of dollars, and in no single instance was a reduction ordered of any action taken by the Public Utilities Commission, despite the fact that war prices obtained in the case of both of these necessities and although material costs had been reduced fully 25 per cent.

The present investigation of the Telephone case, as conducted by the City of Boston, is an added evidence of the abandonment of the people's rights by the membership of the Public Utilities Commission of Massachusetts. A strike for improved conditions by the operatives and the measures taken to fill the places of competent striking operatives with strikebreakers, caused a deficit of one million, two hundred and fifty thousand dollars in the income of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company.

The company announced its purpose to increase rates not only to cover the loss incurred as a consequence of the strike, but to increase the earnings of the company far in excess of any previously enjoyed. The Massachusetts Public Utilities Commission, servile servant of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company, would have unquestionably approved this raid upon the people for telephone service were it not for the action of the City of Boston in appropriating public money not for the benefit of the municipality alone, but for the benefit of every city and town in the Commonwealth, to prevent the pilfering of the people's income by the Telephone Company and Public Utilities Commission working jointly.

The creation of a Department of Administration and Finance, whose chief activities have been confined to reducing salaries and effecting economies, so called, at the expense of the health and in many cases the life of wards of the state, presents an interesting subject for study. The highly intelligent and exceptionally capable body of state employees, numbering nearly 16,000, as a consequence of the mistaken policy of economy, through the failure to receive a wage sufficient to keep body and soul together, are today transformed into a belligerent murmuring group dissatisfied with present conditions and seeking an avenue of escape from a situation becoming daily more unbearable.

In striking contrast with this unhappy lot of state employees I beg you will contrast the citizens in the employ of the City of Boston today enjoying a wage 25 per cent in excess of the wage paid during the war, serene in mind, energetic in their labors and rendering a full equivalent in every case for the equitable salaries which they receive. The position of the average unfortunate who has been deprived through advancing years or through other causes, either of vision or the power to earn a livelihood, and who because of this condition becomes a state charge, might be likened to the man of Scripture who went down to Jericho and fell among thieves.

They have been at the mercy of a crowd of Levites known as the Commission on Administration and Finance, headed by one Homer Loring. The blind who formerly were permitted to earn an independent livelihood at basket weaving and other industries, have, in addition to the loss of vision, been further punished through the closing of their industries on the plea of economy and pauperized by the payment of a weekly dole, insufficient to provide for their needs.

The attendance at the insane asylums has been so reduced in numbers in order to effect economy that the sworn testimony given recently in the Taunton Court disclosed the fact that one attendant is now required for a continuous period of ten hours to minister to the needs of 115 feeble-minded or violently insane persons. The state charges at Tewksbury have been treated to a new diet since the creation of the Commission on Administration and Finance, a diet known as "absent food treatment," developed by the chairman of the Commission on Administration and Finance with a view to promoting economy, the inmates of the institution being deprived for a period of three days at a time of potatoes and meat.

The public were regaled with stories of tremendous saving effected by the purchase of fuel by this State Commission, but they were denied information as to the character of the fuel and how it was ultimately consumed. The fuel purchased was high in sulphur even though low in price, and the quantity purchased was so great and the inflammable character of the fuel such as to make it necessary to leave it exposed to the elements, with the result that a considerable portion of the coal purchased was burned on the ground rather than in the boilers.

Despite the much-heralded, unwise and false economy of the present state administration and the reduction of the state tax from twelve millions to ten millions of dollars, the state this year has appropriated much more than it did last year, so that this year it will spend forty-seven and a half millions of dollars.

Partisan politics has been permitted to play havoc with one of the most valued institutions in this Commonwealth, the Massachusetts Agricultural College. Speeches and promises have been made from time to time of aid to the agriculturist, but when his crop is harvested he finds it consists of empty promises. I propose as Governor to be guided upon matters relative to the agricultural interests of the Commonwealth by the judgment of the agriculturists, rather than the agencies that have been outlining the policy in recent years on Beacon Hill, namely, the lobbyists.

Disregard for morality and the increase in drug addicts, with crime wave and lawlessness, may be traced in part to the fact that a certain element in America today enjoy liberty and privileges which either should be permitted everyone or denied everyone. As an American citizen, I am opposed to the return of the saloon and the Raines law hotel, I nevertheless believe that the Volstead Act should be liberalized. The security of the American nation is dependent in a larger measure upon the equality of opportunity and liberty that obtained than upon all else combined.

The Democratic party today, united both in nation and state, stands as it has ever stood, the eternal advocate of those principles and policies which have made possible this splendid nation in which we live.

The Republican party, its ranks divided and torn, its legislative program of failure and incapacity, its avowed hostility to soldier and toiler, today stands indicted as unfit to longer control the government of America. This is our opportunity and let us meet it with high resolve, united ranks and faith in the intelligence of the American people.

WHITE MEMORIAL SOON READY.

More than two hundred invitations have been sent out for the unveiling of the $50,000 memorial to George R. White, near the Arlington-Beacon street gate in the Public Garden, Wednesday, October 1, at noon. For several weeks the Rockport granite base for the memorial has been developing. Only minor details await the official exercises.

Daniel C. French is the sculptor of the bronze figure that will crown the memorial. It is learned that the figure is that of a woman, depicting the allegorical act of casting bread upon the waters. On the base is already inscribed the Biblical injunction: "Cast thy bread upon the waters and it shall return to thee again after many days."

Mrs. Harriet J. Bradbury of Commonwealth avenue, sister of Mr. White, will unveil the memorial figure, which is now carefully concealed in burlap and it is expected that Mr. White's closest friend for many years, William C. Endicott of Danvers, will make the presentation address. The memorial will be accepted by Mayor Curley.

The monument is provided for in the will which left to the people of Boston the annual income on more than $5,000,000 worth of downtown property.

WHY I DESIRE TO BE GOVERNOR.

By JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor of Boston.

I desire to be Governor of Massachusetts for the reason that I am vitally interested in the welfare of the state where both my wife and myself were born and where my seven children propose permanently to reside.

A quarter of a century of association and study of Massachusetts problems is an experience that in my opinion should be of value to the Commonwealth and to the people.

The development of commercial resources and the expansion of the port of Boston, the gateway of New England, as an aid to domestic industry and foreign commerce having been disregarded through a policy of false economy by the party now in control of the state should for the welfare of all be undertaken at once. Regardless of expense, this I propose doing.

The reorganization of steam railroads, passenger and freight service, to secure administrative economy and operative efficiency that industry's burdens may be lightened, new industries encouraged, employment be multiplied and men and enterprises safeguarded from political exploitation for political means and ends, is at once imperative.

As Mayor of Boston I have adopted a policy of enlightened humanity in the treatment of the city's charges. From the reports which from time to time become public there is a pressing need of a similar policy in the treatment of the state wards and this should be put in operation without further delay.

Boston, through development of the spirit of co-operation and conciliation, is today recognized as a "strikeless city." In my opinion the same policy is necessary in the state, so that through justice the interests of capital and labor may be safeguarded and through a harmonious policy the welfare of both may be conserved.

The abandonment by the Public Utilities Commission of all consideration for the rights of the people and the approval by the Public Utilities Commission of increased costs for such necessities as light, heat, transportation and telephone service make necessary an immediate and radical change to the end that the burden borne by the people be lightened and the cost of these necessities be more equitably apportioned.

As Governor I believe it will be possible for me to substitute official activity for official lethargy and replace explanations, apologies and excuses with achievements beneficial to all.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 607.

Again it becomes my painful duty to announce that another police officer of this department has been murdered by an assassin's bullet.

Almost one year ago Patrolman Joseph E. Gonya of Division 18, while in the conscientious performance of his duty as a police officer, was shot and instantly killed by a member of a gang engaged in stealing automobiles. Over a week ago Patrolman David M. McCarthy of Division 5 was murderously assaulted and dangerously wounded. Yesterday Patrolman Albert Motroni of Division 7, while investigating an automobile theft, was cowardly slain by the same type of criminal, and Patrolman Thomas G. Duggan of Division 7, who accompanied him, miraculously escaped the same fate.

Patrolman Albert Motroni was appointed to this department October 31, 1919, and assigned to Division 7, to which station he was continuously attached.

The tragic death of Patrolman Motroni, while it conveys a feeling of extreme sorrow to the department that so brave an officer should be so suddenly stricken, also demonstrates the caliber and material of the men comprising this department, who, when given an order to execute, flinched not in the face of extreme danger. As a soldier in peace, sworn to protect the citizens of this city, he faced and met death with the same courage and fortitude that he demonstrated as a soldier in the army of the United States on the fields of France.

These successive attacks upon police officers who stand between law-abiding citizens and the forces of disorder should not in any way tend to weaken the spirit and courage of the members of this department, but should knit them more closely as a unit in combating the forces of evil.

I desire to extend to the immediate family and especially to the widow and daughter of the late Patrolman Albert Motroni the sympathy of this department in their great loss, realizing full well that words of sympathy avail little to assuage the intense grief that they must now endure; yet they may well feel proud of a son, a husband and a father who in the performance of his duty as a police officer met his death bravely and courageously facing the enemy.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 608.

AMENDING GENERAL ORDER No. 599,
ISSUED SEPTEMBER 3, 1924.

The Department of Civil Service and Registration will hold a competitive examination for promotion to the grade of lieutenant in the Boston Police Department, according to the following notice this day received:

This examination will be held on September 29, 1924.

1. This examination is to be open to the sergeants in the Boston Police Department who have served as such, in accordance with civil service rules, at least three years immediately preceding November 15, 1924.

2. The subjects of examination with their respective weights will be as follows: Training and experience, 9; report,

3; practical questions on police law, practice and procedure, 8; total, 20.

3. Application blanks may be secured from the Department of Civil Service and Registration, Division of Civil Service, Rooms 148-152, State House, Boston. The vouchers on this blank need not be filled out. When completed applications should be returned to the Civil Service office to be placed on file not later than September 29.

4. Experience sheets will be mailed to applicants about a week in advance of the examination and they will then be notified of the precise time and place of examination.

This order abrogates Section 1 of General Order No. 599 and permits sergeants who will have served in the grade for three years immediately preceding November 15, 1924, to take this examination, and also changes the date set in paragraph 3 from September 22 to September 29.

Applications will be received at the office of the Civil Service Commission up to and including September 29, 1924.

Commanding officers will promulgate this order not only by reading it at roll call, but by posting a copy thereof in a conspicuous and accessible place, in each station house; and it shall remain posted until after the date of the examination.

Commanding officers will secure a fresh copy from the superintendent, if the posted copy becomes mutilated or destroyed.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

Successful applicants will be required to file a certificate from a reputable physician as to their physical fitness for the position.

SEALER OF WEIGHTS AND MEASURES, OCTOBER 14, 1924.

The salary is $3,500 a year.

The Sealer of Weights and Measures is required to enforce the laws pertaining to weighing and measuring devices and to the giving of false or insufficient weight or measure; to the licensing of hawkers, peddlers and transient vendors; to wholesale milk containers, ice cream cans and molds, cranberry barrels and crates, standard boxes for farm produce, berry baskets, and other containers used as measures; to the weights of bread and to the labelling of loaves of other than standard unit weight.

It is also his duty to test all weighing or measuring devices used for buying or selling, for public weighing, or for hire or reward, and to seal or condemn them in accordance with the results of his tests; also to investigate complaints and to prosecute violations of law when the evidence warrants such action.

The sealer has supervision over the deputies and is responsible for all fees earned by the department.

Pamphlets including the General Laws relating to weights, measures, licenses, etc., and a Sealer's Manual, containing instructions for the inspection, testing and sealing of weighing and measuring devices, may be obtained upon request to the Director of Standards, 194 State House, after application for examination has been filed.

The subjects of examination with their respective weights will be as follows: Training and experience, 5; arithmetic, 2; report, 1; practical questions, 3; personality and fitness as determined by an oral interview, 4; total, 15.

Applicants will be required to obtain at least 50 per cent in practical questions, and at least 65 per cent in training and experience, in the oral interview, and in general average in order to become eligible.

Successful applicants will be given a physical examination.

AUTHORITY TO DO WORK.

The Mayor has granted the request of the Public Works Department to have the Murray Engineering Company repair pontoon at North Ferry, Boston side, as per letter of August 25, without advertisement, the estimated cost for labor and material being $2,875. This is emergency work. The top timbers were broken by collision from ferryboat and when pontoon was taken out for repairs to the timbers it was found necessary to make the other repairs to put the pontoon in good condition.

CONTRACTS AMENDED.

CONGRATULATES ON PROMOTION.

Mayor Curley addressed the following telegram of congratulation to Major General Mark L. Hersey, U. S. A., First Army Area Corps, Boston, upon his promotion to present rank.

Boston, September 19, 1924.

Major General Mark L. Hersey, U. S. A., First Army Area Corps, 666 Summer street, Boston.

Kindly accept my hearty congratulation upon your deserved advancement in the United States army. My hope and prayer is that every success and happiness may attend you. I have felt certain that the distinguished service rendered by you in France would meet with honored recognition and am especially gratified at the good news.

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

REVOKES GAS STATION PERMIT.

After prolonged argument Tuesday, September 23, the Street Commission decided that a permit granted to the Cities Service Refining Company for the establishment of a filling station with 4,000 gallons of gasoline and 1,000 gallons of oil at 480 Neponset avenue, Dorchester, had been illegally granted. Daniel T. O'Connell appeared for the Frost Coal Company, and Stoughton Bell appeared for the petitioners.

NEW CHARITY BUILDING.

The home is more frequently the haven for families that have been evicted, or for friendless women. Families evicted are quite apt to be large.

There are two out at the home at Plymouth street, Roxbury, now, one with five children and the other with six. The mother is a deaf-mute, the father is in the hospital. The city had the task of procuring an apartment for the unfortunate family and is expending $150 for furniture and moving, as the mother is otherwise capable of taking care of her family.

Among the organizations which use the Chardon Street Home for their emergency cases are the Travelers' Aid Society, the State Department of Public Welfare, which sometimes places minor wards in the home for a night or two while effecting some permanent help, the Children's Aid Society, the Boston Police Department and several others.

Last year 901 women and 1,911 children were given from one to three days' lodging on the average in the Chardon Street Home.

Each year there is more need by poor families brought to the attention of the overseers. There were 8,799 persons helped by the overseers in 1850 and $30,000 expended. In 1903 $70,041.91 was spent to help 2,346 families, and in 1922 $1,267,331.87 to help 5,370 families. There is an increase of need but there is also an increase in legislative relief.

There is a large staff of visitors who investigate cases. Several of them are veterans, having been with the overseers for 20 years or more. Charles W. Twombly and Timothy J. Good have been in the department since 1886. William H. Hardy, who came in 1887, was made secretary in 1915, and remained in that position until he was retired in this spring and Mr. McCarthy rose to the position.

Edward F. Kenny came in 1897; Isaiah Hincley came in 1899, and so did John J. Bench. Others of the veterans are Bartholomew Bresnahan, Walter E. Butler, John J. Kelly and Horatio Nelson.

The Overseers of Public Welfare of Boston are Grace M. Hurley, James H. Stone, Margaret J. Gookin, Frank Leveroni, Simon E. Hecht, chairman; Charles F. Hale, Franklin P. Daly, treasurer; Margaret Leahy, Joseph F. Feeney, Sophie M. Friedman, George A. Rockwell, Morris Bronstein and Mr. McCarthy.

NATIVES AND CITIZENS OF BOSTON AND VICINITY HONORED IN HALL OF FAME.

In the American Hall of Fame, New York City, dedicated in 1901, are inscribed on bronze tablets the names of 56 eminent men and 7 distinguished women deemed worthy of the highest honor on account of their services and attainments. Of the 63 individuals thus selected (up to 1920 inclusive) by an electorate of 100 leading Americans, 27 were natives or for some time citizens of Boston or vicinity. The names of the latter are as follows: Chosen in 1900—John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, William Ellery Channing, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Daniel Webster, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, Horace Mann, Nathaniel Hawthorne, George Peabody, Samuel Finley Breese Morse, Joseph Story, Asa Gray, Gilbert Stuart—total, 13.

Chosen in 1905—John Quincy Adams, James Russell Lowell, John Greenleaf Whittier—total, 3.

Chosen, in 1910—Edgar Allan Poe, Oliver Wendell Holmes, George Bancroft, John Lothrop Motley, Phillips Brooks—total, 5.

Chosen in 1915—Louis Agassiz, Francis Parkman, Rufus Choate, Charlotte Cushman—total, 4.

Chosen in 1920—William Thomas Green Morton, Alice Freeman Palmer. Five additional names every fifth year are to be selected and inscribed until the year 2,000, when the 150 tablets in the colonnade will be complete.

If those who were natives or residents elsewhere in the State are added to the list, the following 7 names increase the total to 34 for Massachusetts or more than half the whole number, viz.: William Cullen Bryant, Jonathan Edwards, Mark Hopkins, Elias Howe, Eli Whitney, Maria Mitchell, Mary Lyon.

If all New England is included, 4 more names will bring up the total to 38 or 60.3 per cent of whole number chosen, viz.: Roger Williams, Henry Ward Beecher, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Emma Willard.

CITY CHARTER CHANGES.

In 1854, 1885 and 1900 important changes in the original City Charter of 1821 were effected for the purpose of improving the methods and efficiency of the City Government. The revision of 1854 (Chap. 448, Stat. 1854) referred to the voters for acceptance, gave the Mayor a qualified veto over the action of the City Council, also the power of removal of appointed officials, besides providing for his election by a plurality instead of a majority vote. The amendments of 1885 (Chap. 266, Stat. 1885) were not submitted to the voters for approval. They transferred all the executive powers to the Mayor, prohibiting the City Council from interference with the executive and administrative business of the City. This was done in order to end the inefficiency resulting from an excessive number of joint committees, a municipal development conforming to the traditions of the outgrown town government.

The amendments of 1909 (Chap. 486, Stat. 1909) cut down the number and powers of the legislative branch of the government to a minimum, the Board of Aldermen (13 members) and the Common Council (75 members) being abolished. For these was substituted a single City Council of nine members to be elected at large for a 3-year term. The Mayor's position was further strengthened by giving him a 4-year term, subject to recall at end of two years, but requiring a majority of the registered voters to make the recall effective. The Mayor's power over appointments was no longer subject to check by aldermen but by a State board, the Civil Service Commission, and City elections were removed from all connection with national and State politics, no primaries nor caucuses being permitted, all candidates for office to be selected by means of nomination papers. The only question in this Act of 1909 which was submitted to the voters was contained in section 35, i. e., whether Plan 1 or Plan 2 should be adopted, the first providing for a term of two years for Mayor and a City Council of 36 members to be chosen in primaries. Plan 2 was adopted by a majority of 3,894. Charter of 1909 amended later as follows: (1) By Chap. 437, Acts of 1910, exempting loans issued for Rapid Transit construction from the prohibition of the establishing of sinking funds, as contained in sec. 26. (2) Chap. 730, Acts of 1914, fixing date of annual municipal election on the sixth Tuesday after the state election instead of in the following January, as in sec. 32; changing the requirement as to signatures on nomination papers to 3,000 for Mayor and 2,000 for City Council and School Committee instead of 5,000 for all, as in sec. 53, also limiting the number of nomination papers issued to 300 for a candidate for Mayor and 200 for other candidates, referring to sec. 54. (3) Chap. 37, Special Acts of 1918, annulling the jurat at end of nomination papers. (4) Chap. 94, Special Acts of 1918, abolishing recall of Mayor, and making him ineligible for re-election, i. e., establishing a single term of four years, but not prohibiting the election of any Mayor for other than consecutive terms. (5) Chap. 288, Acts of 1921, fixing date of the annual municipal election on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in December, also making slight changes as to nominations.

LIQUOR LICENSES AND NATIONAL PROHIBITION.

The national prohibition amendment (i. e., the 18th) to the Constitution, having been ratified by 45 States and becoming effective on January 16, 1920, the legalized trade in intoxicating liquors ceased then. It was supposed to stop about 6 months sooner because of the Federal war regulation providing for prohibition on July 1, 1919, to be effective until the army could be demobilized. But as there was no Massachusetts law forbidding the issuing of licenses after July 1, the Boston Licensing Board issued 702 such for the remainder of the license year with the proviso that the license was no protection against violation of Federal law. After which licensees claimed the right to sell July 1, under Federal law, the only liquor was beer and ale containing not over 2.75 per cent of alcohol. Sales of these lighter beverages continued to October 28, 1919, when Congress enacted a law (Volstead Act) forbidding the sale of any liquor as a beverage containing more than 0.50 per cent alcohol. The validity of this act being widely questioned, the United States Supreme Court upheld it on Jan. 5, 1920, and again on June 7, 1920. The result of this decision was that former applicants for liquor licenses did not apply for them in 1920. The Supreme Court of Mass. later in the year decided that the liquor laws of the State remain in force where not inconsistent with the Volstead Act. The Boston Board therefore issued 146 licenses to druggists and 17 4th-class, permitting sales for non-beverage purposes only. In 1921 there were issued 192 licenses to druggists, 15 4th-class and one 5th-class. On May 17, 1922, Chap. 427, Acts of 1922 (consisting of 27 sections) was approved, providing for the carrying into effect in Mass. of the 18th Federal (i. e., prohibition) amendment. This law is subject to a referendum at State election on November 7, 1922.

By Chapter 392, Acts of 1922, the retailing of non-intoxicating beverages is subjected to license, with fee of not more than one dollar for each year ending April 30.

PUBLIC STREETS IN BOSTON.

Total length of the 2,447 paved (accepted) streets, February 1, 1922, 606.33 miles; total area, 11,459,009 square yards, or 8.47 per cent of the City's total land area. This is exclusive of the private streets (not accepted), numbering about 2,890. 366.10 miles, or 60.38 per cent, are paved with macadam (including 128.03 miles bituminous macadam); 105.66 miles with granite block; 45.50 miles with asphalt; 29.32 miles with gravel; 36.63 miles with asphalt concrete (17.55 m. being bitulithic and 13.71 m. Topeka); 11.69 miles with wood block; 5.42 miles with brick. Old macadam pavement is gradually being replaced with more satisfactory and durable kinds, such as bitulithic, concrete, granite block, etc., $5,138,678 having been expended during the past four years in reconstructing and improving 313 miles of streets and parts of streets. Granolithic sidewalks laid in 1921, 97,049 square yards or about 21 miles, averaging 8 feet wide, 50 per cent of cost assessed on estates benefited.

New highway construction completed in period 1918-1921 includes 13 streets in Boston Proper; 34 in Dorchester; 37 in West Roxbury; 14 in Roxbury; 24 in Brighton; 6 in East Boston; 3 in Hyde Park; 4 in South Boston, and 1 in Charlestown, roadway pavement bitulithic, or asphalt surface on concrete, and bituminous macadam. Gross debt outstanding February 1, 1922, for all street construction, including damages, $22,267,141 or $925,700 more than in 1921, this increase due to new loan for Stuart St. construction.

SETTLEMENT OF BOSTON.

Boston was settled in the latter part of August, 1630, by Puritan colonists under Governor John Winthrop. The name of the original settlement was changed to Boston from Trimountaine by order of the Court of Assistants on September 7 (O. S.), 1630. This date was moved forward by the New Style calendar in 1752 to Sept. 17, the recognized date of the founding of Boston. The name, Trimountaine, had been given because of the three peaks of the most prominent hill, afterward called Beacon Hill, much higher then than now. By the Indians the place was called Shawmut. The name, Boston, was derived from the English town of Boston in Lincolnshire, the home of some of the leading colonists and promoters of the enterprise.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, September 8, 1924.

Regular meeting of the City Council, held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at two o'clock p. m., President DONOGHUE in the chair and all the members present.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE MAYOR.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 8, 1924.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen,—Subject to confirmation by your honorable body, I appoint the following named persons Constables of the City of Boston for the term ending April 30, 1924.

Samuel H. Cox, 280 South street, Jamaica Plain.
Maurice P. Flax, 65 Devon street, Roxbury.
Charles A. McCarthy, 101 Bowdoin avenue, Dorchester.
James F. Pierce, 187 Webster street, East Boston.
Joseph Pingaro, 74 Everett street, East Boston.
Frank Skinner, 193 Silver street, South Boston.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.
Laid over under the law.

VETO, BOSTON BUS JITNEY LICENSES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 25, 1924.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen,—I return herewith without my approval the two vetoes of the City Council granting licenses to the Boston Bus Transportation Company to operate jitneys on Centre street and on Weld street, West Roxbury.

In view of the fact that the Boston Elevated Railway Company proposes to operate a bus service serving the same district, with free transfers to the Elevated system, it does not appear to me that the granting of these licenses would in any way improve transportation in the West Roxbury district.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.
Placed on file.

SALARIES OF STREET COMMISSIONERS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 18, 1924.
To the City Council.

The labors of the Street Commissioners have been materially increased in consequence of legislation enacted by the General Court and recommendations of the Boston City Planning Board. The salaries received at the present time by the members of the Street Commission have undergone no change during the past thirty years and I am of the belief that salaries commensurate with responsibilities and labors should be paid by the municipality; and I respectfully recommend the adoption of the accompanying amendment to the Ordinances.

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

An Ordinance Relative to Salaries of Street Commissioners.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

Section 5 of chapter 3 of the Revised Ordinances is hereby amended in the clause establishing the salaries of the Street Commissioners by striking out the words "forty-five hundred" and inserting in place thereof the words "six thousand"; and by striking out the words "four thousand" and inserting in place thereof the words "forty-five hundred," so that said clause will read as follows:

"The street commissioners, the Chairman, six thousand dollars, and the two other commissioners each forty-five hundred dollars."

Referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

TRANSFER FOR BILLINGS FIELD.

The following was received:

City of Boston.

Office of the Mayor, September 8, 1924.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the accompanying communication submitted by the Park Commissioners requesting transfer within the funds of the Park Department and respectfully recommend the adoption of the same.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston.

Park Department, September 8, 1924.

Hon. James M. Curley, Mayor.

Dear Sir,—Your approval is respectfully asked for the transfer of the sum of $1,486.41 from the special appropriation, Park, Washington, Poplar, Ashland and South streets, Roslindale, to the special loan appropriation, Playground Purposes, Billings Field.

The reason for this request is that this balance of $1,486.41 is now no longer needed, as the work for which it was appropriated has been completed, and we are desirous of doing some drainage work at Billings Field which is badly needed; and as this amount is available, it can be used for said purpose.

Respectfully,

JAMES B. SHEA, Chairman.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 261 of the Acts of 1893 the City Auditor be and hereby is authorized to transfer:

From the appropriation for Park, Washington, Poplar, Ashland and South Streets, Roslindale, $1,486.41 to the appropriation for Playground Purposes, Billings Field, $1,486.41. Referred to the Executive Committee.

APPROPRIATION FOR GARVEY PLAYGROUND.

The following was received:

City of Boston.

Office of the Mayor, September 8, 1924.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—The Garvey Playground at Neponset, despite the fact that $16,000 has been expended in the past for grading, is unsuitable for use as a public playground.

More than twelve years ago, as a member of the Board of Aldermen, I secured the adoption of an appropriation in the sum of $10,000 for the filling and grading of this playground and since that time an additional sum of $6,000 has been expended for a like purpose. Apparently it is a problem that only can be solved by a generous expenditure of public money. The completion of the Mayflower Highway skirting the lower end of the playground in a measure assists in the solution of the problem of grading and I accordingly recommend the adoption of the accompanying order providing the sum of $31,000.

It should be possible with an expenditure of this amount to provide 20,000 cubic yards of filling and grading at $1 per yard, 2,000 yards of loam at $2 per yard, drainage in the sum of $2,500, fences and back-stops for $2,500, and a shelter for children at $2,000.

It should be possible to complete this work by the early spring and at some time in the latter part of 1925 provide the necessary money for a suitable sanitary and locker building.

Trusting that the Council will aid in solving the question of improved playground facilities for the Neponset section of Boston, I respectfully recommend adoption of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That the sum of $31,000 be and hereby is appropriated to be expended by the Park Commissioners for William H. Garvey Playground improvements, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be and hereby is authorized to issue, from time to time, on the request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston to said amount.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

MONEY FOR ELEVATOR INSPECTORS.

The following was received:

City of Boston.

Office of the Mayor, September 8, 1924.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Under the provisions of chapter 332 of the Acts of 1924, the City of Boston is required to appoint special night elevator inspectors and I respectfully recommend the adoption of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 261 of the Acts of 1893, the City Auditor be and hereby is authorized to transfer:

From the appropriation for Reserve Fund, $1,000, to the appropriation for Building Department, A-2, Temporary Employees, $1,000.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

APPROPRIATION FOR WATER DIVISION.

The following was received:

City of Boston.

Office of the Mayor, September 8, 1924.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—The Water Division of the Public Works Department requires $126,000 additional for the conduct of departmental activities and I respectfully recommend the adoption of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Public Works Department, September 5, 1924. To the Honorable the Mayor of Boston.

On August 1, 1924, the water revenue received for the first six months of this fiscal year was $2,063,507.11, as compared with $1,947,181.91 for the corresponding period of 1923, and there appears to be no question but that the total collection for the year will equal if not exceed the total receipts of 1923, namely, $3,910,000.

The Water Division budget as submitted called for $1,571,39.66; the amount allowed was $1,452,752, a cut of $19,000, with the intimation that a supplementary budget could be presented in the fall, after a knowledge of the receipts for six months were at hand, etc.

The financial obligations of the Water Division are:

Appropriation as approved.....	$1,452,752.32
Service mains and relaying mains.....	175,000.00
High Pressure Fire System extension.....	175,000.00
Hyde Park water debt.....	16,000.00
City Collector.....	56,858.12
Interest.....	24,680.00
Metropolitan assessment.....	1,829,973.63
	$3,730,264.07

In order to continue work for the remainder of this year it is essential that additional amounts be requested from Water Revenue as follows:

From the appropriation for Water Revenue, $126,000, to the appropriation for B-28, Expert and Architect, $3,000; B-39, General Plant, $10,000; C-4, Motor Vehicles, $4,000; C-13, Tools and Instruments, $7,000; D-1, Office Supplies, $2,000; E-6, Water Materials, $50,000; F-2, Damages, $25,000; Service Mains, $25,000; $126,000.

REASONS FOR ABOVE TRANSFERS.

B-28. The Law Department is using experts this year more frequently than in past years. In the opinion of the Corporation Counsel we will need $3,000 in addition to the $300 in the budget.

B-39. Estimated $90,000. Allowed $70,000. The program for year was very closely figured and if it is the intention to continue the emergency maintenance work which has been very heavy due to permanent street pavements, an additional $10,000 must be obtained.

C-4. Some of the oldest Ford trucks which we thought would go through this year have fallen to pieces and must be replaced immediately. Having discarded our horses and teams, the autos must be replaced in order to execute the work of the division.

C-13. The number of 4-inch, 6-inch and 8-inch service pipes applied for to date and which must be metered, under the legislative act, have increased greatly over past years. The purchase of the large size meters which must be set at the time the pipes are installed will call for an additional $7,000.

D-1. The original estimate of $10,500 was accurately figured and the payments to date show that expenditures will call for $2,000 more than the $8,500 allowed in the budget.

E-6. The quantity of work done to date has made a heavy drain on our stock and in addition the delivery of materials under the contract has been complied with much more than in past years. Additional contracts will have to be advertised for various styles of castings, etc., and undoubtedly complete deliveries under these will be made this year. At least an additional $50,000 will be needed to meet the work demands.

F-2. To date we have unpaid court executions and claims awarded amounting to $15,000. If the same ratio continues we will require $25,000.

Service Mains. Contracts for pipe extensions, etc., awarded to date practically absorbs the $175,000 allowed. To meet petitions for pipe extension which are now in and which will come in for the next two months will call for an additional $25,000.

Very respectfully,

E. F. MURPHY,

Acting Commissioner of Public Works.

Ordered, That to meet the current expenses payable during the financial year, beginning with the first day of February, 1924, the sum of $126,000 be and the same hereby is appropriated from the income of Water Service, Public Works Department, as follows:

B-28, Expert and Architect.....	$3,000
B-39, General Plant.....	10,000
C-4, Motor Vehicles.....	4,000
C-13, Tools and Instruments.....	7,000
D-1, Office.....	2,000
E-6, Water.....	50,000
F-2, Damages.....	25,000

$101,000

Service mains and relaying mains.....$25,000
Referred to the Executive Committee.

MONEY FOR TELEPHONE INVESTIGATION.

The following was received:

City of Boston.

Office of the Mayor, September 8, 1924.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—The City of Boston, with a view to preventing the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company from charging exorbitant rates for service rendered, filed with the Public Utilities Commission of the Commonwealth notice of intention to contest the rates sought by the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The City Council, at a recent meeting, appropriated $5,000 for the conduct of an investigation and for the presentation of the case. The Corporation Counsel now finds that it may require at least $15,000 additional to secure the necessary evidence and to properly conduct the case in behalf of the municipality. This is a character of service that no city or town in the Commonwealth would be required to undertake provided the Public Utilities Commission really represented both parties to the controversy, namely, the people of the Commonwealth and the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The decision, however, of the Public Utilities Commission to permit the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company to increase its rate to subscribers while the investigation was pending is ample proof that the Public Utilities Commission is not only friendly disposed to this public service corporation but is absolutely hostile to the interests of the subscribers.

In order that the public may secure some measure of protection I recommend the adoption of the accompanying order providing an additional sum in the amount of $15,000 for the conduct of this case.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That a sum not exceeding $15,000 be authorized to be expended by the Corporation Counsel for the purpose of meeting charges and expenses for expert and stenographic services, and other necessary and proper expenditures in connection with the telephone investigation of rates and the petition filed by his Honor the Mayor, and the appeal filed by the Board of Assessors with the State Board of Appeal in connection with the valuation of the Telephone Company's underground conduits, wires, etc., in the city of Boston, said amount to be charged to the Reserve Fund.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

PRINTING OF PLANNING BOARD SYNOPSIS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, Boston, August 19, 1924.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—The City Planning Board has had prepared a very valuable synopsis of the various reports and pamphlets relating to the commercial and industrial development of Boston. This is in typewritten form and the matter contained therein appears to be of such value that it should be printed for distribution as a city document. I accordingly recommend the passage of the accompanying order.

Respectfully yours,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That the City Planning Board is hereby authorized to have printed an edition of 1,500 copies of "A Compendium of Reports and Studies Relating to the Commerce and Industries of Boston," 100 copies of same to be retained by the Printing Department for binding in connection with city documents, 300 copies to be delivered to the City Messenger for distribution, and 1,100 copies to be distributed under the direction of the City Planning Board, the expense to be charged to the appropriation for City Documents.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

Approved and ordered paid.

KNEELAND STREET LOAN.

Coun. WATSON.—Mr. President, in accordance with the notice filed by me with the City Clerk on August 25, 1924, I now move reconsideration of the vote taken at the meeting of the City Council on August 25, 1924, whereby the order for a loan of $1,200 for the widening of Kneeland street failed of passage.

The question came on the motion to reconsider.

Coun. BRICKLEY.—Mr. President, before voting on this, I would like to know the status after this vote is taken, which way the order stands on reconsideration,—whether it passes or not?

President DONOGHUE.—If the motion to reconsider prevails, the action whereby the order was defeated on August 25th is wiped out and the matter is before the Council for action.

The motion to reconsider was carried, yeas 6, nays 3.

Yeas—Coun. Brickley, Healey, Lane, Moriarty, Purcell, Watson—6.

Nays—Coun. Donoghue, Gilbody, Walsh—3.

The order for a loan of $1,200,000 for the widening of Kneeland street was read a second time and again passed, yeas 6, nays 3.

Yeas—Coun. Brickley, Healey, Lane, Moriarty, Purcell, Watson—6.

Nays—Coun. Donoghue, Gilbody, Walsh—3.

SIDEWALK, LEONARD STREET.

Coun. GILBODY offered an order—That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Leonard street, Dorchester, from Duncan street to Clayton street, Ward 18, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone with granite edgestones under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under a suspension of the rule.

RECESS TAKEN.

The Council voted, on motion of Coun. WALSH, at 2.40 o'clock p. m., to take a recess subject to the call of the President.

The members reassembled in the Chamber and were called to order by the President at 3.25 o'clock p. m.

INDORSEMENT OF MAYOR, TELEPHONE RATES.

Coun. WATSON offered the following:

Resolved, That the City Council unqualifiedly approves of and indorses the efforts of Mayor Curley before the Public Utilities Commission to compel the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company to produce data which may show that the increased rates granted to the said company are unwarranted, and further indorse any effort that his Honor the Mayor may take tending to reduce telephone charges to the public.

Ordered, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the City Clerk to the Public Utilities Commission or any other tribunal empowered to act in the matter.

The resolution was adopted.

NAME TO BE PLACED ON SOLDIERS' RELIEF ROLL.

President DONOGHUE offered an order—That the name of Robert Jones be placed on the pay roll of the Soldiers' Relief Department at $45 per month.

The question came on the suspension of the rules and the passage of the order.

Coun. WALSH in the chair.

Coun. DONOGHUE.—Mr. Chairman, I do not want to make any extended remarks relative to this particular case, but I feel that not very good judgment has been used by the Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief when he refuses, or has refused, at the present time, to place on the pay roll the name of Robert Jones, who holds two honorable discharges from the United States Government.

There have been some alibis offered because of some escapade which happened when this man was merely a boy, way back in 1898—that he, at that time, jumped out of the navy; but subsequent to this, or, rather, in 1900; he re-enlisted in the United States Army from which he has received an honorable discharge, and later, in 1910, he again enlisted in the United States Navy and again received an honorable discharge.

Now I feel that while there may be some who would wish to construe the law relative to veterans receiving compensation from the city, that, because of his first offence, which was committed in this man's teens, he must forever be deprived of soldiers' relief, still I feel that the average citizen of Boston, knowing that this man later, when he re-enlisted twice, and was discharged honorably from the United States Government, will think that he more than made up for his escapade in 1898. I do not believe that these laws, which were placed on the statute books for the benefit of veterans, should be construed literally so as to give the veterans the worst of it. I believe that they should be interpreted by those who have authority to interpret them in a way to give the veterans preference. That is what they are considered—veterans' preference acts; and I feel that this man is entitled, now that he is unable to work or help himself, to some relief from our city, and I feel that the great bulk of our citizenry will uphold my stand in this particular matter.

I think that it is going a little too far backward to say that, because of something which happened way back in 1898, that must be forever held against this individual, because of the fact that he has shown that he believed in the principles of our Government when he re-enlisted, to wipe out that old stain, on two different occasions; and, when the United States Government again took him into its service, in 1900 and in 1910, I feel that it thought, and that it thinks today, that by those enlistments he wiped out what preceded it. I think that our city while, if the law is literally interpreted, might not be compelled to pay soldiers' relief to this individual, who is unable physically now to help himself, is at least morally bound to contribute now in his hour of need.

I hope that this order will go upon its passage, and I hope that the Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief will interpret this order in the spirit in which it is offered—in the spirit of doing something for a veteran of these United States, and I hope that this name will be added to the Soldiers' Relief pay roll so that now this man, who is unable to take care of himself, may receive some relief from the citizenry of Boston who have always been fair, and more than fair, to the veterans of both the army and the navy.

Coun. WATSON—Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask the counselor who has just spoken (Coun. Donoghue) whether this individual to whom he refers has made application to the United States Government authorities, and, further, if it would not be well for us to refer it to a committee and give us a chance to inquire into it? I do not know the fact, though I will take your word for it.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Mr. Chairman, I do not know just what has been done in so far as making any application to the United States Government in connection with this case is concerned. All I know is that he is making application to us, to this City of Boston for relief from the Soldiers' Relief Department, and that is what we have the Soldiers' Relief Department, for, in my opinion,—to take care of veterans, and particularly to take care of those veterans who need care.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. Chairman, I agree with practically everything that the last speaker (Coun. Donoghue) has said; but, supposing that we do vote, the nine members, instructing the commissioner to put this man upon the list, does that mean that he is going to get any money?

Coun. DONOGHUE—Mr. Chairman, my understanding of the law in connection with this proposition is that the Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief has the authority to place his name on the pay roll, and that this Council has the authority to say what amount of money he shall receive, not alone in this case but in the case of every veteran on that pay roll.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. Chairman, as I understand that, it means, then, that his name is not on the list at the present time, and if the commissioner decides that his name is not going on the list this vote we will pass here today, as I assume we will pass it in the affirmative with nine votes, will not aid toward the help of that soldier. Of course, I am not a lawyer, but as I understand the interpretation of the law, as handed down by the Corporation Counsel, it is that the commissioner has the right to place his name on the list and that all that the Committee on Soldiers' Relief has the right to do is to regulate what he shall receive. That is the interpretation of the Law Department. Whether the interpretation is wrong or right, there isn't anybody here, in my estimation, who is going to go to the courts and fight it. Whether the Legion will take it upon themselves to go and fight it is a question, but I feel that, maybe, there might be an easier way. I feel that in so far as we are concerned Mr. Kelly is the acting commissioner in the absence of the commissioner. Why wouldn't it be well to call Mr. Kelly down and see if we cannot get an agreement from him to put the name upon the list, and, if we cannot get it upon the list, then pass this action, it may be, more in protest to give the soldiers the right to go and find out whether the interpretation handed down by the Corporation Counsel is right. And, Mr. Chairman, before I sit down, I am going to request that the Acting Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief be sent for to see if we cannot get him to put this soldier's name on the list.

Chairman WALSH directed the City Messenger to request Acting Commissioner Kelly to appear before the Council.

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. Chairman, I would like to inform the body that, as chairman of the Committee on Soldiers' Relief, I called a meeting, and at that meeting we had Assistant Corporation Counsel Lyons and the Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief, and we discussed this case particularly, and, while the decision was made that there was no legal claim by this man for aid from the Soldiers' Relief Department, possibly the Committee on Soldiers' Relief could view it morally and pay the man. I do not know whether Mr. Kelly is going to be conversant with that situation or not, and I would like to have the members of the Council bear that in mind when he comes. I just want to enlighten the body with this information, because the committee has sat and heard the case.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. Chairman, if we cannot get him on the list it may be that the counselor who introduced the order (Coun. Donoghue) might be satisfied if the acting commissioner would give him a temporary loan until the commissioner returned. Would that accomplish his purpose?

Coun. DONOGHUE—Mr. Chairman, I just want to say in connection with this case that I have been interested in it for probably two months. I have been trying to get some action in the easiest way, and without any publicity, to try to get the Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief to take care of this case, but up to the present time nothing has been done in any way to alleviate the condition in which this man is now. Those who are acquainted with conditions today know that it is hard enough for those of us who are physically able and well to get by. It is impossible for a man who is physically disabled to even exist, and that is the condition that this man has been placed in for at least two months, without any definite action being taken.

I introduced this order today only as a last resort. I introduced it hoping that this Council will pass it, hoping that the Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief will see the wisdom of placing this man on the pay roll. Simply because the Finance Commission is investigating the Soldiers' Relief Department and picking out names here and there which they say are not qualified to receive, or should not receive, soldiers' relief from the Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief, does not have any bearing or importance. I feel that we are better qualified to state who is entitled to soldiers' relief than any member of the Finance Commission, and I think that the Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief should stand up and make his own decisions in these cases regardless of what the Finance Commission think.

I want to get relief for this man if possible. That was my only object in introducing this order. I do not care how he gets it, but I feel it is of interest to every veteran in this city of ours to find out definitely just where he stands in this matter. The veterans do not know very much about it. They have to go to the Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief, in very many instances, practically as mendicants, with their hats in their hands, begging for the relief that is theirs, that is supposed to be given to them as honorable soldiers of this Government. There is no begging and no mendicancy connected with it in any way. It is theirs, it is provided by us for them, and I feel that it is very near time that those who are in charge of legislation for soldiers investigated the conditions in connection with this department and see to it that the soldiers and sailors of the United States are given that which belongs to them, and, if this man is entitled to relief, there isn't any reason why he should not receive it, and I would like to get some definite action on it.

The City Messenger returned to the Council Chamber with Acting Commissioner Timothy Kelly.

Chairman WALSH—Mr. Kelly, the Council would like to get some information from you.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. Chairman, I would like to have the order read, and then Mr. Kelly can say something on it.

The Clerk read the order.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask Mr. Kelly a question. Mr. Kelly, realizing the position you are in as acting commissioner—at least I expect you are acting commissioner. Are you, Mr. Kelly?

Commissioner KELLY—I have certain powers up there. I am not officially designated as acting commissioner.

Coun. MORIARTY—I thought they did designate someone in the absence of the commissioner.

Commissioner KELLY—They do.

Coun. MORIARTY—And they have not this time?

Commissioner KELLY—I prefer to answer that question privately.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. Chairman, I would rather have it on the record now. I want to know if heads of departments leave the city without designating someone to act in their places.

Commissioner KELLY—Doctor Watkeys is the one that is officially acting; that is, he is named as acting officially.

Coun. MORIARTY—I think we ought to have Doctor Watkeys.

Coun. HEALEY—Well, Mr. Chairman, perhaps Mr. Kelly from his business in that department, may know more about this particular case than Doctor Watkeys. As I know Doctor Watkeys up there, he would be unlikely to have anything to do with it—would he not?

Commissioner KELLY—He would not have anything to do with it.

Coun. WATSON in the chair.

Chairman WATSON—Mr. Kelly, are you authorized by the head of the department to appear in this matter?

Commissioner KELLY—The head is away.

Chairman WATSON—Are you authorized by the head to appear in this matter?

Commissioner KELLY—No.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. Chairman, I think that maybe it is my mistake, and I think maybe that I have put Mr. Kelly in this position. I thought that Mr. Kelly was the acting commissioner, and that is why I asked to have Mr. Kelly come up here. I do not want to put Mr. Kelly in any embarrassing position, or anybody else. I think, maybe, Mr. Kelly might stay here, and, if Doctor Watkeys is in, that we have Doctor Watkeys come down.

Commissioner KELLY—If I am permitted, I might say that I put them on the rolls in the absence of the commissioner; I am the one that has that power designated by the commissioner.

Coun. MORIARTY—Would you have power to put a man on the list who has already been turned down by the commissioner?

Commissioner KELLY—I should consider it my duty to consult the commissioner.

Chairman WATSON—The acting commissioner?

Commissioner KELLY—No, the commissioner.

Chairman WATSON—Well, let me understand you, Mr. Kelly. (To Coun. Moriarty.) May I interrupt you a moment?

Coun. MORIARTY—Yes.

Chairman WATSON—Do I understand, Mr. Kelly, that Doctor Watkeys is left in charge of the department?

Commissioner KELLY—That is—

Chairman WATSON—Wait a moment. If you pass upon any matter, you want the approval of the commissioner, who is away, before you do it?

Commissioner KELLY—No, the ordinary things I pass on nobody approves in the absence of the commissioner.

Chairman WATSON—Do I understand that Doctor Watkeys is empowered as Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief with all the powers which the commissioner has, or with limited powers?

Commissioner KELLY—Officially he is designated as acting Commissioner in the absence of the commissioner.

Chairman WATSON—He has full authority; whatever he does is just the same as though the commissioner had done it?

Commissioner KELLY—Exactly.

Chairman WATSON—All right.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. Chairman, I think we ought to have Doctor Watkeys.

Chairman WATSON—The City Messenger will go for Doctor Watkeys and we will ask Mr. Kelly to remain.

The City Messenger left the Council Chamber and soon returned with Dr. Frederick Watkeys, acting commissioner.

Chairman WATSON—Doctor Watkeys, kindly take the stand or the chair—whichever you prefer. Gentlemen, Doctor Watkeys is present.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, I am going to make the same request, that the order be read, so that Doctor Watkeys may know what we are considering.

The Clerk read the order.

Chairman WATSON—Is there any question of Doctor Watkeys, the Acting Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief, with full power at the present time?

Coun. DONOGHUE—Mr. President, may I ask him a question? Doctor Watkeys, I have introduced this order relative to placing the name of Robert Jones on the Soldiers' Relief pay roll. I introduced it, despite any talks or rumors to the contrary, firmly convinced that this Council has the authority to place the name of a soldier on the Soldiers' Relief pay roll and to state what sum he shall receive. I have never seen any official opinion rendered by the Law Department or anyone else relative to this particular matter, and I am of the opinion now that we have the authority to do this—to put this name on the Soldiers' Relief pay roll. In the absence of the commissioner, and of course without trying to place you in any embarrassing position as acting commissioner, I would like to ask you if you have authority to place this man on the pay roll temporarily until the commissioner returns, or to give this man temporary relief until such time as the Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief returns.

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Well, all I can say, Councilor Donoghue, is that the case, under the law, is one where the man was not honorably discharged.

Chairman WATSON—One moment, please. There are certain facts connected with this matter which might be detrimental to Mr. Jones, and I would request Doctor Watkeys not to state anything which might be injurious to the gentleman.

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—No, I will withdraw that. I will say that the record is such that the commissioner did not feel he could allow it.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Mr. Chairman, I think that we ought to have this case threshed out. It leaves an insinuation, when the acting commissioner said that there are certain things connected with this case which should not be discussed, that is detrimental to Mr. Jones' case, from my viewpoint. I do not know of anything in this case other than what I have stated that is of such a detrimental nature that it would prohibit him from being placed on the pay roll, and I am perfectly willing to have the doctor tell the Council whatever he knows in connection with this case.

Chairman WATSON—I would like to state that, if what I have been told concerning this gentleman is true, Councilor Donoghue might not want it brought out; but as his friend I have no authority to stop the doctor from stating that which he wishes. I only suggest that it might be well not to state it.

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—I will simply say, Councilor Donoghue, that the commissioner considered the case fully, and he could not see, under the law, how he could allow Mr. Jones any aid.

Chairman WATSON—Talk a little louder, please.

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Commissioner Dunn considered the case fully, and he decided that, under the law, he could not put Mr. Jones' name on the pay roll. That is all I can say.

Coun. HEALEY—Do you want to say what particular part of the law?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Well, in relation to his service record.

Coun. HEALEY—This law provides that a man, in order to get soldiers' relief, must have had an honorable discharge from all branches of service of the United States?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Yes; during war service particularly.

Coun. HEALEY—He did get an honorable discharge from the war service?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—There is a question about that.

Chairman WATSON—That is just the point I thought might not be made public.

Coun. MORIARTY—Without going into the fact and without putting the responsibility on you as acting commissioner, isn't it possible that you could give this man temporary aid until the return of the commissioner, at the suggestion of the Council?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—I presume that could be done, Councilor Moriarty. He has been on, you know, for some time, and the Commissioner dropped him from the pay roll after investigation.

Coun. MORIARTY—If we allow this thing to remain in here, is it possible that you could give him a month's pay, until the commissioner returns, and allow the Council to take it up with the commissioner? Could you do that for the Council, at the request of the Council?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Well, Councilor Moriarty, I do not know how that would work out. The soldiers' relief law is the thing which holds the commissioner on that point. It says what you shall do and what you shall not do.

Coun. MORIARTY—He was on the list?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—He was on the list until the commissioner made investigation and found he was not eligible, and he dropped him.

Coun. MORIARTY—During the time when he was making investigation didn't he keep him on the list?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Yes, he was on the list for several months.

Coun. MORIARTY—So, so far as his information went, he was violating the law in keeping him on—in a sense, now, I am talking. Don't they usually, doctor, when anybody makes application, and before they go on the list, make investigation?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Yes.

Coun. MORIARTY—Well, when this man did apply they did make an investigation.

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Yes, they made an investigation.

Coun. MORIARTY—And they found out by their investigation that he was entitled to soldiers' relief?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Well, I think the commissioner gave him the benefit of the doubt, Councilor Moriarty, until the thing was investigated.

Coun. MORIARTY—So, if the commissioner has the right to give him the benefit of the doubt, you as acting commissioner have the same—

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Whatever information—

Coun. MORIARTY—Wait a minute. That is what we want to go into—his information—and we want to go into it with the man who has taken it up; we want to go into it with the commissioner; but we do not want this man to suffer while he is waiting in the absence of the commissioner. If the commissioner was in Boston, we would have him here. Now, with an agreement between you, as the acting head of the department, and all members of the Council, couldn't you give him the designated amount of temporary relief until the commissioner comes back? I do not think that anybody could kick against that. If the Finance Commission do, then I am with you stronger than I ever was.

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Well, that puts me in the position, Councilor Moriarty, of reversing—

Councilor MORIARTY—No.

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—The decision of the commissioner, who has made the decision that Mr. Jones is not eligible, and why should I put him on?

Coun. MORIARTY—We are not asking you to put him on the list; we are asking you to give him temporary relief, and we will take up the question of putting him on the list with the commissioner when he returns.

Chairman WATSON—How much do you think he ought to get?

Coun. MORIARTY—Why, I think he ought to get $45.

Chairman WATSON—We have given some very worthy cases $15.

Coun. MORIARTY—I don't know. I am satisfied. Coun. Donoghue is the one who brought this matter up. I would like to have the doctor answer my question,—if they would give him temporary relief, the amount to be agreed upon between Councilor Donoghue and yourself, until the commissioner comes back?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—I do not think I would have authority to do it, Councilor Moriarty, the case having once been decided by the commissioner. On the record that has been found, that is supposed to settle the question of eligibility to any aid from our department.

Coun. MORIARTY—That isn't so, is it?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—That is what the finding of the commissioner was.

Coun. MORIARTY—I know, but any finding of the commissioner is not final, is it?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Why, as an absolute statement from the Law Department,—

Coun. BRICKLEY—Mr. Chairman, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

Chairman WATSON—Doctor Watkeys, Councilor Moriarty asked you a question. Did you answer it?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Yes.

Coun. BRICKLEY—Mr. Chairman, I do not know much about this case, but I think it is rather an unfit place to fight it out.

Chairman WATSON—Councilor Brickley, won't you kindly ask a question?

Coun. BRICKLEY—Mr. Chairman, I am not asking any questions. I am speaking to the Council. I think that the Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief knows what a soldier and what a sailor is, and what each word designates and what it means, and I think when outsiders interfere in the functioning of an office they know nothing about it is about time that it ceased. I am sick and tired of hearing about disabled soldiers and disabled sailors being kicked into the street. It is only within two weeks that disabled veterans of the United States were on the road to Atlanta. I think that this should be closed up because it is not the place to fight it out.

A veteran is a veteran, and he is a veteran whether he was in the army or in the navy an hour or five years, and I think that all this stuff should be heard behind closed doors. This question of desertion in time of war is a very serious thing.

Chairman WATSON—Councilor Brickley will kindly refrain from personal statements.

Coun. BRICKLEY—I am speaking on a question of personal privilege, Mr. Chairman. I think these things should all be fought out behind closed doors. I do not believe this man's name should come out, or that these things should come out. I think these things should stay right here, be heard in private session, and let us have it out there. I do not believe this is any place for it.

Chairman WATSON—Is there any further question of Doctor Watkeys.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Mr. Chairman, as the one who introduced this order, I want to say that such publicity as has been given it has been only because of the fact that I have been unable to get any assistance for this veteran behind closed doors. I understand that the Committee on Soldiers' Relief made its recommendation to the Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief and that he, according to my information, practically agreed to place this man on the pay roll, and he has not been placed on there. Now there isn't any other way that I know of to thresh this matter out except to bring it in here, because I am of the opinion that this Council has the authority to do this thing despite the wishes of the commissioner. Regardless of what the commissioner decides, it is my contention that this Council has the right to place this man on that pay roll, and that is the reason why I bring it in here. I believe in fighting for my friends all the way. I believe in using the best judgment that I can in making that contest for their interests, and I think that I have done everything that any person would expect me to do in connection with this case previous to bringing it in here.

Now the situation is that this man has been disabled for some years, physically incapacitated so that he has been unable to work, and he has been on the Soldiers' Relief pay roll, not for weeks or days, but for months and months, and it was only after a question was raised by the Finance Commission that he was removed from the Soldiers' Relief pay roll, and that is what I object to. I object to the dictation of the Finance Commissioner to the Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief. This case was decided by the present Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief in Mr. Jones' favor, and he was placed on the pay roll. Then when they started investigating the department, the commissioner reversed his previous decision. Now we have two decisions, first, that he was eligible to relief, and, second, that he was not.

I think that the proposition which has been put up to the acting commissioner will take care of this man until such time as the Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief returns, and is a positively fair one. It is an appeal from the decision of the Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief in this case, and Councilor Moriarty asks, and I support him in it, that this case be handled as an appealed case. I think that the present acting commissioner has full authority to give temporary relief to this man until it is finally and definitely decided as to whether or not he should be placed on the pay roll.

Chairman WATSON—I do not propose to make any speech, but I want to recite an experience I had. First of all, no man appeals to the Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief any more frequently than I, and I have always received pretty fair treatment from him. Recently, I went up with a man for Representative Hearn, and prevailed upon Commissioner Dunn and Mr. Kelly, acting with him, to give $15 to one man and get him a job. They got him his job and the money was going to his wife. He said his wife could not come over because she hadn't any shoes, and they gave him the $15. The man has jumped out and he did not take the job offered to him. Now I want to site that as an occasion where I was imposed upon. It is so in many cases, as Councilor Brickley knows.

Coun. HEALEY—Mr. Commissioner, to get you out of the embarrassment, if this $45 order be passed you will have to put him on the list, won't you? Then you are not embarrassed.

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Well, it is a rather delicate matter to decide, Councilor Healey.

Coun. HEALEY—That is the law, isn't it,—if the Council specifies the amount?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—But the fundamental principle of the Soldiers' Relief law is that, first, a man must qualify when he is discharged, and the commissioner investigated that and found a certain condition. Now, as that stands—

Coun. HEALEY—That would take you out of the embarrassment if we passed this order?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—If you say so it might be so.

Coun. BRICKLEY—Mr. Chairman, may I ask the acting commissioner if the state aid has functioned on this case?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Well, soldiers' relief.

Coun. BRICKLEY—I think at this time it would be the proper thing for us to look into this case. First, I believe in giving the veteran everything we can. I think the only way to do is to go behind closed doors with this case, sit down with the commissioner and thresh it out with him. I do not believe it is right to bring this record out. I do not believe we know the facts of the case, and they do, and they do not want to tell us, and the only way to do is to thresh it out. I think Councilor Healey's suggestion whereby we can vote him the money is right. I think he is right; I think we have that power, but I do not believe it is right to thresh that out here.

Coun. MORIARTY—Doctor Watkeys, if we vote him the money will you pay him?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—By vote of the Council, I suppose I will have to obey that, certainly.

Coun. MORIARTY—That is satisfactory to me, as long as he gets the money. That will be the understanding as far as you are concerned,—that, if we pass it, he will get the money?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—That is right. I do not see how I could say anything against that if the Council ordered me to do it.

Coun. BRICKLEY—Will the auditor recognize it?

Coun. MORIARTY—He will recognize any order of the Council.

Coun. BRICKLEY—He may have to pay it out of his own pocket, at that rate.

Coun. MORIARTY—Who,—the commissioner? Coun. BRICKLEY—Yes.

Coun. HEALEY—Of course, this will be a good test case now. There is some quibble in the law as to whether we have a right to specify.

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—I think it all comes down to a question of law.

Coun. HEALEY—Rather than embarrass you, let us put the law right up to the proper tribunal.

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Of course, Councilor Moriarty and you or anybody else would perhaps believe that I had an objection to Mr. Jones.

Coun. HEALEY—No, no. We can understand your situation all right.

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—But I think that it goes back to the fundamental principle of the soldiers' relief law, which says that a man in order to be eligible must qualify in a certain manner, and we have put in exhaustive research on that, and we found that, under the law, he was not eligible. That is all I can say.

Coun. HEALEY—There are a lot of interpretations in that matter, and it shows that it is a very wide-open act. I think that will take the embarrassment away from you, and, if they do decide to fight it, well and good—it is settled as far as you are concerned.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Mr. Chairman, I want to say that I do not want to place anybody in an embarrassing position, whether it is the Acting Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief or the commissioner himself; but there is only one way in which this thing can be determined. Certain definite steps have been taken. I introduced this order hoping that it would prove that my contention in the matter is right, and that this Council has the authority to do this thing, and, if we have that authority, I think we should exercise it in cases such as these that come before us. I do not believe in threshing these matters out in public except as a last resort. They should be handled by the Committee on Soldiers' Relief. That has been done in this case and the committee has been unanimous in their opinion that this man is worthy of soldiers' relief, and they have so voiced their opinion to the acting commissioner. Now I have no desire whatever to put anyone in an embarrassing position, but I feel that in trying to accomplish something sometimes you must go contrary to the opinions of others, and if I think I am right I am going to voice my opinion regardless of whose opinion I run contrary to. So in this case my opinion may not jibe with the opinion of others, but, nevertheless, until it has been proven to me that I am wrong, I am going to continue to fight along the lines I have been fighting on, with the firm conviction that I am right, and when I think I am right I am going to go through.

Chairman WATSON—Doctor Watkeys is excused with the thanks of the Council.

Coun. HEALEY—Just a minute, Mr. Chairman. Would it be satisfactory to the Council to have this wait over until Monday, as I understand Colonel Dunn will be back by next Monday. That is true, is it not, Doctor Watkeys?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—I believe not, Councilor Healey. I think he is not due back until later than that.

Coun. HEALEY—Later than that?

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—I understand so.

Coun. HEALEY—I understood from Mr. Kelly that he would be back within three or four days.

Acting Commissioner WATKEYS—Why, possibly, but that was not my understanding. Mr. Kelly will perhaps know more about that than I would.

Chairman WATSON—Doctor Watkeys is excused with the thanks of the Council.

The question came on suspension of the rules and passage of the order, and the order was passed.

LEASING OF CITY LAND, ATLANTIC AVENUE.

Coun. HEALEY called up No. 2, unfinished business, viz.:

2. Order authorizing a lease to the Middlesex Trust of land on Atlantic avenue.

Coun. HEALEY—Mr. Chairman, I am calling up No. 2 on the calendar, and I will ask the Clerk to read a communication which he has in his hand.

The Clerk read a communication from the trustees of the Harbor Trust, as follows:

Milton C. Burton, Real Estate,
141 Milk Street,
Harbor Trust.
Boston, August 20, 1924.

Gentlemen,—As trustee of the Harbor Trust it is understood and agreed that the Trust is to erect a building of one or more stories high on land to be leased by the City of Boston to the Harbor Trust, located at 440 Atlantic avenue and fronting the Receiving Station, for the purpose of abating the nuisance caused by wind-scattered debris, and for the additional purpose of covering and hiding from public view a most unsightly structure.

All of which guarantees the construction of a manufacturing and office building having a floor area of 450,000 square feet, the largest of its kind in New England, and to cost in excess of $2,500,000, on the adjoining land of the Harbor Trust at 470 Atlantic avenue; final action being now dependent upon your approval of this lease.

Expressing our appreciation of your prompt approval.

Yours very truly,
MILTON C. BURTON,
SAMUEL ELIOT,
Trustees Harbor Trust.

Coun. HEALEY—Mr. Chairman, that is a letter which came in answer to the request of the Council to state that, if they leased this land, they intended to erect a two million and a half dollar building on the property adjoining, and, while it is not as explicit as it might be, it is an advance, and I think the Council will do well to hold them to their word, and I presume that their honor is sufficient, and that they will go through as they say in the communication.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. Chairman, I want to say that I am not satisfied with the letter. I cannot imagine the last speaker (Coun. Healey) being satisfied, as I understood it was he that asked for a letter stating that certain things would happen. I feel that before we make any agreement like this we ought at least to have a representative of the Law Department here. I think such a representative ought to be here so that we may ask him some questions in regard to this project and see whether the agreement entered into between the two parties, the City of Boston and this Trust, is worth the words in which it is written, and I want to say that, before I am prepared to vote, I desire the Law Department represented here so that I may talk with them.

Coun. LANE—Mr. Chairman, I rise to a point of information. This letter which was written speaks about the "Harbor Trust." Item No. 2 on the calendar concerns the Middlesex Trust. Is that the same thing? It has different trustees.

Chairman WATSON—To be frank, I do not know. Mr. Burton, I believe, is here, and perhaps he can explain. If there is no objection, I will ask Mr. Burton to explain.

Mr. MILTON C. BURTON—Mr. Chairman, the Middlesex Trust is the former trust holding this land which is selling to the Harbor Trust, and this lease is being made with the Middlesex Trust as being an existing corporation today, and upon completion of the lease it will be transferred to the Harbor Trust.

Coun. HEALEY—Who intends to build the building?

Mr. BURTON—The Harbor Trust, who are also the stockholders of the Middlesex Trust.

Coun. HEALEY—And I presume it is the agreement that, in the event of the purchase of their land going through, they will construct the building for two and a half million and will construct a building of one or two stories on the land adjoining?

Mr. BURTON—That is correct.

Coun. HEALEY—So that the lease goes to the Middlesex Trust but the Harbor Trust agrees to fulfill the conditions of the Middlesex Trust?

Mr. BURTON—Yes.

Coun. HEALEY—And I suppose that contract is already signed, you might say, and pledged between the Harbor Trust and the Middlesex Trust?

Mr. BURTON—Yes. The Law Department says the lease will have to go first to the Middlesex Trust on account of its being in existence today legally, and the Middlesex Trust is later to transfer its property and lease to the Harbor Trust which the Harbor Trust carries out.

Coun. MORIARTY—How do we know they are in position to carry it out?

Mr. BURTON—In what respect do you mean?

Coun. MORIARTY—In any respect.

Mr. BURTON—Well, the men behind it indicate that.

Coun. MORIARTY—The men don't indicate anything to me.

Mr. BURTON—Well, Councilor Moriarty, we would not come here and go to the trouble of wanting to put up a building costing two million and a half dollars and waste that time.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. Burton, as I understand—

Chairman WATSON—Had you finished, Mr. Burton, your statement?

Mr. BURTON—Yes, sir.

Chairman WATSON—Councilor Moriarty.

Coun. MORIARTY—We have here on the calendar an order to lease to the Middlesex Trust, and here we have a letter on the stationery of Milton C. Burton, Real Estate, 141 Milk street, and it is signed by the trustees of the Harbor Trust.

Mr. BURTON—Well, Samuel Eliot is also a trustee of the Middlesex Trust.

Coun. MORIARTY—I know, but Mr. Samuel Eliot can sign his name for the Middlesex Trust but he could not be held in law, as far as the Middlesex Trust is concerned, for his signature as the Harbor Trust, could he?

Mr. BURTON—Well, the obligation finally comes, Councilor Moriarty, on the Harbor Trust.

Coun. MORIARTY—Well, that I don't know. That is what I want to find out.

Mr. BURTON—The lease is transferred to the Harbor Trust, of which Samuel Eliot is trustee.

Coun. MORIARTY—Have they any stationery?

Mr. BURTON—Well, no, only so far as it is represented there because it has been a temporary organization until this matter could be completed.

Coun. MORIARTY—Haven't they any stationery at all?

Mr. BURTON—It is right on the letter there. It states "Harbor Trust."

Coun. MORIARTY—But I mean haven't they any stationery?

Mr. BURTON—Who, the Middlesex Trust?

Coun. MORIARTY—Either one of them.

Mr. BURTON—Well, the Middlesex Trust, no.

Coun. MORIARTY—Has the Harbor Trust?

Mr. BURTON—Yes. Here is the stationery right here (producing paper).

Coun. HEALEY—Is the precedent to the building of this two million and a half structure the execution of this lease?

Mr. BURTON—It has to be.

Coun. HEALEY—That is, you won't build the two million and a half building until you get a lease of this land?

Mr. BURTON—The bankers state that unless the building is camouflaged or removed they refuse to loan the money.

Coun. HEALEY—Who were the lawyers involved?

Mr. BURTON—Choate, Hall & Stewart.

Coun. HEALEY—They have gone through with all the preliminaries?

Mr. BURTON—Mr. Lyons and Mr. E. Mark Sullivan have handled this thing and spent a good deal of time on it, and they came to this conclusion, that that was the only thing that could be done.

Coun. MORIARTY—Was that agreement in effect, that it was going to be turned over to another trust, before this order was drawn?

Mr. BURTON—No. We had correspondence with the Law Department in which the Harbor Trust agreed that, upon the completion of this order, it would take over the lease from the Middlesex Trust provided the Council will grant the lease.

Coun. MORIARTY—How long ago was that understanding between the two trusts?

Mr. BURTON—Why, some months.

Coun. MORIARTY—What do you mean by "some months"?

Mr. BURTON—Oh, four months, probably.

Coun. MORIARTY—This order was not voted on here until August 4.

Mr. BURTON—I know, but we have been waiting on the Council for two or three months.

Coun. MORIARTY—And when did it come in?

Mr. BURTON—It came in early in July. Coun. MORIARTY—Well, then, the agreement was entered into before it came in.

Mr. BURTON—No, there was an agreement, an understanding.

Coun. MORIARTY—Well, the understanding was what?

Mr. BURTON—The Law Department had to have some understanding from the Middlesex Trust that we would do certain things if the city would grant this lease.

Coun. MORIARTY—But the Middlesex Trust never intended to do that, did they?

Mr. BURTON—No, because it was intended to transfer it to the Harbor Trust.

Coun. MORIARTY—So, so far as we are concerned, it was a camouflage.

Mr. BURTON—No.

Coun. MORIARTY—What else is it if it isn't a camouflage, if the City Council of the City of Boston was not let known to whom they were to give the lease?

Mr. BURTON—There will be no question about that at all. It states in the order who the lessees are to be.

Coun. MORIARTY—As the Harbor Trust? Mr. BURTON—Yes. They are the same gentlemen in the Harbor Trust.

Coun. MORIARTY—Well, what is the Middlesex Trust?

Mr. BURTON—It is just a transfer from an old name to a new name; in other words, an enlarged corporation has been formed.

Coun. HEALEY—Does the Middlesex Trust intend to build, or does the Harbor Trust intend to build?

Mr. BURTON—Not as the Middlesex Trust but as the Harbor Trust.

Coun. HEALEY—That is the legal entity that intends to build?

Mr. BURTON—Yes.

Coun. HEALEY—If it was left to the Middlesex Trust, they would not build?

Mr. BURTON—That goes out of existence as far as the name is concerned.

Coun. HEALEY—And the Harbor Trust, the real legal entity, is the one that intends to build, is the one that intends to lease?

Mr. BURTON—Yes. That is the way the order states, that it shall be transferred to them.

Coun. HEALEY—It might perhaps make it clearer and more explicit to the Council, Mr. Burton, if it was stated in real plain language that the Harbor Trust intends to build this two and a half million dollar building if they get the lease—make it exact, explicit language. I stated in my preliminary remarks that that is not very clear, but I am satisfied with the statement of two of those men that they intend to add two and a half million to the taxable property of the city, although the letter is not explicit.

Mr. BURTON—The letter does state that we intend to build the building if the city will grant the Harbor Trust this lease.

Coun. HEALEY—You might read it in there but it does not so state.

Mr. BURTON—We hope there won't be any further delay.

Coun. HEALEY—I am taking the stand that the Mayor will protect the interests of the City of Boston and he will go through with the understanding that the lease will not be given until they make that agreement.

Mr. BURTON—Certainly. We expect to have the building ready next July.

Coun. HEALEY—You intend to build the building?

Mr. BURTON—That is the only one we want.

Chairman WATSON—Is that the understanding of the Law Department?

Mr. BURTON—Yes.

Coun. HEALEY—Will that be specified in the lease?

Mr. BURTON—Yes.

Coun. DONOGHUE—What is the idea of changing these names, Mr. Burton, from the Middlesex Trust to the Harbor Trust?

Mr. BURTON—Well, it is just an old corporation that is selling out to a new, so the old stockholders remain except one or two.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Couldn't they do that after this proposition has gone through rather than before this particular time so as not to confuse this entire proposition?

Mr. BURTON—Well, it could be done but it means a matter of delay, and the thing has to be all made up new again from a legal standpoint.

Coun. DONOGHUE—How much delay is there to changing the name from Middlesex Trust to Harbor Trust, or vice versa?

Mr. BURTON—It is the formation of a new legal trust. The old trust would be empowered to carry on the work of the new.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Isn't the old trust in existence now—the Middlesex Trust?

Mr. BURTON—Yes; but only so far as it has ability to carry on this land, not to build.

Coun. HEALEY—It is quite the ordinary thing in Boston, isn't it, that when they build a two or three million dollar building they do form a new trust?

Mr. BURTON—Yes, a trust is formed instead of a corporation.

Coun. HEALEY—That is the usual custom? Mr. BURTON—Yes. Most of all our large buildings are held in the form of a trust.

Coun. PURCELL—In the event of this body voting against this proposition, will your trust go right on and build just the same?

Mr. BURTON—We can't get the money unless the city grants the lease. That is a condition the bankers lay down.

Coun. PURCELL—What is the reason you can't get the money if the city does not grant the lease?

Mr. BURTON—Because of the great objection there to the dump, that we could not, as private individuals, go on the city's property and improve it to the extent that would be acceptable.

Coun. PURCELL—You mean on account of dumping garbage and ashes?

Mr. BURTON—It is a nuisance—and the odor.

Coun. PURCELL—This building is going to have windows adjacent to this dump?

Mr. BURTON—Yes; but what we are going to do there, we are going to build a two or three story building—

Coun. PURCELL—I did not ask you that question.

Mr. BURTON—I just want to explain.

Coun. PURCELL—I say, in this large building you are going to build, you will have windows facing on the City of Boston dump, won't you?

Mr. BURTON—Yes.

Coun. PURCELL—That leaves it so that you have light and air?

Mr. BURTON—Yes.

Coun. PURCELL—And it means if the City of Boston should want to build there it could not build?

Mr. BURTON—Yes; whenever the lease of this Coleman Development Company is canceled our lease is canceled.

Coun. PURCELL—What you are after is to get light and air on that side?

Mr. BURTON—Not particularly that. It is more to do away with the nuisance of the place.

Coun. PURCELL—On the plans are there windows on that side?

Mr. BURTON—Oh, yes; certainly.

Coun. PURCELL—There is no way of building a blank wall up there and allowing somebody else to build on the other side?

Mr. BURTON—I don't know.

Coun. PURCELL—That is the idea of your trust: to get the lease of this land so that nothing can be built up against your building?

Mr. BURTON—That is not the objection the bankers have to it.

Coun. PURCELL—What is the objection?

Mr. BURTON—It is because of the nuisance of the dump itself, that is, the smell of the swill, which is very strong, and the ashes and dirt flying all over the place.

Coun. PURCELL—But still they are going to build there?

Mr. BURTON—Yes.

Chairman WATSON—Mr. Burton, will you answer Mr. Purcell's question yes or no, please.

Coun. PURCELL—In the building of this building you are to have windows facing on the dump, aren't you?

Mr. BURTON—Yes.

Coun. PURCELL—Why can't a plain wall be built there and leave that land as it is?

Mr. BURTON—It could be.

Coun. PURCELL—Why can't it be done?

Mr. BURTON—Well, the designers of the building—

Coun. PURCELL—You wouldn't get the smell then of the garbage.

Mr. BURTON—Yes, I guess you would. You would get it for a couple of blocks away.

Coun. PURCELL—Mr. Chairman, I do not approve of the granting of the lease to those people. I think there is a deal on.

Chairman WATSON—Is there any further question of Mr. Burton?

Coun. HEALEY—How long have you been in conference with the Mayor on this particular matter, Mr. Burton?

Mr. BURTON—Well, I have not been in conference with the Mayor particularly. We have been with the Law Department for the last year.

Coun. HEALEY—Has the Mayor given his sanction to this lease?

Mr. BURTON—He has approved of it.

Coun. HEALEY—He has approved of it? Mr. BURTON—So I understand from his communication to the Council.

Coun. HEALEY—Well, I do not know whether that communication reads that the Mayor has approved of it, although I do not suppose that he would be so simple as to send in a communication for a lease—

Mr. BURTON—He recommends its passage.

Chairman WATSON—Mr. Burton is excused, with the thanks of the Council. The question comes on the passage of No. 2 on the calendar.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. Chairman, I am going to make the request that we lay it on the table and send for the Law Department and have them here a week from today.

Coun. PURCELL—I second that motion, Mr. Chairman.

The question being put, the Chair stated it was in doubt and asked for a showing of hands. Five hands were raised in the affirmative, and none in the negative, and the motion to lay on the table was declared passed.

RENTING LOCATIONS TO TAXI COMPANIES.

Coun. MORIARTY offered an order—That his Honor the Mayor be requested to petition the Legislature to take the necessary measures to prevent the owners of property in the City of Boston from renting or leasing locations in the streets of the city to taxicab owners or drivers.

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. President, I move suspension of the rules. I am not going to take much time to talk on this order. I realize that some of the members here are in a hurry to get away, but I have had brought to my notice at the hearing on the widening of Tremont street that one of the opponents to that widening came here and testified that he received $75 per month for leasing part of Tremont street to the Checker Taxicab Company for a stand for three taxicabs. That is the evidence we have before us. I know that every hotel in Boston of any consequence has asked for bids from all of the taxicab companies, and the highest bidder is given that stand. When the assessors go out and assess property, they assess the building that is on the land and owned by the owner. They do not assess the income from any of those buildings particularly the income from our public streets.

But this is the boomerang. The so-called Chamber of Commerce, which has just erected a building at the corner of Franklin and Federal streets, has also sent out a notice to all the taxicab companies, asking for bids for taxicab stands on Franklin and Federal streets. They are going to sell the streets of Boston for private gain, and they are going to sell to the highest bidder.

Now we, who are citizens of the Commonwealth and, by choice, of Boston, if we are fortunate enough to own a machine, are not allowed to even park our own cars in front of our houses because the police will tag them. I have not only been tagged in front of my own house, but I had a sergeant and a patrolman come into my house asking me what times I parked in front of my own home. But, nevertheless, the Chamber of Commerce, 95 per cent of whose members live out of Boston, are coming in here and selling the streets of Boston to the highest bidder. I feel that that is also true of the proprietors of our hotels in Boston that the big percentage of them are not residents of the City of Boston.

But what can you do? The political leader in Boston the treasurer—not the treasurer—strike that out, please—the attorney for the Checker Taxicab Company—

Chairman WATSON—Will the councilor kindly name the gentleman for the information of the Chair?

Coun. MORIARTY—Mr. Innes.

Chairman WATSON—Charles H. Innes?

Coun. MORIARTY—Charles H. Innes.

Chairman WATSON—The Republican leader?

Coun. MORIARTY—The Republican leader of the City of Boston is the attorney for the Checker Taxicab Company, and any stand that he wants from the Republican police commissioner he gets. So it is about time that we, as citizens of the City of Boston got some of the rights that belong to us. I have driven one taxicab stand from our streets—the one at the corner of Washington and Summer streets.

Chairman WATSON—Will the councilor suspend for a moment. Will someone kindly see if my car is tagged. Go on, councilor.

Coun. MORIARTY—But my great thought was to bring out to the public that it is bad enough for individual property owners to be getting revenue from such practice, but when the Chamber of Commerce does it—! This is the answer. Of course, the man did not have the right to speak for the Chamber of Commerce, but an attorney who is connected with both the Good Government Association and the Chamber of Commerce I happened to meet the other day—

Chairman WATSON—Will the gentleman kindly mention the attorney's name for the benefit of the Chair?

Coun. MORIARTY—I am going to say this,—that I am not a candidate for office at this time, and I am not giving any of the candidates thunder to go out and use. I happened to meet him. I told him what information I had about the Chamber sending out bids to all the taxicab companies, and he said, "Why not the Chamber? Everybody is doing it." I thought it was a fine answer. I said to him, "Well, I believe that I have at least one member of the Chamber right at last—that instead of being a leading organization for the benefit of the city they are following somebody else."

Chairman WATSON—The Chair would like to ask Councilman Moriarty if he would like to help the chairman in his campaign by giving him the name?

Coun. MORIARTY—Do you want me to tell it in public?

Chairman WATSON—Yes; yes, sir.

Coun. MORIARTY—I will say that the name of the attorney that I met was Mr. "Abe" Pinanski, who was the man that, when I was a candidate for office, sat in the rooms of the Good Government Association quizzing me on what I would do if I received their endorsement and was elected. And I would say that the same gentleman, during the building trades strike in Boston a few years ago, was the attorney at the Chamber of Commerce investigation, on which they never made a final report, and the said "Abe" Pinanski is also on the pay roll of the Boston Elevated Railroad.

So I want to say that I am absolutely sincere in asking the Mayor to promote legislation to make it possible to forbid the owners of buildings within the area of the City of Boston to sell or lease, by act or deed, the public streets of Boston. The Good Government Association and those in control of it have stolen about everything else that we have in Boston and are now going to steal our streets, and the Chamber, which follows in the footsteps of the Good Government Association is not following in its footsteps, is doing something, in my estimation, which is not stealing, but highway robbery. I am actually surprised that the Chamber of Commerce, which has in it, as they say, the brains of all our big business—and this is part of their big business—does not allow the common people of the city to have what rightfully belongs to them. They have taken everything else, and now they are going to take our highways, or have taken them. And I suppose that by the time I have introduced the order they have received the bids, and it may be that because I have made this statement the bids will never be delivered to any taxicab company, and, if they are not, I shall have accomplished more for traffic regulations that the committee of the Chamber of Commerce which has been meeting for years and taking up traffic conditions in our congested city. But little do they think of traffic congestion when the almighty dollar hangs up in front of them and they get an opportunity to take it, and I say this, that I hope that the members of the Council, although they may not agree with all I have said, will agree that my order in so far as the taking of the streets is concerned may go through, asking the Mayor to draw a law which may be presented to the incoming Legislature.

The question came on suspension of the rules and passage of the order, and the order was passed.

LOAN ORDERS IN EFFECT.

The following were received:

City of Boston,

Office of the City Clerk, September 6, 1924.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—You are hereby notified that, under the provisions of section 2 of chapter 486 of the Acts of 1909, the loan order of $1,200,000 for the widening of Kneeland street, filed with the City Clerk on July 7, 1924, not having been rejected or withdrawn within sixty days after said date was in force on September 6, 1924, as if adopted by the City Council.

Respectfully,

JAMES DONOVAN, City Clerk.

Placed on file.

City of Boston,

Office of the City Clerk, September 6, 1924.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—You are hereby notified that, under the provisions of section 2 of chapter 486 of the Acts of 1909, the loan order of $1,200,000 for the widening of Tremont street, filed with the City Clerk on July 7, 1924, not having been rejected or withdrawn within sixty days after said date, was in force on September 6, 1924, as if adopted by the City Council.

Respectfully,

JAMES DONOVAN, City Clerk.

Placed on file.

Coun. MORIARTY moved that the Council adjourn to 2 p. m., Tuesday, September 9, 1924.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Mr. Chairman?

Chairman WATSON—A motion to adjourn is not debatable.

Coun. MORIARTY—I withdraw my motion, Mr. Chairman.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Mr. Chairman, I rise to a point of information. I just heard the communication read relative to the acceptance of the act concerning Kneeland street, and I ask, as a point of information, how it is that this act becomes law without any action having been taken on the matter—I think that is the statement which has been read—when action was taken on this matter previous to September 5th, and, by the votes of this Council, the matter was defeated and only today reconsidered. The previous action of this—

Chairman WATSON—For the benefit of the gentleman the Chair will state that he knows nothing about the matter but, if you consult the City Clerk after adjournment, he will furnish you with full information.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Well, Mr. Chairman, I believe that I ought to get the information on this proposition now.

Chairman WATSON—The Chair is unable to give it to the gentlemen. The only party who knows about it is the City Clerk.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Well, Mr. Chairman, I move reconsideration of the placing on file of that order.

Chairman WATSON—Councilor Donoghue moves reconsideration of the motion whereas the communication was placed on file. Those in favor of reconsideration will say "Aye," those opposed "No," and it is a vote.

At this point Coun. Watson relinquished the Chair to Coun. Moriarty.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Mr. Chairman, I again rise to a point of information. I appreciate the vote of the Council in reconsidering the action of placing this communication on file. Now I ask, What is the status of this particular matter? It seems rather peculiar to me that this action, which is taken on Monday, September 8th, of reconsideration automatically wipes out the action of the Council taken more than two weeks ago whereby this order was defeated, and this action that was taken today, on September 8th, took place three days after the expiration of the sixty days which was required to have this order become law without any action having been taken by the Council in the meantime.

My contention is that action was taken by the Council, and that this order was defeated, and that no action taken on this matter, on September 8th, can obviate the action which was taken more than two weeks ago, my point being that this action of ours on reconsideration today was taken three days after the time had expired, or the sixty days had expired. I cannot quite see how this reconsideration order today can automatically make that bill law. I had the impression that when this matter was reconsidered today it then would be given another reading by this Council and, if it received the necessary six votes, it would become law, but to have it become law through a reconsideration of business which was transacted more than two weeks ago, and in view of the fact that the sixty-day limit had expired three days ago, I cannot quite see how any action on September 8th is going to make that other action retroactive, and I would like to have it explained to me.

Chairman MORIARTY—I feel that the only thing that can be said to the councilor is that if the councilor desires to get any information he may receive that information by getting in touch with the City Clerk's office. He can get that information there.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Mr. Chairman, of course I appreciate that the City Clerk thinks that he is right in this matter, otherwise he would not put the notice in here; and I also appreciate that, if this order had become final today through that reconsideration, there isn't anything that I might be able to do that would wipe out that action, and while I oppose the proposition of the widening of Kneeland street and the widening of Tremont street, and while the widening of Tremont street was finally passed by holding the matter on the table, and while this one now is probably passed by holding the matter on the table, I personally do not think that it is very good law to issue bonds on either of these streets under these conditions. I think there is a serious question as to whether or not bonds issued in connection with the Kneeland street widening would be legal on account of this action; and I now ask, or I will move reconsideration of the action whereby this Council voted to reconsider their previous action.

Chairman MORIARTY—I will have to declare the motion out of order. One motion already reconsidered cannot be reconsidered on a second occasion.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Well, Mr. Chairman, my motion, or the motion, as I understand it, for reconsideration which previously prevailed was to reconsider the vote of August 25th whereby this Council failed to pass that order for the widening of Kneeland street. I now ask, or I now move to reconsider, the reconsideration and not the order.

Chairman MORIARTY—That motion has been reconsidered once and cannot be reconsidered now for the second time.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Well, Mr. President, as I understand it, the order which has been reconsidered was the order to appropriate $1,200,000 for the widening of Kneeland street, and we voted to reconsider our action on that particular matter. Your ruling is that I cannot move reconsideration of that matter again. I will ask if I can move, and be in order, that our action relative to this matter be rescinded, and that the matter be stricken from the records.

Chairman MORIARTY—I can say that that motion would be in order—

Coun. DONOGHUE—I will so move, Mr. Chairman.

Chairman MORIARTY—provided there is a quorum present to act upon it.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Mr. Chairman, the Chair has ruled that the motion to rescind is in order. The Council is in session; a quorum was present when the Council proceeded to the order of business today; and in view of the fact that the Council has not adjourned I think that the matter should be considered at this time, whether or not a quorum of members of this Council is present, and that the matter can be acted on and either passed or rejected by a majority of those now present.

Chairman MORIARTY—The presiding officer always has the right to determine whether or not a quorum is present, and, either fortunately or unfortunately, I am presiding, and I will decide that there does not appear to be a quorum, and that the meeting will now stand adjourned if the City Messenger cannot bring a quorum together. I will ask the City Messenger to see if he can round up a quorum.

The City Messenger, having left the room, returned and made the statement that no more members could be found.

Chairman MORIARTY—The Clerk will call the roll.

The Clerk called the roll, with the following result:

Present—Coun. Donoghue, Lane, Moriarty, Walsh—1.

Absent—Coun. Brickley, Gilbody, Healey, Purcell, Watson—5.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Mr. Chairman, I appreciate that this is probably the most unusual procedure I have seen since I have been in this Council, and I want to make myself clear on the proposition.

I am willing to abide by the vote of the majority of the members of this Council, and they voted that these appropriations should be passed over my protest; but I believe that when we do these things we should do them right, and we should do them legally, and I am of the opinion that there would be serious question, if anyone is sufficiently interested to object, on the issuing of bonds for this particular proposition—the widening of Kneeland street. I know that there is a sufficient number of votes with a full membership of this Council here to pass this order. I think it is rather unusual to have a quorum called, to see whether or not a quorum of the Council is present. I have never seen it done before, and it is done in this particular matter. Possibly, I might be accused of taking advantage of this situation with members of the Council not in their seats, but I have no such intention. At the same time, I do not like to relinquish my own rights and privileges as a member of this Council because of the fact that there is not a quorum present, and I suppose I am out of order now in talking when there is not a quorum present.

I would suggest that in view of the fact that we have not a quorum here and that the Council has agreed to meet tomorrow, the Council now take a recess until tomorrow, and, tomorrow, finally act upon this proposition. In the meantime I would be glad to consult with the City Clerk relative to the law in connection with this, and, if he can convince me that I am wrong on this proposition, then I will subside and make no further protest; but I do want to say that I do not believe that this Council now, with no quorum present, had the right to accept some of the legislation which they have accepted this afternoon, and if the no-quorum proposition is going to be laid against my door on this matter, then of course it may also be considered in connection with other matters upon which we have acted today. Once we have a quorum in this Council Chamber, until the Council adjourns I have never seen a case where a quorum had to be called again. This is the first time. I suppose that in many cases if a quorum were called, or a roll call was had, a great deal of the legislation which has been passed here was passed without a quorum being present. I think that it is rather going a long way to prevent action on this matter relative to my motion to rescind. However, I appreciate that the Chair wants to be fair in this matter, and I do not want to embarrass him, and I would suggest that we take a recess until tomorrow.

Chairman MORIARTY—I want to say, in consideration of the ruling, that I do not think that I have taken any of the rights of the councilor who has just taken his seat (Coun. Donoghue). He has the same right to file with the City Clerk a motion for reconsideration of any action taken today, to be brought up and voted upon at our next regular meeting, which is provided specifically in the charter, which was done after our meeting two weeks ago today by a member who was in the minority (Coun. Watson). He filed his notice of reconsideration, and reconsideration was acted upon today and the measure carried by a two-thirds vote. Of course, sharp practice may be played at any time, whether it be played by me or any other member of the Council. It was positively stated here that, if a full membership of the Council was present during the voting upon either Kneeland street or Tremont street, it would have been passed, and, as far as my judgment is concerned, that was understood by the members who voted against it. I believe they had the right to vote against it, and I believe they were honest in voting against it, but I believe that the minority think that if a full membership was present it would have passed. It may have been sharp practice to have kept it upon the table. Of course, there was a change on Kneeland street, and it was taken from the table and defeated by a vote of 4 to 3, if my memory serves me rightly. I am only assuming that which I am rightly entitled to assume as the presiding officer, and, either fortunately or unfortunately at the time, the presiding officer always has the right, and I believe a right that any member of the Council has. I do not think that the citizens of Boston feel that a minority of the membership in the Council should do the business. I believe they are satisfied and dissatisfied when the majority, let alone the minority, does it. I do not think that I am taking one bit away from any member. Any member has the right to serve notice inside of a certain time with the City Clerk that he desires reconsideration.

Coun. DONOGHUE—Well, Mr. Chairman, on this matter you have already ruled that I have not that right.

Chairman MORIARTY—I agree with you. I will say that I have made a mistake as far as that is concerned. But I will also say this,—that I believe it becomes a question of law now, not a question of fact. I know that the Corporation Counsel has made the decision, in so far as the action on Kneeland street is concerned, that final action on the Kneeland street project was not completed while there was pending a request for reconsideration; and I believe, notwithstanding that they have placed the communication on file, that the councilor will have ample opportunity to take from the file at the next meeting the communication, bringing it up before the meeting and requesting information of those who have it as to why a communication of that kind was sent here perhaps by sending for the Law Department. If the bonds, as the member has said, are issued technically wrongly, that is not any worry of anybody but the fellow who buys them, and the man who buys them ought at least to protect himself by looking into them and seeing that they are lawfully issued bonds, and, if not, then he would have redress against the City of Boston.

I say I think that the member has not had any of his rights taken away and will be in as good position a week from today as he is today, although I know that, were a vote taken of the four members now here, even his motion to rescind would be defeated, and he would be left in the same position. Even if the inquiry as to a quorum was not raised, he would be in the same position a week from today, or two weeks from today, or at whatever time the Council adjourns to tomorrow, to bring the matter up. He always has the right to ask that a communication on file be brought to the meeting. Does the member (Coun. Donoghue) move recess until tomorrow?

Coun. DONOGHUE—In view of the fact that the roll has been called, Mr. Chairman, and there is no quorum present, automatically the Council stands adjourned.

Chairman MORIARTY declared the Council adjourned, at 4.50 p. m., to meet on Tuesday, September 9, 1924, at two o'clock p. m.

Tuesday, September 9, 1924.

Regular meeting of the City Council, held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at two o'clock p. m., President DONOGHUE in the chair.

Absent—Coun. Gilbody, Purcell and Watson. The President called up the following, viz.:

Ordered, That to provide temporarily money to meet the appropriations for the financial year 1924-25, the City Treasurer issue and sell, at such times and in such amounts as he may deem best, notes or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston not exceeding four million dollars in addition to the amount heretofore authorized, in anticipation of the revenue of the current municipal year; that all such notes or certificates of indebtedness be dated the day the money for the same is received, be made payable with the interest thereon within one year of their date from the revenue of the year 1924, and bear interest from their date until the same are made payable at such rate as the City Auditor, the City Treasurer and the Mayor may determine.

On August 26, 1924, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 6, nays 0.

The order was given its final reading and passed, yeas 6, nays 0.

GENERAL RECONSIDERATION.

Coun. WALSH moved a general reconsideration on all business transacted at the meeting, hoping that the same would not prevail. Lost.

Adjourned at 5.25 o'clock p. m., on motion of Coun. WALSH, to meet on Monday, September 22, at two o'clock p. m.

PROCEEDINGS OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

Sept. 15, 1924.

A regular meeting of the School Committee of the City of Boston was held in the Administration Building, 15 Beacon Street, at 5.34 o'clock P. M., the Chairman presiding.

Present: Dr. Bogan, Miss Curtis, Messrs. O'Hare, Scannell and Sullivan.

AMENDMENT AND APPROVAL OF MINUTES.

On motion, the minutes of previous meetings were amended as follows:

June 23, 1924, on page 138, order number two of the salary schedule, by striking out the word "Manual" in the fifteenth line, and substituting in place thereof the word "Mechanic"—so that the item will read as follows:

Instructors in Mechanic Arts and Co-operative Instructors. $3.00

July 14, 1924, on page 147, to provide that the appointment from the eligible list of Ralph F. Morrison, as shop foreman in the Boston Trade School, shall read "third year."

Aug. 22, 1924, on page 169, to provide that the rate of compensation for the service of John P. Degnan as substitute assistant, Dorchester Summer Review School, shall read three dollars ($3.00) instead of "three dollars fifty cents ($3.50)" per day.

The reading of the minutes of the last meeting was omitted, the Board approving them as printed.

APPOINTMENTS OF TEACHERS.

The Chairman stated the question was on approving the appointments of teachers, as reported by the Superintendent and laid over at the last meeting.

The appointments were approved.

DEATH.

The Superintendent reported the death of the following-named teacher: Roger Wolcott District—Eleanor M. Raferty, assistant, July 21, 1924. Placed on file.

RESIGNATIONS.

The following resignations reported by the Superintendent, to take effect on the dates stated were presented:
